Silvertown High School's Owlettes outran McLean in the mile relay and used that victory to edge McLean for the District 2-A girls' track title, 163-158½, on a wet and cold Thursday at Randy Matson Track in Pampa April 10.

The meet's preliminaries were held at McLean, but persistent rain forced the finals to be moved to Pampa High School's all-weather track. Rains continued throughout the running finals.

The Junior High Owlettes were unable to finish competition in their meet, and this was rescheduled for April 21.

McLean won eight of the 14 events, but lacked the overall depth which won for Silvertown.

The top two winners in each event qualified for the April 18-19 regional meet to be held at the Texas Tech track in Lubbock.

All three of Silvertown's relay teams qualified for regional competition, the mile relay girls winning a beautiful trophy for first place. This team is composed of Peggy Kitchens, Lesa Francis, Linda Vaughn and Jeanette Arnold.

Home Heavily Damaged By Fire

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Stephens and Tammy was heavily damaged by fire Saturday afternoon. Mr. Stephens was at work, Mrs. Stephens was at the school cafeteria helping prepare for the Junior-Senior Banquet that night, and Tammy Stephens was at home alone when she discovered the fire which apparently started in the wall heater in her bedroom.

Tammy called the fire department and escaped unharmed from the house, but all of her clothes, including the formal she was to wear to the banquet, and the clothes and other things belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Stephens, were destroyed. The bedrooms and bathroom received the heaviest damage.

Tammy's girlfriends had her "fixed up" with another dress for the banquet before the firemen had left the scene of the fire, and the girls had a personal shower for her at Robbie Martin's house Wednesday afternoon.

The Stephens will be occupying the house at Silvertown Gin until plans can be made for repairing their home. Plans were to have a shower for the whole family at the First Baptist Church Wednesday night to help replace some of the things that were lost in the fire.

Fred Mercer returned home by the Silvertown Volunteer Ambulance Service Tuesday after having been a patient for hip surgery in an Amarillo hospital. He was accompanied in the ambulance by Mrs. Mercer, Bill Boling and Charles Sarchet.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stone, Jimmy Dwain and Melissa vacationed at Possum Kingdom last week.

Duane Reynolds, Moe Eddleman and Larry Jarrett.

Playing for the Firemen will be Jay Towe, Danny Green, Jerry Patton, J. E. Patton, Wayne Nance, W. D. Rowell, Emmett Tomlin, Eud Couch, Steve Jarnagin and Perry Brunson.

Theme of the 1975 Cancer Crusade is "We Want to Wipe Out Cancer in Your Lifetime." These people are doing their part to help raise money for the research and patient rehabilitation which are so vital. Please support this county-wide effort by attending and putting in an extra donation to help wipe out Cancer.

Silverton Crusade Leader Is Named

Mrs. Gary Weaks, president of L. O. A. Junior Study Club, has been named to head the Silverton Crusade in the American Cancer Society's 1975 educational and fund-raising Crusade for which the theme is "We Want to Wipe Out Cancer in Your Lifetime."

Mrs. Weaks will lead local volunteers in the house-to-house Crusade in an effort to help teach families how to protect themselves against cancer. The volunteers will ask for support of the Society's vital programs on behalf of research, public and professional education and service to the cancer patient.

Mrs. Charles Sarchet has been named as the Briscoe County Chairman for the 1975 Cancer Crusade. "The promise of research is so great," the new Crusade Chairman said, "that the 1975 Crusade will be one of the most important ever. The dedicated people in the laboratories, the men, women and children suffering from cancer today, and our hopes for the future all depend on our willingness to support the fight against cancer."

Under Mrs. Weaks' leadership, approximately 20 members of the L. O. A. Junior Study Club and other volunteers will visit friends and neighbors in Silverton. They will distribute this year's Crusade leaflet, a cancer quiz, testing the public's awareness of ways to protect themselves.

"Our local volunteers are part of an army of 2,300,000 American Cancer Society volunteers mobilized for the 1975 Crusade. This is probably one of the greatest volunteer forces in history," Mrs. Sarchet said. "We want to take cancer out of the medical books

OPEN YOUR HANDS

(Editor's Note: The following is by Ava Brown Huffman which she gave to her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nance, during a visit here in 1965. Mrs. Huffman had written a number of poems and in 1957-58 published a book, "A Journey With God." This was before Mrs. Huffman's first open heart surgery. It had been hoped that this poem could be read at her funeral, but the family was unable to locate it at that time. They requested that it be shared with friends at this time.)

