Testing, Testing!

How long has it been since you took a test? Assuming that you are not assuming in school, it may have been some time since you sat down and had to answer questions for points.

Twelve people from this area joined about sixty others in Mt. Pleasant last Wednesday to take their Emergency Medical Services tests.

I had studied. I knew my material. I knew my book. My weak spots (respiration rates, figuring burn percentages) I had gone over until I literally was doing them in my sleep.

I walked in that classroom pretty cocky. Then, when the door shut and our instructor announced it was time to start, I nearly froze. First thing, after being told about four times NOT to write in the test book, I did. I marked my first answer down in that book, instead of on the handy-dandy scan-tronic sheet. The moment I realized what an idiot I had been, sweat popped out on my forehead. I immediately corrected my error, but it totally shredded my confidence. I'll also be getting a bill for the test booklet, hope that isn't too expensive!

But as I plowed through the questions my palms kept on sweating. Did I know what I was doing? Were these really the correct answers? Of course they were right...weren't they? Then I hit my first question that I truly wasn't sure about. I passed it over, answered the rest on that page and went back to it. Finally, I thought it through and answered, correctly, I hope.

Then I plodded onward. My teeth hurt, I had them clenched so tightly. There was a palpable aura of tension floating over that room. If misery loves company, there was plenty of it in that particular location. Of course, the Paramedics had four hours of this torture as opposed to our paltry one hour.

Twice more I bounced off of questions that I just wasn't sure about. Twice more I made my best guess and passed on. But after getting out of there, we all were chattering, moaning, comparing answers and complaining. I realized it had been years since I had been required to test for something where the grade really counted!

To cap it off, although our scores won't be posted, whether we passed or failed will be on the Texas Department of Health's EMS website. Wouldn't it be humiliating to have failed and have the whole state be able to see it?

But, we only had about four to seven days of waiting...we thought. For now it seems that TDH had a little problem with their answer keys...and those who took this test after March 23rd learned that "grading of tests is expected to resume soon". That means our test results are on HOLD!!! Ahhhhh, the suspense is killing me! Remind me to have more sympathy for students, I had forgotten what they go through!

THIS IS THE J.C. "Jake" Smith as most friends know him, a Red River County cowboy. Jake has worked the Bogata Rodeo with his brother, Jerald, for many years and has been involved in farming and ranching all of his adult life. He owned and operated a gas station in Bogata and later worked for Ed Williams at his station. Jake has an outgoing personality and a good sense of humor. Some of his friends may not know the Jake who served his country during World War II.

J.C. "Jake" Smith

The following article is taken from Martha Sue Stroud's book "For Love of Country".

J.C. "Jake" Smith was born July 1, 1921 in Red River County. His parents were Oscar and Norie Patton Smith and he was one of ten children. He married Margaret Barton and they have two children, Sherry and Donnie. The Smiths make their home in Bogata. He visited with us and said:

"Enlisted in the Army on June 22, 1942 and was sent to Camp Wallace, Texas. My basic training as a Medic was at Camp Barkley in Abilene. My job was to drive an ambulance to an aid station and back to the general hospital. From there, I went by train to Ft. Lewis, Washington, Camp Pickett, Virginia, Ft. Dix, New Jersey and New York. We boarded the USS Monticello, an Italian luxury liner that had been in the harbor when the war started. It was converted to a troop carrier. The trip overseas was a rough one that lasted eight days. When we were at sea three days, we heard depth charges exploding. Later we learned that a ship had sunk with many lives lost. We were in a large convoy going to Africa where I served as a Medic. My outfit set up a hospital outside Algiers in a cork forest. Most all the patients went back to a town where hospitals had been set up in some buildings that had been schools. Then I became a part of the 53rd Amphibious, 3337th Ordnance Truck Company. My training for this was at Oran, Africa and I drove a 2 1/2 ton amphibious truck used for delivering supplies, equipment and personnel to the coast. This truck was called a "duck" because it ran on land or sea. It could land on the beach and keep going. Since there were no docks, the ships might be five miles out so those "ducks" would be used to go back and forth.

