Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

I've always maintained that it takes the smallest of things to jog our memory and send us back to the past. A smell, a sound or a sight can do it.

At the end of last week, I was given a bright metal tin of "Old Fashioned Hard Candies". I thought that was very nice, and went on about my business until later, when I took the lid off and spilled the candies out into a bowl.

And, suddenly, I was propelled back to childhood, back to my Grandmother Jeffus' living room.

The candies are of a kind I didn't even know were made any more. They feature bright, stained-glass colors. There are candies that have tiny flowers in their center, candies in glossy, metallic colored ribbons, folded upon themselves. There are squares with waffle shaped imprints and ovals and long thin sections in purples and whites, yellows and blues and greens. There are nearly translucent Christmas trees and crosses, reindeer and boots.

Each piece has a decidedly different flavor.

My grandmother kept this particular mixture of candy in a clear glass candy dish that had a glass lid with a circle of Della Robbia type fruit embossed on it. A delicate tint of red and green stained the fruits.

The dish always sat on the coffee table. In fact, it always sat on the East end of the coffee table. The coffee table was carved wood with a glass top framed by more carved wood.

I would lie on the couch (a scratchy tapestry creation that was never comfortable for sitting) on my stomach and gaze through the glass at the candies.

It took me a long time and much thinking to figure out that the candies with flowers on them must have snipped from a long roll of hot candy. The design went all the way through, and if grandmother didn't catch me playing with the little pieces of sweets I could usually match one or two of those pieces up into a solid stick.

There was always something comforting about those candies. They were always there, which appealed to a child's sense of order. When the bowl became low, it magically filled back up.

I never knew where they were purchased, I don't remember ever being with grandmother when she bought them.

But one of my favorite memories of childhood was the delicious decision of picking out which bite I wanted, and of lying there, sleepy, as the adults talked over my head, gazing into a glass dish with brightly colored candies inside.

Fittingly, the candies I received now are in the same candy dish, on my table instead of my grandmothers.

Christmas is a time for memories and hopes for the future. I hope the sights and sounds it brings can spark some pleasant recollections for you, too.
Merry Christmas.

"How Great A Matter A Little Fire Kindleth!" James III:5 The Spirit Of Christmas Still Burns

By Nanalee Nichols

We've all heard about the true meaning of Christmas. We hear it but it is easy for it to be overshadowed by the advertisements on TV and in the papers, and the frenzy of last-minute shopping.

But, at the heart of the matter is the basic fact that Christmas is not about providing children with every thing they desire...nor spending money until our bank balance is stressed. Christmas is about the birth of Jesus Christ...and the gift giving is in honor of those long-ago gifts that were given to him.

So, I'd like to dedicate this week's column to those few I know about...and the many I haven't heard about who have done things this Christmas season in the TRUE spirit of Christmas.

A special "Christmas Spirit Award" to the various school classes who have gotten together baskets for the needy, or who have visited at nursing homes to cheer the elderly or infirm.

A special award to those who have decorated their yards with lights and hours of work for the express purpose of celebrating this special time of year...not to impress someone.

"Thank you" to those harried store clerks who have said "Merry Christmas" as if they meant it instead of had to say it...and to those customers who have paused to thank a clerk for their patience or to let someone into line who had only an item or two in their basket.

Thanks to everyone who took that extra minute to address a Christmas Card to someone lonely or alone for the first time this year, even though they don't really know that person, and to those who have brought little plates of cookies and goodies to neighbors without family.

"Bless You" to those who have seen to it that people who can't make it church on their own get there. Another blessing on those who volunteer to work on Christmas Day so others with families can have the day off...or who simply have to work and don't complain.

Thanks to the children who have written in their Santa Letters for Santa to bring OTHERS something or instead of asking for material things ask for peace or family happiness.

Thanks to those who hurt inside...but make a point to remain cheerful so that they won't spoil other people's Christmas.

A very special award goes to those who are caretakers of others and at Christmas time make it a happy occasion and not "just a job".

