To Save Time is Like Buying Cheap Merchandise to Save Money

Neither is wise or profitable, but on the contrary, it is expensive and disappointing. Good substantial goods, fairly priced, is a far better plan, both for the merchant and the people.

Our long years of experience in the dry goods business convinces us that a merchant cannot build up a good business on cheap goods, no matter how low the price is. Only mail order houses can do that, and they succeed only because they sell their merchandise sight unseen—and the customers are too proud to return the goods thus sent out.

We believe in buying only dependable and trustworthy goods, and then make a fair and reasonable price on same. Live and let live is a mighty good slogan to go by.

If you have not been buying your dry goods from the House of J. T. Bryant & Co., give us a trial order, and see how near we come to putting into effect this slogan—Live and Let Live.

Our stock is now at its best. We can suit you in almost any line you may wish to buy.

We have just received another shipment of Men's high grade clothing, and can fit you up in a real handsome suit at a very reasonable price. All the new and nobby styles are to be found in this big stock of clothing.

We received this week another shipment of Ladies Fine Dresses in Silks, Crepes, and combinations. They are gems of beauty. Also another shipment of Stetson Hats have come in.

If you are interested in real merchandise, come to this store—we are catering to the better sort, at Live and Let Live prices.

A demonstration of the uses to which motor trucks may be put a free moving picture show and lectures, will be given in Haskell next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, by the Wichita Falls dealers who will make a tour of a number of Northwest Texas towns.

The show will be given at a point as close to the center of the city as possible, and everyone is invited. The tourists, about 25 in number, will spend the night here, occupying their own tents, this being one of the all-night stops on the tour. While the picture show will deal largely with such things as shipping by truck, good roads, and kindred topics, there will be comedy and drama reels also. The general public is cordially invited, and a special invitation is extended to merchants and farmers. The trip is to be made regardless of weather, and the trippers say they won't mind a certain amount of rain and mud in order to demonstrate that the truck can be of service regardless of such things.

No sales are to be made on the trip, it being sole for demonstration purposes, to show the people of Northwest Texas that motor trucks are efficient and economical factors in the day's work of the farmer and merchant.

The Wichitans want to meet as many of the people of this city as possible, and they invite everyone to turn out on the occasion of their visit.

Mrs. M. E. Vernon of Bell county and her son Frank of Lockney, are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. T. A. Payne of Route One.

A Correction

Last week in a local we made an error in saying that Hon. B. S. Long was connected with the Bank of Commerce at Wichita Falls, when we should have said he was in the law practice with offices in the Bank of Commerce building. Mr. Long has for his partner in this law firm, Paul Landford. We regret for these gentlemen success in their profession.

R. B. Spencer of the R. B. Spencer Lumber Company, who is making his headquarters at Waco, was here this week in connection with his business.

Be Rid of Painful Corns

"Gels-It" Makes Them Loosen Up So They Lift Off Painlessly.

There's no more pain after a few drops of "Gels-It" ointment upon corns or calluses and instantly dried.

In a day or two you lift the old misery-maker right off without even feeling it. That's the last of Mr. Corn and the last of your misery. Millions who have lost their corns the "Gels-It" way say it is the only common-sense way to get rid of the pain.

"Gels-It," the never-failing, guaranteed, non-irritating corn remover, is sold by all druggists and is made by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

With Humor

His Whereabouts

"How is yo' brudder, Mose?" asked Sam, meeting his friend.

"Oh la," answered Mose dejectedly, "that low-down, good-fer-nuthin' nigger's done been took up for 'fragrancy'."

Perfectly Natural

They gave the old lady the only unoccupied room in the hotel—one with a private bath adjoining. The next morning, when the guest was ready to check out, the clerk asked:

"Did you have a good night's rest?"

"Well, no, I didn't," she replied.

"The room was all right, and the bed was pretty good; but I couldn't sleep very much, for I was afraid someone would want to take a bath, and the only way to it was through my room."

On the Way

Minister—Do you ever attend a place of worship on Sunday?

Youth—Yes sir, I'm on my way to her house now.

