29 Entries In Cyclethon '74

The "Cyclethon '74" last Saturday, sponsored by the Haskell County Heart Association, drew 29 entries for the 20 mile course. Seven adults and 22 youths participated. All but two of the 29 finished the entire course. 26 were from Haskell, one each from Weinert, Rochester, and Abilene. The youngest participant was Dusty Burson, one year old son of Mrs. Linda Burson. Dusty accompanied his mother on the ride.

"Cyclethon '74" has netted pledges of $1,500 so far and pledges are still being received and those who participated in the ride may still solicit pledges to apply toward the prizes that will be given November 8. All pledges should be collected and turned in by Nov. 7.

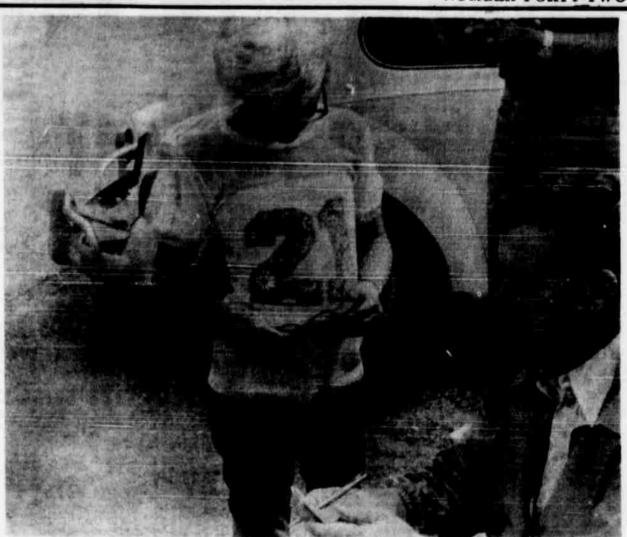

Starting time for the 20 mile ride was 9:15 and six boys were back in Haskell by 10:30 a. m. Three stops were required on the course for riders to have entry cards validated. Boys finishing so quickly were Kyle Markey, Todd Bragg, Jim Turner, Craig Childress, Chris Childress, and Will Pace.

Mrs. Judy Covington, president of the Haskell County Division of the American Heart Association, expresses thanks to Rev. Dudley Bragg, Mary Kennedy, Mrs. R. C. Couch, Sr., Mrs. Esta Cobb, Mary Sorre'ls, Jennie Medford, and Total and Mayre Wiseman for their help in Saturday's Cyclethon.

FB President Favors Non-Interterence

WACO - The president of the Texas Farm Bureau has warned that the Ford Administration "must accept responsibility for the unusually sharp price declines in certain crops that are dependent upon foreign markets." J. T. (Red) Woodson said the "co-called voluntary system for limiting exports of wheat, soybeans and feed grains will not be acceptable to American farmers if this plan results in continued disastrous price drops and loss of future export markets."

In a telegram sent to President Ford on Tuesday. Woodson said, "We respectfully request that you not use Presidential powers to restrict legitimate dollar sales of any farm commodity to any nation."

The president of the state's largest farm organization said the best solution to economic problems is non-interference by the federal government.

the problems in the livestock and dairy industries mostly have resulted from price controls and government-caused inflation," Woodson

"We must let the market system work if we are to have adequate supplies of food and fiber for the American people with enough left over for earning muchneeded dollars in foreign markets," the farm leader said

"All farm exports represent a significant part of the total market for our agricultural production," Woodson continued. "If this hardearned foreign market is taken away by Presidential decree, it will disrupt the entire agricultural economy for years to come. In this era of shortages, the greatest shortage of all may then be a shortage of food."

TWQB to Study Groundwater

Responding to requests from residents in Haskell and Knox counties, the Texas Water Quality Board has a comprehensive groundwater study of the area in the planning stage, according to Hugh C. Yantis Jr., TWQB Executive Director.

"Concern of the people in the two counties regarding levels of chloride and nitrate in their groundwater is our concern, too, and we are glad to sponsor this study," Yantis said.

Participating in the study, under contract with the TW-QB, is the Texas A&M University Experiment Station. The program also will be coordinated with other interested state agencies as well as with citizens in the study

"In order that we may receive local input, a Citizen's Advisory Committee has been selected to represent the area interests," Yantis said. "We hope members will review progress during the planning process and give us the benefit of their thinking," he added.