From Africa, we participated in the invasion of Gelo, Sicily. We were fighting under General George Patton, and it took us about 28 days to take it. On our second trip into Sicily, the ship was out about three miles. The "duck" sank about 300 yards from shore. Luckily, we had on life preservers, and the tide took us in. Shells were hitting all around us, but this did keep the sharks away. Here we were attached to the 3rd Division. Then it was on to Italy with the 36th Division. We went through Italy, Southern France and Belgium and then on to Germany. We took river crossing training before crossing the Rhine river. The Rhine was not as big as I thought it would be. After we crossed, we used pack saddles on mules to carry the big guns up in the mountains. We ate K-rations and C-rations and lots of times sat them on the truck muffler to heat them. Our division did a lot. We were attached to Scottish and British outfits. After Patton went back to the U.S., we were under Gen. Mark Clark. Everyone liked Gen. Patton, when he was in charge of us, it was because the boy was shell shocked. We didn't make it to Berlin, but we did see Hitler's summer retreat. After the war ended, there were lots of German refugees that had to be sent back to replacement centers to be sorted out."

Jake served in Naples-Foggia, Moroco, Naples-Foggia, Normandy, Northern France, Rheinland, Ardennes and Central Europe. He came back to the states on the USS John Hancock, a liberty ship. It quit running twice before they landed in Baltimore and a tug boat finally had to pull them in. He was discharged at the Separation Center, IGMF, Pennsylvania on October 8, 1945. He was awarded a Good Conduct Medal and European-African-Middle Eastern Service Medal with seven Bronze Stars.

There are stories of many other local servicemen in Martha's book. She donated a book to the Bogata Library/Museum. The library is open Fridays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday. You are welcome to come in and check the book out.

VA gets frequently asked questions

Editor's Note: Following are typical questions answered daily by VA counselors. Full information is available at any VA office.

Q: I've heard about disabled veterans getting extra money for their families. I have two children at home. Can I get an increase in my disability pay?

A: Disabled veterans can receive extra money from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) for family members. There are several rules that must be followed. First, the veterans disability must be officially recognized by VA as service connected. Second, VA must determine the disability is at least 30 percent. Third, the family member must meet certain requirements.

Among the requirements for children are that the child must be under 18 years of age, or under 23 years if still in school, or of any age if the child became disabled before reaching the 18th birthday.

Q: Is it true that money can be deducted from Social Security checks if a veteran owes money to the VA?

A: When veterans receive overpayments of their VA benefits or they're responsible for co-payments for medical care and they do not make the required payments, VA is legally obligated to turn the debts over to the Treasury Department, which then withholds the money from other federal payments.

Among the sources from which money can be withheld are income tax refunds and federal retired pay. Social Security withholdings began this year. Veterans will always receive the first $750 of each month's Social Security payment. Only 15 percent of the amount greater than $750 can be withheld. Veterans will be notified several times before any withholdings are made. People can avoid the withholding by voluntarily settling their debts.

Q: Does VA provide health care for veterans with AIDS?

A: Veterans with HIV (the Human Immunodeficiency Virus) and AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) are treated like veterans with any other health problem.

All are eligible to enroll in VA's health-care system. They may have to make co-payments for treatments and medication unless they qualify for VA disability compensation or their income falls below a certain level known as the means-test threshold.

For further information about VA financial payments, call 1-800-827-1000, for information about VA health care, call 1-877-222-8387, or visit VA's web-page at <www.va.gov>.

FOOT NOTES

Toe Joint Problems

Toe joints are a common source of pain and problems in the foot. Ill-fitting shoes, systemic conditions like arthritis and poor biomechanics contribute to toe joint problems. Gout, a form of arthritis involving the formation of uric acid crystals in and around joints, and infections can trigger heat, pain, swelling, tenderness and redness in the big toe. The big toe joint can also suffer a bunion from a misalignment that causes it to bend toward the second toe. The four smaller toe joints are susceptible to bending abnormally due to constricting shoes or excessively high or low arches. Corns may develop as the joints rub against shoes. Arthritis commonly affects the toe joints, causing pain, stiffness and swelling.

Proper care of the toe joint problems and other foot conditions is vital to your program of overall good health. Our office has taken special attention to provide comprehensive care to manage foot and ankle problems as well as prevent them before they occur. WE specialize in the evaluation and treatment of many symptoms affecting the lower extremities. For your feet's ask and your well being, call us for an appointment for compassionate foot care. Lady Rebels defeat DeKalb Lady Bears

The Rivercrest Lady Rebel softball team hosted the DeKalb Lady Bears on Tuesday, April 3, 2001 at Joliet. In the two teams first meeting this year the Lady Bears had won the contest with a score of 1-0. In the first inning and the Lady Rebels in the field the first out of the game was made by Ashley Beers who caught a fly ball at second base. The next two outs came on a throw from third base by Michelle Bryant to Jamie Daniels at first base and a fly caught in right field by Cheryl Griffin and the Lady Rebels came in for their first at bat. Two strike outs and a tag made at first base sent the Lady Rebels right back to the field.

