"You can't judge a book by its cover". Who ever authored that cliché probably had no idea just how true that was in today's world!

At a bookstore not long ago I was struck by the trend in book covers, be they paperbacks or hardcovers with a paper jacket.

For some reason book cover designers have decided that there is only one way to sell a book, and that's by decorating it with semi-uncovered bodies in fairly amazing settings.

It's to the point where a book on alphabetizing a library has an almost naked woman on it holding up library labels!

Romance novels seem to have begun the trend. No matter how mild they may be romantically, they feature gorgeous young women and handsome men practically tearing each other's clothing off...whether it's with a background of a burning city, a pirate ship or whatever.

The other day I bought a book at a bazaar, reading only the spine of the book on the shelf. "Creed for the Third Millennium" was the title. When I got it home the cover sported this picture of a couple in front of an advancing glacier, clutching each other passionately. "A story of betrayal and passion in the face of impending world disaster" screamed the blurb on the back.

Well, I began to read the book in spite of this rather tacky cover. And discovered that this is perhaps the most boring book, bar none, that I've ever read.

As far as a "Couple" is concerned...there just aren't any. And world disaster...well, there is plenty of that, but it's even a boring disaster! A new ice age, the world cooling down, and in only a few hundred years humanity will really begin to suffer. Add to that a world over-population which has resulted in laws limiting every family to one child only and while you have an interesting idea...it's a pretty boring book!

I tend to shy away from books that have too lurid a cover, but learned long ago that if I only read books plain covers I'd run out of reading material pretty fast.

The question is, though...why do they DO this? Why is it necessary to put these strange pairs of people on the cover of books, especially when it has absolutely nothing to do with the story?

Do they think that it is the only way they can sell their book?

Personally, I'd just as soon have no pictures at all!

Oh, well, just another method of marketing, a strategy which we all fall victim to...and can't do much about.

Every Day Thanksgiving Day

By Dan Flournoy

Thanksgiving is a legal holiday, set aside in our country for the purpose of reflecting on our blessings and to give thanks to God. While this is good, we often wonder about our attitude toward God the rest of the year. Is it possible that we often forget God's blessings and take them for granted?

God warned ancient Israel before they entered the land of promise, that they should not take His blessings for granted: "when thou shalt have eaten and be full; then beware lest thou forget the Lord." (Deuteronomy 6:11, 12).

How easy it is for us to forget the source of our prosperity. We push the dishes aside after a sumptuous Thanksgiving meal, stretch out in front of the TV and watch the game with little thought to Him who has made our lives so comfortable. Again, Scripture reminds us, "But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth..." (Deuteronomy 8:18).

A few years ago a young man from Sri Lanka ( a little island off the tip of India) visited our country. He was asked what he thought of America before his arrival. His face beamed with a broad smile as he said with a British accent, "Oh America! Everything instant and kingsize!". then he was asked, "Now that you have been here for a while, what do you think of America ?" His smile faded as he shook his head, "Americans no appreciate!" wa his sad reply.

We should not wait for a legal holiday to express our gratitude to the blessed Giver.

Use this Thanksgiving to remember the blessing we are so abundantly showered with...and use it as a starting point to try every day to give thanks for what we have.

Suspects Apprehended In Possible "Scam" Operation

An elderly Cunningham couple might have been the victim of a "scam" Monday, if it had not been for the intercession of neighbors.

According to reports, three men appeared at their door and handed them a bill for $300 for "adjusting lightning rods". They called a neighbor, who warned them not to pay the bill. The neighbor called the Lamar County Sheriff's department and then dispatched some Cunningham men to the couple's home.

The men who had presented them with the bill drove off, however, they were intercepted by Lamar County law enforcement officials.

The incident is currently under investigation, and people are warned to be very sure what they may be purchasing, or paying for before giving money to anyone they do not know as it is reported that a number of "scams" are currently underway.

Local Sales Tax Figures Released

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that sales taxes collected in July, August and September of this year of this year showed a steady increase over last year's collections.

"These rebates are right in line with our projections and show healthy economic growth in Texas," Bullock said.

The Comptroller's office today sent $140 million in sales tax rebate checks to cities and counties throughout Texas.

Payments to cities totaled $128 million for an 8% increase over last year's total payments at this time.

