New Outpost Well is One of Best in Field

Talco Asphalt & Refining Company J. K. Rutherford No. 1 new Talco outpost well located 197 feet west of the most western boundary well in the Talco area, given potential test this week, shows indications of being one of the best in the entire field.

The well, bottomed at 4,283 feet, has created considerable interest since it was spudded in several weeks ago, and since it is an outpost it should cause more development in that direction in the future.

On the potential test, the well ran 715 barrels daily and showed no mix with water.

Varied Activities of Cunningham FFA

Last regular meeting of Cunningham Future Farmers was devoted mainly to the initiation of the green hands that are taking work in vocational agriculture for the first time. All the old as well as the new boys greatly enjoyed the occasion, with a number of visitors present.

The boys are working out plans for the Father and Son banquet to be held Dec. 6. Each grade in high school is running a candidate for Chapter Sweetheart. Each donation will be greatly appreciated. Proceeds will be used to finance the Father-Son and Mother-Daughter banquet.

Lately the boys have been running terrace lines, dehorning cows, pruning trees, making tests in germination of seed, castrating calves and pigs, culling hens, taking orders for fruit trees, etc.

The boys are taking more interest in their work this year and we will strive harder to complete more projects during the year.

Our radio program was a grand success in many ways. It is our plan to give one or two more radio programs during the school term.—Larry Bell, Reporter.

Preparing for New Mattress Program

Community meetings for the purpose of planning the new government mattress program will be conducted in 51 communities in Red River county under the direction of the supervisors for the previous mattress making, it was announced Saturday afternoon.

After the election of the community supervisor at these community meetings, this person will begin taking applications for the new program. Any farm family who did not make over $500 during the preceding calendar year plus $50 for each member of the family in excess of four persons, may apply for the 50 pounds of cotton and 10 yards of ticking to make into a mattress at a public center in the community.

Each eligible family may receive one mattress for each two persons in the family, not to exceed a total of three mattresses; this number to include the one made on the previous program.

Bogata Man Gets Same Draft Numbers

Floyd Gray of Bogata, was one of two registrants in the United States which have been reported as receiving the same order and serial number in assignments for compulsory military service. Gray's serial number was 2152 and the same order number was given him. The order number was fixed through the national lottery and after discarding numbers above the Red River county registration figure the county draft board found his number fixed at 2152.

FARMERS' ACADEMY LADY DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. R. F. Montgomery died Nov. 14 at her home in the Farmers' Academy community. Funeral and interment was in that community on Friday. Survivors include her husband, three sons, one daughter, four sisters and two brothers.

BIG SHIPMENTS OF TALCO ASPHALT ARE BEING MADE

Demand for asphalt produced in the Talco and Sulphur Bluff fields is stepping up production of that commodity. Orders are being received as fast as they can be filled.

A full train of 32 tank cars, filled with asphalt, left Mt. Pleasant last Friday, over the Cotton Belt route, bound for New Orleans and later an additional 20 cars were shipped to the same destination. Two weeks ago a train of asphalt was also shipped to New Orleans.

Additional information indicates that a contract has been signed with the Talco Asphalt and Refining Company for 250 carloads of asphalt to be shipped from Mt. Pleasant to army posts at Corpus Christi.

Because there is such a great demand for prepared asphalt, the Texas Railroad Commission, in an order issued last week, has lifted all shutdowns in the Talco and Sulphur Bluff areas.

Better Road Group Formed at Cunningham

A gala annual affair was thoroughly enjoyed at Cunningham on the evening of Nov. 14 when about two hundred people gathered on the school campus for a stew supper. Several visitors from surrounding communities attended the affair, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by everyone.

Following the supper, the crowd gathered in the high school auditorium for a brief program, during which a discussion for a movement for better roads was brought about, and several people offered brief comments concerning the necessity of better roads for the southeast section of the county. A road committee composed of fifteen men was elected by the group to work with the Paris, Deport and Bogata Chamber of Commerce organizations to try to secure all weather roads for this section. Those elected to serve on this committee were: Cody Carroll, Tom Roach, F. E. McGahan, Cletis Cooper, Joe Pollard, Joe Scott, Jesse Gunn, M. D. Humphrey, Albis Ball, Grady Kenemer, R. A. Burke, Less Hume, Sid Parks, Douglas Petty, Garland Anderson and Jack Bell. This committee asks the cooperation of all surrounding towns in trying to secure better roads for this entire section.

