THE HOUSE OF ALEXANDER CELEBRATES 25TH ANNIVERSARY

F. G. Alexander & Sons this week celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary. At the same time with the anniversary, this progressive firm inaugurated a big "Silver Jubilee Sale", which bids to be a phenomenal success. Right at this time, a little history of the firm of Alexanders' will be interesting to their friends, customers, and to the general public. We have secured a few facts and below submit a brief history of the firm. Also we desire to call especial attention to their big two-page ad in this issue of the Free Press:

F. G. Alexander, who is now president of the firm of F. G. Alexander & Sons, came to Haskell in the year 1884. At that time Haskell County had not been organized. He located on the Fluidy Ranch, on the double fork of the Brazos River, about fourteen miles west of Haskell. He superintended this ranch, making the saddle his rocking chair and the mesquite grass his bed until January 3rd, 1891. At that time he formed a partnership with R. S. DeLong, J. E. Morrison and S. B. Street, and bought out Johnson Bros., dry goods and grocery business.

loved by every member and employee of the business. It is to Mr. Street that Mr. Alexander attributes much credit for the success of the business up to that time. Mr. Street enjoyed a long and successful business life, and his wise counsel was worth much to the business. Mr. Alexander and Mr. Street for twenty years made trips to the Eastern markets together, in all there being forty-seven of these trips made together. Mr. Street's death occurred while he and Mr. Alexander were en route home from Chicago on the last trip they were to make together.

Soon after the death of Mr. Street another change was made. Alexander Mercantile Company dissolved their corporation and the Haskell business was taken over by the Alexanders and the style of the corporation changed to F. G. Alexander & Sons. The Rule business was taken over by Hills, Street, and Alexander and the Paducah business by Street, Whittington Company, Mr. Alexander retaining stock in both the Rule and Paducah concerns.

Mr. Alexander states that the

The Girls Auxiliary Club Entertains

The Girls Auxiliary Club entertained with a party Thursday, Dec. 30, 1915.

About 8:30 the guest assembled to play forty-two. While the games were in progress, Misses Tommie Boone, Frances and Carrie Sherrill rendered several instrumental numbers which were enjoyed.

After seven games were played Clara Clift gave an interesting reading.

Then refreshments were served to the following:

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Fields, Misses Tommie Boone, Allie Irby, Beryl Boone, Effie Nola Long, Laura Lee Langford, Mary Winn, Nell Stowers, Linnie Lamm, Clara Clift, Elsie Tyson, Frances and Carrie Sherrill. Messrs. Lewis Sherrill Marvin Post, Brevard Long, Aluen Lamm, Jno. P. Payne Eugene Williams, John Russell, Charlie Conner, Searcy Lewis, Clinton Johnson.

Lenore Ulrich in Kilmeny

In presenting Kilmeny with Lenore Ulrich star of "The Bird of Paradise," in the title role, the Oliver Morosco Photoplay Company has found a powerful story for a powerful personality, and a powerful personality for a powerful story. It is doubtless whether so big a role as the little rich girl abducted by North of England gypsies at the age of six could have been "put over" by any less an actress than Lenore Ulrich, who has been taking the country by storm in Morosco's masterpiece of old Hawaii.

Supporting Lenore Ulrich in "Kilmeny" are Williams Desmond one of the finest leading men in the Morosco companies; Myrtle Steadman, more beautiful than ever; Herbert Standing, in a gypsy portrayal that is a masterpiece; Victory Bateman, and a score of others.

Kilmeny is the attraction at Dick's Theatre afternoon and evening, Thursday Jan. 13th.

M. E. Church Notes

On Monday of this week the ladies of the Missionary Society met in their first business session of the new year. The time was spent chiefly in listening to the reports given by the retiring officers of the work done during the past year. Although the officers were not all present, but some excellent reports were made by those who were there.

The local treasurer, Mrs. Patterson, reported the receipt of $775.50 into the local treasury for the year 1915. Of this amount $200 was paid into the church building fund and $100 was used to pay off the parsonage note. The parsonage is now free from debt, a fact highly gratifying to our women who have labored so long and earnestly to this end. Although we are justly proud of our financial successes.

Interest in Mission and Bible study is steadily increasing and some excellent work is being done along these lines.

The monthly bible lesson is a source of help and inspiration to the whole society. The mission class is finding "China's New Day" a most interesting and stimulating study. The subscribers to the Missionary Voice numbers 26 and the monthly lessons from it conducted by Mrs. Fields have aroused new interest in our work both at home and abroad.

The resignation of Mrs. Rike from the office of recording secretary was regretfully accepted, Mrs. O. E. Patterson being elected to succeed her.

At 3 o'clock next Monday a short session will be held followed at 3:30 by the bible lesson. Mrs. Turrentine announces that the lesson is to be the 3rd Chapter of St. John's Epistles. All the women interested are cordially invited to attend.