Yet another award to those who volunteer for jobs in which they are never seen...who do so much without asking for recognition.

It is people like the above mentioned who keep the flame of the Christmas Spirit burning with a bright, pure light that simply cannot be extinguished.

Merry Christmas to all, and may the Spirit of Christmas visit you and yours this year and all years.

Mr. Max Is Still Busy At 98

by Judy Screws

Bogata resident, Max Mauldin, has been driving a car since he learned to drive in a Model T. He says he has decided to park his car, since his eyesight is not as strong as it used to be. Mr. Mauldin had already started walking many years ago when his doctor told him he must walk for his health. He had been driving when he should have been walking. He walks from his home on Highway 37 to town and just about everywhere he goes in Bogata. The only problem he has had with walking is that people were very kind and tried to give him rides when he first started walking. Most people have learned to not try and give him a lift now.

Mr. Mauldin married one of his classmates at Cuthand, Mary Alice Hunt, and they were married until she passed away in 1978. Mr. Mauldin had taken care of Mrs. Mauldin's every need in his home, until she just got so ill that he had to have help from Red River Haven Nursing Home. He said that he visited her there every day twice a day.

In 1980 he married Gladys Hobbs and she passed away in 1987.

Mr. Mauldin loves to fish. Saturday is his favorite fishing day.

Mr. Max said that when he was young, he'd just take jobs for a dollar here and a dollar there, but he decided that if he ever wanted to have anything he would have to have a full-time job. He went to work in 1924 for Mobil Oil Company. Since then, he has received a check every month from that company. He retired in 1961, but still receives the checks.

Mr. Mauldin's lawn is one of the nicest in Bogata, and he does all the work himself. He also cooks for himself. He eats lots of vegetables and no junk food.

The Mauldin's had two daughters. One of them lives in Ft. Worth and the other in Rowlette.

As with any other person who has a few years behind them, Mr. Mauldin has his health problems, but I'll swear, he doesn't look a day over 75. Wish him many more happy birthdays.

Just A Thing Or Two For Your Information

1. A lady called to tell us this week that last week end before Mrs. Mary Jo Riley's family or anyone else was called to see about her, Mae Eudy was the one who found her when she heard her calling and went to check on her. The lady who called us didn't get here until later so she wasn't ignoring Mrs. Eudy's good deed, she just wasn't aware of it. She is surely grateful to Mrs. Eudy and anyone else who helped her in her time of need.

2. Folks in Bogata have been hit by light thieves. These are the decorative Christmas lights which make so many of the houses in Bogata so beautiful this year. The people bought them to decorate their own homes. Maybe the people who stole them needed them desperately. If it was the case, there probably was not one person who was victimized who wouldn't have given the thief some lights, if they had asked. While Christmas lights were not the most valued things which could have been stolen, it means that someone has been fooling around other people's homes without their permission. What will they steal next? This is a shame and it would be nice if they could have been identified. Information would be appreciated.

SANTA'S REINDEER-The

fifth grade class at Bogata Elementary School is presenting their part of the Christmas program at the school Tuesday morning when Mrs. Neva Jean Oats' music classes performed to a full house.

FEATURED COOKS OF THE WEEK are Phebe Allen of Deport and her mother, Dora Flenniken of Bogata. They spend the day making cookies and candies to share with friends and neighbors.