In the top of the second an error at third base put a Lady Bear runner on base. A throw from catcher, Erica Williams to Daniels at first got the first out. A fly to Kim Ross at short stop got out number 2 and then a Lady Rebel error at second put another Lady Bear on base. The Lady Rebels escaped the Lady Bear score on a throw from Daniels at first to Williams at home. Williams made the tag to get the 3rd out and end the top of the inning. At bat the Lady Rebels went 3 up and 3 down on 2 strike outs and a caught fly to the catcher.

In the top of the 3rd inning Beers caught a fly out at second, an error at short stop put a Lady Bear on base and the second out came on a fly to third. Then the Lady Bears went to work. A base hit scored the on base runner and a drop in hit to right field scored the base runner before the final out came on a fly to Beers at second. Score 2-0 Lady Bears. At bat the Lady Bears were under pressure. The first two batters were a fly out to center field and a strike out and then the Lady Rebels stepped their game up. Kim Shirley got the base hit, Tina Carder took a walk and Erica Williams drove Shirley home on a base hit to center field. A fly out to left field ended the drive. Score 2-1 Lady Bears.

Top of 4 and the Lady Rebels in the field. Lady Rebel pitcher, Molly Hare sent the first batter down on a strike out. A Beers to Daniels throw got the 2nd out and a fly to Carder in center field sent the Lady Rebels in. No scores came at the girls went 3 up and 3 down. Flies to left and center fields were caught by the Lady Bears and a strike out put the Lady Rebels right back in the field to begin the 5th inning.

In the top of 5 the Lady Rebels let the first batter make base on an error, however, she was tagged out along with the next batter being thrown out on a double play made by Ashley Beers. With two outs the next Lady Bear batter got on from a Lady Rebel fielding error but she was picked off at second base on a throw from Erica Williams at catcher to short stop Kim Ross at second. At bat the Lady Rebels struggled. The first two batters struck out and the third flew out to the pitcher.

In the top of the 6th the Lady Rebels again got 3 up 3 down on a Bryant at third throw to Daniels at first and two throws from Molly Hare at pitcher to Daniels at first. In the bottom of the inning the Lady Rebels left Carder and Williams on base for no scores.

Going into the final inning with the Lady Bears still up 2-1 the Lady Rebels again quickly got 3 outs on a fly to Kim Shirley in left field, a throw from Ross to Daniels and a fly to Beers at second. It was the Lady Rebels final at bat and Michelle Bryant was the lead off hitter slamming a base hit. Ashley Beers was thrown out at first on a sacrifice bunt to move Bryant bringing Kim Shirley up to bat where she drove the ball to the field for a base hit to score Bryant. Score 2-2. Tina Carder made base on a base hit and Erica Williams laid down the bunt to make first, however, they were left on base when a fly to third and a pitcher to first got the final outs.

Into the overtime 8th inning two Lady Bears were put out on throws from Ross at short stop to Daniels at first. The next Lady Bear made base on an error in left field but the next ball hit was fielded cleanly by Kim Shirley in left field to bring the Lady Rebels in. At bat the Lady Rebels couldn't make base. A fly to second, second to first ground out and a strike out sent the two teams into the 9th inning.

In the top of 9 the Lady Rebels awesome defense did its job. A fly to Carder in center, Beers to Daniels throw and a fly out to Ross at short stop ended the Lady Bears at bat. At bat the Lady Rebels had Ashley Beers up first and she did her job with a base hit. Kim Shirley followed with a 2 base hit. With Beers and Shirley on Carder was fanned out for 1 but Williams followed to load the bases on a walk. The hit of the day came from Molly Hare who drove the ball to center field to score Beers and ending the game 3-2 Lady Rebels.

The Lady Rebels have 2 losses thus far in district play this season which came from DeKalb and Chapel Hill. They improved their record by defeating the Lady Bears and now must defeat Chapel Hill to make it into a top play off position. Great game Lady Rebels and Good Luck!!