Open your hands to God's goodness,
Hold up your palms to the Sun—
That the light of His love through your fingers
May spread warmth when the daylight is done.

There is joy in the worship of giving
There is life in the breath of a song—
To receive you must open your and put it into the history books as something that afflicted people a long time ago!"

If you would like to volunteer to assist the Cancer Crusade, please contact Mrs. Weaks or Mrs. Sarchet.

There's no room in a fist over strong.

If the fragrance of flowers you cherish,
And their beauty is fresh to your eye
Cradle them lightly in your fingers—
For in a closed fist they will die.

To have and to hold is to treasure—
The love of the ones you hold dear—
But to have and to clutch is to strangle

And to build a strong prison of fear.
Open your hands, find the treasures
That under your fingers you hid—
Just open your heart to God's goodness—
You shall ever be glad that you did.

hou
shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all they soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.

Luke 10:27

The basis of God's first and greatest commandment is love. God gave man the freedom to choose ... and therefore will not force his love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

This terrace is part of a parallel system that was completed in March on the Bruce Price farm at Quitaque.

Parallel Terraces Help Control Erosion

Building terraces can help to control erosion—but it is only the beginning. How well terraces do their job of protecting cultivated land depends on how fast they are farmed.

Some of the first terraces were built with ridges and channels that were too narrow for efficient farming operations; terraces built with broad ridges and channels are much easier and more economical to farm.

Terraces can be built parallel or nonparallel to each other, but parallel terraces are easier to farm, particularly if the crops are in rows.

The tight soils around Silvertown have a low intake rate of water, therefore graded terraces are constructed to reduce erosion damage by intercepting surface runoff and conducting it to a stable outlet at a nonerosive velocity. The soils around Quitaque have a high water intake rate, thus level terraces are constructed to conserve moisture and to control erosion. All terraces are installed parallel where practicable to permit efficient operations with modern farming equipment.

A parallel terrace system was recently completed on the Bruce Price farm at Quitaque to reduce soil erosion and to conserve needed moisture.

For further information contact the Soil Conservation Service at Silvertown.

Life-Saving Answers To Be Distributed by Local Volunteers

"A Cancer Quiz — For Every Family" featuring life-saving answers, is the theme of the American Cancer Society's new leaflet to be circulated in 40,000,000 homes during its 1975 educational and fund-raising Crusade," declared Mrs. Gary Weeks, Silvertown Crusade Chairman.

"If you know the correct answers to the 10 questions you are in a good position to help protect yourself and your family," she said. "Then pass it on to a friend or relative."

All of the questions relate to vital information about breast cancer, cancer of the cervix and other major sites, as well as cigarette smoking and health check-ups.

"What is your best everyday protection against cancer?" asked Mrs. Weeks, quoting the leaflet. "Is it knowing the Seven Warning Signals of cancer, jogging or taking multi-vitamins?"

If you don't know what the Seven Warning Signals are, they're listed on the back of the leaflet to be distributed this year by the more than 2.3 million ACS volunteers.

"Quiz yourself, and then help yourself with a checkup and help others with a check. We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime," said Mrs. Weeks.

MRS. ARTHUR H. HOUSE

Nuptial Vows Pledged In Washington, D. C.

Saint John's Church on Lafayette Square in Washington, D. C. was the scene of the wedding at 4:00 p.m. Saturday, April 5, of Miss Karen J. Elliott and Arthur H. House, both of Washington.

The Rev. John C. Harper, rector, officiated.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Elliott, Matador, the bride is a Washington correspondent for the Wall Street Journal and formerly was correspondent for The Dallas Morning News.

Mr. House, son of Chief Justice and Mrs. Charles House, Manchester, Connecticut, is an economist on the policy planning staff of the World Bank.

Mrs. Stanley Fogerson of Silverton attended her sister as matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Walter Cooke of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Larry Grooms of Carrollton and Mrs. Barbara Baab of Dallas.

The marriage witness, who in traditional European weddings signs the marriage certificate and is a principle member of the bridegroom's party, was Paul-Henry Gendebein, Brussels, who is a member of the Belgian Parliament and president of his political party, the Walloon Rally.

Attorney John E. Besser of Rochester, New York, was best man. Groomsmen were Edison Zvobgo, Cambridge, Massachusetts and Timothy Brown, Washington, the bridegroom's cousin.