Too Familiar

The president of a small college visiting the little town that was his former home and had been asked to address an audience of his former neighbors. In order to assure them that his career had not caused him to put on "airs," he began his address thus: "My dear friend—I will not call you ladies and gentlemen—I know you for that."

Her Classification

Little Mabel has red hair and comes from Rhode Island. Recently on hearing some boys speaking of some girl as that "chicken" she immediately wanted to know what that expression meant. On being told that it was a very slangy term for a young girl, she pondered a while, then said with a smile: "Well, if they call girls chickens, I guess I must be a Rhode Island Red."

Born Free and Unequal

Chief Justice Marshall was riding one morning to his court when his horse slipped and fell, breaking a shaft. He was puzzled. Tom, a negro wagoner, happening to drive up, the judge asked him if he could help him.

"Shore," said Tom, "if you will let me have your knife." He took the knife and cut a small pole and a grape vine from a neighboring thicket and soon had the shaft spliced.

"That was simple," said the judge, "why didn't I think of that?"

"Well, massa," replied Tom innocently, "you know some folks will have more sense than others."

Her Aim

Mrs. Benson looked into the kitchen where Bridget was furiously scrubbing, and inquired in astonishment, "Bridget, why are you uln such haste?"

"Sure mum," Bridget replied, "my soap is almost gone and I am tryin' to get through while it lasts."

A Popular Girl

"Give me a license to marry the best girl in the town," said the young man.

"Sure," commented the clerk, "that makes thirteen hundred licenses for that girl this season."

Time to Balance Up

A well-known business man in Lawrence, Massachusetts, once had a customer who contracted a debt that ran along unpaid for a year or more, and even several letters failed to bring about a settlement.

One day, while glancing over the religious notices in a local paper, the business man saw something that gave him a new idea. He went to his desk and wrote the following note to the debtor:

"My dear Sir: I see in the local press that you are to deliver an address on Friday evening before the Y. M. C. A. on 'The Sinner's Unbalanced Account.' I inclose yours, as yet unbalanced, and trust that I may have the pleasure of attending your lecture."

A check came by the next mail.

Equip Your Smaller Car With Goodyear Tires

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car using 30x3-, 30x3½-, or 31x4-inch tires, you can well take advantage of the high relative value built into all Goodyear Tires.

You can well do so because you can secure in the smaller Goodyear Tires the results of such skill and care as have made Goodyear Tires the preferred equipment on the highest priced automobiles of the day.

You can well do so because these smaller Goodyear Tires are easy to obtain, being produced at the rate of approximately 20,000 a day, and because their first cost usually is as low or lower than that of other tires in the same types and sizes.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He supplies many other local owners of the smaller cars.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof bag $4.50

Girls Clothing Contest

An affair that will probably have far reaching results on simplicity of dress and thus on the High Cost of Living was the Girl's Clothing Contest that was held Saturday by the Home Economics Department of the Haskell Public School. All the clothes that had been made during the year by the Domestic Economy girls were on display. The walls and tables of one entire room were filled with various kinds of dainty and practical garments. On close inspection these clothes were found to be in excellent taste and nicely made. After remembering the cooking lessons these girls had had with the hot lunches served all winter and the many elaborate luncheons served by these same girls, one could not help but wonder how the girls had found time to make so many beautiful clothes.

Haskell should feel very proud to know that the Domestic Science Department of the Haskell Public School early in the year entered the State Girl's Clothing Contest, for many towns much larger with far better equipped schools failed to enter this most important contest. Haskell should also remember with much pride Miss Lillian Peak, who was the first Domestic Science teacher in the Haskell Public School, was the originator of this most excellent contest. Miss Peak is now with the State Department. She has had letters from many parts of the United States praising this contest.

Miss Marian Long, College of Industrial Arts, Mrs. J. L. Landrum, State Agricultural Department, and Mrs. Courtney Hunt, Food Sanitation Chairman, First District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs were the three judges in this local contest. After careful inspection and much hesitation while following the rules of the State Contest they found the winners to be the following: Ethel Russel, social affairs and fall dress; Annie Kate Ferguson, spring school dress; Lula Lee Smith, social affairs; Audrey Key, winter dress and graduating dress; Thelma Fienhken, winter dress. All clothes were first inspected by the judges then worn by the girls in parade across the auditorium stage. Girls who deserve special praise are Gladys Smith, Louise Brooks, La Trice Scott, Leta Simmons, Hattie Paxton, Lois Norton and Kate Woodson.