Veazey and Gaston Back

J. M. Veazey and F. E. Gaston have returned to the city after spending the holidays with the homefolks in Dallas. These congenial gentlemen report a good time—Christmas doin's with all the "trimmings".

F. G. Alexander & Sons Interior view of old store, taken several years ago.

After one one year Mr. DeLong sold his interest, and for three years the business was owned by F. G. Alexander, J. E. Morrison and S. B. Street. Then the Morrison interest was bought, and the business was owned by F. G. Alexander and S. B. Street, the style of the firm was F. G. Alexander & Company.

In 1901 a branch store was opened at Munday, Knox County, and Fred Sanders became manager of this branch. In 1902 the business was incorporated and stock sold to the young men who had grown up with the business, and the firm name was then changed to Alexander Mercantile Company, and was composed of F. G. Alexander, S. B. Street, Henry Alexander, W. L. Hills, C. L. Mayes, Finis Campbell and W. G. Sherrod.

In 1906 another branch store was established at Rule, Texas, W. L. Hills removing to that place and taking the management of that store. In the latter part of January, 1911, the Munday business was removed to Paducah. The management of the Paducah house begun in the hands of C. L. Mayes.

In February, 1911, a gloom was cast over every member and employe of the firm, for at this time occurred the death of Mr. S. B. Street be-credit for the high degree of success attained by the firm, he places in a large measure upon the services of those who worked for and with him. He says it has always been his observation that the man who made good for others could make good for himself. He has ever been ready and willing to assist his men in getting started for themselves. He mentions a few who have at past times worked with him and helped build the business, among these being: W. L. Hills, manager of Hills, Street and Alexander, Rule and Swenson; C. L. Mayes, owner and manager of the Munday Grain and Elevator Co., Munday, Texas; W. G. Sherrod, bank cashier, Lubbock, Texas; H. S. Post, banker, Haskell; J. W. Collins, who is now managing his farm and ranch, near Weinert; Finis Campbell, manager of the Campbell Dry Goods Co., Munday, Texas; Fred Sanders, who now manages his large gin business in Haskell, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ellis, who own and manage their business at Fort Stockton. Two employes who have been very instrumental in building this business still remain with the firm, and Mr. Alexander says he places much to their credit for what they have done and are now doing for the busi-

The Girls Auxiliary Club

The Girls Auxiliary club met Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1916. The house was called to order by the president, Miss Tommie Boone.

After an interesting program Mrs. Fields, the teacher, took charge of the lesson, the subject being Early Flemish Art. The study of the Old Masters is provy interesting and instructive to the members.

The club has now twenty four members. We meet the first and third Tuesday of each month. All the young ladies of the town are urged to join.

Will Preach at M. E. Church

Rev. A. M. Martin of Stamford, who is to deliver a lecture at the Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, will fill the pulpit at the Methodist Church both at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday. An invitation is extended to all to attend at these hours.

Do you like good coal? Everybody does, and for the remainder of the winter you will find Chambers' Maitland coal an exceptional value.

ness. Mr. L. M. Garrett and Miss Docia Winn are those to whom he had reference.

Mr. Alexander has associated with him at the present time four of his sons, being Henry, Wallace, Matthew and Fred. A fifth son is growing up, and will within a short time be ready to enter the store. All of these boys are built of the material that makes of America the greatest country of the world, and each is a diligent, earnest worker for the interests of the firm.

Mr. Alexander has worked hard all along during these years but Time has dealt kindly with him, and he still looks healthy and robust. He does not mind telling his age; says his birthday was Christmas Eve; that he was sixty-one years young, and dern if he don't look younger'n that!

Ed Martin and Wife to Memphis

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. (Ed) Martin and wife of Fort Worth have been spending a few days in the city, the guests of relatives and friends prior to their departure for their future home in Memphis. Mr. Martin has until recently been engaged in the drug business in Fort Worth, but a few days since a deal was consummated whereby he will open a new house in Memphis.

The Fighting Hope

Laura Hope Crews who makes her photo-dramatic debut in the sixth in the series of the Lasky-Belasco photo-dramatic productions, is positively one of the most gifted of American dramatic stars. The drama made its author, Wm. J. Hurlbut, famous over night when originally produced by David Belasco, and has become one of the recognized modern American classics.

The woman about whom the interest of this play centres is the wife of a moderately prosperous bank official, who is condemned to jail for an embezzlement of a very peculiar nature. She believes her husband to be innocent, and manages to become the secretary of the president of the bank, (now closed), whom she believes to be guilty beyond all doubt, in order to clear his own name, and letters which finally come into his possession convince even the wife that her husband was untrue to his trust.

At this time the wife falls in love with the man by whom she has been employed, thus having her fidelity to her convict husband put to an extreme test.

The ultimate solution of this extraordinary situation is worked out with such cleverness that it comes as a complete dramatic surprise.

