Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

I love to watch the world around me...both people and nature.

I was watching a hawk swooping around over the pasture on a sunny autumn Saturday this past week. I actually stopped what I was doing because he was so close and I dearly love to see them fly. Suddenly, from up above and behind the hawk, a crow appeared.

Have you ever watched a flock of crows or even just one harass and owl or a hawk? They love to do, it, cawing and shrieking, carefully staying above the reach of the predator's talons and generally giving it misery. I've seen owls finally give up and fly off from their day-time perch in disgust from all the harassment.

This lone crow (he must have been a teenager) had boldly decided to take on the hawk by himself.

I was struck with the difference in the way the two birds flew. The hawk would give a few powerful wing sweeps and ride the air currents as gracefully and silently as a shadow.

The young crow would flap, flap and flap. Compared to the hawk he was clumsy and graceless. The hawk outflung him time after time, skimming effortlessly away from the smaller, less aerodynamic creature. Determined and squawking loudly, the crow would catch back up, taking short dives at the larger bird, and using what sense he has (crows have too much sense, I think) to stay carefully above the level of those deadly talons.

This went on for a long time, the hawk zigzagged across the pasture, coming straight towards the yard where I was watching happily.

Just about even with me, the hawk apparently had enough. He gained a little altitude, leveled off and waited until the crow came diving down on him again. Quick as a wink the hawk rotated himself in mid-air, literally turning over on his back. His talons yanked a clump of black feathers loose from the crow, who screamed at incredible volume and took off. The last time I saw the crow he was still trailing crow cuss words behind himself, and flapping fast and furious.

The hawk never even attempted to follow the crow, he just continued on in his graceful flight, letting out a peaceful little whistle of satisfaction.

It was truly quality entertainment, and gave me a good laugh?

If your paper has been late, please read this

By Nanalee Nichols

If you have been receiving your paper late, please read this, it is important. With many people's subscriptions due for renewal during the December paper sale, now seems an appropriate time to have a word with subscribers.

In July of this year the U.S. Postal Service "redid" second and third class mail. All of our newspapers are mailed second class (it's now called periodical class). There were new rules, some new routing and a price increase. Since that time we have been deluged with stories of papers that are arriving two to seven days later than they used to, or sometimes not arriving at all. This seems to be happening whenever our papers have to go outside the local post offices.

This is not our fault, we still put all our mail bags into the post offices on a Wednesday night so that they go out first thing Thursday morning, just like always. It is NOT your local post master or post office's fault either, they put the mail up when they receive it. Where the problem seems to be in is distribution centers.

We have changed our labels, we have begun using bar coded labels, we have now done everything that the post office has suggested and many papers are still delayed.

Our local post masters have worked long and hard to help us. One is hand carrying bags to one location, another has made a special trip to Greenville to try and find out why they might be delayed.

I have personally spoken with numerous people within the postal system, as have the postmasters. I have even been told that if the bags are going through the North Texas Processing Center they are so backed up that they will automatically have a 24 hour delay! I have also been told that there are a lot of temps (temporary employees) on duty at the Greenville Distribution Center.

We have solved several problems, and many customers are now saying that they are getting their papers in a more timely fashion.

We are doing everything we can. So are the local postmasters. Our local postmasters at every location are great and have been tremendous. I want to assure our subscribers that we are will continue doing any thing suggested by the post office to help speed delivery.

However, we have no power over the distribution centers. We have mentioned to many people in the Postal Service that our business is being affected by this slow down. They promise things will get better. We hope so. In the meantime, we wanted you, our valued subscribers, to know what was happening.

Country Cooking

This week we are getting everyone ready for the holiday season with some recipes for Thanksgiving. Each year, we all vow to do the same thing, "START EARLY!" Well, I don't know about you all, but all I can say are that my intentions are good anyway! I do try. I have all of these little projects planned to do, but turn around... and it is the first of the year already.