Members of the Advisory County, M. L. Wiggins, chairman, Clint Norman and Mrs. Callie Combs of Munday, and Dr. Ted Alexander of Knox City; for Haskell County, Joe Cloud of Rule and A. A. Cox of O'Brien. Calvin Christian of Seymour will represent Eastern Knox County and West Baylor County.

All area residents who wish to provide information for the planning study, or who have questions, are encouraged to contact committee members in their areas, Yantis urged.

Vets Eligible For Low Cost Life Insurance

Vietnam era veterans discharged during a four-year period before August 1 have until August 1, 1975, to apply for low-cost Veterans Group Life Insurance (VG-LI), according to Jack Coker, Veterans Administration Regional Office Director.

An estimated 2.7 million veterans separated from April 2, 1970, through July 31, 1974, are eligible for the insurance. It is designed as interim protection

Erosion --- How to Cope With It

If you can see signs of erosion on cultivated land. you are probably losing soil at the rate of more than 14 tons per acre per year.

"A loss this high shows that the land is inadequately protected," Jim Boykin, Soil Conservation Service Soil Conservationist, says. "Generally, losses much higher than this occur when rain or wind can strike bare cropland. Very steep unprotected land can lose more than 300 tons of soil per acre per

"It is not particularly important that the farmer or gardener is able to tell how many tons is lost," Boykin continued. SCS conservationists can figure this for those who really want a good estimate. The important thing is that if the farmer and gardener can see erosion-something needs to be done, and

"A common misconception is to blame all visible water erosion on running water, which we call 'runoff'," Boykin said. "Runoff does cut ditches and rills, but is generally a sign of advanced problems, which actually start with raindrops striking bare soil. You can prove this to yourself by observing bare soil in a small flower box or enclosure. Beating raindrops will actually erode the surface of the soil by splash action with no runoff at all. On the other hand, if you cover the box of soil with clippings, or plant it thickly in grass. no measurable splash erosion will occur. What this tells is that a cover on the best soil protection. "There are several things that farmers and gardeners can do about erosion," Boykin said. "First, practices can be used that keep a cover on the land. Beileve it or not, this can be done even in fields of sorghum, cotton, corn, soybeans, or any crop with a practice cultivated land-with vegetation or a mulch - is the

terracing and omer methods are also helpful to keep runoff from carrying sediment from the field," Boykin

For the gardener, a compost heap is a good investment in erosion control." Boykin said. "Just build a big box or old boards or wire fence in a shady place in your back yard and put all your leaves, grass clippings, and organic waste in Over time, nature will transform this material into excellent organic fertilizer. Mixed into the garden, compost will make the soil more spongy. It will absorb and hold more water. Used as a surface mulch, it will prevent water erosion.

Home gardeners can also use farm-tested practices. Contouring rows and using terraces in a home garden shortens the slope and reduces erosion. The contour ed rows capture the soil parpractice and will also reduce Press.

disease And there are edible plants such as turnip greens that can be used as a protective winter cover

For the farmer, reduction of erosion starts with wise land use planning." Boykin said. "A conservation plan utilizing up-to-date conservation methods is the farmer's best bet for full protection and income over the long term with the smallest loss of his basic soil resource."

Conservation planning assistance is available. For more information, contact your soil and water conservation district director or the Soil Conservation Service. Consumer Market Report

COLLEGE STATION-The meat outlook for coming weeks-"unpredictable," especially for beef.

Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, this week forecast a gloomy picture for beef eaters during the winter.

"As we get farther into the winter, less choice meat will be in markets, and we will be dealing with a lower grade beef that has a slightly different flavor and is less tender," she said.

Pork values this week include picnics, shoulder roasts and steaks, end-cut loin roasts and chops, and pork liver.

At fruit counters, Bartlett pears are available, and higher-priced prunes reflect this year's smaller crop. Golden Delicious apples are a versatile fruit choice, and Texas oranges are on market.

Peach and nectarine prices are moderate, while bananas, grapes, oranges, grapefruit, plums, pineapples, honeydew and cantaloupe feature various price levels. Buy them according to budget limits, the specialist

Geodetic Survey Underway

is being conducted in thirty counties of New Mexico and Texas, it was announced today by the Commerce Department's National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

Portable steel towers, some rising nine stories high, will be used to insure clear line of sight for determining geographic positions. Laser instruments will enable the federal surveyors to hold error to less than a half-inch in 10 miles.

