Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

As regular readers of this column know, I tend to look at the world through glasses that may be just a trifle "skewed" or bent.

But, I wish to place this little scene before you and see if it is my perception that is crooked here...or if it is yet again one of those little episodes of modern life that simply don't make good sense.

As those who read last week's column know, Thomas and I ended up spending a day in New York City unexpectedly. Having missed a connecting flight, we spent the night in a motel near the airport, courtesy of the airline that caused us to miss that flight.

We checked in, voucher in hand, and stood in a long line of other stranded travelers, also armed with vouchers from airlines. When it came our turn, Thomas specified a non-smoking room, and that's exactly what we got.

We travelled up in the elevator, where there were signs prohibiting smoking. We entered our room, which smelled smoke-free.

It wasn't until after we had bathed and changed clothes that we settled down in chairs to look out at New York and Thomas availed himself of the remote control on the television that we noticed something a little strange.

There between us on a little table was an ashtray. And, emblazoned on this ashtray in big, bold letters were the words "Thank You For Not Smoking!" I repeat, in case you missed it the first time...this ASHTRAY bore the words "Thank You For Not Smoking", accompanied by the little red circle with the slash through it!

Again, I ask the question...is it just me, or is there something a little bit "off" about this? Just one more of life's little inconsistencies, I suppose.

Letters to The Editor

Letter to the Editor:
After reading the notice in last week's paper about the vandalism on the Bogata School Campus, my first reaction was anger. I cannot understand why anyone would destroy public property for the sake of fun, excitement, or even retaliation toward a specific person or persons. There isn't even any notoriety in an act of this type unless one gets caught, and no one with good sense wants to get caught breaking the law.

Working at the Bogata School I saw first-hand the excitement and pride our younger children had when they planted the trees on Earth Day. I am outside during recesses with these same children and I did not see one instance in which one of them so much as touched a leaf on the new trees (two of the trees were planted very near the swings and see-saws). They wanted these trees to live and grow up.

My next reaction was hurt. My heart is hurting for the children who will not see their new trees growing when they return to the playground in August. Sure, adults may replant the trees, but it will not be the same for the children because they will not be the trees they planted in April. A destructive act of this type doesn't hurt just one person or group, it touches a whole community.

My last reaction is sadness. I feel sad for the ones who performed the vandalism. I'm sad because they aren't doing something positive in this community, and sad because they obviously don't feel any pride for the school system that is working so hard to teach and prepare them for the "real world." I also feel sad for society because we have to bear the burden of the actions of those persons who seemingly have no respect for anything, or anyone, not even themselves.

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

Nina Gentry of Sugar Hill is this week's featured cook in the Country Cooking column.

She is a life-time resident of Sugar Hill. She has three children, Kenneth Gentry, who is deceased; Bobby Ray Gentry of Mt. Pleasant; and Zonetta Gentry Hawkins of Talco. She has 11 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Her hobbies include cooking, fishing and gardening. Nina has always been an active member in all the community functions.

Affectionately nick-named "Mama" by her grandchildren and friends, Mrs. Gentry has sent some very delicious and easy to make recipes for us this week.

Red Eye Gravy, a favorite with just about every one, is the first of her family's favorite dishes.

Thanks to Mrs. Gentry for sharing the recipes with us.

June 16, 1994

MamMa's Red Eye Gravy

Redeye Gravy is made from the drippings left in the skillet after a piece of ham has been fried. Use a spoon to loosen any meat bits that are stuck to the pan, add a fair amount of strong black coffee, at least a cup, depending of course on the quantity of drippings. Bring to a boil and simmer for a while, stirring occasionally. When gravy looks about right, pour it over the ham.

Squash Casserole
3-4 yellow squash
1 chopped onion
1 beaten egg
1 can Cream of Mushroom soup
1 1/2 cups cracker crumbs
salt and pepper to taste
1/2 stick margarine
cheese

Cook squash and onions until tender. Add egg, mushroom soup and margarine, salt and pepper, cook in oven in casserole dish for about 45 minutes at 325. Top with cheese when done. Put back into oven-melted cheese.