Kristy Fogerson of Silverton, niece of the bride, served as flower girl and Richard Simmons of Denver, Colorado, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who walked down the aisle alone to join the bridegroom, wore an ivory jersey gown fashioned with a high neckline of embroidered lace which also accented the bodice, sleeves and hemline. She wore white sweetheart roses in her hair and carried a single yellow rose.

Her attendants wore floorlength dresses of yellow Qiana and carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies.

A reception buffet followed the wedding, in the Sheraton Carlton Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. House left Sunday for a wedding trip to Paris, France; Brussels, Belgium, and London, England.

Mrs. Ted Elliott of Matador, attended her daughter's wedding. She and her granddaughter, Kristy Fogerson of Silverton, flew from Amarillo Thursday to join Mrs. Stanley Fogerson, who had spent the week preceding the wedding in Washington with her sister. They returned home Monday of last week.

Research, Education Service Use Most Of Cancer Funds

How is the money spent?

"The public has an absolute right to know the answer to that question," said Mrs. Charles Sarchet, Crusade Chairman for the American Cancer Society's 1975 educational and fund-raising Crusade now taking place in Briscoe County.

"In these days of inflation and the shrinking dollar, I want to assure everyone that money given to the ACS is budgeted in such a way that it furthers the cancer fight on many different levels."

She explained that in the most recent budget, 2 percent of all ACS income went to support a wide variety of cancer research programs. "But while we are waiting for basic answers from research, we are also trying to teach people how to recognize cancer's Warning Signals and the importance of early detection and prompt treatment. There are many lives that could be saved without learning anything new from the research if people understood that. Hence, the public education programs which took another 17.2 percent of the budget.

ACS services to the cancer patient, which includes rehabilitation activities, required another 12.7 percent of ACS income. Professional education for physicians and nurses on the front lines of the cancer fight took another 10.5 percent and community service 9.3 percent. The latter includes cancer detection programs, mass screening and cancer registries.

"That comes to 78.7 percent of the budget and I am proud to say that management costs are kept to 9.6 percent and fund-raising to 11.7 percent. We are able to do that because of the energetic and dedicated people who volunteer to do much of the work of the ACS," she said.

Rain Couldn't Have Come at a Better Time For Farmers!

Briscoe County farmers were all smiles last week as slow rains floated down on their wheat crops, grassland and row crop ground. In fact, some corn had already been planted.

The Monday showers fell pretty hard and fast, but the rain later in the week all went in the ground.

It was estimated that much of the county received an inch or more during the week. A total of .70 of an inch of rain fell on Silverton.

As wheat harvest prospects zoomed, many farmers began to wonder about what kind of price would be on wheat by harvest time. The amount of production has a direct effect on price. Although wheat was drying out in Oklahoma and Eastern Colorado and a disease has hit the wheat in Kansas, Texas seems to be in good shape for a bumper crop.

RECORD WHEAT CROP EXPECTED

Low cattle prices and increased acreage in almost every grain-growing county in the state may be the reason for a Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service estimate that Texas' wheat production will reach 140 million bushels this year.

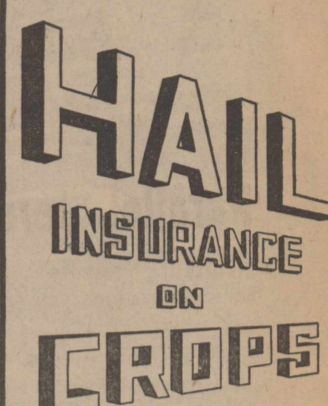

Since cattle were going for alarmingly low prices most of this year, less of the wheat was grazed. That, coupled with relatively good prices last year and the U. S. Department of Agriculture's request for fence-to-fence planting, could mean the largest Texas wheat crop on record.

Since harvest is two months away and greenbug infestation, hail, wheat streak mosaic and the like have yet to have a say in how much grain is cut, the estimate may need revision this summer.

The Texas Wheat Producers Association asked the reporting service for the early estimate to give farmers a more accurate picture of what production might be this summer, said Bill Nelson, TWPA executive vice president. Normally, no crop estimate is released after the December guess, which was 118 million bushels, until a May report, Nelson said.

Too, there are reports of diseases and insect infestations in several wheat-growing states that account for much of the U. S. production. The USDA will release wheat estimate for the nation on May 9.