The survey, estimated to cost $200,000, is being carried out by NOAA's National Geodetic Survey.

A geodetic survey is a precise survey which provides the basis for all forms of mapping; for the develop-ment of natural resources and large engineering projects, including the alignment of highways and buried water and sewage lines and electrical conduits; and for the

A five month Geodetic sur- construction of bridges. vey of more than 760 miles dams, tunnels, and nuclear plants.

The monitoring of the earth's movements at nuclear power plant sites by geodetic surveys is essential to the selection of stable land sites. Geodetic surveys also provide the basis for determining land boundaries and establishing accurate tax apportionment. The measurements take into consideration the curvature of the earth.

The field parties will conduct the survey in eight dif-ferent areas of New Mexico and Texas, establishing over 90 geographic positions of latitude and longitude every 8 to 10 miles.

One 18 man surveying team, headed by Ivan R. Crabbe of Lewiston, Idaho, will work Areas 1 through 4 which will cover portions of Lincoln, Roosevelt, Eddy and Lea Counties, New Mexico. and Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Gaines, Mitchell, Sterling, Tom Green, Irion and Croc kett counties. Texas The other 20-man field party headed by James L. Cook of Indianapolis, Ind., will work Areas 5 through 8 which will cover portions of Knox. Haskell. Jones. Throckmorton. Stonewall, Baylor, Archer,

Clay, Young, Stephens, Eastland, Brown, Mills, Hamilton. Bexar and Atascosa counties. Texas. The surveys are designed to fill gaps in the existing national network of distances. This network, along with tions, provides the basis for all accurate land measurements. The surveys will provide geographic positions that will be used as accurate starting data for mapping natural resources for alignment of highways and public utilities and for land boundaries. The networks are maintained by the National

a similar network of eleva-

Geodetic Survey. The surveying crews will conduct operations from atop the towers, using high precision instruments, including those employing laser light beams. Accuracy of measurements will be increased by working at night, when atmospheric disturbance is at a minimum Distance will be determined by computing the time taken by a laser light pulse to travel to a set of mirrors at another site and return.

Preliminary field work to plan the project began in mid-August. This phase is is being carired out in Areas 1 through 4 by surveying technician Charles R. Lesley. The preliminary field work in Area 5 through 8 is being conducted by surveying technician Wesley O. Means. The task involves selecting sites to be surveyed, securing landowners' permission for establishing the sites and computing the height of the portable towers.

DD Course Available In Spanish

AUSTIN - Spanish speak ing Texans may now take advantage of the safety and economic benefits of the Defensive Driving Course by taking the course in their native tongue, the Texas Safety Association recently announced.

TSA President Edwin B. Locke and Texas Board of Insurance Chairman Joe Christie introduced the Spanish version DDC to the public at a Capitol press conference in Austin.

DDC is a classroom driver improvement program for which qualified graduates receive a ten percent auto insurance discount. The insurance incentive plan for English version DDC graduates was initiated by the State Board of Insurance in September, 1972.

The lively, 8 hour course is supplemented with color films, visual aids and student workbooks which have been carefully translated into Spanish.

More than 19 percent of the Texas population-some two million residents-will now have the opportunity to become better drivers through a study course designed to suit their language needs," Christie said. He also noted that completion of the course will carry the normal three-year discount on automobile liability, collision and medical payment coverages written by insurance companies which are rate-regulated by the State Board of Insurance.

Pointing out that DDC is a joint venture of TSA and the National Safety Council, Locke commented, "We in Texas, with our large Spanish-speaking population, have been instrumental in the decision by NSC to make the course available in Spanish.

With the language barriers finally down, thousands more Texas motorists will have the opportunity to improve their driving skills through DDC. And every new defensive driver helps to make Texas a little safer."

Locke said he hoped to sec every one of Texas' 559 DDC training agencies offer the Spanish version. These agencies, located across the state, include local safety councils, civic groups, service clubs, churches, schools and businesses. Pointing out that the traffic accident is the country's number one killer of employees, Locke urged more Texas businesses and industries to incorporate DDC into company safety programs.

According to TSA officials, nearly 300,000 Texas drivers have graduated from DDC. In 1973 alone, TSA trained 145,000 drivers, a record in any state in any single year.

AUSTIN—The high cost of campaigning for statewide office in the State of Texas continues to be evident. Incumbent Gov. Dolph Briscoe reports expenditures from March through September 26 at approximately $800,000.