Each year Cunningham community sponsors a stew supper for an annual get together for all patrons and visitors who can attend. Since the forward step toward the securing of better roads was taken this year it is believed that the occasion this year is the most valuable one yet held.—Reported.

Calvary Baptist Church

REV. S. D. LINDSEY, Pastor
A good attendance was reported at all services Sunday. All members were back from holiday vacations and Rev. Lindsay delivered an inspiring talk at each service.

Barney Rogers sang a special song. BTU and Sunday school were also well attended. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the Calvary Baptist Church.—Mrs. B. E. Dunagan, Reporter.

Trojans Beat Paris B Team; Tie Mt. Vernon

Talco Trojans made football history for themselves since The Times went to press last week, when on Thursday night the Paris B team was guest of the Trojans and dropped a score of 13-6 to the Trojans.

The game was played on a muddy field in freezing temperature. Activities of Sam Barnard, Prentice Boyles and Clyde Holder highlighted the game. According to reports, Clyde Holder showed up better than he has in any game and looks like a very good man for next year.

Wednesday night the Trojans journeyed to Mt. Vernon and played a 6-6 tie with that team. Talco's score came in the last quarter, when Boyles threw a pass, reported from the sideline to be 50 yards, into the receiving hands of Carter, who ran for the score. Mt. Vernon, after steady plunging, made their score in the last few minutes of the second quarter. The extra point the Trojans were banking on for a win, was lost by Lindsey, when his kick was blocked. The rest of the game was steady line-plunging on the part of both teams, without serious threat of scoring.

The Trojans have won most of their points this year by their passing. The Mt. Vernon game was the last game scheduled for the Trojans this year.

OLD LANDMARK BEING RAZED SOUTH RUGBY

One of the oldest of the old landmarks of this section passes with the tearing down this week of the old Daniel Chesshir house on what is now known as the Ben Craven farm south of Rugby. The old hewn log structure was built by Mr. Chesshir immediately after he returned from the Civil War, supposedly about 1865. Mr. Chesshir reared a family of 12 in the house which was so substantially built that some of the timbers are being used in a new house being constructed nearby. The logs were hewed square and the fitted corners held with wooden pins.

A smaller house was built of logs when Mr. Chesshir settled the land before the Civil War. After the war he built the larger house and the smaller was torn down several years ago.

It is supposed the duck was banded in order to secure information as to its migration habits.

PROOF IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE TALCO TIMES

Editor's Note: Convinced that "advertising really does pay" is Jack Caruthers of Mt. Pleasant, from whom the following letter of proof that advertisements in The Talco Times are read by great numbers of people was received this week: Mr. Paul Hardin, Editor Talco Times, Talco, Texas.

Dear Paul: Just to prove to you that people read The Talco Times, since giving you the ad last week about our new Watch Master, in four days, we have checked thirty-three watches from your city. All of them stated that they noticed the article in The Talco Times about our new machine, and it is needless to say that the ad has paid a nice dividend.

Enclosed you will please find mat with a picture of our machine for this week's issue. I am still convinced that "advertising really does pay." Yours very truly, J. W. CARUTHERS.

Beer Election in Titus Co. November 29

Titus county voters will have another opportunity Friday, Nov. 29, to decide whether beer shall or shall not be sold in the county.

Tuesday morning, Nov. 12, a committee of Titus county citizens presented to the Commissioners Court a petition asking that an election be held to determine the attitude of the people concerning the sale of beer in Titus county. The petition is said to have borne more than six hundred names in compliance with a law requiring the signatures of at least ten per cent of the qualified voters of the county.

Due to the fact the Christmas season usually begins immediately after Thanksgiving, and because the court did not wish to interfere with pre-Christmas activities, it was deemed advisable the election be held as soon after Thanksgiving as possible and November 29 was set as the date of the election.

A heated campaign is expected to be carried on by both the "wet" and "dry" sides of the local option issue.