They say bake and freeze ahead of time; shop early; plan menus a week in advance; if you know you are going to have a big crowd, make lists and buy in quantities. Easier said than done in this hustle, bustle time of year. Already, by the time you read this, it will be the middle of November and it seems like only yesterday, we were trying to find ways to stay cool!

But never mind, the holidays are upon us and the recipes are good and nutritious. The Champagne Salad fits into the make ahead category along with the Cranberry Jello Salad.

Marinated Carrots and the Corn and Green Bean Casserole travel well and can also be made ahead of time. Of course the best is the desserts. But, I went nutritious on you and found recipes with bran and fruit in them. The Cinnamon Bran Muffins are not only healthy, but they are quick and convenient. The batter can be kept in the refrigerator, in an air-tight container for 2 weeks and can be used as needed. Just what you need in case of an influx of relatives on short notice!

Get ready, enjoy the season. If we can be of assistance to you in anyway, give us a call and we will see you in the kitchen!

We are on the lookout for an Oatmeal Pie Crust recipe. Anyone have one?

Rebels defeat Lone Oak 36-7

The Rivercrest Rebels traveled to Lone Oak on Friday, Nov. 8, 1996 to play their last district game of the season. The team had already won a spot in the playoffs with their win over Alba-Golden this past week.

In first quarter action the Rebels quickly established they would be the dominating team. Jody Gray dashed 11 yards for the first TD of the evening but the extra point was not good. Score 6-0. Within minutes the Rebels took control of the ball again and Gray ran 15 yards for another Rebel Td. Alvin Savage picked up the extra two point conversion to set the Rebels with a 14-0 lead.

The second quarter saw the Rebels get a quarterback safety, Jody Gray scored for the third time on a one yard run, however, again the extra point failed to reach it's mark. Alvin Savage took a 45 yard pass from quarterback Jody Nolen to score the TD and Chesley Baird split the uprights for the extra point. The half time score stood 29-0 Rebels.

In the final quarters Jody Gray scored his fourth TD on a five yard run and Daniel Vasquez booted the extra point through the uprights. Score 36-0.

Lone Oak was able to get into the end zone for one TD and added the extra point but the Rebels had totally dominated the game. The final score was 36-7.

Giving extra effort on the defense was; Jared Guest, Dustin Wolfe, Chesley Baird, Michael Deming, Clint Gage, Jeff Savage, Alvin Savage, Mitch Ellis, Brian Giles, Charles, Cruise and Jeremy Jones. On the offense quarterback Jody Nolen passed for 200 yards, Jody Gray scored four TD's. The entire Rebel team is to be congratulated on a fine season. Go Rebels!!!

DeBerry Hill home of new clinic

By Mary Jane (DeBerry) Lowry
 I am so thankful that my "DeBerry Hill" is the home of Bogata's new clinic. I think Clarence and Genevieve would be so pleased with this! I have so many precious memories of this lot where I was "born and reared" for 21 years. The wagon wheel rim swing, bag swing, little log playhouse, moorvine on the front porch, Daddy's bees, Mama's cannas along the back fence, cows coming and going (almost daily), tree houses and of course the little house in the backyard where Wilford and I "started housekeeping" and our Janie joined us!

 Dr. Nada and staff-welcome to DeBerry Hill!

SOCIAL STUDIES PROJECT- Ms. Reeder's third grade class at Bogata Elementary School is studying the dwellings of different Indian tribes in social studies class. They constructed pub-

A VETERAN'S DAY PROGRAM-was presented by Mona Pitts' choir at Bogata Elementary-Junior High School Monday, November 11. The flag was raised by Aubrey Herring and Dwayne Young with the help of Mrs. Pitts. The pledge of allegiance to the flag was repeated by the student body. On the program were Daphnie Baird, Clinton Cheatwood, Kara Palmer and Cassie Cannon. They explained the meaning of

Veteran's Day. They also explained how the holiday was originally called Armistice Day for World War I. Which was to be the War to end all wars. But after World War II and during the Korean War, President Eisenhower renamed it Veteran's Day to honor all veterans of all wars. The group sang "The National Anthem", "America the Beautiful" and

