This year, as in the past, livestock buyers will bid on the 'Floor' price of the animals to be sold. Local individuals may then bid above the 'Floor' price and, if the animal is sent back to the floor, pay only the difference between the floor price and their bid price. Or, if the individual chooses to do so, he may pay the full price and keep the animal.

(Example: If the floor on steers is 34 cents per pound, and an individual has the highest bid at 54 cents per pound, that individual will pay 20 cents per pound. Most of the steers will weigh in the neighborhood of 1,000 pounds. The individual with the highest bid then has the choice of turning the animal back to the floor and paying the difference, in this case, $200.00, or keeping the animal and paying the entire 54 cents per pound, $540.00.)

If the animal is turned back to the floor the individuals $200 is a subsidy to the youth selling the steer. During the time most of these animals were on feed, costs have been very high and the only way that the youths can even break even is for local individuals and businesses to support the sale.

Letters to The Editor

THE HASKELL FREE PRESS
Haskell, Texas 79521

Dear FREE PRESS:

I am searching for information regarding mysterious, elusive, legendary animals, creatures and critters that have been reported in various parts of Texas, both in the traditions of older folklore and in modern accounts. I am writing to you because I am particularly interested in the "Haskell Rascal".

Do you have any relatively available clippings or other information regarding the Haskell Rascal-material that I could obtain copies of? I am willing to pay a nominal fee for someone's time and expenses in copying and obtaining such material.

However, any information would be helpful. For instance, could you tell me when the Rascal was last reliably reported? I am also wondering if the death of any livestock was ever directly attributed to the Rascal.

If you can lead me to any other reference materials, I would be grateful. For instance, if you know of any other newspapers that printed material on the Rascal, I could ask them for information in their files.

Or, if you can tell me of someone who had a close look at the Rascal-perhaps I can get in touch with them myself.

In other words-any information would be of great help.
Again, I will gladly pay for written material on the subject. If you have anything, please let me know.

Thank you very much for your time.

Sincerely,
Thomas R. Adams

WASHINGTON

OMAR BURLESON
Congressman—17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C., AT THE FIRST MEETING OF THE UNITED NATIONS in January of 1946, its membership was composed of 51 Nations, all of them being on the side of the allies in World War II. Today there are 138 member Nations, each having a vote in the General Assembly equal to ours. A United States' proposal, that would have established requirements for U.N. membership on the basis of size and responsibility, never made it to first base. Some of the Nations in the U.N. have proved they are unable to govern themselves, yet they sit in the General Assembly and vote against seating the South African delegation and give legitimacy to the Palestinian terrorists. Under present circumstances we can do nothing about it.

THERE IS SOMETHING WE CAN DO ABOUT IT IF WE WILL. THE FIRST thing is to stop voting in the General Assembly. It would only require the President to instruct Members of the U.S. delegation to ignore voting in that body. There is no reason why we should vote either "yes" or "no" or even "abstain", just leave a record of "not voting". The U.N. started off with laudable purposes. Then, with the emergence of such nations as Uganda, Burundi, Mauritania, Tobago, Chad, Guyana, Albania, Maldives, Togo, and a lot of other names we never heard of until a few years ago, a majority was created which evidently hates the United States. If a big majority of the Assembly wants to welcome terrorist groups and listen to their speeches as they did this last session, then the General Assembly has lost any usefulness to us.

WHEN THE PALESTINIAN LIBERATION GROUP CAME TO THE U.N. THEY were welcomed with open arms. They urged the support of terrorist outfits to be the rightful government of Cambodia, Palestine, Mozambique, Southwest Africa and even Puerto Rico. They could just as well support an action to throw Texas out of the Union.

THE OTHER THING WE COULD DO, IS TO BASE FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTION on population. The U.S. represents only 5.6% of the total population of the membership of the United Nations. Even if we take into consideration the fact that the U.S. has a permanent seat on the Security Council, there is no reason we should pay by far the largest share of any member nation. We pay almost twice as much as the Soviet Union and, even here, the Russians are in arrears of payment. So are many of the Arab nations which have money to burn but which have joined many of the little nations in calling the tune.

CONGRESS HAS AT LEAST TAKEN ACTION TO LIMIT THE U. S. CONTRIBUTION TO 25% of the regular U.N. budget but on the basis of population we would only pay 5.6% which, in dollar terms, would be a saving of some $338 million.

BACK TO THE FIRST PROPOSITION, WE SHOULD IMMEDIATELY SHOW our independence of the U.N. General Assembly but go ahead and participate in the Security Council deliberations, which are really the only important function. There is no reason why we should stay in the General Assembly where we are the target of insults, while at the same time pay a large share of the expenses of its operation.

AN EXAMPLE OF THE MEDDLING OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN THE INTERNAL affairs of other people is the vote in the Assembly to oust

South Africa and Rhodesia. Another was the action in the Assembly last year when it approved, by a vote of 109-5 with 19 abstentions, a report of its Committee on Colonialism demanding independence for Puerto Rico. This action was taken in spite of a vote in 1972 by Puerto Rico which rejected independence by a 96% vote to remain a Commonwealth of the United States.

IF WE REDUCED OUR FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR THE U. N. AND ANNOUNCED a "no-voting" decision by the U. S. Delegate in the General Assembly, then the United States' attitude toward the United Nations might bring some of these nations back to their political senses.

