beautiful morning Tell me you don't love this weather? I thought that spring wasn't going to appear, and spring has once more made my lack of faith evident.

As always, Mother Nature has come through and rewarded us with a wonderful spring after one of the hardest winters on record.

After the cold and ice, after days spent without lights or phone, we see the scars of winter covered with the soft greens of new life.

Has there ever been a spring when the iris were more beautiful? Yellow, wedgewood blue, dark purple, they lift their stately heads to the vibrant blue of skies finally cloudless.

Ireland's famed "forty shades of green" has nothing on northeast Texas these days as our new sprung grass, leaves and plants burgeon with delicate variations of green.

Is there anything that feels better than that delicious spring breeze flowing across arms and legs newly bared to the spring time sun?

The sunshine doesn't have it's summer brutality, but is warm, friendly and welcome.

The nights still get chilly enough that cover feels good when windows are open.

And the mornings...oh the beautiful mornings.

The sun comes up slowly, teasing the edge of darkness away to reveal a newly reborn world.

Squirrels scamper happily about their early morning chores, rabbits nibble at clover, and turtles...well, turtles are filled with a migratory instinct that is not in their best interests. The poor things scramble across to many lanes of highways, some surviving, some not. People are as drawn outdoors to do chores as animals, spending as much time as they can working in the yard and generally "prettying up the place" as possible.

It's almost May, spring was late in coming, but oh, it's absolutely fantastic now that it's here. Enjoy, and join all those other people you see sitting on their porches or in their lawn furniture just soaking up the springtime.

The Deport American Legion will meet on the following Thursdays for 2001: May 10, June 14, July 12, August 9, September 13, October 11.

We have a treat for you this week! They are a little out of the ordinary. . . well maybe not if you lived back in the mid 1800's! They are the Chuckwagon Trio from Blossom, Texas, sponsored by Community National Bank of Detroit. This group of men formed a friendship that was forged over a half a century ago. They all shared an interest in the outdoors and an appreciation for generations past, their efforts to settle this area and form a better place to live. They are Sid Johnson, Harold Blackburn and Roger Daugherty, Sr. I spied them cooking stew at the annual stew cookoff at Prairiland's livestock show recently. Although they did not win, they cooked up some great tasting stew. . . . by the way, they used only charcoal briquets to cook with. Along with the stew, they had prepared fried pies, hot biscuits and of course I sampled everything! It was all delicious!

Sid's maternal grandmother came to Texas in the mid-1830's, receiving land grants from the Republic of Texas. She and her family settled in the Sylvan area. His paternal grandparents also came to the Sylvan area in the late 1800's. Sid and his wife Betty, live in Blossom and have three daughters. Lisa lives in Paris and teaches History at Paris Junior College. Pam lives in Cunningham and teaches at Deport. JoAnna is an Occupational Therapist at Longview. Sid is retired from Babcock and Wilcox and enjoys gardening, woodworking and cooking with the trio.

Harold and wife Emmy have three daughters, 2 grandsons and 1 great granddaughter. He is very active in community activities.

Roger has lived in Blossom for thirty years and married to Rita. They have three children and he is retired from the Teamsters Union. They spend much of their time attending the grandchildren's ballgames and love every minute of it!

We hope you enjoy this trio's recipes and look for them cooking at local fairs and cook-offs and we will see you in the kitchen!

Sid's Dutch Oven Biscuits-Sid Johnson-place these in a ziploc bag and refrigerate and use when needed for up to a week!

Dutch Oven Steak and Gravy-Sid Johnson-the steak comes out so tender, it will melt in your mouth with lots of juicy gravy for "soppin"!