"The Fighting Hope" will be seen at Dick's Theatre—Matinee and night Monday January 10th.

We will give that old suit a sanitary cleaning, for 1.00. We call and deliver. Phone 390. Baliff & Coward.

High Class Memorials in Marble and Granite

I am now representing the National Marble Mills, Atlanta, Georgia, and will be glad to call on you at your convenience, should you be interested in any size or style memorial.

Reasons Why You Should See Me Before Buying

1. The Company that I represent believe in their work and furnish a written guarantee to each customer.
2. The prices I quote are the lowest consistent with finest quality work and absolutely highest grade of stone.
3. Georgia Marble and Wisconsin Blue Granite are the two finest monumental stones in existence. Their beauty, combined with their lasting qualities make them second to none.
4. We never have—and never will—send out a monument with a sandstone or limestone base or bottom base. The base is of the same stone as the die.
5. I allow the freight and personally supervise the setting up of all monuments sold.

HASKELL, TEXAS, Jan. 1, 1916.

This is one year when "readin',
'ritin', and 'rithmetic," gives way
to the more popular three C's—
Campaign, Cigars, and "Cody"
Water"—an inseparable trio.

Even some little bit since we had anything about that Y. M. B. L.
But sometime maybe we'll see our little pet grow into a big project.
Can't you realize that we NEED it? By and by you will—at least we are hopeful.

The oil field proposition still looks good. Indications are far better than ever for the prospect of bringing in a paying well, near Haskell. Investors are extremely optimistic over the present out look and are pushing operations to the limit. If we get this field here—Look out! We'll rub "town" out of our vocabulary; CITY for us.

The South last year got $500,000,000 for 15,500,000 bales of cotton. The South this year will get $600,000,000 for 17,500,000 bales of cotton. That is the most striking, but by no means the most important illustration of the agricultural awakening of the South. More important is the fact that the South this year produced more than 27 per cent of the nation's 3,000,000,000 bushel corn crop. It is the most valuable corn crop ever grown and the South's share of it is worth $516,516,750, or more than last year's cotton. In a word, the Southern farmer has learned to diversify his products, a lesson which the far-seeing leaders of this section have preached for years with small result, until the war hammered home the wisdom of the doctrine with unmistakable emphasis.—Farm and Ranch.

THE REWARD

Fortunate indeed is the man that lives in the future, whose hopes and aspirations are founded upon faith and confidence of a well earned reward. He has done his best and expects ample compensation. Such a man is never disappointed. He always succeeds.
His achievements may not be up to his expectations at all times,
but he succeeds. He makes progress and every year finds him
ready for greater things.

To be hopeful of the future one must be honest and diligent with the present. A good deed today earns something for tomorrow.
Faithful word this years brings its reward next year.

Every day, every hour must be used to the best possible advantage if we would trust the future for our reward. Faithful service demands reward.—Farm and Ranch.

PROSPERITY

One sure sign of prosperity in any city, town or country is the increased prices of land and real estate.

Prices are soaring in Haskell and several trades and sales have been made the past few days, in which the consideration was large.

There is a rumor to the effect that a Company is about to purchase a building site in Haskell for the purpose of erecting there on a large and splendid building with elevators and all conveniences in which will be housed a mammoth department store. Dame Rumor is a fickle lady, but we believe that the Company proposing to start this business here will not make a mistake in carrying out their plans.
Haskell would support a large department store admirably.

HASKELL BOYS AT U. of T.

Haskell County is represented at the University of Texas this year by the following students:

William Aiden Lamm, Brevard
Stevenson Long, J. Bailey Post,
Marvin Henry Post, Virgil Porter
Lee, Haskell.

The University is now in its 33rd session and has registered a larger attendance than at any previous time in its history. Twenty-three hundred students are now enrolled at the Main University at Austin.
It is likely that the total registration before the end of the session will exceed 2800. Of course these figures take no account of the 1200 students taking work in the University by correspondence.

Texas thus has, easily, the largest registration of any university in the South.

ity celebrating their twenty-fifth
business anniversary this week, with a big Silver Jubilee Sale. We refer to F. G. Alexander & Sons.
A statement, made by F. G. Alexander, the president of the firm is typical of the man. "Our Competitors—we have no mud to sling at them. That's contrary to our raising. Bless them! We love to see them grow; we love to see them prosper." Safe business policies together with honesty and square-dealing in all things have characterized the business since it's conception.

TOTHE GINNERS OF TEXAS:

The Warehouse and Marketing Department desires to state, in answer to many inquiries and for the benefit of all concerned, that that part of the law pertaining to bagging as prescribed in Section 6 of the law, which is mandatory and reads as follows, will be enforced to the letter the coming season:

"Sec. 6. Each and every bale of cotton ginned by a public gin in this state shall be wrapped in bagging so as to completely cover the same, and leave none of the cotton exposed. The bagging in which the same is wrapped shall be of such a character of fibre
and texture that all the markings placed on same will under ordinary conditions, remain intact and visible," etc.

