EDITOR'S NOTE

The Free Press Staff has been accused of many things during the past 88 years but never, until last week had we been accused of not being able to tell the difference in a football game and a pile of bricks. We promise to try to do better in the future.

INDIAN QUARTERBACK GARY McADAMS breaks loose for a 34 yard gain last Friday night in Paducah. The gain set up the only Indian score of the game which came three plays later. Indian George Brown carried for the extra points to give the Tribe an 8-6 win over the Dragons. The Indians will meet the undefeated Knox City Greyhounds at Indian Field this Friday night at 7:30 p.m. A bon fire and pep rally will be held Thursday night at 7 o'clock just south of the Railroad Museum.

Meet Knox City Friday

Indians Down Paducah 8-6

The Haskell Indians squeaked by the Paducah Dragons 8-6 last Friday night in a game that was decided by an official.

The critical call came on Paducah's extra point attempt after time had run out in the game. Had the extra point attempt been good the game would have ended in a tie. It was obvious that Paducah fans thought the runner had crossed the goal line before he fumbled the ball but the official ruling was that he had not.

It all came about when the dragons moved the ball 62 yards in three plays with seconds left in the game. With two seconds on the clock Paducah called time out. The official signaled for the clock to stop but it didn't, so the Dragons got one more play. The one play proved good enough for six points and put them within two points of a tie. At practically the same instant the Paducah runner reached the goal line the ball squirted back onto the playing field.

The Tribe's only score came with 7:54 left in the game when Jim Pippin carried from the three. George Brown carried for the extra points. The score came after an eight play drive which covered 78 yards. A 16 yard pass from Gary McAdams to Brown and a 36 yard run by McAdams were key plays in the drive.

Neither team moved the ball in the first quarter. The dragons almost scored in the second period but were held on four plays from inside the eleven.

The Tribe came within 12 yards of a score in the final moments of the third period but a fumble on the seven yard line halted the drive.

Pippin led the Tribe in rushings with 89 yards in 15 carries for an average of 5.93 yards per carry. McAdams rushed for 58 yards and passed for 42 yards.

Indian Chris Love suffered a twisted knee early in the fourth quarter and will probably not play this Friday. Johnny Larned and Adam Sanchez both had hurt knees Monday and Johnny Hawkins had a possible shoulder separation. According to head coach Tommy McAdams all except Love should be able to play some this Friday against the Knox City Greyhounds.

The Greyhounds are undefeated this year and have only allowed 41 points to be scored against them. The Greyhounds have scored a total of 323 points in nine games.

According to Coach McAdams the team has good talent and is not weak at any position. They have a good quick defense and a balanced offense. They run to both sides and can pass.

McAdams said the Indians would concentrate on defense during much of this weeks practice.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Indian Field. See you there.

Cadenhead Receives Keeter Award

HARDIN SIMMONS - Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cadenhead on the stage of Behrens Chapel Auditorium at Hardin-Simmons University after he received the Keeter Award, top left. Dr. Cadenhead was surprised by the award, but also by the children at the assembly program. About 2,000 people were in attendance for the presentation.

bestows annually upon an alumnus.

The presentation was made during the Homecoming-Parents Day assembly program by James Cassle, Abilene businessman who received the honor last year. The citation was read by Dr. Clyde Childers, H-SU's vice president for development.

The Keeter Award was endowed in 1943 by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Keeter of Throckmorton in memory of a son, John J. Jr., and is awarded each year to an alumnus who has performed distinguished service to his alma mater.

Dr. Cadenhead was rotated off the H-SU Board of Trustees Friday after serving since 1965. He graduated from H-SU with honors in May, 1942, at the age of 18. He had enrolled as a pre-med student after graduating as high boy in his class at Weinert High School at the age of 15.

He became a medical doctor at the age of 21 after graduating from Vanderbilt University Medical School in 1945. He served with the U. S. Air Force until 1947, when he was discharged because of the terminal illness of his father, and was recalled to active duty in 1953 during the Korean War.

Dr. Cadenhead decided early in his career that he would become a family physician, and established his practice in Haskell in 1947. In 1972 he received a special award in New York City for 25 years of membership in the American Academy of Family Physicians.

Dr. Cadenhead was a member of the Taylor-Jones County Medical Society until he helped organize the Haskell-Knox-Baylor Medical Society, which he has served as president. He also has been a member and president of the Haskell School Board and a member and president of the Haskell Lions Club. He is a deacon in the First Baptist Church of Haskell.

