

Nichols
Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

After the "endless" days of sunshine lulled me into thinking that winter wasn't coming...I awoke the other morning to find October was here.

True, the calendar had been telling me it was autumn for several weeks...but it didn't feel like autumn.

Where were those gray, rainy days? Where the plaintive cries of passing geese and the lonely chatter of ducks heading for warmer climes?

Even the little hummingbirds stayed on a little longer than usual.

It was so dry that for the first time ever I had to keep dragging around the water hose for roses, mums and periwinkles alive.

So I was lulled into a feeling of contentment all too rare for me during the advent of the colder seasons.

Then, Friday I awoke to a gray, lowering sky and a promise of rain.

Before the day was over, that promise was fulfilled, and we received the much-needed rain.

Since then it has been gray, wet, soggy, muddy, and all the things that typify normal October weather.

And as for me...I'm lower than low can be. Blue, depressed and despondent!

While I enjoy the rain, at the same time the sight of the leaves swirling away makes me realize just how soon it will be cold and wintry.

Now the geese are going by, and I feel restless and ill at ease.

Add to that the time change leaving a feeling that everything is being done at the wrong time and I was a mess.

Perhaps it's my instinct to migrate. My husband doesn't possess that instinct. He can't wait for it to get really cold. He wishes it would snow!

So, we agree to disagree. He smiled and was cheerful all weekend. I sulked and felt sorry for myself at the same time.

I'll get over it. I always do. But for now I sing the blues.

I'm reminded of an old song "though the changing colors are a lovely thing to see...if it were mine to make the change...I think I'd let it be. But I don't remember hearing anybody asking me."

From Fried To Flood... All In A Few Days!

Over Eight Inches Of Rain Inundates Area

By Nanalee Nichols

After nearly two months of drought and one of the driest Octobers on record this area has been hit by massive rainfall.

Beginning last Friday, October 25th, rain fell Friday and Saturday, relieving drought and making most people happy.

Showers continued through the weekend.

On Monday, however, the showers changed to deluge as over six inches fell within a 24 hours period.

This rain was accompanied by massive lightning storms, some high winds and generally raw, hazardous weather. One storm seemed to follow on the heels of another, leaving no gaps between storms.

By Tuesday evening the total precipitation had accumulated to over eight inches.

Creeks were swollen beyond their banks, and some low-lying roads were closed, either for a short time, or in some cases, several hours.

Reports of cattle trapped in low pasture areas, lightning striking houses and trees, and flooding of some homes were reported.

Roofs that have not leaked in prior rains suddenly were unable to handle the load, and water dripping through ceilings and down walls became common.

In addition a cold front is moving into the area, and could even bring the chance of freezing rain!

All in all, it was a wet, loud introduction to November!

It's Time To Enter Thunder Prairie's Christmas ColorPhoto Contest!

A close up of a brilliant red Christmas ornament, a shot of last year's "white Christmas", a picture of a festive table, a seasonally decorated church...what do they all have in common, they all could be entries into Thunder Prairie Publishing's Christmas Color Photo Contest.

For the first time ever, The Blossom Times, Bogata News, Deport Times and Talco Times will have a color photo graph on the front page of their annual Christmas edition.

Nichols are inviting anyone with a thirty-five millimeter camera to submit their favorite color print of a Christmas scene.

The picture MUST come from 35 MM cameras. They must have good color, and they must be sharp and clear.

They may depict anything that represents the Christmas season.

The winner of the contest will receive a first place certificate, a free year's subscription to the paper of their choice (Deport, Bogata, Blossom or Talco), two free rolls of color film and a credit under the photo announcing that they took the picture.

In addition, there will be second, third and fourth place certificates given and a free roll of film to the second, third and fourth place winners.

All entries must be in by Monday, December 16, 1991, so hurry.

They can be mailed to Thunder Prairie Publishing, P.O. Box 98, Deport, TX, 75435, or left with Denise Wood at Bogata, Liz Irwin at Blossom, Nancy Brown at Talco, or at the Deport Times office.

The photos will be returned if accompanied by a stamped, self addressed envelope, or they may be picked up at the Deport or Bogata offices during office hours.

All photos should be marked on the back with the name, address and phone number of the entrant.

Anyone, whether amateur or professional may enter the contest. There is no age limit. However, please limit your entries to two per person.

Judges decisions will be final. Any questions may be directed to Nanalee Nichols at 903-652-4205 or 903-652-5823.

Letter To The Editor

Letter To The Editor:

Freedom of speech, goodwill toward all men, innocent until proven guilty, private property, a few of our American principals.