In the matter of marking the bales so that the marks will under ordinary conditions remain intact and visible, we suggest that if a bagging of good strong fibre is used, as required, a good quality of indelible marking ink will last until the cotton reaches its destination. The practice of using lamp black and kerosene oil should be discontinued, as it will not stand even a heavy shower and is often the cause of misunderstanding between customers who leave their cotton on the gin yard.

In regard to Section 46 which is not mandatory, and which reads as follows; "The Board of Supervisors shall have the power one year after this act takes effect to provide the character of bagging to be used in the baling of cotton"; the Department fully appreciates the importance of the above section, and has, at much expense and for some time, investigated the advisability of carrying out this provision the coming season.
Representatives have been sent East to make a thorough investigation of the matter, and upon their reports it has been decided that in the face of inflated values in imported jute and owing to the impossibility of arranging with unsettled foreign markets
a legitimate tare under the new conditions this provision would create, it would be unwise and unjust at this time to enforce this discretionary provision.

We are of the opinion, however that later on, when the cotton trade is normal, the enforcement of this section of the Law will mean a saving to producers of Texas in tare alone several million dollars annually.

The Ginnings That Does Not Affect The Head
Because of its tonic and invigorating effect, LAXA-TIVE BUNDO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness or ringing in the head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE'S.

I'll Bet You hadn't thought of it In Just This Way

Had it ever occurred to you that you had as well try to be a successful physician without attending a medical school, or a successful lawyer without attending a law school, or a successful minister without attending a theological school, as to try to be a successful banker or merchant or business man of any kind without first getting a practical business training? If you wanted to make a first class doctor, lawyer or minister, you would attend a university with a reputation. Why not use the same good judgement in selecting a business school in which to secure your training? The Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, is the business university of the South; it enrolls
more students annually for Book keeping, Shorthand, Stenotype-writing, Cotton Classing, Business Administration and Finance and Telegraphy than any other similar school in America. Its students have come from 89 different states; its graduates are holding the very best of positions in the leading cities of the United States.

If you will spend from $100 to $150 for a course of Shorthand, Stenotypewriting, or Bookkeeping, or Telegraphy, or Cotton Classing, or Business Administration and Finance, or better still, spend $175 to $200 and complete any two of these courses,
you will have made the best investment of your life. What young man or woman with grit and determination cannot raise this amount? Hundreds of students who borrowed every cent of their money to attend our school or gave us their note on tuition have found it the best venture of their lives; they were soon able to pay back the borrowed money, continue holding their good job or go into business for themselves, with assurance of success. If you always remain where you are you will always be what you are. Think this statement over seriously.
I'll bet you hadn't thought of it in just this way. More than 100 new students will enroll before this month closes. Why not you be among the number? You can enter any day and take up the work. For large free catalogue,

VACATION DAYS CLOSED

School opened last Monday morning with an increased enrollment. The grades were very much crowded before the holidays and now that many new pupils are entering it becomes a great problem to know what to do with them. Teachers report excellent work since the holidays. The spirit of the pupils is most encouraging.

CLOSE OF SECOND QUARTER

The second quarter of the school year will close next week. It is urged that grade cards be carefully inspected by parents

Sciatica's Piercing Pain

To kill the nerve pains of Sciatica you can always depend on Sloan's Liniment. It penetrates to the seat of pain and brings ease as soon as it is applied. A great comfort too with Sloan's is that no rubbing is required. Sloan's Liniment is invaluable for stopping muscular or nerve pain of any kind. Try it at once if you suffer with Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sore Throat, Pain in Chest Sprains, Bruises, etc. It is excellent for Neuralgia and headache. 25c at all druggists.

and that a great effort be made to secure better work and more of it from those whose averages are below seventy five.

IRREGULAR ATTENDANCE DUE TO SICKNESS

The attendance has been very irregular during the past month on account of sickness. From six to fifteen pupils from each room are absent most of the time. This is unfortunate for the pupils and very discouraging to teachers. It is hoped that the epidemic of "grippe" will soon pass by.

HALF DAY SESSION IN FIRST AND SECOND GRADES

It is highly probable that half-day sessions will be necessary in the first and second grades for the remainder of the school year. The teachers of these grades are crowded. It is better for the children to be in school three hours each day in a room that is not crowded than to be in school six hours in a crowded room. The Board is not financially able to employ more teachers than are employed

When Haskell People

Publicly Testify, It's Evidence Not To Be Ignored

When residents of Haskell are willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills in this paper, is there any good reason to try a kidney backache or bladder remedy that is not as well recommended?