"This newspaper pledges allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands—one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1940

WE THANK THREE—

For Liberty—in America in this year of confusion when the people of many countries have lost theirs;

For Peace—in a world torn by strife, murder and slaughter on sea, on land and from the air;

For Life—with all its manifold privileges in this modern age when conveniences beyond the dreams of ancient kings are enjoyed by common men;

For Health—safeguarded by science and government awake to the need for wholesome, healthful community and private living;

For Religion—in which every man is free to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience;

For Opportunity—in a land that still recognizes the power of initiative and free enterprise with rewards for thrift, work and character;

For Friendship—the fine comradeship of freemen striving to build better lives, better communities and a better nation;

For Homes—the bulwarks of American life, where families of all stations can gather on this Thanksgiving Day to acknowledge the rich blessings that are

DELIVER THE GOODS

If a member of your family died, would you print the resolution on a billboard?

If your wife entertained would you send an account of it to the theater program man?

If you were going to enlarge your business, would you advertise it in a hotel register?

If you were going to have a wedding in your family, would you get out a handbill?

You would send such items to the newspaper, wouldn't you?

Then why don't you put your advertisements in a newspaper?

The newspaper helps build your town. Why not help the newspaper? There is no better advertisement in the world for a town than a good newspaper. Show us a good newspaper full of advertising, and we will show you a good town, full of live merchants.

Newspapers are town builders, town advertisers, fortune makers, news disseminators, sermon deliverers, prosperity forecasters. They are a necessity, not a luxury. They must be maintained. Without them we would retrograde to the medieval days.

Don't patronize them from a charitable standpoint. Patronize them because they deliver the goods—that is, if they are the right kind.

Cut out the foolishness and work for the upbuilding of your town and start by upbuilding your newspaper. — Augusta (Kans.) Gazette.

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

THAT WE MAY EAT AND LIVE
— NEHEMIAH V-2.

PRIMITIVE MAN HAD ONLY THE CRUDEST OF AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, DEPENDED LARGELY ON NATURE'S BOUNTY.

ANCIENT EGYPTIANS WITH OX-DRAWN PLOW MADE FIRST GREAT STEP IN PROGRESS OF AGRICULTURE.

FOR CENTURIES METHODS AND IMPLEMENTS STOOD STILL. IT REMAINED FOR DEMOCRATIC U.S., WITH SELF-GOVERNING MEN TILLING ACRES THEY OWNED, TO BRING FARMING TO ITS PRESENT DEVELOPMENT. TODAY IN EDUCATION, LIVING STANDARDS, HOUSING, AS WELL AS METHODS, U.S. FARMERS LEAD THE WORLD.

Here's How to Tell the Rank of U. S. Army Officers

WASHINGTON.—What with confusion in the office, there will be plenty of army uniforms about. Here's the way to tell a general from a private.

Four silver stars—General of the armies, chief of staff of the United States army.

Three silver stars—Lieutenant general.

Two silver stars—Major general.

Silver eagle—Colonel.

Silver oak leaf—Lieutenant colonel.

Gold oak leaf—Major.

Two silver bars—Captain.

One silver bar—First lieutenant.

One gold bar—Second lieutenant.

Non-commissioned officers:

Three stripes, three curved bars underneath—Master sergeant.

Three stripes, two curved bars underneath—Technical or first sergeant.

Three stripes, one curved bar—Staff sergeant.

Three stripes alone—Sergeant.

Two stripes alone—Corporal.

One stripe alone—Private, first class.

Service stripes are worn on the left sleeve, one for every three years of service. These stripes are sometimes referred to as "hash marks."

There is a fable connected with the insignia of the commissioned officers.

It is said that lieutenants have only one bar, or one rung on the ladder. The captains have two bars, having climbed a little higher and the majors and lieutenant-colonels have climbed among the leaves. The colonels soar with the birds and the generals have reached the sky itself with the stars about them.

I KNEW IT, DEAR

For an hour she had listened to the conversation of a fatuous admirer.

"I was hit by an automobile last week and knocked senseless," he remarked, during a lull.

She: "When do you expect to get your senses back, sir?"