Mrs. Cadenhead, the former Billie Buntyn, also is a graduate of H-SU, and all four of their children have attended H-SU, two of them graduating. Dr. and Mrs. Cadenhead also have helped numerous students attend H-SU through the years.

The children are Diann (Mrs. Bill Proctor) of Waco; Wayne, a medical student in San Antonio; J. F. III, of College Station; and Helen Mary (Mrs. Billy Holmes) of Gusman, Okla.

As a trustee, Dr. Cadenhead has served as chairman of the Student Affairs Committee. He also is a member of the President's Club.

Council Holds Meeting

The Haskell City Council met Tuesday night in regular session with all members present. Councilman Guy Kennedy gave the prayer.

Those attending were: Mayor Belton Duncan, Councilmen, Loraine Johnson, Buster Gholson, Guy Kennedy, Carl Anderson, and Jimmy Brown; others included Marvin Collins, Water Supt., Joe Williams, City Attorney, and Desmond Dulaney, City Secretary. Visitors at the meeting were: Jay O'Neal, president of Cen-Tex Cable TV Co., Jerry Smith, Manager of Cen-Tex, and Jerry Kehoe, Division Manager of General Telephone Company.

Representatives of Cen-Tex met regarding a rate increase of $7.50 per month which will go into effect January 1, 1975. The rate increase came under the 1960 franchise granted the company which stated that rates could be increased to $7.50. The two stated that the new system should be complete about the first of February and that plans now call for the adding of an educational TV channel and another general TV channel during 1975.

Kehoe presented the council with information regarding a rate increase which will probably be requested in the future. He did not request an increase but presented information for the council to consider in the future. Because of Extended Area Service (toll free calling between Haskell, Rule, Weinert and Rochester) the rates in all four cities must be the same. Before the increase could go into effect the councils of all four towns would have to approve it. He spoke of increases of as much as 40.8% but it is doubtful that any such increase would be approved by the councils.

In other action the Council discussed a new water line in the southwest part of the city and the possibility of taking bids on a backhoe machine. No action was taken on either of the items.

Next meeting of the council will be November 26.

JUSTICE COURT

Judge Hubert Bledsoe, Justice Court, Precinct 1, reported a total of 51 convictions during the month of October. The traffic and criminal cases filed by the Highway Patrol, Game Dept., and Sheriff's Dept., resulted in a total of $1,287.50.

Farm Bureau Memberships Up In 1974

WACO--(Spl)--Another phenomenal year of membership growth has been recorded by the Texas Farm Bureau, according to an announcement by J. T. (Red) Woodson, president.

Official tabulation of the organization's 1974 membership figure was completed Friday, November 8, showing a total of 166,216 family memberships. This is a gain of 13,836 over the 1973 figure and marks the 22nd consecutive year for the state's largest farm organization to register a membership gain. TFB's fiscal year ended October 31.

All of the 210 organized county Farm Bureaus had an increase in membership for the second year in a row.

Woodson said.

The five largest counties in membership size are (1) Harris--2,716; (2) McLennan--2,407; (3) Ellis--2,396; (4) Fayette--2,234; and (5) Van Zandt--2,231.

Woodson said the big increase in Farm Bureau membership is evidence that farmers and ranchers want to solve their problems through organized effort.

"Agricultural producers realize that there are no easy solutions to many of their problems and that compromise is sometimes necessary," Woodson said. "They know that many problems are national in scope and that it takes a big organization to speak with authority on the national level. That's why farmers and ranchers have again given Farm Bureau another big vote of confidence."

What are CowBelles?

They are women who have one common denominator--their affiliation with the Beef Industry. Some call it a shirttail affiliation, but to all of us, a very important affiliation to our common product--BEEF.

In the past few months we all have become very aware of the attacks on "our" product. The CowBelles work towards promoting beef, educating the public, and serving in any way they can to make Americans more aware of our great product.

This sounds like a tremendous task, but the women of the industry are in a unique position--they're a part of being a producer and a consumer and are in closer contact to what is needed and where.

The state CowBelles organizations are made up of local chapters that function for the needs of their own local areas. This can be done in many ways.

Some see that printed material about Beef is distributed to schools as teaching aids to home economics teachers. Other areas set up displays in their area stores as Information Centers on Beef. Some even set up cooking demonstrations, some put together "Brides Kits", comprised of printed information on Beef--how to buy it, cook it and utilize it.

One of the nationwide promotions CowBelles are completely responsible for is "Beef for Fathers Day". Local areas are supplied illustrated material for them to use in their area. Many award a beef roast the same weight as the first baby born on Fathers Day.