Mrs. W. G. Bedford, Hughes St., Haskell, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills gave me prompt relief from a feeling of discomfort in my back and I have had no return of the trouble since. I have great confidence in this medicine and I am glad to recommend it because I feel it is worthy of praise."

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood, change weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

Will Lecture Here Sunday

The various pastors of Haskell churches have perfected arrangements whereby Rev. A. M. Martin of Stamford will deliver a lecture in this city Sunday afternoon. The lecture will be given at the Presbyterian Church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The lecture will be along the lines of Home of Domestic Service. Local pastors are of the opinion that no part of religious interest is more neglected than the home service. And believing the home service to be an important religious factor, plan the lecture Sunday as a sort of education along this line. Everyone is invited to the service, and those who have family prayer, or prayers at intervals, are urged to be present.

The above portrait is a splendid likeness of Mr. F. G. Alexander, President and organizer of the present firm of F. G. Alexander & Sons, who are this week celebrating their twenty-fifth business anniversary.

Mr. Alexander is a pioneer citizen of this county, having located here before Haskell county was organized. It was on Jan. 3rd, 1891 that the nucleus of what was later to be the splendid and efficient business organization of F. G. Alexander & Sons, was formed. Mr. Alexander, with some friends as partners taking over a small dry goods and grocery business, and with the passing of the years gradually branching out and building up the present business in Haskell, with a number of branch stores situated over Western Texas.

Mr. Alexander is known to all as a kindly man, ever ready to aid a worthy cause in any way that he may do so. Particularly is he known as a friend of the young man, and his grave and unerring counsel is welcomed on any subject.

Mr. Alexander, though naturally proud of the splendid business that he has been able to build up is modest about the part he has played these years in the advancement of the organization, giving a larger part of the credit to his co-workers and employees who have been associated with him.

Though he has attained the age of 61 years just a few days past, Mr. Alexander is hale and hearty and looks the picture of health and solid contentment.

Ballew Bubbles

Health is very good, Everybody enjoyed a good time at the Christmas tree at Curry Chapel last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Jousselet are spending the holidays with Mrs. Jousselet's parents in east Texas.

Mrs. Annie Cunningham and children of Dallas spent Xmas with relatives here.

Mrs. Gus Patterson returned to her home at Goree after a short stay with relatives:

There was a party at Mr. Cox's last Friday night. The house was beautifully decorated in Christmas decorations. Everybody enjoyed a pleasant time.

We had a nice little rain last Monday afternoon. It will help the young grain considerably.

Mr. Roy Hooten had quite a little tear up last Saturday night when his horse became frightened and rain away tearing his buggy up.

Miss Elva Cox has been quite ill but we are glad to report her much better.

A number of the young folks attended a party at Mr. Wrights last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lawson spent the holidays in Throckmorton with Mr. Lawson's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Toliver returned Wednesday from an extended trip east. They reported an enjoyable time.

Miss Eunice McCain returned to Wichita Falls last Sunday where she is teaching school after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McCain.

Mr. Owen Toliver left Tuesday morning for Spur, on a prospecting trip.

Mr. Gus Patterson came in Sunday morning from Mexico where he has been visiting relatives.

Mr. Tom Robertson returned last week from a visit to his mothers in Falls County.

Mr. Clay Kimbrough has returned from Fort Worth, where he and his wife accompanied their little daughter, Betsy, to the sanitarium. We are sorry to report her no better.

Mrs. L. S. Grindstaff has returned from a visit to her mothers near Fort Worth.

Mrs. Walter Tompkins left Monday for Abilene to attend the bedside of her father.

I must be going and give space to a more gifted writer.

Wishing one and all a prosperous New Year.

Freck.

Henry Alexander, Manager of the firm of F. G. Alexander & Sons, received his education at Southwestern University, Georgetown, a short time after which he became connected with and has been constantly with the above firm. For a number of years in the capacity of Manager. Mr. Alexander as the oldest of the sons is probably known better and more associated with the firm in the minds of the people than any of the other boys, and it is to him that a due share of credit may go for the efficient manner in which he has consistently done big things for his firm.

Henry Alexander besides being known in the business world, is also a prominent figure in fraternal circles. One of the organizers of the local lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, as well as Past Exalted Ruler, Mr. Alexander at the National Convention of Elks held in San Francisco last year was accorded the signal honor, of being chosen as District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler for Western Texas.

THE NATION'S DINNER TABLE

When the dinner bell of this nation rings there have been slaughtered for the feast 15,000 hogs, 21,000 hogs, 4,500 sheep, 1,000 hundredweight of poultry and other meats, and there have been 100,000 bushels of cereals and 500,000 pounds of vegetables prepared for the feast. Multiply these quantities by one thousand, representing approximately the number of meals per annum, and we have the annual contents of the nation's larder. But with all our immense quantity, superb quality and wide range of products, the American housewife, like the wife of King Nebuchadnezzar, laments for variety and she goes marketing in foreign lands. She buys abroad $200,000,000 per annum of farm products that can and should be produced in the United States.