My story is this: my U.S. Flag was taken down from our flag pole and replaced last week. An unsigned letter was left in our mailbox, addressed to me, criticizing the condition of our flag. This letter was addressed to me, not my whole family, so I am responding. If someone had seen fit to sign this letter this matter could have been handled on a one to one basis instead of having to be aired in front of several thousand people!

But, whoever took it, we want our flag back. There were a number of reasons that faded flag was flying.

Our flag has flown day and night since troops were sent to Saudi Arabia to serve in Operation Desert Storm. We put that flag up out of patriotism, and love for our country.

Like the hearts of family and friends who still have people over there, that flag was torn, tattered and faded...but it stood for a lot to us. We wanted that flag to fly until the troops were ALL home, or until bad weather set in.

We don't want to fly your flag, and have taken it down. Feel free to pick it up. The flag we were flying was intended for our children to have later in life. We pray it would be the only war they would ever have to be exposed to, but it was certainly the first.

We have had the military touch on our lives. My uncle Dave (D.G.) Flenniken was taken prisoner in 1941 in Germany. My brothers Boyce and Charles Doyce Flenniken fought in Korea. We are patriotic people, and we meant no disgrace to our great flag.

We were privileged this past summer to take our family to Washington D.C. The trip happened to be at the same time the Welcome Home Celebration for the troops took place. If we could only let you feel what we felt to be a part of that celebration your heart would be so full of pride. you would have tears and goose bumps, as we did. To see the troops, their machinery and the tributes paid to them for defending our freedom and U.S. Flag was, for us, an honor.

Our son Zachary said "Mom, you know you should just turn the other check." I mean no one harm by this letter, but I just want you ever took our flag, even though you did put up a pretty new one, to know that there were reasons the other one flew so long, and in the condition it was in. It was not disrespect...it was patriotism.

We would like flag back, please.

Sincerely,

Phebe Allen

PREPARING TO SERVE tea and viewing a collection of her recipes is Mrs. Ruth Cheatham, who is sharing with us this week in the Country Cooking Column. (Staff Photo by Gerrie Bankhead)

Country Cooking

By Gerrie Bankhead

The Country Cooking column is coming to you this week from the dining room of Ruth and Curtis Cheatham of Deport. Being married for 53 years, they were born and raised in this area. Ruth is a lifetime member of the United Methodist Church of Deport and they are the parents of two daughters; Peggy, and husband Durwood and one son, Matt, all of Grand Prairie; and daughter Jane and husband, Buddy Berry and two children, Michelle and Chris, also of Grand Prairie.

Ruth has begun individual work and along with all the members of the church, has spent many months preparing food, crafts, etc., for the upcoming Festival to be held November 2, this Saturday, at Deport School. They will be serving a turkey dinner from 11 to 1 p.m. and the price is $4.00. Ruth has already started taking orders for her fabulous Festival Stew that she prepares especially for this occasion. She is also sharing this recipe with us this week. This stew is her own original and has been used about 7 years. Ruth's hobbies include oil and china painting, needlepoint, crochet, quilting, cooking, reading, collecting sterling silver and china eggs and thimbles and she loves antiques.

Ruth has taught several different Sunday School classes over the past 40 years. She now teaches the adult class. Mary has been a member of the quilting club for the last 7 years and the UMW Club for the last 40 years. She has made each grandchild a special quilt of their choice.

The collection of eggs and thimbles have been purchased from Peru, Europe and all over the United States. Reading books by Eugina Price and Danielle Steele and reading novels, autobiographies and historical books are Ruth's favorites.

Being presently retired, Ruth spent 25 years as a salesperson for various stores.

She enjoys antiques that belonged to her family. She showed me a frame that is over 100 years old that now houses one of her own needlepoint pieces.

Cooking is a favorite enjoyment of Ruth's. She has no specialty, she likes to cook everything. She was expecting one of her daughters to visit and she called and asked Ruth to prepare her special lemon pie. Ruth enjoys cooking what her children request and she is sharing this recipe with us also. She has used this recipe for 8 years and it came from the Blue Denim Cookbook from Odessa. Both the Extra Special Jam Cake and the White Layer Fruit Cake recipes come from the Burnt Cabin Camp Church of Christ in Oklahoma. Ruth also enjoys collecting recipes and she has everything from Corn Cob Jelly to Lye Soap. If anyone would like either recipe, just call her.

The Wonder Vegetable Salad recipe came from the First Baptist Church in Arkansas. It will keep good in the refrigerator up to 3 weeks.