Republican gubernatorial hopeful Jim Granberry reported expenses of $412,880 in his effort to unseat Bristian his effort his eff coe and become the state's first Republican governor since Reconstruction.

Sam McDonnell, the American Party candidate for governor, reported contributions of $20,842 and expenses of $20,336. Granhaver's $20,336. Granberry's expenses exceeded his contribu-tions by $5,417. Briscoe's contributions totalled approx-imately $17,000 more than his expenses.

Excluded from Briscoe's contributions is about $407,-000 raised at an October 1973 dinner, where Briscoe announced his intention to run for a four-year term. The money remains in escrow, pending final deter-mination of a lawsuit filed by Briscoe's Democratic Primary challenger Frances Farenthold.

WATER BOARD DIRECTOR CRITICIZED - The Texas Attorney General's office has asked a subcommittee of the House Environmental Committee for authority to enforce anti-pollution laws without waiting for action of the Texas Water Quality Board.

Rod E. Gorman, an assistant attorney general, told the pollution subcommittee that TWQB Executive Director Hugh Yantis is blocking enforcement of anti-pollution

Gorman claimed very few major polluters are referred by the TWQB to the attorney general's office.

Phil Maxwell, director of the AC's environmental pro-

the AG's environmental pro-tection division, urged emer-gency legislation to strength-en the Attorney General's role in enforcing pollution

The proposed bill would allow the attorney general to "enforce on his own initiative" such laws as the Texas Clean Air Act and the Texas Water Quality Act and any other laws or regulations "affecting the quality of the environment or the use of natural resources."

CAR DEALERS CUSTOMER AID - Texas Automobile Dealers Association has formed an in-house panel to attempt to satisfy customer gripes against 1,500 Texas new car dealers.

The seven-member Auto-Consumer Action motive Panel (AutoCAP) can levy up to $1,000 in fines against an erring dealer and require his expulsion from TADA. Executive Director for TA-Gene Fondren says about 90 per cent of consumer complaints can be resolved, however, by adequate communication between consumer and car dealer.

SCHOOL FINANCE Governor's Office of Education plans to recommend to the Legislature a system of financing Texas public schools that "focuses on the student and his needs" says Dr. Richard Hooker, chief of the office.

Hooker told an educational study panel that school funding in Texas is now cal-culated on a classroomculated on a classroom-teacher unit, based on average daily attendance in public schools. The result, he said, is probably the most complicated formula in the United States for measuring

Hooker said his office plans to proposed a calcula-tion based on a "full-time pupil equivalent." TEXAS GETS FEDERAL DOLLARS—Texas will get $73 million from the U.S. reasury in revenue-sharing funds for the quarter of fisal 1975. ## Day Care

With costs increasing every day more and more women find they must find jobs to supplement the family's income. Many are finding that the most difficult part of this situation is locating dependable child care facilities. With the public interest in child care increasing, Mrs. Mary Evan and Miss Barbara Baker, Licensing Representatives of the State Department of Public Welfare, offer the following information on day care of children: 1. Day care of unrelated children requires a license from the State Dept. of Public Welfare (Section 8A of Article 695c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). 2. Many people are unfamiliar with the state statutes and may begin operation of a day care program without the necessary license. license is required for the care of even one unrelated child. 3. There is no fee for obtaining a license. However, the child care facilities must meet certain minimal standards which concern the safety, health and growth and development of children. This will include annual inspections by fire and health departments.

A free list of all licensed facilities may be obtained through the State Depart-ment of Public Welfare, Central Plaza, Suite 102-C, Wichita Falls, Texas 766-3371.

5. Injunctions and fines processed through the County Attorney will be enforced against all unlicensed child care facilities.

6. Any individual or group interested in obtaining information on day care may contact this department.

If you're so rich, why aren't you smart?

So you're making a good salary. But you're not saving any of it. Instead, you want to go after the "big deal" that's going to make you a cool million. Maybe.

What happens if your big scheme goes sour? You've still got to get through the future. And, let's face it. Nobody can afford to take tomorrow for granted. So maybe you'd better join the Payroll Savings Plan now.

Just sign up at work. An amount you specify will be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. That way, you can still afford to take a few financial risks, if that's your bag. But you'll always have a solid cash reserve to fall back on. And hat's being smart.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (41% the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed When needed, they can be cashed at your bank Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.