GINCHESTER'S PILLS

MISSION OF THE RURAL CHURCH

SHOULD BE UNIVERSITY OF RELIGIOUS LEARNING.

Duty of Christianity to Evangelize the World.

By Rev. Jno. A. Rice, D. D. Pastor St. John M. E. Church, South, St. Louis, Mo.

Some years ago, the question was asked: What is a college? The attempt to answer it shook the educational world in America from center to circumference. Another question is now beginning to be asked: What is a church? Without undertaking to give a definition of it, let me ask, in this initial paper, what the church is for? The New Testament reveals three distinct tasks to which it is committed.

First, that of evangelization. The church is divinely commissioned to reach for the lowest and the least man in the least land and offer him sonship to the Eternal God; offer him a divine power, which lifts him out of the bog and places him upon the highest levels of human life, where God and the soul are in fellowship. This alone were an immense privilege.

Teaching the Art of Living.

The church is commissioned also to teach and train those who are rich with its evangelistic message. The term, Religious Education, has come to mean a specific thing in our country, namely, the training of the people in the local church in those deep matters which pertain to the art of living. I am not now speaking of the work of education in schools, colleges and universities, but the work of education at our doors, in the congregation. Every agency in reach should be employed to the utmost in this important mission. Indeed, the local church could be made a sort of university for all the people, in which the simple, practical arts and virtues of everyday life should be taught and enforced. Only recently has this special phase of the church's work received anything like adequate attention. The New Testament word for it is Edification.

School of Religion Needed.

Of course, the Sunday School is the center for all this work, although the activities of the church should extend through the entire week and the Sunday School should cease to be so named. It should be called the School of Religion or the Church School or something else that indicates it to be an all-the-week activity. During this time various and sundry clubs, classes, musical organizations, culture courses, as well as distinctly religious meetings, should be held. Thickly settled neighborhoods, as we shall see, offer fine opportunities for the development of things spiritual.

The third task to which the church is committed is that of Christianizing the social order; that of infusing the spirit of Jesus into every nook and corner of our life. Nothing is foreign to the interest of the church.

Neighborly Love Essential.

If religion pervades and colors the whole life then ours is serious business, for it will let no corner of the world escape its influence. The sooner we learn that Christianity is not a thing to be practiced in a corner the better for the world. The question of the eighteenth century, touching Christianity, was, Can't he made to square with the human reason? Of the nineteenth, Can it be made to square with the results of scientific research? Of the twentieth, What can it do? We must learn to enforce not only love of God, whom we cannot see, but love to our neighbors, with whom we are living in constant contact. Neither without the other is Christianity whatever else it may be. Everything that interests his neighbors must interest him, if he is a genuine follower of the Christ.

It is the mission of the church—the rural as well as the city—to evangelize the whole world, to train to the highest degree of efficiency those whom it evangelizes and to seek to make the spirit of Jesus the absolute rule in all human relations.

It is an admitted economic fact that there can be no permanent prosperity without a permanent agriculture.

THE BATTLE OF THE TIRES

Agricultural and Commercial Press Services
It is interesting to watch the forces of civilization battling for supremacy. The struggle now going on between the rubber and the iron tire promises to be the liveliest contest of the Twentieth Century.

The struggle is a silent one and there are no war correspondents to write vivid descriptions of the conflict but the results are more far-reaching to present and future generations than the war of Europe.

The rubber tire has been maneuvering for point of attack for several years and has captured a few unimportant positions in traffic, but it has now pitched a decisive battle with its iron competitor by hurling a million "jitneys" at the street railways and the battle is raging from ocean to ocean. Upon the result of the struggle depends the future of the rubber tire. If it is compelled to retreat, its doom is sealed, but if it wins the battle it will revolutionize the transportation methods of this nation.

If the rubber tire conquers the street traffic its next struggle is with the railroads of the country, and then the greatest battle between economic forces ever fought out on the face of this earth is on, for iron is the undisputed master in transportation, and is fortified behind billions of dollars and millions of men.

Stephenson applied the steel tire to an iron rail in 1814, but it was 1869 before the golden spike was driven at Promontory Point, which bound the country together with bands of steel. It took the iron tire fifty-five years to creep from ocean to ocean, but the rubber tire while warm from the creative mind of the inventive genius sped across the continent like an arrow shot from the bow of Ulysses. The roadbed was already prepared and therein lies the power of the rubber tire over that of iron, for government builds and maintains the public highway.

But iron is a stubborn metal and it has mastered every wheel that turns; has fought battles with every element above and beneath the earth and has never tasted the wormwood of defeat, and when rubber hurls its full force against this monarch of the Mineral Kingdom, it may rebound to the factory stunned beyond recovery.