The judges and also the visitors were high in their praise of Miss Elsie Tyson as director of this Department, for the work she had done, and the inspiration she had been to the girls in having accomplished such wonderful results. Haskell should again feel proud of so deserving and promising a young lady. All of the girls of the Domestic Art Department are to be congratulated upon accomplishing so much noteworthy work.

We have gathered here every proven article in our line that will help to preserve the freshness, sweetness of Babyhood and relieve its "downs" and pains.

NEWS OF THE WEEK FROM THE PLEASANT VIEW SECTION

I suppose everybody is feeling fine over the good rains we are having. Mrs. W. T. Ford is visiting a daughter in Fort Worth.

Every Tire Is Signed

Two men sign every Miller Tire—the maker and the inspector. Both are penalized if a tire comes back.

Under this method, defects have become extremely rare. Not a tire came back for adjustment to many Miller dealers last year.

Over 1,000 tires yearly are worn out in Miller factory tests.

All the best rival tires are constantly compared with the Miller, with these results:

Millers now excel all rivals, both in average and in uniform mileage.

Miller treads outwear rival treads by 25 per cent on the average.

Miller Cords average 15,000 miles—Miller Fabrics from 8,000 to 9,000 miles—in rear-wheel tests under extreme conditions.

You will gain a new idea of modern tires when you test a new-type Miller. Get one now and watch it. The super-service of the Miller Tire is now everywhere discussed.

PLANS SHOULD BE MADE NOW FOR A COUNTY FAIR

A County fair is one proposition in which all should be interested. Some one should take the lead. If we expect to have a county fair this fall, there is no time to be lost if we succeed in having a county fair worth while. We believe the farmers are willing to aid in the work by producing and selecting their best livestock, poultry and farm products for an exhibition. The failure of the county fair to materialize last year was due to the fact that no one took the lead in the work. When the county fair was agitated last year many of the farmers began expensive preparations to place on exhibition the best products of their herds and flocks, and when it was finally decided not to have the fair they were sorely disappointed.

With the bountiful rains that have fallen, Haskell county's progressive farmers will be able to place on exhibition in the county and State Fair a fine of farm products, poultry and livestock that will turn all eyes on Haskell county and her fertile lands.

Mesdames Bruce Bryant and J. W. Collins Entertain with Swimming Party

Just a glimpse of old Haskell, just a touch of home, caught the eyes and touched the hearts of the following merry group, composed mostly of Haskell folks, who motored out to "Deep Eddy" last Saturday:

Mesdames Paul, Eugene Diggins, Bruce Bryant, J. L. Guest, J. F. Posey, and J. W. Collins. Misses Marie, Patsie Jack, and Elizabeth Baldwin. Misses Verne Cummings, Mary Long, Wynona Guest, Mary Adel Diggins, Roberta Pool, Mary Sue Collins and Brucelle Bryant. Masters Frank, Fuller and Joe Bryant. Messrs. Morton Brown, Walter Bachman, Virgil Meadows, Guy Pool, Willis Posey and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Arnsdale.

On reaching Deep Eddy which is one of the many delightful and beautiful pleasure resorts of Austin, most of the party were seen transformed into water nymphs, while the less courageous of party lost themselves among a host of other cheerful, happy onlookers. So early in the spring the water is very cold and contrary to the writer's intention of taking the plunge on the installment plan a couple of our youngsters gave us an unceremonious and "all at once" introduction to the "Eddy's" chilly depths. If we lost our hearts entirely to Austin it was there.

Just as the sun slipped out of sight beyond the velvet crowned hills our hostesses served a most delicious and bountiful lunch with "oceans" of punch. If there was one thing lacking for a real old fashioned picnic lunch, we did not discover it and each one looked "too full for utterance."