Pages could be filled with all the good projects CowBelles are responsible for. Primarily, it's up to the CowBelles themselves. It has been proven by several surveys that where CowBelles have done a good job of educating the public, beef sales were up considerably. And after all, that's what we're interested in--selling Beef.

This should be mentioned too--several instances the CowBelles have been instrumental in better legislation for our Beef Industry.

"Our" Beef Industry has a very proud heritage. There's no industry as large in the United States that has less Federal government involved in it. It's a proud heritage because it's well deserved.

Texas is number one in beef production and has more cattle on feed than any other state, so we have a lot at stake.

If you would care to join all women affiliated with the Beef Industry and work in any way for the great industry, join Texas CowBelles and get your areas represented and organized. If there are even just one or two who want to take part, let us hear from you. There might be others in your area you don't know about, and we can help you all get together to form your local CowBelles group.

Our state dues are $10.00--$5.00 for state use and $5.00 for membership to the National CowBelles of which we are a part. Your local areas will set their own dues in addition to the $10.00. We all need some capital to start with. The printed information we all use is at cost price, but is a cost.

Some areas put on money raising projects--it all depends on what local groups wish to do. Some areas have picked a city in a non-beef producing state to help educate more about our big product--BEEF. Some areas offer scholarships for home economics major graduates. Some help special schools for children. These type of projects are local CowBelles projects and depends entirely on how active any given area wants to be.

Talk together and let us hear if you would be interested in being a working part of our biggest interest in Texas--BEEF.

Rice Springs News

Seems we hollered rain for so long and now we have it. The rain has confined our residents in and not quite as many visitors have come out. For many reasons, we are about ready for the sun to shine.

One of our residents Mamie Hopkins has gone to Gilmer to live. We shall miss Mamie and hope she will be happy back in Gilmer. That was her original home.

Sadness again struck our home. Callie Mae Day expired November 2, 1974. Mrs. Day had been a resident of Rice Springs since May, 1972. Leonard Singleton expired November 4, 1974. He had been a resident of Rice Springs since December 1968. To both their families, we extend our heart felt sympathy. We shall truly miss these.

Visiting Oscar Vanderworth was Malcomb Hertenburger of Rule, Hazel Letz, Gladys Grice, and LeeRoy Vanderworth of Old Glory, George Klose of Haskell, and Mrs. Wesly Rhoads of Stamford. Gus and Henrietta Rueffer came and took Mr. Vanderworth to vote.

Opal Barker had a real good report on her hip this week after her trip to Abilene. She also had a big birthday Sunday with all her children here.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Brothers from Morton, Texas visited Ada Brothers.

Visiting Bertha Yarbrough was Clayburn and Velma Clark of Stamford and Rose Weaver of Rule.

Hugh Phemister of Montague was here and took his mother Ida Phemister to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Phemister of Weinert.

Mary Honea, Mary George

and Ida Goodwin all visited Mrs. Mattie Sammons. We certainly appreciate the mustard greens and turnips that Mrs. George brought.

The Gospel Singers lead by Tom Watson were out this week to entertain and was certainly enjoyed by all.

The G.A.'s sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Haskell brought us a Puppet Show. They were a delight and thank you for coming.

We have several new residents at Rice Springs. They are Mattie King and Carrie Gates of Munday; and Mrs. Mattie Sammons of Haskell. We extend a hearty welcome to these.

Pansy Harris and Mrs. Alfred Pierson brought beautiful fall flowers for the tables and decorated the home with their loveliness.

We also appreciate the gift for our Activities from the Grace Bible Class of the First Baptist Church.

NATURAL GAS For Years To Come

With all the talk about conservation, many might believe that we have only enough natural gas for a few tomorrows. We'd like to assure our residential and other high priority customers that Lone Star has an adequate supply. Not only for the present, but for years to come.

We were actively engaged in exploration programs long before the energy crisis. And since the crisis, we're exploring even harder to insure your continued supply of natural gas.

Conservation is one way to extend the supplies we now have on hand. And they can last much longer by avoiding wasteful uses of energy. By making it last longer, more time is allowed for new forms of energy to be developed.

Of course new supplies are going to cost more. But natural gas is still the best buy for your energy dollar!

Conserve natural gas. Conservation will help keep the cost as low as possible.

Dear Editor,

The camping committee of the West Texas Girl Scout Council has been evaluating last summer's camping program in order to make plans for next year.

Our day camp attendance showed a sizable increase this past summer. The program for the girls was excellent.