Country Cooking

By Liz Irwin

Our featured cook for this week is Phebe Allen of the old Lone Oak community just outside Deport. Phebe is married to John and they farm in and around this area. They have a beautiful home that was decorated for the Christmas season. She said that they had lived in it for 6 years and have thoroughly enjoyed it. The day I visited with her, her mother, Dora Flenniken of Bogata was there. They were making Christmas cookies and candies. They try to do this every year and make a day of it. Some of the "goodies" are given as gifts to friends and neighbors. They have three children. Zachery is 17 and is a junior at Prairiland and is active in football, basketball and baseball. Dustin is 14 and is an eighth grader at Deport and he plays basketball for Deport Junior High and summer league ball. Hollie is in the fifth grade at Deport also and is involved in Little Dribblers, summer baseball and piano. They are a very active family and on the go all the time with the kid's activities either in sports or otherwise. Phebe says that they don't cook a lot because of everyone's different time schedules. Usually she is taking Hollie somewhere and has to meet John somewhere in between as he takes Dustin to his activities. She likes to paint, stencil and work in her yard during her "spare" time. They are members of the East Paris Baptist Church and John is on the PISD School Board and on the board of the Summer League in Paris and they both stay quite busy. The recipes that Phebe and her mother are sharing with us this week are Peppermint Flakes, a candy using crushed peppermint. Christmas Cookies are a fruit cookie using dates, cherries and pineapple. The Martha Washington Candy is a favorite of theirs and they also make the pretzels that are dipped in the white chocolate and the HiHo crackers with peanut butter in between that is dipped in the white chocolate. We hope you enjoy this week's recipes and take this time to wish everyone a very happy holiday and we'll see you in the kitchen!

Whitney-Marshall Exchange Wedding Vows

The marriage of Elaine Faye Whitney of Lewisville and Stephen Kyle Marshall of Marietta, GA was solemnized in a double-ring ceremony on December 4 at 3:00 p.m. at North Ridge Church of Christ in Mt. Pleasant. Bro. Jim Parker was the officiating minister.

Parents of the couple are Charles and Carol Sue Whitney of Mt. Pleasant and Frank and Mary Marshall of Daingerfield.

Vows were repeated in a candle-light setting from the arched and spiral candelabra. Accents were with white roses, orchids, red bows and clear lights, poinsettias, ferns, garlands accented with twinkling lights and tied with red bows draped the pews.

Wedding music was provided by Kristi Spann, Julie Love, Amy Hodges, Christi Cawley, Julie McAllister, Tye Kirkland, Seth Thurman, Brian Dyke, Kyle Splann, Jimmy Wade, Jerri Walker and Josh Johnson. Songs included "The Lord Bless and Keep You", "I Can't Help Falling In Love With You", "There Is Love" and "The Wedding Song".

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride's sheath designer gown was of white taffeta with an overlay of organza. The molded bodice was designed with a V'ed neckline and full melon puff sleeves with a finished fitting to the wrist. The bodice and sleeve had an overlay of Alencon lace, pearls and iridescent sequins. A crown of Alencon lace accented with tulle poufs completed the train length veil. Her cascading bridal bouquet was of roses, greenery and baby's breath.

Bridal attendants were Lisa Whitney of Pampa, maid of honor;

Stacy Genovese of Irving, Angela Sargent of Talco and Andrea Marshall of Daingerfield were bridesmaids. They were gowned in floor length red velvet dresses and carried bouquets of a white rose with greenery and baby's breath. Junior bridesmaids were Amy Kubes of Ft. Worth and Rachel Trowbridge of Aledo. Anna Reins of Mt. Pleasant served as flower girl.

The groom was accompanied by Paul Marshall of Ft. Worth, as best man. Jett Andrews of Winnsboro was ringbearer. Kenneth Marshall of Daingerfield, Jackie Whitney of Pampa and Joe Don Kubes of Ft. Worth were groomsmen. Seating the guests were Richard Genovese of Irving, Brett Thomas of Tyler and Craig Jones of Corsicana. Jennifer Cart-r and Carla Willman, both of Mt. Pleasant were candlelighters.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents.

The bride's table was covered with a red cloth and white lace overlay. The four-tiered bridal cake was accented with pearls and topped with miniature bride and groom. Cake and punch were served by Tiffany Easley of Talco and Melanie Tidwell of Sumner.

The chocolate groom's cake was topped with dipped whole strawberries served by Carol Nolen of Denton.

Serving at the register for the wedding and reception was Lindsey Marshall of Ft. Worth.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents on Saturday night in Mt. Pleasant following the wedding rehearsal.

The couple's wedding trip was a Caribbean cruise. They are now at home in Marietta, GA.