After lunch, turns were taken at playing Wolf-over-the-River, swinging on the May Pole, Saw-sawing and in singing. Mrs. Bryant gave a very delightful reading.

After a general "chat" about the "folks out home" it was generally agreed that "there never were any people like the good old Haskell folks."

After a delightful drive into the city, a social hour was enjoyed in the home of Mrs. Eugene Diggins, after which good-nights were said, and happy appreciations expressed to our charming hostesses for the delightful outing.

Out of sugar?

A genius is a dreamer whose ideas worked.

Do today's work and let the morrow take care of itself.

Some people's heads are like belts—nothing in them except tongues.

Money can get a man out of a lot of trouble and it also gets him into a lot of it.

And now the prohibitionists say they are going to make the capital of Cuba a mild Havana.

Riches may not make for happiness, but it will bring a lot more high price sugar into the home.

Is it really the high cost of living or the cost of high living that is keeping you awake nights?

Germany is giving a good demonstration of the impossibility of the copard changing its spots.

At last a use has been found for shavings. A New York milliner is triumphing spring hats with 'em.

It's generally the fellow who has the least mind to spare who is always willing to give others a piece of it.

Congress should object to all this trying to get in touch with Mars. It might result in an "entangling alliance."

The public has always been the goat of a labor strike, but it delivered a knockout blow to the outlaw railroad strike.

Governor Edwards' platform is a little too slippery for the safety of the Democratic party, thinks Mr. Bryan.

You can't expect a farmer to sympathize with the daylight saving movement when he wastes so little daylight.

When a fellow is weighed in the balance and found wanting, he's sure to claim that there's something wrong with the scales.

Thanks to prohibition a fellow can now walk into a drug store early in the morning and order up a bromo seltzer without arousing suspicion.

Most politicians now favor giving the vote to the women, for the reason that they'll soon have to be asking for feminine patronage in elections.

Judging by the number of men who seek divorce from their wives on the grounds of "cruel and barbarous treatment" the Amazons are not yet extinct.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK IN AND AROUND SAGERTON

Everyone is smiling for the fine rains that have fallen during the last week. Who said it didn't rain in West Texas.

Mr. Shield received a car of cattle from Fort Worth Saturday.

Willard Dobbins and wife of Dallas are visiting the former's parents.

Mrs. Ethel Grisham went to the sanitarium at Stamford for treatment. We hope she will soon return.

Em McKinnon of Tuxedo spent Saturday night with Roy Beene.

Miss Maggie Proctor has returned home from Cisco, where she has been visiting her brother.

Miss Sallie Dobbins of Wichita Falls is spending a few days with relatives and friends here.

Jethro Hines and wife of Hamlin and Bob Lee Hines from Alexander, Texas, took dinner at W. M. Beene's Saturday.

D. M. Guinn was in Rule on business Saturday.

Miss Flossie Rogers of O'Brien is visiting her sister, Mrs. Shield.

The entertainment given at W. E. Dobbins' Monday night was enjoyed by a large crowd.

E. C. Windeborn and two sons, Ollie and Walter, were in Sagerton Saturday.

D. M. Guinn has purchased a new "Silverstone."

Quantrell Caudle and wife are the proud parents of a fine baby girl. Rosebud.

Old Age Unhealthy.

We can't help thinking, that the business of a centenarian is very unhealthy. We rarely hear of them unless they are dying.

Magazine Club Notes

Miss Long, teacher of Interior Decoration from the College of Industrial Arts, Denton, visited in Haskell Friday and Saturday the guest of Mrs. J. U. Fields.

The members and friends of the Magazine Club were invited to meet Miss Long in the club rooms on Friday afternoon and though the weather was not very promising, thirty or more women were present. The club members had looked forward to this promised visit for some time, and it is one of the many good things for which we have to thank Mrs. Fields, our local art chairman.

Miss Long has traveled and studied extensively, both at home and abroad, therefore it is no wonder that she brought us such splendid ideas. The principal theme of the talk on this occasion was, "The Child, the Pearl of the Home," and around this was constructed the beautiful interior.