Zucchini Bread
3 cups flour
2 tsp. soda
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
3/4 cup chopped pecans
3 eggs
3 cups sugar
1 cup vegetable oil
2 tsp. vanilla
2 cups shredded zucchini
1 cup (8 oz.) crushed pineapple
Combine flour, soda, salt, baking powder and cinnamon and nuts. Put aside. Beat eggs and sugar, oil and vanilla. Stir in zucchini squash and pineapple. Add dry ingredients. Bake in loaf pan (greased) at 350 for 1 hour.

Pineapple Cake
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 cup buttermilk
1 stick margarine
2 cups flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. soda
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla

Sift dry ingredients all together; add milk. Pour into well greased flour pans. Stack pans or sheath pan. Bake at 350.

Pineapple Filling
2 cups sugar
1/4 cup milk
1 can of crushed pineapple
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 stick butter/margarine
2 tbs. cake batter

Cook until thick, slowly stir constantly. Spread over cake.
Lemon Chess Pie
2 cups sugar
1 tbs. flour
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tbs. corn meal
1/4 cup butter/margarine
1/4 cup lemon juice
grated rind of 2 lemons
1/4 cup milk
4 eggs

Combine sugar, flour, salt and meal. Add butter, lemon juice, lemon rind and milk. Mix well. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake at 350 for 50 minutes.

Success Comes To Dyslexic Student

Gary Paul Oney, formerly of Bogata, and his wife, the former Margie Socia of Jacksonville, Texas, moved last week to the College Station area.

Gary is the son of Sarah Fleming of Bogata and Karl Oney of Carthage. Margie completed her degree in special education at the University of Texas at Tyler where they lived for several years. Margie taught special education at Jacksonville for two years. She got a teaching position at College Station where they have year-round school.

At Bogata Elementary and Junior High Schools, Gary was a special education student with dyslexia. He attended high school at Carthage where he earned much of his credit by working at jobs away from school. As soon as he graduated, he started attending Jacksonville Baptist College since he had been very active in the Baptist Church at Carthage. The Jacksonville church helped and encouraged him to attend college.

Once Gary and Margie were married, they decided he would work full-time while she finished school, and then she would work full-time while he finished school. He was inspired with Margie's relentless study habits and determination.

Gary went to Tyler Junior College for two years where he won several awards as an outstanding student, and the most outstanding engineering student at the college, especially in calculus and physics. He was invited to Phi Beta Kappa. This spring he was accepted at Texas A&M University, where his mother was also a student. He will begin his classes there in the fall.

Bogata Rodeo Set For June 23-24-25

The traditional downtown Rodeo Parade on Thursday, June 23 at 6:00 p.m. will officially begin rodeo activities in Bogata, Texas.

Following the parade on Thursday evening at 8:30 p.m., the first of three action-packed rodeo performances will be held at the Bogata Rodeo Arena.

The rodeo is produced by Bogata's own Wing Rodeo Company, owned and operated by Jerald and Joan Smith.

Added attractions at the rodeo on Thursday night will be a Scoop Race and the Wild Cow Milking Contest. The Wild Cow Milking pits six wild cows and 18 cowboys all in the arena together, at one time, trying to get enough milk to prove to the judge that they were successful. This event does get western! The reigning 1993 champions in the Wild Cow Milking are the Donnie Smith team from Bogata.

The Scoop Race will find cowboys riding in a corn scoop on the end of a 45' lariat rope, being pulled at breakneck speed by their partner on the fastest horse they can find. This event is a crowd pleaser, for sure.

The championship rodeo, which is co-sanctioned by the Cowboys Regional Rodeo Association, will feature the seven championship events, with $400.00 per event, total $2,800.00, being added into the prize money by the Bogata Rodeo Association, hosts of the annual rodeo.