Local Cooperative Supports Program for Rural Youth Careers

Realizing that the greatest need for rural America today is to keep its young people interested in the benefits of rural life, Briscoe Cooperatives has indicated its support for an educational program to aid rural youth in choosing a career.

The educational program is called "Careers In Cooperatives." It is designed to generate interest, provide placement and training for youth seeking a local cooperative career in the exciting field of agribusiness.

"We are cooperating with our area junior colleges and universities in a career curriculum which will help solve our manpower needs. We are working with high school guidance counselors and the directors of curriculum for our junior colleges and universities, and are emphasizing to each youth in his or her schooling, there is a place for that person in our local cooperative. At the high school level, we are encouraging students to follow a general business curriculum. If that youth does not want to continue his or her schooling past high school, he or she can begin a cooperative career.

At the junior college or university level, a student may follow the cooperative careers curriculum for one or two years or more. Following the first year a student will take a field study in a local cooperative under the supervision of their school and regional cooperative.

This will give both on-the-job training for co-op development and also help the student determine whether he or she wants to continue his co-op program. The same situation occurs at the end of the second year. In addition to earning college credits, the student will be earning funds to support his or her education. At the conclusion of the two years, the student may elect to enter his co-op career or continue to a four-year college for further education.

The curriculum being stressed at the junior college level is a general agribusiness one. The first year it consists of 34 hours of credit including agribusiness math, principles of plant science, chemistry, economics, business communications, writing, personal finance, principles of animal science, accounting, and soils and fertilizer. The second year's courses include agribusiness marketing, human relations, speech, business control, ag chemicals, principles of livestock nutrition, elevator and feed mill technology, cooperative grain marketing, business organizations, and agribusiness law.

After two years of post high school study, we think we will have students who will be qualified to be branch managers, office managers, and the like. They will have shown their interest in going to work for a co-op. We think that this program has a tremendous potential for assisting youth from our rural areas to have a good career in our town. In doing so they will support the local economy and be of assistance to a great segment of our state, namely, agriculture. We would like to stress that youth who might be interested in pursuing a "Careers In Cooperative" Program contact Briscoe Cooperatives first, and then call the junior college or university nearby. Further information can also be received from Producers Grain Corporation, P. O. Box 111, Amarillo, Texas 79105.

Post secondary schools participating in Careers In Cooperatives are Amarillo College, Clarendon Junior College, Vernon Regional Junior College, South Plains Junior College, Frank Phillips Junior College, West Texas State University, Texas Tech University, Texas A&M University, Texas A&I University.

LONGING

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

To every child there comes a time when they begin to wonder... Where did I come from? Who made the trees? Who made the mountains?

EVERYONE has a desire to know their creator.

"O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee..."

This longing for knowledge of God should be satisfied at an early age.

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Plan NOW to attend church with your family.

A Land Bank loan at work

Labor-saving devices won't turn farming into a "rocking chair" occupation. Still, there are ways that a long-term Federal Land Bank loan at reasonable cost could help you expand—and handle the increased production with less effort. In fact, if you've been working too hard, your credit probably hasn't been working hard enough. To find out how expansion capital might be used to get more efficiency, see your Land Bank Association.

Challenge us to finance your most modern improvements.

TEXAS TALK

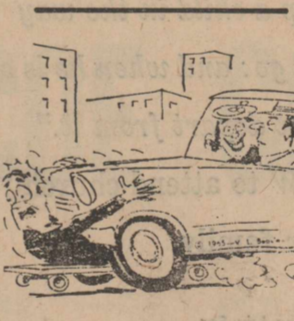

by Danny Green

CATTLE TYPES . . . There are three types of cattle: dairy type, beef type and dual purpose cattle. The beef type dominates the Southwest with more than 15 distinct breeds now being raised.

TEXAS BREEDS . . . A breed is a selected group of animals with readily distinguished characteristics and a common origin. Of the 15 common beef breeds, five originated in the United States. Four of those five, the Charbray, Beefmaster, Santa Gertrudis and Brangus, had their origins in Texas. The fifth, Barzona, originated in Arizona. The Charbray began in the Rio Grande Valley area and is a mixture of approximately three-quarters Charolais and one-quarter Brahman. Beefmaster started near Falfurrias, Texas, representing a crossing of Hereford, Shorthorn and Brahman. Santa Gertrudis, developed on the King Ranch, is a cross of Brahman and Shorthorn. A single bull, Monkey, is credited as foundation sire for the entire breed.