TORNADO SEASON STARTS EARLY

Last week's tornado warning in Haskell and surrounding communities sent many local residents hurrying to storm cellars. As I was sitting there in the cellar, I asked myself, "Does everyone in Haskell County know what to do in case of a tornado warning or sighting?" And truthfully, I could not answer "Yes".

No place is more favorable for tornado formation than the relatively flat region of the High Plains and that portion of Texas immediately east of the High Plains known as the Rolling Plains. It is surprising to many that tornadoes can form up elsewhere. Out Safety Manual states that tornadoes can and do occur any place in the United States at any time of the year.

How can you recognize a tornado? Usually, tornadoes are observed as funnel-shaped clouds, spinning rapidly, and extending toward the earth from the base of a thundercloud. Normally, thunderclouds that have a topsy-turvy formation, usually building down instead of up, produce tornadoes. These clouds usually have a greenish-black color. They normally occur on hot, sticky days with southerly winds and a threatening, ominous sky. However, this is not always the case.

These tornado producing clouds usually appear between 3 and 7 p.m., but they have occurred at all hours. In most cases they will be moving from the southwest to the northeast, and will cover an area 10 to 40 miles long and anywhere from 400 yards to over a mile wide. The speed at which they travel will average 25 to 40 miles per hour, but they have varied from 5 to 140 miles per hour. Wind speeds within the tornado have been estimated as high as 500 miles per hour.

TORNADO SAFETY RULES

When a tornado approaches, your immediate action may mean life or death. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a tornado cellar, underground evacuation, or a steel-framed or reinforced concrete building of substantial construction. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!

If you are caught in an office building down town, stand in an interior hallway on a lower floor, preferably in the basement.

If you are caught in your home, seek shelter under a sturdy workbench, or heavy table if possible, or any heavy furniture in the center part of the house. Keep some windows open, but stay away from them.

If you live in a mobil home, leave at once, and leave fast, making your way to a safer shelter.

In schools, teachers and school officials should gather everyone in an interior hallway.

If you are caught in open country, move away from the tornado's path at a right angle. Find a good deep ditch or ravine and lie flat in the bottom.

Your radio and television stations will broadcast the latest tornado advisory information. Call the Weather Bureau or local police only to report a tornado.

Remember: TORNADO WATCH means tornadoes are expected to develop. TORNADO WARNING means a tornado has actually been sighted.

Gardening Time Now Approaching

It won't be long until homeowners in Haskell County will begin putting in spring gardens in their backyards or wherever they can find space. To have a successful home garden, a number of important factors enter into the picture, reports Max Stapleton, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

First of all, select a site that is well drained and has fertile soil. Of course, many homeowners have little choice regarding the location of their garden. If possible, the site should receive plenty of sunlight although most leafy crops can be grown in areas receiving partial shade.

Selecting of the proper vegetable variety is a key item to a successful garden, adds the agent. Many home gardeners start off by planting varieties not adapted to this area. The county Extension office has a list of recommended varieties for Haskell County.

Proper soil preparation is another important key for a good garden. A tight, heavy clay soil can be improved by adding from one to two inches of sand and two to three inches of organic matter. Till these items into the garden area prior to planting.

In absence of a soil test, apply a complete fertilizer such as 10-10-10 at the rate of two to three pounds per hundred square feet of garden area. Work the fertilizer into the soil and then form the beds for planting.

Use transplants (young seedling plants) whenever possible to get the crop off to a head start, advises Mr. Stapleton.

Once the crops are up, water sufficiently and regularly so that the water penetrates the soil to a depth of at least six inches. Light sand soils may require more frequent watering. Mr. Stapleton suggests watering in the morning or at least not later than mid-afternoon so that plants can dry out before night. This will help prevent many foliage diseases.

Weeds are a problem in most gardens and a long handled hoe is still the best means of controlling them, notes the agent. However, adding a mulch of straw, leaves, grass, bark gin trash, sawdust, peatmoss or other organic material around the growing plants will help reduce weeds and will also conserve moisture.

Keep a close check on crops once they begin to approach maturity. Harvest vegetables only at full maturity because that is when they have their best flavor and nutritional content.

Growing your own vegetables can be a lot of fun and it helps reduce the grocery bill, adds Mr. Stapleton.

City Council Holds Meet

The regular meeting of the Haskell City Council was held Tuesday night with Mayor Belton Duncan presiding. Also attending were: Councilmen, Guy Kennedy, Loraine Johnson and Jimmy Browning, City Attorney Joe Williams, and City Secretary Desmond Dulaney.

Councilman Jimmy Browning gave the invocation and minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Main topic of discussion during the meeting was the April 5 City Election. Mayor Duncan appointed E. J. Stewart election Judge and Henry Withers alternate. The terms of Councilmen Guy Kennedy and Loraine Johnson will expire. Both have expressed plans to run for reelection.

Deadline for filing is March 5.

The next regular meeting of the Council will be held Feb. 25.

CMS Holds Meeting

The Christian Missionary Society met February 10, at the home of Mrs. C. T. West with Mrs. James Lanier co-hosting with Mrs. West.

Mrs. West, the president, called the meeting to order and conducted the business meeting.

Virginia Pitman gave a devotional from Romans 12, and led the group in prayer.

Mrs. James Lanier was program leader. She challenged our thinking in discussing the four temperaments in the human race. She brought out the thought that circumstances do not have to determine our reactions, that our strengths and weaknesses prevail by our choice. She stated that with the help of the Lord, we can overcome our natural weaknesses and enhance our natural strengths.

The meeting closed by all repeating the Missionary benediction.

The hostesses served refreshments to the sixteen members present.