Blossom received $2,846.97 for a 4.22% decrease over last year's payment.

Deport received $2,455.65 for a 6.08% decrease over the payment in 1989.

Paris received $313,317.78 for a 12.55% increase.

Bogata received $4,313.89 for a

2.64% decrease while Clarksville received $24,895.512 for a 2.30% increase.

Detroit received $2,214.92 for a 10.40% increase over last year's payment.

Mt. Pleasant received $127,193.23 for a 3.76% increase over last year's payment.

Talco received $2,922.10 for a 10.03% decrease.

Merchants collect the state and local sales taxes and sent them to the Comptroller's office with their tax returns. The state keeps its share and sends cities and counties the local portion of the sales tax each month.

All local sales must be approved by area voters and may be used for any legal city or county expenses. Most areas put the money in their General Fund and use it for operations like fire fighting, maintaining roads and law enforcement.

Social Security Notes

By Ray Hudson

Change made in Medicare claims process. If you have Medicare medical insurance, you should know about an important change in the way your claims will be handled.

Starting September 1, your medical insurance claim must be prepared and submitted by the service provider, the doctor, laboratory, medical supply company or other party providing the service.

In the past, you had to submit Form 1490S unless your doctor or service provider accepted assignment. But now, the doctor or other service provider must send in your claim even if they don't accept assignment.

The service provider can't charge you for preparing and submitting the Medicare claim. If a service provider refuses to prepare and submit your Medicare claim or charges you a fee for doing it, you should contact your Medicare carrier.

The carrier's address and phone number are listed in your copy of the Medicare Handbook.

Country Cooking

By Gerrie Bankhead

"Country Cooking" comes from Nell Wolf, all the way from Milton, Texas.

George and Nell Wolf moved to this area from Garland in 1970. They have three children, Lyn, Cindy and David. They have three grandchildren, Sherrie, Stephanie and Joseph. Nell previously worked at Red River Haven Nursing Home, Deport Nursing Home, Deport Elementary School cafeteria and owned and operated Nell's Place Cafe in Deport.

Nell has totally changed careers now, she babysits her grandchildren. While George works at Bogata Propane Company, she enjoys going to garage sales, watching TV, cooking and listening to the Oak Ridge Boys. She also enjoys needle crafts and crocheting.

As you walk on Nell's front porch, you are surrounded by all the holiday crafts she has crocheted. She makes them and gives them away to friends and family.

Nell loves to cook and carry goodies to friends all over the area, especially the Deport Bank. She says the men and women there will eat anything.

Nell inherited her mother's cookbooks and recipes after her death in 1983. Some of the books date back to 1945 and some of them sold for as little as $.25. Nell loves to collect recipes and a great number of them have torn edges, are brown with age, and like some of mine, are stained with memories of long hours of labor. I thought I had a good collection of cookbooks and recipes, but the longer I visited with Nell, the more she brought out. Two of the recipes she decided to share with you were her mothers, the Pumpkin Cake and the Crystal Cake. She prepared these dishes and carried them to Deport Nursing Home for the cake walk a couple of weeks ago.

You will be reading a lot of recipes from Nell in the future because she has a lot of helpful hints, plus she's noted for her outrageous mexican food. We hope you enjoy them.

This week I received a letter and recipes from Vicki Couch Ballard of Paris and I want to share two bread recipes she sent, Broccoli Cornbread and Italian Hero Loaf. She says they are beautiful and easy to make and fun.

If you have a recipe to share, send a copy to me, also if you have a feature suggestion, call 652-6032 or write Rt. 1, Box 67A, Deport, TX 75435.

Bradley O'Brien is shown in foreground with a fellow soldier as a young Saudi boy milks a camel and shares the milk with them.

American Soldiers Accept Saudi Generosity

Recently following a hard, hot day in the desert of Saudi Arabia, a group of soldiers in special training met a lad driving a small jeep-type vehicle herding his camels.

They began talking with him in Arabic and he offered them milk, after taking his picture. Certain that he had the milk in his jeep, he took their cups and headed to the mother camel and began milking the camel for his newfound friends.

To the soldiers amazement, they decided it wasn't all bad and thanked the lad, Kahlid, who climbed into the jeep and went on his way with the camels.