A Very Merry Season To All You Gentlefolk!

*Christmas was a simple affair,
A time filled with friends family and prayer.
A time when strangers were welcomed

A time to sing God's many praises

ATTENTION DOUGLAS CABLEVISION SUBSCRIBERS !!

DOUGLAS CABLEVISION AND IT'S SUBSCRIBERS HAVE BEEN EXPERIENCING DISRUPTION OF SOME OF THE BROADCAST CHANNELS CARRIED ON THE CABLE TELEVISION SYSTEM. THE DISRUPTION IS VERY FRUSTRATING FOR MANY OF OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The Disruption Is Caused By A Condition Known As Co-Channelling - When Distant, Normally Weak Broadcast Signals Of The Same Frequency, From Out Of Our Area, Are Picked Up By Our Antennas And Actually Compete With The Stronger, Local Signals On Your Television Set.

It Is Usually Weather Conditions Which Allow The Distant Signals To Travel Greater Distances And Disrupt Reception.

UNFORTUNATELY, IT IS NOT SOMETHING WHICH DOUGLAS CABLEVISION OR ANY OTHER CABLE TELEVISION COMPANY CAN CONTROL.

Luckily, It Will Only Affect The Broadcast Stations And Not The Satellite Delivered Programming. In The Meantime, Please Try To Be Understanding And We'll All Hope It Doesn't Happen Too Often.

Rivercrest Lady Rebels Play In Invitational Basketball Tournament

The Rivercrest Lady Rebels participated in the Freeman Parrish Invitational Basketball Tournament, December 15, 16, 17.

In the first round the Lady Rebs defeated a very strong Quinlan Ford J. V. team 39-37. Michelle Giles hit the front end of a one and one situation to tie the game with 40 seconds left. Quinlan Ford tried to move the ball down court, but tenacious defense by Amber Spencer forced a turn-over. Jana Weatherall drove the left side of the basket and allyooped a pass in to a double teamed Michelle Giles who banked the ball high off the glass for the game winner with ten seconds left. Amber Spencer once again took the ball away from the Quinlan Ford team and the horn sounded.

In the second round semi-final game, the Lady Rebs faced the home team of North Hopkins. The game was very physical throughout. The Lady Rebs were charged with 31 fouls versus 12 for North Hopkins. North Hopkins took advantage of the calls and sunk 25 free throws. Despite the physical play and the foul situation, the Lady Rebs pulled to within 6 of North Hopkins in the fourth quarter. The Lady Rebels fell to the North Hopkins team 69-53.

Jana Weatherall led the Lady Rebs in scoring with 15, followed by Karen Williams who had 12.

The Lady Rebels took on the Yantis Lady Owls on Saturday night in the third place game. The Lady Rebels utilized their bench and handed the Lady Owls a 49-38 loss. The Lady Rebels were led by Karen Williams who pulled down 24 rebounds and had 14 points. Jenni Bond had five assists and eleven points.

Jana Weatherall and Karen Williams were voted to the Freeman Parrish-North Hopkins All Tournament Team. Weatherall had 32 points, 12 rebounds, and 11 assists in the tournament. Williams had 43 rebounds, 35 points, and 12 blocked shots.

The Lady Rebels will take on a rugged Celeste team in the first round of the annual Leonard Holiday Tournament December 27.

Tournament brackets are available at Rivercrest.

Rivercrest Boots Pleasant Grove

Rivercrest avenged one of their early season losses by overcoming a poor start and defeating the AAA Pleasant Grove Hawks.

The Hawks had beaten Rivercrest earlier in the year by a score of 65-59. "This was one game where our defense finally stood up and took control," said Coach Wake Wood. "We tried to practice getting the ball inside early in the first quarter and couldn't get the calls and this hurt us. We stood too much and just didn't play basketball. Our defense just simply carried us for 2 quarters. I was very pleased with our second half of play. We began to move and shoot the ball good and our defense continued to work. Pleasant Grove is the kind of team that is very hard for us to beat. Considering the fact that Pleasant Grove has won most of their games having beaten AAA Mt. Pleasant in that run. I'm really glad to see us score 36 points the second half against them while holding them to a mere 23. We held their 6'6" post man to 17 points. Our goal was to hold him under 20."