The rubber tire first made its appearance on the bicycle, but it proved a frivolous servant and was dismissed for incompetency. It has always been too much inclined to revel in luxury to be taken seriously as a utility machine and its reputation is not one to inspire confidence in heavy traffic performance.

But to those who care to waft into dreamland, it is enchanting to note that there will be a marvelous difference between a rubber and an iron age. The rubber tire will scatter the cities throughout the valleys for with transportation at every man's door, why a city? It will traverse the continent with a net work of Macadam highways as beautiful as the boulevard built by Napoleon. It will paralyze the law making bodies of this nation for how could the legislatures run without the railroads to operate on?

FEDERAL INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

By Peter Radford.

The recent investigation of the United States Commission of Industrial Relations brought together the extremes of society and has given the public an opportunity to view the representatives of distinct classes, side by side, and to study their views in parallel columns.

Capital and labor have always been glaring at each other over gulfs of misunderstanding and if the Federal Industrial Commission attempts to bridge the chasm, it will render the public a distinct service.

The farmer has been sitting on the fence watching capital and labor fight for many years and incidentally furnishing the sinews of war and it is quite gratifying to find them talking with, instead of about, each other. When honest men smile and look into each other's souls, it always makes the world better and far more satisfactory to the farmer, who in the end, bears the burden of conflict, than resolutions, speeches or pamphlets containing charges and counter-charges.

The love for justice makes the whole world kin. Understanding is an arbiter far more powerful than the mandates of government, for there is no authority quite so commanding as an honest conscience; there is no decree quite so binding as that of the Supreme Court of Common Sense and no sheriff can keep the peace quite so perfect as Understanding.

We suppose the time will never come when capital and labor will not be occasionally blinded by the lightning flashes of avarice or frightened by the thunder peals of discontent. But Understanding is a Prince of Peace that ever holds out the olive branch to men who want to do right. A man's income is always a mixed thing for in it are the hope, ambition and opportunity of himself, and family, but there is nothing in a human heart quite so divine as Justice and Understanding in its bestowal.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

A Master Merchandising Stroke. The

Begins Saturday, Jan. 8th

Twenty-five years ago we began business in a very modest way, with a small stock of merchandise. Today we have one of the largest and most complete stocks of merchandise in the West, and enjoy a very large volume of business. The story of the growth of our business is keenly interesting. Its growth has been remarkable--gratifying, inspiring. It is natural that we should feel proud of such a growth.

It has been a strenuous climb, but the result is well worth the energy spent.

Our Policy

It is with considerable pride that we usher in this (our Twenty-fifth Anniversary) Sale. Any store would feel proud of such an achievement, for here is beyond the shadow of a doubt, the most extraordinary sale we have ever undertaken--an impressive merchandising event--earnestly and carefully planned to excel and surpass all former efforts in this line. It is not only our Twenty-Fifth Anniversary, but our clearance time as well, when our business policy demands that all winter stocks be cleared out forthwith, and for those combined reasons this will unquestionably be one of the biggest, broadest and most liberal sales that has happened in this section.

This Silver Anniversary Sale is a celebration. We are throwing our doors open to the public in the greatest sale ever held in this part of the country. The public has never before enjoyed. TAINTED POLITICS

By Peter Radford.

This country is suffering more from tainted politics than from any other malady at the present time. There is scarcely a campaign speech made, a platform demand written or a measure enacted into law that does not carry the taint of personal gain of some politician or political faction thereof.

There is more "blue sky" in campaign promises of many politicians running for office than was ever contained in the prospectuses of the boldest promoters of chimerical business schemes. There are more secret combinations formed by politicians in the name of "My Country" than were ever formed under any and all other aliases. There are more political rebates hidden in the phrase "Be it enacted" than were ever concealed under any and all other disguises.

The inordinate thirst for political power and unrestrained passion for mastery has caused more distress in this nation than the greed for gold, and it ought to be regulated by law. No business combination ever pursued their competitors as relentlessly or visited more heartless cruelty upon their ruthlessness than a political party that seeks to make junk of an industry, or cripple a business for party success, through tariff measures, political supervision and oftentimes destructive legislation. Many political platforms are as alluring to the voter as the story of the rainbow with its pot of gold and their consumption about as far-fetched. Self-gain is the first law in politics. There are many men in office today who, if they could not shake plums off the tree of American liberty or cut a melon taken from Uncle Sam's commissary, would have less desire to serve the public.

The country is surfeited with patriots, who will bare their breast to bullets in defense of their country, but there are few men in public life who will bare their breast to voters or the gauntlet of party disfavor in defense of agriculture or industry representative of the people, who will permit personal prejudice to detract justice, party success to distract reason or the pander of a political campaign to influence judgment to render capable service.