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

BURT LOCKHART
in Pittsburg Gazette

Some one observes that "Most women claim to be dresstitute."

Europe does not observe Thanksgiving. There is a good reason.

We like the idea of free speech, but we hate to listen to some of it.

It would be interesting to find a man who can successfully prove that he pays no taxes.

Canned biscuits is the latest, but the world still frowns on any attempt to can flapjacks.

While life is worth while in America, it doesn't seem to be worth half that much in Europe.

Football has its usages. It helps some of the nation's big colleges to get in the headlines once a year.

There are many people in this country who have a hunch that Mussolini is going to slip down on Greece.

Probably another reason why Mr. Willkie did not win was that he kept stressing the need of hard work in this country.

It is consoling to know that the money we spend for face powder and gun powder is not lost. At least, it helps to save our faces.

Another thing that is hard to understand is why it is necessary for Hitler and Mussolini to make peace drives into peaceful territories.

The next dictionary may contain the word "jitteritis," a nervous condition attributed to fantastic fears of Hitler invading the United States.

An Italian editor wrote a six-column editorial accusing President Roosevelt of "skidding this country into war." The vote last week answered the editorial with a decisive No. At least, the voters believed Mr. Roosevelt was sincere when he said our boys would not be sent across the water.

Having increased our national debt from twenty to forty-five billion dollars in less than eight years, millions of anxious voters want to know what the debt will look like four years hence.

The wife of one of the nation's leading Communists has been ordered sent back to Russia. She evaded testimony regarding her relationship to the Communist party. It is encouraging to note that our country is gradually learning what to do with Communists.

PATMAN'S WASHINGTON PARAGRAPHS

(CONGRESSMAN—TEXAS)

Large Appropriation for National Defense

The last Congress appropriated twenty-six and one-half billion dollars, the largest amount appropriated by any Congress heretofore, except in 1918 during the World War. Congress and the administration in power are determined to properly and adequately prepare this country for national defense until no nation will dare attack us. Although we have the finest Navy in the world, it is not sufficient for two oceans. Next year, we will construct, under the program, four times as many naval vessels as this year; the next, five times as many; and the next year, fifteen times as many naval vessels as this year.

This year, we are constructing 950 war airplanes a month; next year, this will be stepped up to 1500 a month; and the next year to more than 3,000 a month. The latest airplane to be built for national defense is the "Flying Fortress," with a wing spread of 212 feet, that is capable of carrying 56,000 pounds, and with a cruising range equal to the distance from New York to Berlin and back to Los Angeles, Calif.

Good Neighbor Policy

South American countries produce rubber, tin and coffee. Under our good neighbor policy, we expect to make loans to South American countries; and although they will be adequately secured and the money paid back, it is our purpose to encourage these countries to permit the people in the United States to continue to grow cotton and other commodities, which are normally grown here, without too much competition from these Latin American countries. In other words, we will help them produce commodities and materials that are not produced here, and endeavor to discourage them from becoming too much of our competitors in the markets of the world on the commodities that we have always produced but which they have only recently encouraged.

Factories for the Interior

It is the policy of the government to encourage the construction of factories which will be used for the manufacture of preparedness supplies and materials in the Middle West, the South and West. Recently, a powder plant was authorized for Radford, Va. It will employ 5,000 workers. A census disclosed that within thirty miles of Radford, there are 37,000 heads of families "gainfully employed in agriculture," but less than a half of them earn $500.00 a year, which is far below the American standard of living. Therefore, the factory can obtain the help needed from the surrounding countryside, and when the emergency is over, the unemployed can be more quickly and easily absorbed back into their former pursuits than if they were congregated in a few large cities.

Mr. Chester Davis, a Member of the Federal Reserve Board and former Director of the Triple A in the Department of Agriculture, estimates that there are over five million low income single cash crop farmers available for defense work.