Nuts & Bolts
 By Judy Screws

I have noticed myself recently ending sentences with the word "but" It seems to nullify everything I have just said, but it is not meant to do so. Sometimes it is just the only word which will work; "I really like her, but..."; "We consider them to be our best friends, but..."; "I really love my job, but..."; "I understand that we are not supposed to question God's will, but...".

I have been guilty of the last one more than once in the last few months. I try to not say it, but sometimes I open my mouth and it just comes out.

Of course my sentence ending about God's will is because our family along with many other families will be celebrating Christmas this year with someone missing. In our case it is our precious granddaughter that we lost in September. Our daughter in law lost her father and an uncle during the summer. Her family is at loose ends, just as ours will be. We have been through Christmas holidays with someone dear to us missing in the past, but it never is easy and it won't be easy this year, but we'll get through it, as will people all over the world who have lost loved ones.

I know there is no degree plan for grief over loved ones. Everyone has to grieve in his own way. You can't presume to decide whether it hurts more to lose a child, or an elderly parent or a spouse. We don't know but what it hurts more to have a terminally ill loved one, or a loved one who is missing in action. You can pretty well assume that practically any family you know will have lost someone in the past year, and it will be their first Christmas without someone they love, or will have some kind of pain with which they are trying to cope.

I would like to make an unsolicited suggestion. Whether you are at a family gathering or alone with a person who all of a sudden begins to cry without any evidence of physical pain, or who just turns their head and wipes the tears from their eyes, unless they express a desire to share their thoughts at that time with you, just give them a brief hug and leave them be with their tears, or say, "Is there anything I can do?", and accept their answer without being persistent. "What are you crying about?" is not a good question.

I don't mean to be morbid, but death and pain are part of life and holidays seem to magnify problems. I hope that each you has someone to lean on during painful times and rejoice with during happy times, and I wish you all the best Christmas possible!

Happy Holidays

Junior High Rebels Play in Mt. Pleasant Tournament

The Jr. High Rebels had a busy weekend, as they were entered in the Mt. Pleasant tournament sponsored by the Positive Impact Club. The 7th grade played at the Wallace gym while the 8th grade played at Brice gym. Because of scheduling, Coach Foos coached the 7th grade and Coach McGuire coached the 8th. The 7th grade went on the court Thursday afternoon meeting Paul Witt. The Lil Rebs were neck-and-neck with the Bulls until the beginning of the 3rd quarter. The Bulls took advantage of the Rebel mistakes and took a big lead. The Rebs were down by 20. At the same time across town, the

The game began and ended with a see sawing score, going into overtime. They would go ahead two and we would go ahead two. Erric Martin took high scoring honors with 27 points followed by Mitch Ellis with 15. Also scoring for the Rebels were Jay Hancock, Ladarryl Savage, Jody Nolen, and Michael Allen. Although scores were made in overtime by Jay Hancock, Mitch Ellis and Michael Allen the Rebels fell 3 points short to the AAAAA Arkansas school. Final score 67-64.

Cunningham News

By Jane O'Neal (903-652-6062)

The Cunningham Community was saddened last Thursday by the sudden death of Mrs. Berniece Wyatt who had been a long-time resident of the community. She taught school for many years in the Cunningham School system until the consolidation with the Prairiland School system. After the consolidation, she taught at Deport until her retirement several years ago. She was an excellent news reporter of the Cunningham News for the Deport Times. Her news articles will be missed.

The community was also sorry to learn of the death of T. G. (Mutt) Harvey. He was a former resident of the community. Sympathy is extended to his family.