Last year's rodeo played host to 283 cowboys and cowgirls from a five state area and paid out in excess of $16,000.00 in prize money to the winning contestants.

Event winners from the 1993 rodeo are: Bareback Riding, Scot Mitchell, Lake Creek, TX; Saddle Bronc Riding, David Warren, Bogata, TX; Bull Riding, Wade Cline, Omaha, TX and Jackie Gibbs, Ivanhoe, TX (split); Calf Roping, Rusty Young, Arlington, TN; Steer Wrestling, Gary Dowling, Eufaula, OK; Team Roping, Chip Hamilton and Jeff Lashley, Vian, OK; Cowgirls Barrel Racing, Suzette Oberste, Clarksville, AR.

Princess candidates, age 4 to 10 years old, will be vying for buckles, crowns and trophies. The Princess contest is being sponsored by the Bogata Rodeo Association and Guaranty Bank-Bogata. The contestants will not be required to ride a horse, as they will be judged on ticket sales, appearance and personality.

On Saturday, June 25, the Frontier Day activities will be held in downtown Bogata all day long. A schedule of events will be published when it is made available.

Saturday evening will wind down the 1994 activities, with the Rodeo Parade at 6:00 p.m., followed by the final performance of the rodeo at 8:30 p.m.

Everyone is invited to come to Bogata during Frontier Days and Rodeo Week. There is something for everyone, from good food to craft booths and exciting championship rodeo performances.

Chain Ring Tour Invades Area

On Wednesday, June 8, approximately 190 bicyclers from across the United States and several foreign countries invaded Bogata and Detroit and other parts of Red River County, during their Chain Ring bicycle tour that took them from Austin and throughout points in East Texas. The bicyclers stopped in Bogata early that morning to replenish their water supplies or to have a cup of coffee at a stop provided by the Bogata Lions Club. Lions helping with the stop-over were John Ragsdill, Coy Coker, Jack Dodd, David Rozell, Mildred Eudy, Neil Rozell and Mary Colflesh.

Melba's Restaurant and Wood Funeral Home aided the Lions Club with the stop, as well as Texas-New Mexico Power Company, who loaned the group a generator.

When the group left Bogata, they were headed north, up through Detroit, on to the Red River, and back to Clarksville for the evening meal.

The bicyclers rated the Bogata stop a 4-Star rating and everyone was very appreciative.

Bogata Baseball Softball Association To Have Fish Fry

The Bogata Baseball Softball Association will be having a Fish Fry, Barbeque with trimmings, Bake Sale and Car Wash.

On Saturday, June 18th, at the First Baptist Church in Bogata, from 1:00 - 7:00 p.m. a fish cooker will be demonstrated, donated by Curtis Young. It will be given away on Frontier Day, June 25th. Chances can be purchased for $1.00 until that date.

The Association is trying to raise money to pay off this season's bill and start on projects for next season. One project will be to get the fence moved back so the older boys can play there instead of having to drive all the way to Paris just to play ball.

Everyone is invited to come out, eat with the community, and have your car washed. Your support is needed. Let's get these boys back at home and keep them playing ball.

Cost for the dinner: $5.00 for adult; $4.00 for children under 12 years of age.

Thanks go to Mr. & Mrs. Joe Ford, and Mr. & Mrs. Travis Hall for their donations. Anyone wishing to make a donation, please contact June Young at 632-4863.

For carry-out orders, call First Baptist Church at 632-5218.

Happy 40th Birthday !

All through the ages across your life's stages and even before you were born, I loved you then and I loved you when you shaped a rose from this thorn.

I was finishing school by breaking the rules and graduating young. While far from that stage on that very day a baby girl was born.

Now I see in your eyes the look of that child who grew up to be my wife. But there's no need to fear these "older" years, for I'm here by your side.

So, Vicki, today on this, your birthday, now that you're thirty and ten, I want you to know that I love you so and wish I had known you "back then."

