

Nichols Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

Christmas...Christmas, Christmas. It's in the air...and on the air! We are constantly bombarded with ideas for things that are great Christmas gifts.

Like most people, I've fretted, worried and dithered over just the right gifts for friends and family.

But late the other night, standing out in the cold and damp on our front porch, looking at a dark sky and the reflection of our Christmas lights in the water, I made a little mental list of the things I'd really like to be able to give to people.

The things I'd really like to give can't be bought with money, though, and I don't know how to give them.

There are those people who are depressed at holiday time. I don't mean those of us who are afflicted with a "scrooge" attitude for a little while because of lack of money or weariness...I mean those whom the holiday has only misery for.

How I wish I could give them a glad season instead of an unhappy one!

Those who are alone and lonely, who have no family, how wonderful it would be if they had someone to share it with!

Those whose childhood Christmases held pain and anger instead of togetherness and joy, what to do for them?

Those whose Christmas this year will be spent missing a loved one...wouldn't it be wonderful to be able to help them? But how?

Programs abound to help the needy...money can alleviate their problems if only for the holiday.

But how do you help those whose lack is emotional instead of financial?

I don't have the answer...it's too complex.

But I can try just a little. I can work this Christmas on spending more time with the people who need company, to send more cards to those who might be lonely, to visit longer with those who have no family.

I don't flatter myself that my meagre efforts will solve the problem. But if enough of us do the same...can it help but make a difference?

All any of us can do is try to help one another.

I take this chance to say to you, my friends, one and all, though I may never have met you, "I wish you joy, the warmth of family and friends, and a Merry Christmas".

Area Receives Over Four Inches of Rain

If the moisture falling from the sky had been snow instead of rain it would have been a white Christmas indeed! Just how wet was it? Very wet.

On Sunday, December 13 the area received 1.22 inches of rain.

Monday, 2.82 inches fell, sending many creeks out of their banks and flooding a few roads.

On Tuesday, .36 inches fell.

This brings a total of 4.40 inches of rain.

Prairiland School Board Hears Program

The Prairiland CISD Board of Trustees met in regular session on Monday, December 14.

They first heard a program presented by Mrs. McKinney and students.

They heard the audit report given by George Struve of McClanahan and Holmes.

The payment of bills and financial report were approved.

Superintendent L.C. Stout was appointed Record Management Officer and Americans With Disabilities Act Officer.

A report on the TAAS scores that are in was given.

It was voted to purchase a seven passenger 1993 Mini Van from Legacy Autoplex Dodge for a Driver's Education car. It is to be delivered in 60 days from date of purchase.

Bids will be accepted for cafeteria supplies.

They went into executive session,

coming out at 10:0 p.m.

The resignation of Jane O'Neal was accepted.

It was decided to purchase the property adjoining the Deport Campus from Blankenship and Roach if it is cleared on environment legal requirements. This will be turned into a bus lane, easing traffic pressures and making things much safer for students.

The meeting was then adjourned.

'And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus...'

That is the way many of us memorized these opening words from Luke's gospel about Jesus' birth. It sounds so simple and casual. In the monotony of everyday matters, Caesar sent out a decree. God was working through the everyday affairs of people. Caesar had no idea he was setting the scene for the most wonderful event in history, when God would come to earth as a little baby. Paying taxes is not usually considered high as a special religious time. But God was using the most down to earth time as an instrument in fulfilling His plan.

'And it came to pass!' These simple words tell us that God was creating a time of vast complexities.

How does this speak to us today? As our political life continues with a new president-elect, the end of the fiscal year approaching, each one going about his own business, God is still at work.

We remember the awe of the shepherds, the adoration of the Magi, the simple trust and confidence of Mary and Joseph at this season. And we remember that God is still working today as He did 2,000 years ago on that magical night. Let us be prepared to let God break into our day-to-day lives with His joy, His peace, His unexpected wonders. Let Him make ordinary days special as we see Him at work.

Our agricultural base dictates that we be mindful of the needs of that segment of our economy for which our continuing efforts will be directed. Having come from an area of the state with similar economic characteristics, experience with the needs of farming and ranching has been my focus for the past seventeen years. We solicit your patience and understanding as we strive to achieve the place in the community we are striving to achieve. Please come by to visit and we request that you make suggestions to us in ways we might be more helpful to the community.