This was quite an experience for the group of soldiers, who included Spec. Bradley O'Brien of Garland, TX, and a soldier from Connecticut.

Patriot Sports Report

JV Boys Lose To Mt. Pleasant

By B.A. Sessums
Prairiland's JV boys' basketball team came away on the short end of the score in Friday's game against Mt. Pleasant. The JV boys were out-manned by Mt. Pleasant, but managed to stay within striking distance during the first quarter, 15-7. Mt. Pleasant, however, widened their lead each quarter, using their size and speed. The final score was 56-30. All JV boys participated in the game. Leading scorers for Prairiland were Swede Ladd with 7, David Singleton with 6 and Brandon Johnson with 5.

Lady Patriots Defeat Sulphur Springs

Star Ruckman, returning All District senior wing opened the first game of the season with 35 points to her credit, as the Lady Patriots defeated Sulphur Springs 68-63 in overtime. By the end of the first quarter, Prairiland led 21-17, with Lori Malone, Dana Monday and Melissa Miller assisting with eight free throw attempts. Height advantage worked for Sulphur Springs in the second quarter until Ruckman, Katie Mowery and Malone with three, brought the Lady Pats back 33-33 to go into halftime. Prairiland was ahead in the third, 49-47 with Mowery's three point shot and more hits by Ruckman. The first 2:00 of the fourth quarter saw Ruckman again with seven continuous shots that brought the game 56-49. By the near quarter end, Shawonna Rhoades and Shelly Ladd both fouled out, Ruckman again came through and hit for three free throws, sending the game into overtime, 61-61. Sulphur Springs in foul trouble with all starters sporting four each, could not stop Ruckman and Dana Monday, who ended the game 68-63 with Ruckman adding five free throws and Monday the last basket of the game.

Prairiland Loses Two To Mt. Pleasant

On Friday, November 16, the Mt. Pleasant Lady Tigers soundly defeated the Lady Patriots 56-38. The girls had lost their aggressive floor play that had looked so well earlier in the week against Sulphur Springs. Laura Hays and Dana Monday each had 10 points each. Their free point shooting was no better with the Lady Pats hitting only 9 of 29.

The boys game was somewhat closer as the end of the first quarter closed with only six points scored by each team. But halftime would see the Tigers command the lead 19-14. Prairiland was able to maintain their lead throughout the rest of the game until the last two minutes and the Tigers hit from the free throw line and came out ahead to win the game.

Girls Drop First Game To Sulphur Springs

By B.A. Sessums
The Prairiland JV girls basketball team dropped their final game of the season to 4A Sulphur Springs team last Tuesday night. Sulphur Springs started off with a 16-4 first quarter lead, but super shooting by Janec Jackson, who hit three 3-pointers and unity defense brought the halftime score to 21-16. Nevertheless, the Sulphur Springs girls again pulled ahead of Prairiland and the final score was 48-33. Janec Jackson ended the night with 17 points.

WE CAN ALL FIND GOOD REASONS TO GIVE OUR THANKS

Though fortune seems to pass you by,
There's something that you can't deny:
At times we all have things go wrong,
But manage still to get along.
If you can somehow pay each bill,
And no one at your house is ill,
And if your children get good grades
And don't indulge in escapades,
And if you have just one good friend,
In case misfortune should descend,
Then you have blessings by the score,
Of things you should be thankful for.
Your House of Worship will convey
This message for Thanksgiving Day,
So let us all, with one accord,
Extend our thanks unto the Lord.
— Gloria Nowak

False accusations of child abuse: What professionals don't know can hurt you

"We knew our son was in danger," says Dr. Dana Ferguson speaking of the stepson she and her husband raised from the age of four to 15. "The trouble started," Ferguson recalls, "when, on the advice of a trusted counselor, my husband and I agreed to let the boy try living with his biological mother. Once with his mother and sister, he became increasingly antagonistic towards us. Then his sister began accusing relatives of sex abuse, and the next thing I knew, the stepson I raised reported to the police that I had molested him."

Dr. Dana Ferguson, a practicing psychologist for 20 years, describes her nightmare experience in Bad Moon Rising: A True Story. The false accusations of sexual abuse by her stepson plunged Dr. Ferguson into the confusion of Child Protective Services and the state's legal system. It took years before she was exonerated.