"God Bless the USA". Mrs. Pitts sang "From a Distance" with the choir in accompaniment. Mr. John Stoner, a school employee who is a Viet Nam Veteran was introduced. Mr. Stoner was wounded in a land mine accident in Viet Nam. A moment of silence was observed in honor of the veterans of all wars. (Staff Photo by Judy Screws)

Bogata Classes Attend Play

The seventh and eighth grade language arts classes of Bogata Junior High recently attended Paris Junior College's production of Big River, The adventures of Huckleberry Finn. The play is an adaptation of the novel by Mark Twain with music and lyrics by the late country music star Roger Miller. Set in the late 1840's the play takes place in various locations along the Mississippi from Missouri south to Arkansas. The students enjoyed the experience since many had never seen a live production before. Two former local residents were involved in the play. Marcus Davis was in charge of sound, and Stacy Leeson-Ray played the parts of Miss Watson and Sally Phelps. Mrs. Foster's 8A reading class won the Accelerated Reader contest for the class accumulating the most reading points for the first six weeks. For their reward, the class stayed in Paris and enjoyed eating out while the others returned to school. Members of the winning class are the following" Dale Alsup, Clinton Cheatwood, Stephanie Coggins, Kasey Crawford, Kim Exum, Joey Hanna, Jennifer Hays, Aubrey Herring, Shawn Holland, Joshua Jones, Daniel Lee, Kara Palmer, Loren Reeves, Kenny Reigert, Kim Shirley, Rebecca Stewart, Chris Tidwell, Cole Warren, and Dwayne Young. Staff accompanying the classes were Mr. Don Easterling, Mr. Bill Mabry, Mrs. Ginger Foster, Mrs. Paula Speir and Coach Trevor Upchurch.

Mandy Mabry

Mabry to receive highest FFA degree

Mandy Mabry, Clarksville, has been nominated to receive the American FFA Degree, the highest degree awarded by the National FFA Organization.

This honor recognizes demonstrated leadership abilities and outstanding achievements in agricultural business, production, processing and service programs. Mabry will be one of the 1,517 members receiving the degree at the 69th National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, November 14-16.

Only one in 300 of the 452,629 FFA members have advanced through chapter and state FFA degrees to earn this national degree. Mabry, the daughter of Bill and Joan Mabry of Clarksville, is currently a sophomore attending Tarleton State University. She is a member of the Clarksville FFA chapter and her agricultural education instructor/FFA advisor is Keith Westbrook.

Each recipient receives a gold American FFA Degree key and a certificate. More than 37,000 FFA members are expected to attend the 69th National FFA Convention, which is the largest annual youth convention in the nation. Those attending will see the American FFA Degrees awarded; hear nationally known speakers; attend motivational leadership and career development workshops; and witness the election of the six new national FFA officers.

To The Editor*

Dear Editor:
I just got through reading the Bogata News. I start at the Nichols Worth column and read everything through Huddleston's grocery ad on the back page.

The Veteran's stories of World War II were greatly appreciated. Even though I was young then, a lot of things that happened during that time stayed in my memory. Such things as Camp Maxey, convoys going through Bogata, the rationing of tires, gas, sugar, meat and other things, the volunteering and drafting of cousins and persons that I knew, the disappearance of the Green Circle on Lucky Strike cigarettes (my dad smoked that brand) and the commercials on the radio saying "Lucky Strike Green has gone to war".

The saddest memory that I have of that time was when a man came to Uncle John and Aunt Bess Forrester's house during the night (my sister and I were out there spending the night) to tell them that they had received a telegram informing them that their son, William (Bill) had been killed on the Po River in Italy.

I pray that America never has to go through another time such as that in the future. So many lives lost, so many men disabled and crippled and so many still carrying memories of those times with them the rest of their lives. The generations that have come along after World War II do not realize just how good they have things or appreciate and give thanks to these men and their families for the great sacrifice they made in order that the rest of us could live and grow in a free country. May it never happen again.

Sincerely,
Betty Jane King