Saturday afternoon was the occasion of the annual reception of the Magazine Club, and upon arrival, each guest was greeted by the president, Mrs. Post who headed the receiving line, and presented in turn to the out of town guests, Miss Long, Mrs. Landrum, Miss Parks and the officers of the past and incoming years. One hundred and twenty-five guests were present, including a number of High School girls, who were heartily welcomed. Miss Long again honored us by an address, displaying a beautiful line of draperies, also some splendid cuts showing the interior of the homes in harmonizing colors. All the suggestions on home furnishing and decoration were practical and many of them can be carried out with little or no expense. Everyone present felt that they had listened to something worth while, and no doubt these instructive talks will in time bear fruit, in the way of making our homes more attractive.

Mrs. Landrum of the State Department, and her assistant, Miss Parks, made very short but encouraging talks, after which a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Murchison and Mrs. Hunt served delicious punch to the happy crowd. A number of the departing guests were heard to declare that "we always have a good time when we come to the library."

Very Old Superstition.

It surprised me to find on investigation that "touching wood" as a supposed safeguard from the consequences of exultation or boasting is a superstition of ancient origin. Authorities on these mythological matters tell us that "it dates from the time when the oak the ash, the rowan (or mountain ash) were held sacred to the gods of the heathen."

CITY MARSHAL ISSUES WARNING

A number of complaints have been made to me during the past few days regarding the loose stock that have been running at large in the city limits. This is a violation of the law and parties who have been guilty of letting their stock run outside are hereby warned that same will be taken up and dealt with according to law.

Another thing that has been called to my attention is the riding of bicycles on the sidewalks. This is strictly against the law and must be stopped.

It is also a violation of the city ordinance for anyone to discharge a gun within the city limits. There have been a number of complaints made to me during the past few days of the reckless shooting of targets and rifles by small boys. This practice must be stopped and we are going to enforce this ordinance. So please take warning.

We hope that the parents of Haskell will assist us in enforcing the law by seeing that their boys are not allowed to violate them and thereby get into trouble.

M. S. Edwards, Marshal, For City of Haskell.

Chinese in Java.

The standard of living is probably higher in Java than any other Chinese community in the world. The houses are clean and well furnished, the people dress in European clothing, and every one has a great deal to say about dirt and sanitation. There are Chinese families in Java which have been there for five centuries, but the great majority of the 300,000 who live on the island have come there or are descended from those who came there in the last fifty years.

Helpful Hints for the Busy Housewife

Strawberry Shortcake
Sift together one cup of flour, 1 tablespoon of sugar, 1 heaping teaspoon of baking powder and a pinch of salt. Add 1/2 cup of milk and moisten with 1-3 cup of milk and 1 beaten egg. Bake in a round pan in a hot oven for about 15 minutes. Split the cake, butter and spread with berries and sugar, saving the larger berries for the top, and garnish with whipped cream.

Cottage Cheese Salad
Mix 2 cups of cottage cheese, and 1-2 cup of mayonnaise dressing to a creamy mass, season to taste with salt, black pepper and a dash of red pepper, and add 1-2 cup of English walnuts and 1-3 cup of celery, chopped. Set on ice until thoroughly chilled, and serve on a crisp lettuce leaf.

Monett Rolls
Mix together 1 cup of mashed potatoes, 1 cup of lard, 1-2 cup of sugar and 1 pint of scalded milk, and cool. Add 1 cake of compressed yeast dissolved in 1-4 cup of warm water, 1 teaspoon of baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon of soda and flour enough to make smooth. Let set 12 hours in a warm place, then make into rolls.

Potatoes in the Half Shell
Bake 6 large potatoes. When done cut in half, scrape out the insides, mash and season with cream, butter and salt. Fill the shells with this mixture, return to the oven and bake until a light brown. Serve hot.

Newport Waffles
To 2 cups of flour add 1 teaspoon of baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon of sugar, a pinch of salt and sift well. Separate the whites and yolks of 2 eggs. Beat the yolks and add to the dry ingredients together with sufficient sweet milk to make a creamy batter. Beat the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth and add to the batter. Mix in 1 teaspoon of melted butter and beat thoroughly. Heat both sides of waffle irons and bake. Serve hot with butter and honey.