As the number of child abuse accusations has increased, so has the number of false accusations. Increasingly, courts and psychologists are finding the accuser is the abuser, particularly in custody cases. One parent brainwashes the child into accusing the other parent of physical or sexual abuse. The child becomes a pawn, with devastating emotional and psychological consequences for the child and the family. This syndrome is called Munchausen's syndrome by proxy, or MSP, after the famed fabricator of tall tales, Baron Munchausen.

"We turned to professionals for help, expecting competence," Dr. Ferguson says. "It took the court-appointed psychologist three years to diagnose the destructive relationship between the boy and his biological mother as one of Munchausen syndrome by proxy. By that time, it was too late." Tragically, the MSP scenario ensuring that the child will side with accusing parent and destroys the child's relationship with the other parent, often forever.

Munchausen syndrome by proxy was first diagnosed in medical settings. A small number of mothers fabricated or induced illness in their children to obtain attention from caregivers. In the 1980s psychologists began to report the increasing incidence of MSP in sex abuse cases.

Munchausen syndrome by proxy itself is a form of child abuse. Given the increasing incidence of the syndrome, professionals who deal with child abuse should be on the alert for it. But an Ohio study published in 1989 showed that less than 50 percent of these professionals had ever heard of MSP. Dr. Ferguson admits that until the tragic events involving her stepchildren, she and her husband, also a psychologist, were unaware of the syndrome.

In cases involving MSP, a young child is a passive victim. When the children are older, as in Dr. Ferguson's case, they can become active participants in the deception. "That is the tragedy of my stepson," Dr. Ferguson says sadly. "In order to be accepted by his mother, he had to share her conviction that he had been abused by the people who had loved him the most. I shudder to think of what she did to make him believe that. The result was that my husband and I lost our son. It was to give meaning to our suffering that I wrote the book."

Patterson Presented Government Service Award By Ag Group

State Representative L. P. "Pete" Patterson was presented the prestigious Distinguished Service Award for Government Service at the 64th meeting of the Professional Agriculture Workers of Texas in Longview recently. In making the presentation, the organization cited Patterson's long time support for agricultural issues and his leadership among those communities of which he serves. Dr. Marvin Cepica, Associate Dean of the College of Agriculture at Texas Tech University, who presented the award, related Patterson's rural roots, his having grown up on a family farm in Brookston, Texas, and his having continued the farming and ranching activities of that farm all of his life. Although employed in industry a number of years, Patterson continued his keen interest and involvement in the agricultural industry.

Representative Patterson has served District 2 in the Texas House of Representatives since 1977. His committee memberships include: Financial Institutions, Local and Consent Calendars, County Affairs, Appropriations, Natural Resources, Rules, Business and Industry and the Agricultural and Livestock Committee where he has been Vice-Chairman, Chairman of Budget and Oversight and Chairman of the Subcommittee on Agricultural Land.

Cepica said, "Pete Patterson has rural agricultural roots in Northeast Texas. He has been a strong supporter of agricultural issues in the Texas Legislature. In recognition for his outstanding service, the Professional Agricultural Workers of Texas takes great pleasure in Presenting its 1990 Distinguished Service Award too Representative L. P. "Pete" Patterson.

PAWT was originally chartered in 1928 and is a viable organization of agricultural professionals in Texas. Membership includes college faculty, extension service, vocational agriculture, teachers, veterinarians, Soil Conservation Service, USDA, ASCS, Experiment Station, Texas Department of Agriculture, producers, agricultural representatives of utility companies and other agencies and agribusinesses interested in Texas agriculture. The group meet annually to share ideas, discuss problems in the industry and to honor worthy persons who have served Texas Agriculture in an outstanding way. The 1990 theme of the three-day conference was "East Texas...Agriculture...Diversity...and Progress." The 1991 conference is scheduled for El Paso

If you knew Craig you saw Jesus
For he strived to be like him
He lived his life day to day
To please the ways of God
If you knew Craig you know love
For love was what he gave
Each and every caring work
Was all for us to gain
If you knew Craig you knew perfection
For he was perfect in every way
Immortal, yes you might could say
For he was the perfect child of God