The preservation of our prosperity depends upon wisdom, courage and honesty in government, and the American voter should seek these attributes as implicitly as the Wise Man followed the Star of Bethlehem as they will often be found to rest on the stable; the plow or the staff of the Shepherd. The surest cure for tainted politics and machine rule is fresh air and sunshine and these important elements are most abundant upon the farm, and when farmers, bankers and merchants are elected membership in legislative bodies, many of the trouble in government will disappear.

WATERED SECURITIES

By Peter Radford.

Much has been said and more written about the evils of watered stock, big business concerns and the farmers of this nation believe that every dollar written into the life of a business organization, should be put to say "I know that my Redeemeth liveth," but farming is the big business on earth, and there is no water in its financial transaction that of any other industry. There is as much water in a farmer's drawing eight or ten per cent interest when other lines of industry save money for four or five per cent annum, as there is in a business giving a reasonable compensation to the face value of securities representing an investment of only cents on the dollar. The only inference is, the water is in the rate in one instance and in the other in the other.

The promoter oftentimes takes care and his success is contingent to the development of the property involved but the user, as a rule, has no chances and his success rests upon the property involved. There are many industries that cry louder but that suffer more severely from moral immorality in both law and fact than that of agriculture.

The farmers of America today paying $200,000,000 per annum usury on real estate and loans, and this interest capital at five per cent, represents $4,000,000 of fictitious values which the farmer is paying interest on. This money is almost equal to the value of crops produced in the United States.

The earning power of the farmer based upon his interest rate nearly divides like the earth's face—three-fourths water and one-fourth land. The largest body of water that floats upon the financial sphere now rests upon the farmer and its waves are dashing the billows are rolling against seven million homes threatening ruin and disaster to the prosperity of the nation. Will our public servants who understand how to drain the liquid of industrial properties turn the faucet to let the water off the farmer?

It is an admitted economic fact there can be no permanent prosperity without a permanent agricultural base.

Agriculture is recognized as the greatest of all industries and a person, progressive and sane agricultural population is the safeguard of civilization.

Mr. Alexander has for the past nine years had charge of the shoe department for his company, and has made a special study of shoes. He has visited the factories in the large cities, and qualified himself as an expert as to the quality and leather of the shoes and as to values as well as current styles, and the comfort of customers.

Mr. Alexander's ability as an ad writer is unquestioned. He has, in competition with ad writers all over the United States won prizes, in National advertising contests, and it is W. That he is a valuable asset to his company in the above capacities it is needless to add.

DEATH OF MRS. J. E. WILFONG

Wife of Pioneer Citizen Passes to Beyond After Critical Illness.

Shortly after the hour of midnight Thursday morning occurred the death of Mrs. J. E. Wilfong after a critical illness of several days duration. While Mrs. Wilfong's death did not come unexpectedly, she, as well as the sorrowing family having been told that there was no chance for her recovery, the entire community is in sorrow over the death of this splendid lady. Funeral services conducted by the Rev. Jno. D. White in a most beautiful and impressive manner were held from the family residence, shortly after the noon hour Thursday; the body of this beloved woman being laid to rest in Willow Cemetery soon after. The pall bearers were composed of pioneer citizens, they being: Messrs. F. G. Alexander, C. D. Long; J. L. Odell, J. N. McFatter Jno. L. Robertson and Bob Wilson of Munday, who had known and respected her for many a day, having been associated with her and Mr. Wilfong from the days that may be truly called the pioneer days of Haskell County.

Mrs. Wilfong before her marriage was Miss Clara Belle Ousley. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ousley, both of whom survive her and who now reside near Haskell. Born in Windsor, Mo., the seventh day of October, Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-Seven, Mrs. Wilfong with her parents removed to Palo Pinto County in 1874; some time later moving to Fort Griffin, after which in the spring of 1886 the family took up their residence on the north side of what was later to be Haskell County.

On December 19th, 1886, Clara Belle Ousley became the wife of J. E. Wilfong. To this union were born five children; Calvin, Kathleen (Mrs. Roy Shook), Odessa (Mrs. H. C. Arbuckle), Esther and Grace, all of whom survive their good mother and who reside in or near Haskell.

Unto this bereaved husband, to these heartbroken children, this good mother has bestowed a great heritage—that of true wifely and mother love. In the days that will be dark, the memory of her noble, Christian life, should dispel the darkness as the Sun.

It is the sturdy women of the type of Mrs. Wilfong who have helped to build up our country; who have been good citizens for the betterment and uplift of the same, as were their husbands, when it was new and untamed, and lawlessness still prevailed. What is more far-reaching in effect for good than the kindly influence of a good woman. It is they who make our churches; our civilization.

Besides the father and mother, husband and children, the deceased is also survived by a brother and two sisters, Gent Ousley of Aspermont, Mrs. P. B. Broach, Munday, and Miss Dora Ousley of Haskell.

To these relatives and to the family we extend our deepest and sincere sympathy in this great sorrow and we can only add, it is not forever that any of us are separated through death. You shall meet again.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
