There was also time for swimming, parties and relaxation throughout the week. Each conference delegate has an important job at Co-op Youth Conference activities.

The STRENGTH of a Nation...

At this time, our thoughts are turned to our nation and the war that was fought to bring freedom to our land. Pictured here is a monument to the leader of our people at that time. The people were willing to give their lives that we might be free from tyranny, and have the right to worship as we please. God was with us then as he was with the children of Israel when Moses led them from Egypt. Upon receiving their freedom they sang... "The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him." Exodus 15:2

Help keep our Nation strong by relying on the strength of the Lord. Attend Church Regularly.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Youngquist - Barkley Vows Exchanged In Lubbock Church Ceremony

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony, Miss Larita Youngquist became the bride of Dennis Barkley Saturday evening, June 7, at 7:00 o'clock at the Ford Memorial Chapel, First Baptist Church, Lubbock.

Miss Youngquist is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Youngquist, 4927 17th Place, Lubbock. Mr. Barkley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Barkley of 5004 10th Street, Lubbock. The bride's mother is the former Helen Vaughan of Silverton, and the bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ewing Vaughan.

Rev. Ron Shaffer, minister of youth of the First Baptist Church, Lubbock, read the double-ring ceremony before the improvised altar decorated with large bouquets of white gladiolas and jade palm leaves flanked by twin arched candelabra holding white tapers. The white kneeling bench completed the setting.

Mrs. Mike Barkley presided at the guest register.

Traditional wedding selections were provided by Mrs. Dale White, organist, of Lubbock. Arnold Tanner of Lubbock, soloist, sang "Twelfth of Never" preceding the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt for the benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk sheer-ganza and chantilly lace gown fashioned in a semi-bell skirt with crystalline pleats and ruffled V-neckline on a lace bodice with long fitted sleeves enhanced by ruffled cuffs. Complimenting the gown was the chapel-length veil of lace-trimmed mantilla of silk illusion attached to a lace cloth forming the total look of the bride. She carried a bouquet of miniature roses nestled among blue net and white streamers, given to her by the bridegroom.

Linda Barkley, sister of the bridegroom, and Galon Youngquist, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Lisa Robinett, friend of the bride, served Miss Youngquist as maid of honor.

Glenda Youngquist, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid and carried a miniature version of the bouquet of the maid of honor. All attendants wore identical floor-length dresses of baby blue and white knit styled and handmade by the bride's mother. Jim Barkley, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Ushers were Robert Youngquist and Mike Barkley, brothers of the couple. All attendants wore sky blue tuxedos with black pants and blue shirts.

To carry out bridal tradition she wore a blue garter given to her as a gift. She borrowed the identical ceremony of her parents, and had a sixpence given to her by her father in her shoe for good luck. For something new, her wedding ensemble.

A reception was held in the reception room of the Ford Memorial Chapel immediately following the ceremony. Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Mike Barkley, Misses Boneva Martin, Lisa Robinett and Linda Barkley. The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with blue wedding bells. The appointments were silver and crystal. The refreshment table was draped with a yellow dotted-Swiss cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of pastel daisies and statice. The room was decorated with arrangements of garden flowers from the hostesses' yards.

Dear Charlotte, FEMME SUPREME

I loved this—you will, too—
She can sew a fine seam,
Make the silverware gleam,
Keep the home gay and neat,
Pick the best cuts of meat.

Bake a cake, iron a shirt,
Mend a break, hem a skirt,
Hold a job, chase the blues,
Feed a mob, change a fuse.

Mix a drink, do the wash,
Fix a worn-out galosh,
Set her hair, plan ahead,
Bake her family's bread.

Say with tact what she means,
Cope with thunderous teens,
Not to mention the others—
Their sisters and brothers.

Decorate on a dime
With well-organized time
Every room in her house,
Without riling her spouse.

I concede she's as clever
As clever can be—
My grievance—
The lady lives next door to me!

Dear Friends:
The love we have for you exceeds our ability to express it, for at the loss of our brother, Raymond, your expressions of your high regard for him and your deep concern for us as we shared the unspeakable sorrow, moves us greatly. We all enjoyed so much his being with us and we feel so keenly the void left in our hearts and lives at his departure. The cards, flowers, food and so many other tender ministries bespeak so eloquently your love for him. May his love for you be echoed by our tender "thank you" and your pathways be brightened by the continued blessings of his God and ours.
The brothers and sisters,