I am going to attempt to continue the Cunningham News, hopefully in the same fashion that Mrs. Wyatt had done. She did such a good job that it will be hard to follow in her footsteps. I will need help from each of you and would appreciate your calling me at 652-6062 with any news that you or your family have. I have been amazed to learn of the many people who are shut-ins or who live away from the area who look forward each week to reading the local community news. Remember, every item of news printed is interesting to someone, somewhere. I hope I can be as faithful as Mrs. Wyatt was in calling each of you for news if you do not call me. By working together we can keep the Cunningham News alive as a memorial to her.

A tribute to Mrs. Berniece Wyatt: Mrs. Wyatt was a unique individual who was very dedicated to her church, school and community. Her dedication and her faithfulness resulted in her carrying out any job that fell her lot to do. She was secretary for the United Methodist Church of Cunningham from the age of 18 until her death at age 85. She taught school for about 45 years and retired, still with the desire to teach. She collected and wrote the Cunningham News for the Deport Times for 35 years. One thing Mrs. Wyatt believed was that every child needed and, to the best of her ability, would receive a fundamental foundation for education in the First Grade.

While talking to different people about things she had done and accomplished, I received many interesting quotes. Here are a few: Neva Jean Oats mentioned that when she still had school at Cunningham, the Music Teacher always presented a production and an end of school program. Behind the scenes, with very little if any recognition, was Mrs. Wyatt getting children lined up with their robes and lit candles, keeping order until the time for them to march out for the performance. She said she could not remember anyone catching fire from the lit candles.

Geneva Norwood mentioned the fact that Mrs. Wyatt taught both her and Gene and all three of their children in the first grade.

JoDell Cooper remembered that Mrs. Wyatt had taught William and all four of their children. She also mentioned that she had dared Mrs. Wyatt to retire before Darrell started the First Grade. JoDell remembered and said many times she would go to Mrs. Wyatt's house after working hours to find her working and making by hand all the decorations for the Junior-Senior Banquet that was held at the school, and believe you me, they were a production back in those days.

Frankie Norwood remembered that when he was in the First Grade, she taught him a story about a black cat and had him narrate and illustrate it for the Lamar County Men's Banquet and other programs.

She has left many memories that will always remain. Her life was a witness to dedication and loyalty.

In Memorium

By Nanalee Nichols

Last Thursday morning the phone rang at the office, and a sad voice told me that Berniece Wyatt had died in her sleep the night before. As I hung up the phone I was struck with just how much our organization had lost...and how much those people whose lives she touched have lost. I have lost a dear friend, as have dozens and dozens of others. Of course, I knew her primarily as the Cunningham News correspondent, and that is the perspective I speak of her from.

Berniece was the last of our "old time" correspondents. She made call after call to people, collecting news. When her eyesight failed, she used a magnifying glass. When pain assaulted her she ignored it and kept right on. I never heard her complain about a single thing. On Mondays she would call with "A little dab more" of Cunningham News. She would share a thought or a joke, laugh delightedly and always concluded our conversation with "Now honey, I want you to have a good week". She is the last person to use "8" and "88" as a journalism shorthand for "Mr. and Mrs." Her handwriting was firm...her usages correct. It took a long time to come up with how many years she collected the Cunningham News. For 35 years she collected news that delighted literally several thousand readers. Her genuine love and interest in those people she spoke with shone through like a jewel.

Of course, she was a great educator, and generation after generation of adults will recall her teaching them. She served in many capacities in the field of education always with dedication and that delight that made her so special.

For most of her adult life she served as Secretary/Treasurer of her beloved church. The legacy Berniece Wyatt left will not fade, she does not leave a gap so much as a warm space. And somehow, I like to think of her, gone to her rewards...perhaps teaching little angel children, or collecting news of heaven, and always concluding with "Now honey, I want you to have a good week".

WE'RE MAKING A LIST...

We'd like to thank each of you personally, but we've made too many good friends in the past year to find the space to list them here. So to all of you, our very best wishes go - for a very Merry Christmas and a ho...ho...ho!

Rivercrest Falls Hard To 5A Arkansas High, 89-81

The Rivercrest Rebels fought hard, but could not overcome the speed, quickness, size and depth advantage of the Arkansas High Razorbacks a 5A school in Texarkana, Arkansas.