LITTLE JEWELS-part of the beauty of the Christmas season is the Christmas tree and it's ornaments. This collection feature handpainted globes, tiny bird feeders, crystal concoctions and lots of twinkling lights. (Staff Photo by Nanalee Nichols)

HOT SEAT! this whimsical decoration was donated the Dekalbs, who have recently retired to Deport. It is placed next to the Deport Fire Station (appropriately) since it shows Santa with his pants on fire and Rudolph putting him out with a fire extinguisher. The Dekalbs cut out and paint all kinds of wooden yard ornaments. (Staff Photo by Nanalee Nichols)

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

For the last couple of weeks, I've noticed that Donna Anne is taking some daring liberties with some of our traditional Yuletide poetry and songs. I'm just tickled to death, because I've had this little ditty for so many years and haven't had an occasion to share it. It's about that kid who sat in the corner eating plum pie with his thumb. Mr. Rodkey, our band director, taught this to the band many years ago. I have always thought it sounded better when read with a voice resembling that of Aunt Bea on the Andy Griffith Show.

Wee Jonathan Horner
Wee Jonathan Horner
Crouched in his mural intersection,
Masticating his Yuletide pastry.
He inserted his pre-actual digit,
Extracted a Purinus Americanus,
And exclaimed, "I am almost extraordinarily precocious!"

Please take into consideration that it has been at least ten or twelve years since I went to school, and I could possibly be mistaken about a word or two.

Now that I've gotten that big of silliness out of my system, I'll get back to the column I was planning to submit last week when the nice folks at the News office so graciously took over for me.

I was just about to throw in the towel. I was feeling "so sorry" for myself, piled up here in this hospital bed with "complications" as the result of some tests. I was embarrassed because I seem to do so badly on people's photographs. I'd like to blame the camera, but I can't be sure! Then just before I gave it all up, Donald walked in with the mail. This letter just made my day. Hope you all enjoy it as much as I did:

Dear Judy,
I read every word of your column and I enjoy it very much. I knew you and Donald before you were married. I am Donna and every other Rozell's cousin, and I used to spend the summer in Fulbright and Bogata. Miss Selma Baker was my aunt. I married an Air Force pilot and lived in many countries and states, presently I am a hotel executive in Ft. Worth with a stressful job. Fridays are nice when I arrive home to relax and read the Bogata News.

Nana's Chocolate Pie

by Anne Morehead Stetson
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 cups milk (1 should be evaporated)
1/2 stick butter
2 T. cocoa
3/4 t. salt
3 egg yolks
2 t. vanilla
1 9" baked pie shell
Reserve egg whites for meringue. Combine all ingredients. Cook over medium heat until thick as custard. Mix ingredients in t. beginning with mixer. Make meringue with stiffly beaten egg whites, 1/3 cup sugar and 1/2 tsp. vanilla. Bake in 325 oven for 20 minutes. Refrigerate until serving time.

Special Potatoes
To your own mashed potatoes*, add 1 small pkg. of cream cheese and 1/4 cup Ranch Dressing. This is very good, and there will not be any leftovers. However, if there are, add an egg and 1 T. baking powder and some chopped onions. Form into patties and fry in a bit of oil.

*Based on 5 cups mashed potatoes. If you have more potatoes, add more cream cheese and Ranch Dressing.

Nana's Butter Pecan Pie
1 stick real butter
1 cup light Karo
1 cup sugar

3 large eggs, beaten
1/2 tsp. lemon juice
1 tsp. vanilla
dash of salt
1 T. flour
1 cup pecan halves
9" unbaked pie shell

Brown butter in saucepan, don't burn. Let cool. Add ingredients in order listed. Then blend in butter well. Pour in pie shell and bake at 425 for 10 minutes. Turn down to 325 and bake for 40 minutes. Recipe doubles nicely. In summer, Nana thought this pie to be too heavy with the pecans and added instead 1 can of very well drained crushed pineapple. This pie is absolutely my all time favorite.

Christmas Sugar Cookies

1 cup oil
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. soda
1 cup butter
1 cup powdered sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 tsp. cream of tartar
4 cups flour

Cream together oil, butter, and both sugars. Add eggs and remaining ingredients. Mix well by adding a little flour at a time. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto ungreased cookie sheet. Bake at 350 for 8-10 minutes. Do not brown!

A Very Merry Season To All You Gentlefolk!

Christmas was a simple affair,
A time filled with friends, family and prayer.
A time when strangers were welcomed with open arms,
A time to sing God's many praises
in hymns and psalms.
In these modern times,
it's good to remember,
The gentler days of past Decembers
Though some things never change, it's true...
Like our deep felt thanks for friends like you!

Patriots Fall In Tournament

By James Taylor
With good effort and Swede Ladd hitting from the outside, the Prairiland Patriots found themselves up 20-15 at halftime against the Chisum Mustangs during the Nutri-System Invitational Tournament.