Strawberry Pudding
Fill a pudding dish half full of bread crumbs, make a custard of 1 pint of milk, sugar to taste and the yolks of 2 eggs. Pour it over the crumbs and bake until set, then spread crushed sugared berries on top. Whip the whites of 2 eggs, spread over the fruit and brown. Serve with cream.

Luncheon Dish
Boil 2-3 cup of rice in a double boiler, and let cool. Chop leftovers of meat very fine, and season highly. Line a bowl around the sides and bottom with the rice, pressing it down good. Put the meat in the center, cover with rice and set to mold. Cook 1-2 can of tomatoes with a little soda, strain, add a little flour dissolved in water, when the tomatoes are hot. Turn the mold out on a platter, pour the tomatoes over it, and cover with crackers. This is fine.

Orange Coconut Cake
Cream 1-2 cups of sugar and 1-2 cup of butter and add 1 cup of milk, 2 cups of flour and 2 teaspoons of orange extract. Whip the whites of 4 eggs and stir in, then add 3-4 cup of flour sifted with 1 teaspoon of soda and 2 teaspoons of cream of tartar. For the icing, cook 1 cup of sugar and 4 tablespoons of water until it will harden in water, pour on the well beaten white of 1 egg and whip until cold. Add coconut and spread on cake.

Diligence
Our word, diligence, is from the Latin, "diligencia." It means the quality of being diligent; interested and persevering application; devoted and painstaking effort to accomplish what is undertaken; assiduous industry; careful attention. Industry has the wider sense of the two words, implying an habitual devotion to labor for some valuable end, as knowledge or property. Diligence denotes earnest application to some specific object or pursuit which more or less directly has a strong hold on one's interest or feelings.

Infallible Method.
An amateur farmer answered an advertisement headed "A Sure Way to Make Hens Lay." This is what he got for his money: "Tie a stout string around the hen's body, place the bird on her side on a board and fasten the string underneath. If it is thought desirable, a pillow may be placed under the hen's head."—Boston Transcript.

Weather and the Death Rate.
The general death rate is found to increase with rising temperature, and to diminish with a falling thermometer. These conclusions are reached by Doctor Ellsworth Huntington of Yale, and are a result of a study of about 400,000 deaths in New York city in connection with the weather on the day of death. The peculiarities seem to apply to all seasons. Variety in the weather is healthful and stimulating, and it is believed that some variability is as essential as proper humidity.

Indians and Japanese.
Professor Mena, Mexican scientist, went to Tehuacan in 1903 to investigate a story that in small towns near by Chinese talked in their own tongue to the Indians and were perfectly understood. He found the legend false. Japanese scholars visiting the Mexican museum have been surprised to find articles used by the Indians exactly the same as those used by Japanese peasants.

A HOUSEKEEPER

By GRACE E. RILEY.

(© 1920, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Hester Blynn started the trouble. Hester had lived with Melissa for 14 years. Now she was married and Melissa was left alone.

"I believe I'm lonesome," Melissa gurgled to herself. Gurgled describes it. Her conversation always seemed on the ragged edge of a laugh.

Fifteen years before, the heart of Ned Coffin, Melissa's sweetheart since her childhood days, had been captured by a summer boarder—a pretty girl and gay, who, when urged by Ned, had given up her school in Boston and married him in late September.

Their wedding day gave birth to Melissa's gurgling laugh, a disguise for her aching heart; and to all intents and purposes Melissa had bought a farm in New York state, where, with her cousin Hester Blynn, she had lived and had gained a name for herself, both for her excellent cooking and for her fine friendliness to the world in general.

"Yes, I'm lonesome," she reiterated. "When a woman gets to pitying herself, she'd better look elsewhere for an outlet for her thoughts," and, lighting the lamp, she settled down to devour her farm paper. Everything from the president's illness to the want ads fell under her appraising eye. Then an ejaculation escaped from her lips. Someone in Nantucket wanted a housekeeper. She'd love to answer it! She was a good cook, and was alone in the world. What was to prevent? She read again:

"A widower on Nantucket Island has a place for a housekeeper with prospects. Address N-24, Farmers' Home."