In the rush to provide planes, tanks, guns, ammunitions, and other supplies for immediate preparation for adequate defense, existing facilities are being enlarged, but the policy is definitely established to

Lonesome Bill Thinks Men Need Training

Editor's Note: The following communication from Lonesome Bill states why he is for training, for home defense and adds a good word for the womenfolk. The way the last paragraphs read indicate Mrs. Bill might have walked into the room while he was writing:

Dear Editor: I'm in the right humor to write tonight, so I'll just cut loose on something that I been studying about lately. It's this military training you hear so much talk on. At first I was against it, but since everybody says it ain't training to fight over in Europe but for home defense I reckon I'm for it as much as a banker is for security on a loan. Of course I'm too old to take the training, but I've been married long enough to know that a man needs some kind of special training if he is to win any wars in the home. That's why I'm so strong for this one year of training. It will put about sixteen million men in shape to win the battles at home which will mean that about sixteen million women will have to go out of their business of running the country. That is, if the training is any good.

Women have just about got this country and gone with it. They can do most anything a man can do and can get by with a lot that a man can't. Of course they're not so bad on the farm except in the house, but they're in business like bees in a hive. Last time I was in town I went around to a dry goods store for a pair of drawers. A lady popped up from nowhere and said, "What can do for you?" I hated to come out with just plain drawers, so I said, "well, ma'am, you might show me some long handles." She dropped both hands and her chin and chewing gum, then picked them all up and said, "Mister, if you're looking for the hardware store, it's right down the street." I decided there wasn't any use in arguing with her, so I started out, but before I got to the door I heard her tell another woman, "Oh, he's just one of them old WPA freshies."

But there's always some good in everything, and the good in having women run the country is that as long as they're at it we ain't got any reason to fear a dictator. What man would have the nerve to tell fifty million women what to do? The Mormans tried a little of it and where are the Mormans today?

Well, here's hoping for more hot greece in Mussolini's eyes.

Yours respectfully,
LONESOME BILL.

Negro Monument is Blasted in France

BERLIN.—France's monument of gratitude to her negro soldiers for services in the World War has been blasted on German orders.

The "Monument aux Noirs" on Avenue de Chalons at Reims was regarded by the Germans as an insult to the white race, it was said. The monument was a bronze group of negro soldiers gathered about the French tri-color.

The inscription read: Aux Heroes de L'Armee Noire—to the heroes of the black army.

An Unknown Quantity

Algebra would be easy if "x" were not the "unknown quantity."

You know what quality is, you know what value is... but you puzzle over what comes between them and price. The "x" in that problem is indirect distribution: lack of control of production.

There is no algebra in shopping from the ads in this newspaper. Quality offered is a known quantity. It is so plain that you see it. It is so tangible that you keep it.

Give Something for the Home

Give something for the Baby,
For Mother, too, and Dad,
A doll for Sister, maybe,
An engine for the Lad.
And yet this glad December,
As up and down you roam,
The Finest gift, remember,
Is SOMETHING FOR THE HOME.

Though something for a minute,
Some heart a moment cheers,
The gift with Christmas in it
Is something for the years;
The little gifts are pleasant,
The gifts as light as foam,
But, for the great big present,
Give SOMETHING FOR THE HOME!

There isn't any other
That hearts will hold as fast,
That pleases Dad and Mother
Like something that will last—
A chair, a table near it,
A lamp to light the gloam,
To bring the Christmas spirit,
Give SOMETHING FOR THE HOME.

Plan to Toughen Americans is Said Being Made

Americans who have seen Europeans exercising in athletic fields to build their bodies up for the grind that either breadwinning or war will demand of them will be glad to learn that the President of the United States is said to be planning a drive for more exercise in the United States.

This country has neglected exercise and is devoted to the debilitating effect of too much heat in homes.

Europeans enjoying restaurant meals out of doors, even at temperatures which call for overcoats in the United States, surprise American travelers.

Physical exercise in various European countries has been valuable. The German army reflects physical training as a national objective, according to Americans who have been seen in action.

Modern machinery does not lessen importance of good physique as a factor for success in peace or war.—Louisville Times.

Thirty Billion Pins Made in U. S. Yearly

From recent reports, there are manufactured in the United States every year some thirty billion pins. The machine for making pins was invented in the United States and operated in Rhode Island during Revolutionary days from 1776 to 1780. While it performed practically the same operations in a crude way as our present day pin making machine, it has been improved upon from time to time.