The Mustangs came out in the third quarter with 14 consecutive points. Prairiland errors helped Chisum to a 33-26 lead at the end of the third.

The fourth quarter found the Patriots having to foul to get possession, but still fell short 48-39.

Ladd led with 16 points, David Singleton and Jimmy Little both had five, James Standeford, Jason Pasquill and Brock Blasingame all hit treys to end the game with three each.

Again being led by Swede Ladd's outside shooting, Prairiland fell short to Hugo's JV Friday night.

Ladd hit two treys and another bucket before the end of the first quarter, and found the Pats down 13-11.

The second quarter found the Pats down again 31-23.

During the final quarter, the Patriots rallied behind Brock Blasingame and were down by eight. But Hugo somehow held on to win by the final score 58-43.

Blasingame had 13; Ladd had 11; Brandon Johnson had 10; James Standeford had five; and Justin Withers finished with four.

Lady Patriots Win Consolation

By James Taylor
In the first round of the Prairiland Nutri-System Invitational Tournament, the Lady Patriots took a hard loss to the Clarksville Lady Tigers.

Prairiland started off the game with four quick points by Davonna Brumley. But then Clarksville went on an 18-0 run that continued through the second quarter. Prairiland did seem to hang with the Lady Tigers being down 33-13 at halftime.

The Lady Tigers opened the third quarter with a 14-2 run. At the end of the third, Clarksville had a 21 point lead.

The Lady Patriots did make up a little ground in the fourth, but still fell short, 62-40.

Brumley was high scorer for the Lady Pats with 12; Scudder had 9 and Trinity Bowden, Crystal Ericsson, Melissa Miller had two each.

foul line.

In the third quarter, Davonna Brumley scored 7 with Trinity Bowden and Mandy Babb scoring four each.

The fourth found Jan Scudder and Brumley combining for 10 of the Lady Pats' 14 to make the final tally 54-32.

Brumley led the scorers with 13; Scudder helped with 12 and Bowden pitched in 10.

The Lady Patriots had to come from behind, but got the job done to take the win from Rivercrest.

Being led by Melissa Miller, Davonna Brumley and Jan Scudder, the Lady Pats were down 16-11 at the end of the first.

The second quarter found the Lady Pats down, but not out, with the help of Scudder and Trinity Bowden, each with four.

Scudder took over in the third, and Prairiland found themselves leading 36-31.

Good defense by Mandy Babb and Brumley netting six points finally got the Lady Pat win, 48-35.

Scudder had 16, Brumley had 12, Miller with 8, Bowden with 6, Babb, Crystal Ericsson and Katy Mowery all had two.

The Lady Patriots took an impressive win against Chisum Friday night to move to the consolation round on Saturday.

After Chisum took the opening tip and took off in the wrong direction, Prairiland took an easy 10-4 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Lady Pats scored 14 points in the second, 10 of them being on the

Poetry Policy Explained

We constantly receive poems which people want published. It is the policy of our newspapers not to publish poetry unless it is paid for. Any poetry you see in these pages has been paid for. This has nothing to do with how good a poem may be...it is simply that we receive dozens of them, many very lengthy, and it isn't possible to publish them all. We hope you will understand this policy.

Presbyterian Women Meet

Presbyterian Women of the Deport Presbyterian Church held their annual Christmas buffet Tuesday evening, December 13, in the home of Mrs. Ray Woodard. Co-hostess was Mrs. John Moore.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Robert Temple. Mrs. Tom Foley gave the opening prayer followed by the buffet served from a table centered by a poinsettia flanked by lighted red candles.

Mrs. Geneva Norwood, speaker for the evening, was introduced by Mrs. Temple. Mrs. Norwood told of her inspirational experiences as part of a mission crusade to Russia. The crusade was sponsored by World Thrust Ministries, located in Clearwater, Florida. One man and nine women accompanied her on this mission. Opening her remarks with the Scripture, Ephesians 5:17, she told how moving it was to witness the interest of so many young people in salvation and sincerity of the Word. Her most encouraging revelation of the crusade was that salvation of the soul through faith can be reached or saved by our ministries throughout the world. Christmas carols were sung by the group led by Mrs. Norwood.

Special guests were Mrs. Marie Watson and Mrs. Nelta Musgrove.

The meeting was closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

DR. SAM KELSEY and James Grant, members of the present Deport Community Service Club, display a photo of Sam H. Bell. Mr. Bell is Dr. Kelsey's grandfather and James Grant's uncle. The photo was taken in 1930 when Mr. Bell was a member of the Deport Community Club at that time. (Staff Photo by Thomas Nichols)