Your Husband,

Vacation In Ireland, A Beautiful Experience

By Nanalee Nichols
Here we go, again, with our vacation articles. I always feel rather strange since I know many people take longer and more "exotic" vacations. But, so many people keep asking when we're going to take a trip so that they can "go too" that I will give it a shot. If it isn't interesting, all you need to do is pass it over.

Well, after a short vacation last year, we decided to head for Ireland. As you may have read in my column last week, we wound up spending a whole day in New York City before we finally, once more, caught up with our tour.

If there is one word that describes New York City it is "alive" for it is a city full of masses of people from all races, all walks of life and all financial situations. We took a tour with a guide named Fran, and just the two of us, and it was an eyeopening experience. What impressed us the most? The Statue of Liberty, when approached by boat is a beautiful sight. Ellis Island, with its restored buildings, is now beautiful too, but it made us stop and think for a long, long time as to just how terrifying it must have been for the thousands who arrived from various places to be unloaded, tagged, sorted and processed through this immigration center.

Think about what it would have been like for most of them, after a horrendous sea voyage, to land with all their belongings in a single case or tied in a cloth, almost no money and not speaking a word of the language!

We saw Times Square, Central Park, Rockefeller Plaza, the Empire State Building, Chrysler building, the bridges such as the Brooklyn Bridge, Williamsburg Bridge and more. We went through Queens, Manhattan, parts of Brooklyn and generally had a five hour tour of this huge city.

At the end of this tour, I confess we were happy to have seen so many things...and happy to be leaving. There is simply too much population to make me at ease there, and we just prefer smaller places.

At long last we were in Ireland, though, and so glad to be there.

What can one say about Ireland? I can wax lyrical at the beautiful countryside, the glorious mountains, the quaint cottages (and, indeed I shall do so in the course of these articles) but, first and foremost I will always remember the people of Ireland. We have, from Egypt to Canada, from the U.S. to Italy, come across many warm and wonderful people. But never have we been met with so many smiles, so many friendly, helpful gestures and so much interested attention.

Driving down country lanes we waved back as small children waved at us, as did their mothers who were hanging out clothes in the welcome sunshine or working in the bright flowers that grew beside their cottages.

In every village we were spoken to as we walked down the streets, welcomed into stores and questioned about how we liked their country. The Irish are so proud of their land, so happy to share it with anyone who comes to visit. They love their island passionately, and indeed, there is much to love in this beautiful land.

Our first glimpse of this country was from the taxi as we drove from the airport to Limerick. Limerick gave it's name to the "ditties" that we are all familiar with. We had a Limerick contest, and there is actually a proper form for a limerick. The first twolines rhyme, then the next two, and the fifth line rhymes with the first two.

"There once was a couple from Texas, When travelling seemed troubled with hexes, This made them quite tardy, In catching their party, They say it's just one of those hexes that vexes!"

The winning Limerick was clearly a great choice. Our tour driver was named Joe, and the limerick was dedicated to him. It read: There once was a young man named Joe,

Who thought "Where in my life should I go?"

I'll take people on tour, They'll feel really secure, And From Shannon to everywhere we'll go!"

Writing these little verses on the coach was a world of fun, broke the ice and generally made us all better friends. We travelled to Killarney from Limerick, along pleasant roads with May bushes or Hawthorne in full bloom.

That night we went to the Siamas Tire Theater. I won't attempt to explain the pronunciation of this, or any other Irish Gaelic words because there is no way I'd do it right!

But, this is their national theater, and is filled with songs and dances from earlier times. Set dances, legends, May Day and routine daily life from the past is all portrayed. The players range from smaller children to older people, but they all have something in common, beautiful voices. We could not understand word they sang, since it was all Irish, but it was entrancing.

Finally, we returned to Killarney, exhausted from our two days in transit, curled up in our bed and fell asleep before our heads hit the pillow. The next day was our "ring of Kerry" tour, and it will be filled with some of the most beautiful scenery in the entire world!