"Seems like writing to a white post or some equally inhuman thing. Maybe he's that sort. Well, we'll see. Guess I'll send him a jar of my plums as a wedge to his approval," said Melissa, suiting action to word by making a raid on her choicest preserves. With great care she packed the jar, and, as with the letter, signed "Melissa Crosby," her mother's name, and addressed it, too, to N-24.

"Melissa, you're an old fool, but, as the saying goes, 'no fool like an old fool.'" So saying, she bolted the door, put out the lamp, banked the kitchen fire and mounted the stairs to her cozy bedroom.

The next day, Ben, man of all work, carried her letter and package to town, and for a week Melissa was as near to nerves as a healthy woman can be. Then came a letter from N-24, expressing his desire that Melissa Crosby come on Oct. 1, to Boston, where he would meet her. He signed himself "Faithfully yours, N-24."

To say Melissa was in a state of excitement would little describe her perturbation. "Now, Melissa, what have you let yourself in for? Probably he's 70 years old and feeble. No, he can't be feeble, else he couldn't come to Boston," she argued as her laugh filled the room.

She wrote again to N-24, telling him to come to the Y. W. C. A., Boston, on Oct. 1, and ask for her. Then followed the busiest two weeks of Melissa's life. In the midst of packing preparatory to closing the house, Hester and her husband unexpectedly returned.

"Oh, Melissa, we're in awful trouble," said Hester.

"This is the place to come, then, Hester. What's wrong?"

"You know we were planning to buy the Hiram Brown place, had the papers already to sign, when Hiram got one of his tantrums on, and refused to sell. Now we ain't got any place to go."

"The Lord will provide," read Melissa from an old sampler hanging over the kitchen door. "You surely came to the right place, Hester; you can rent my farm."

"But I don't understand, Melissa."

"Course you don't, so I'll tell you. I'm going to Nantucket for a spell, and will be only too glad to rent the farm if you and John will take it."

After a discussion of terms and conditions, the matter was satisfactorily settled, and in a week Melissa was on her way to Boston. October 1 found N-24 at the desk of the Y. W. C. A., inquiring for Miss Crosby. "She's sitting in that telephone room over there," the attendant told him. He crossed the hall, then stopped suddenly, but not before Melissa's glance had fallen on him.

"Ned Coffin, what are you doing here?"

Ned took in the situation at once. "So you, Melissa, are Miss Crosby? I am N-24, Melissa. So you're going to be my housekeeper?"

A hot flush stained her cheeks. "Now, Melissa," she scolded herself, "don't be silly."

"Guess I am, Ned."

He chuckled. The chuckle increased until it became a hearty laugh.

"What are you laughing at, Ned—why do you look so wise?"

"I was thinking 'bout my ad, Melissa."

COULD NOT STOOP TO TIE HIS SHOES

Gets Rid of Rheumatism and Gains 24 Pounds by Taking Taniae

"Taniae not only added twenty-four pounds to my weight but put me in as good health as I ever was in my life," said Augustus Heils, a well-known farmer of Marton, Ill.

"For four years I was troubled with rheumatism and indigestion," he continued, "and many a day I gave clean out while working in the field and had to lie down until I got strength enough to get back to the house. My rheumatism was so bad that every morning I had to rub my legs before I could stand up and my back was so stiff and painful that it nearly killed me to stoop over. My joints, too, were so stiff and sore that I could not bend over to tie my shoes. My appetite was very poor, and when I did eat anything I was in misery for hours afterwards. I was hardly ever able to get a good night's rest because my kidneys were so badly out of order and laid spring my condition got so bad I wasn't able to work and for several weeks I could hardly get out of the house."

"The man I hired to take my place recommended Taniae so highly that I began taking it, and to make a long story short, I haven't a pain in my body now and can do as hard a day's as any man. I eat three square meals a day, digest them perfectly and sleep like a top every night. I fact, I could not ask to be in better health, and all the credit is due to Taniae."