The day camp program depends entirely on volunteer staff. We recognize the many hours of work and planning that go into a successful day camp. This year's success was due to the enthusiasm and hard work of the many volunteers who worked at the Girl Scout day camp in your community.

The members of the camp committee would like to thank each volunteer for a job well done. The girls will long remember their wonderful experience.

Sincerely,

Jack Holden, Chairman

Costs: Herbicides Vs. Conventional Methods

At the Southwestern Great Plains Research Center located at Bushland, Texas, our research scientists are re-juggling their prior thinking on a score of ideas concerning chemicals. Their prognosis is that chemicals more and more will replace field tillage operations in the years that lie ahead.

Some of the questions being asked are mighty intriguing. How about permanent beds in your fields? Can crop yields be held high under no-tillage farming? Can $10 per acre for chemicals replace four trips across the acre with a machine.

One thing for sure, our research scientists at Bushland are re-figuring their economics on chemicals use as a result of rising prices, like any other farmer today.

Another good question is the possibility of combining irrigated and dryland farming for a profit. Dr. Paul Unger, ARS soil scientist at Bushland, is studying "alternate irrigated-dryland systems". Two different cropping sequences—one an irrigated-dryland system for continuous winter wheat, the other a three-year plan using irrigated wheat, fallow, and dryland sorghums.

The present water storage from rainfall amounts to only 15 to 25 percent. Unger believes that it should be 50 to 60 percent. Unger's studies are employing the use of chemicals for weed control, larger amounts of plant residues to hold moisture in the soil and an outright attempt to make this system of farming a reality.

"Where we have a heavy cover of wheat residues, our no-till dryland sorghum plots were never under stress during the 1974 growing season", noted Unger.

In other studies, Dr. Allen F. Weise, weed specialist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station located at the Bushland Center is studying the newer chemicals for knocking out weeds, volunteer and cover crops, and chemical combinations for use on various crops in normal farming operations.

"The control of cover crops, weeds and volunteer plants are the most difficult weed problems associated with minimum tillage operations in dryland areas," Weise said.

Minimum tillage does not require a lot of elaborate equipment and additional expense. In many instances a farmer's existing equipment can be adapted to reduce tillage operations. Some modifications may be needed to meet individual needs and preferences.

Minimum tillage using chemicals for weed control still is a cheaper way of farming than the conventional methods. Each trip across the field saves fuel, wear and tare on machinery and equipment, and labor. The more trips saved the greater the profit. And in today's economy, we had better begin seriously to think of any method of farming whereby we can save money.

ECM Drawing To Close

November 30th is the dead-line for completing the 1974 Emergency Conservation Measures Program. The ECM was initiated in Haskell County last September, 1973 to furnish cost-share assistance for repairing and restoring conservation measures damaged during the June, 1973 flood.

Producers who have not completed their work have until November 30th to complete the work or report to the Haskell County ASCS Office that it has been either completed or substantially completed. This fact MUST be reported. The producer must sign a certification that the work is completed or he receives no cost-share assistance. Its just that simple: No report. No sign. No pay.

Short Takes

The U. S. farm population appears to be stabilizing. Latest figures show a decline of only 0.8 percent per year from 1970-1973, compared with a 4.8 percent average annual decline in the 1960's. There are currently 9.5 million people living on farms in the USA, only about 6 percent of the Nation's population.

Cong. Burleson Announces Summer Job Examinations

Washington, D. C.—Congressman Omar Burleson (D-Tex) said today that the Civil Service Commission is now receiving applications for the 1975 competitive examination for summer employment with the United States Government. The examination leads to eligibility for appointment to most temporary summer jobs in the clerical field and as aides in engineering and science occupations. The Commission has announced the filing deadlines. Those who file by December 13 will be tested in January. Those who file by January 17 will be tested in February. No test application postmarked after January 17 will be accepted. The Congressman urges students to file early for the test to enhance their chances for employment.

Complete instructions for filing and information on opportunities available are contained in CSC announcement No. 414, Summer Jobs in Federal Agencies, which may be obtained upon request through Congressman Burleson's Washington Office, 2369 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D. C., 20515, or from Federal Job Information Centers, most college placement offices, or from the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., 20415.

The Commission will not automatically send forms to those who qualified in the previous year, and who wish to remain on the lists for consideration in 1975. Those who qualified for summer employment in 1974 must update their applications by submitting a form enclosed in the summer employment announcement by February 28, 1975. They are not required to retake the written test.

The U. S. Postal Service is not participating in the 1975 summer employment examination. Inquiries regarding summer employment with the Postal Service should apply to the post office where employment is desired.