Rivercrest put up a valliant effort, but a cold shooting night spelled doom for the young Rebels.

The Rebels had their coldest shooting night of the season, shooting only 23% from the field. The Rebels put up a grand total of 40-3 point attempts against Arkansas High's zone defense, making only 9. The Rebels had outscored the Razorbacks 20-12 in the first quarter. The Razorbacks came back the second quarter, outscoring the Rebels 30-15. That was the difference as Rivercrest trailed at the half 42-35. The Hogs scored the last two points of the first half. As the horn sounded, Rivercrest came back and matched the Hogs point for point but could not pull the game out. After three quarters of play the Rebs had closed the gap to 62-57, but just could not take the lead back the last quarter.

The Rebels had five men in double figures. Jeff Savage led the way with 20 points. Savage also had 5 steals and 5 rebounds along with 10 assists. Andy Speir added 14 points, along with Jack Brown with 14 points. Eric Waller and A.J. Lee added 13 each.

Coach Wood had this to say about the game, "I was very proud of our hustle. We tried to play faster than we should have the second quarter. I seemed like our side of the score clock was stuck on 22 points. We stayed on 22 points for over 4 minutes. We finally settled down the second half and played our game. If we had shot just a little better, we could have won that game. But we must forget about our misfortune in that game and move on. I think we did that by coming back and beating Pleasant Grove Saturday night."

WELL WISHES FROM OUR ENTIRE STAFF

May you and your loved ones be blessed with happiness and good health the whole year through. We're so very glad to know good people like you!

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The telephone is a wonderful instrument but there are people who misuse it badly. I am speaking of those persons who think it is "fun" to get the phone book and randomly call numbers- usually toward the middle of the night, and either never say anything, or just mumble a bunch of stuff. Some of those people think it is "fun" to turn in FALSE alarms about fires or wrecks. When one of those type alarms, fire or wreck, is called in, those VOLUNTEER firemen hit the door running-literally-even if it is midnight. If a wreck has been called in, those same firemen respond as well as ambulance and the helicopter. Those FALSE alarms waste a lot of manpower and vehicle usage that is absolutely unnecessary. The persons who turn in FALSE alarms never think of the consequences of that call that they made "just for fun". One day one of those "fun" calls could REALLY have a fire or wreck and be in dire need of help- but all the manpower and vehicles might be out answering someone else's "fun" call and wind up getting to them too late.

The Volunteer Firemen are normal, everyday, hard working people who do that job because they CARE. Everyone should support their Volunteer Fire Department with money (even if it is only a few dollars). Praise for the volunteers who go out in ALL kinds of weather in the middle of the night and stay with what ever has taken place until it has been completely taken care of in the proper manner. SUPPORT your Volunteer Fire Department-You might need it badly one of these days- who knows! Sincerely,
Betty Jane King

H.G.H.S. Students Make All Region

Thursday, December 8th, six students traveled to Union Hill to try out for the ATSSB (All Texas Small School Band) Region Band. They were Jeanne Dunn, Clarinet; Magen Upchurch, Clarinet; Makiko Kikkawa, Tenor Saxophone; Eric Vest, French Horn; Della Hokett, Trumpet, and Charlie Merrell, Trombone.

These students will be participating in a Clinic Concert January 21st and 22nd at White Oak.

All of the students prepared nine scales by memory and two etudes. They performed these pieces for a panel of judges. The students were ranked on their performance and were chosen to be in the All-Region Band if they were the top performers.

The students who made All Area were: Mikiko Kikkawa and Della Hokett. This is the second year for Della to go to Area. The people who ranked in the top 1-4 (depending on the section) were chosen to compete at the Area level. These students will perform their pieces again. The top at Area will receive All State honors.

Della is the daughter of Wiley and Gloria Hokett of Honey Grove, Texas, the granddaughter of Burl Moore of Bogata and Annie McKinney of Bogata. Della is a junior in the Honey Grove public school.