I am also including a Tea Cake recipe from Ruth that is at least 100 years old. It came from several generations handed down and finally to Ruth from her late mother, Mrs. Robert Mitchell.

If you've enjoyed the article, request a recipe or have a recipe to share or suggest a feature, please call 652-6032 or write Rt. 1, Box 67A, Deport, TX 75435.

Patriot Sports Report

Patriots Fall To Mineola, 19-3

The Prairiland Patriots took it on the chin in their third straight district loss Friday night at Mineola, 19-3.

The Patriots held the Yellowjackets at bay for over three-fourths of the first quarter.

However, by the start of the second quarter, the Patriots had given up 13 points to a swarm of ball carriers.

Though the Yellowjackets managed to cross the Patriot goal line, carrying the ball they were unable to kick a 19-yard field goal midway through the second quarter.

With just over 3:00 left in the first half, Patriot Chad Whitley picked off a desperate pass from Mineola quarterback Bobby Baker to give the Patriots a first and ten.

From their own 35-yard line, the Patriots capitalized on the Mineola turnover and moved the ball all the way down to the Yellowjackets 14-yard line.

James Freelen booted the ball through the Mineola goal post to give the Patriots a three point field goal. The Patriots gave up another TD run midway of the third quarter to set the score at 19-3.

The Patriot defense was unglued for over a quarter and a half of the second half. But, unfortunately for the Patriots, their offense was unable to score any catch-up points.

This Friday night, the Patriots play Rains at Pattonville with game time set for 7:30 p.m.

Junior High Pats Stung By Yellowjackets, 44-0

The Prairiland Junior High Patriots kicked off to the Mineola Yellowjackets in action last week. The ball was received but stopped on the 40-yard line by a host of Patriots.

On the second play, the Yellowjackets took it on for a touch-down early in the game. The attempt for conversion was successful and the score was 8-0, Yellowjackets.

The Jackets kicked off to the Patriots and Daniel Cato downed it on the 13. The Patriots attempted a pass for a first down, but after additional passing attempts, were forced to punt. The Jackets had the ball on the 49 and carried the ball for a gain of 8 yards before being brought down by Zachary Allen.

Despite the efforts of Quaylon Battle, the Jackets managed to get a first down. On the next play, Robert Ritchie tackled and with a penalty on the play, the Jackets were 20 yards from first down. With another penalty, the Jackets were on the 35 from a first down.

With 1:34 left in the first quarter the Yellowjackets again scored a touchdown with a good conversion. The score stood at 16-0.

Zachary Allen received the ball on the 34-yard line, handed off to Ryan Pittman, for a gain of one yard. On the next play, a hand off to Cory May gained the Patriots two yards. On fourth down, the Patriots chose to punt.

The Jackets took the ball but Cass Titsworth brought the carrier down on the 31. The Yellowjackets were successful, however, in moving the ball downfield to score once again. With another successful conversion, the score was 24-0.

The second half of the game was more of the same. The Patriots continued to struggle to move the ball downfield but the Yellowjackets had no intention of letting the Patriots score.

The Patriot offense worked very hard for the yards they were able to gain. The defense put forth a strong front but were unable to contain the Jackets' offense.

With two more Yellowjacket scores in the game, the final score stood 44-0.

Good luck to the Patriots Thursday night against Rains.

Familiar Faces

By Nanalee Nichols

If you don't ever go around Deport's school then Doris Jackson may not be the most familiar face around.

But, if you have any knowledge of the school, then you surely know Doris.

Doris is the school secretary, and an excellent one, indeed.

She is beloved by not only the students, but the faculty as well.

Doris is so efficient that she keeps the school's business running effectively...and makes it look easy.

She is kind, pleasant and helpful all the time.

This year is here eighteenth year at the school, and she still brings a fresh, cheerful enthusiasm to her work.

Doris Jackson and her husband, Paul, live just outside of Deport.

They have one child still at home, Paul, who is an excellent young athlete.

Whatever school events are going on, Doris is on hand to cheer, help, and promote.

She does lunchroom duty, paper work for Principal Larry D. Salter, answers the phone, calls parents when youngsters are ill, and sees to dozens and dozens of little details.

She does it all with a big smile on her face.

Deport School without Doris Jackson is almost unthinkable...and everyone who comes in contact with her appreciates her pleasant, efficient energy.

He friendly face and wave greet people downtown in Deport when she runs down to pick up mail, leave of the menu for the paper, or generally attend to business errands.

Doris Jackson is a dedicated school employee...and a good friend to all who work with her!