Taniae is sold by the leading druggists everywhere.

Josephine's Horoscope.

Is there such a thing as seeing into the future? Yes. Here is one of the many testimonials to the solemn gift. When the Empress Josephine of France was a girl in Martinique an old colored woman, named Euphemie, told her fortune. "You will marry a fair man. Your star promises two alliances. With your first husband you will have a tragic lawsuit. Your second husband, a dark man of slender means will fill the world with his fame and glory. You will be greater than queen." You will die unhappy. The entire prediction came true.

Soul Vision.

There's no anatomy of soul vision. It's not particular about the residence of its beneficiary. It finds the simple Maid of Orleans and makes her a great factor in history. It takes the youth, Luther, and makes him the reformer of religion. It has taken men from the plow, the garret, the scullery and raised them to eminence. It has also used the son of the mansion. It knows men as fit expressions of its purpose and not as individuals. It is limited only by the power of the soul to match itself with the great need.—Exchange.

Our Congressman

What does he think of the farmer? Was he ever a farmer himself? Does he care more for free seeds for city folks than for county agents for farm folks? Is he for the farmers, now that he's elected, or has he forgotten them?

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

has been hunting up the farmers in Congress—and, let me tell you, it's like hunting for a needle in a haystack. At any rate, it is finding out who are the farmers' friends, and that's something to know.

In the issue of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN that will be out next week there's a big article called "How Congressmen Vote." I wish you'd read it—it sure is an eye-opener. There's an election coming, and the farmers should know who are their friends in Washington. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN will keep you posted if you read it every week and follow its Washington dispatches. Best way to get them is by subscribing. Comes right to your mail box 52 times a year—a great, big farm weekly, full of fine, friendly articles.

The farm family, because of its comparative remoteness from the turmoil and distractions of the city, has wonderful opportunities to make a real home. Among these opportunities, specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture point out, is that of beautifying the farmstead so that it may be more attractive to the occupants. This will tend to make both young and old more contented, will add materially to the enjoyment of those who pass by, and incidentally to the selling value of the farm.—Farm and Ranch.

Never Thought of That.

A lover of the cranberry says it is a fine antiscorbutic. Now, we had never thought of that.—Arkansas Gazette.

Mrs. J. F. Posey returned Tuesday from a three weeks visit with her son Willis at Austin. She also visited friends in Dallas on her return trip.

WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD

Experts Prescriptions Prove Their Worth

Mr. Howard Hughes of Electra, Texas, explains that at setting and hatching time, hens must be absolutely free from lice, to prevent baby chick loss. Dr. LeGear's Lice Killer sifted into the feathers of poultry and used in dust bath, quickly exterminates lice and parasites. Mr. Hughes says: "My mother and I have purchased Dr. LeGear's Poultry Remedies from our dealer and think them worth their weight in gold. We use them all the time and would not be caught without a good supply in our home. For maximum results get Dr. LeGear's Lice Killer from your dealer. Satisfaction or money back.—Dr. L. D. LeGear Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo."

Dr. J. F. Collier Takes Summer Vacation

Dr. J. F. Collier one of our oldest citizens, has rented out his residence and he and Mrs. Collier will spend the summer with their children. Dr. Collier has been in failing health for some time. He was City Tax Collector for many years, and the close confinement in his office so long has impaired his health and he is in need of rest and recreation. We hope that his vacation will prove beneficial to his health.

Mrs. M. F. Caussey and son Lewis, who have been visiting W. C. Allen and family returned to their home in Seymour Friday morning.

HAIL INSURANCE

This is the year to insure your crops. Every hail storm causes enormous losses to growing crops. Wages are high, why lose time and money you have invested in your crops? Can you afford to take the risk? I can protect you against loss or damage in a good Old Line Company where you will get fair dealing and prompt adjustments.

YOU CANNOT PREVENT LIGHTNING

But you can protect yourself against lightning loss to your property. Of course, your property is insured, but is the amount in keeping with its present value? Have you thought of that?

Get an estimate for rebuilding your house and compare it with the insurance carried. If you find you will arrange to give you additional protection in some good, reliable company like the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.
