Anhydrous Ammonia Tank Dumped In Deport

The Deport Nursing Home and Deport Elementary School were evacuated Wednesday morning when an M&M Transport truck dumped a 39,000 pound tank of anhydrous ammonia off the truck and against a light pole. The tank did not rupture.

At 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, the tank had not been set upright because the necessary equipment was not available, and there was no indication from officials as to when the tank would be made safe. Anhydrous ammonia is a chemical fertilizer, under pressure, and is spread from a tank similar to a butane tank under the soil. The gas is plowed under when spread as a fertilizer, but the chemical is poisonous when inhaled.

The truck was going north in Deport on the street in front of the nursing home at approximately 9:30 a.m., and the right rear dual of the truck dropped off into the ditch when the driver tried to turn east. The accident snapped the fifth wheel pin, and the tank fell against the light pole. The driver, who detached his tractor from the trailer, and whose name was not available, was making the block to be on the right side of the street for delivery of the anhydrous to Tide, Inc., which is headquartered in Deport. M&M Transport has offices in Texas City. The nursing home residents were evacuated in private cars and vans to 16 different private homes in Deport away from the endangered area. The elementary students were taken to Prairiland High School in Pattonville.

The Paris Fire Department sent a fire truck, to aid the Deport Volunteer Fire Department. The Deport Nursing Home provided a meal for the rescue workers and volunteer firemen on the scene Wednesday at noon.

Fire Department Running Hard

Two runs were made Friday, January 16. One to a grass fire in Jim Fortner's pasture adjacent to the Housing unit on the southeast which was contained in a short time. The next call answered was to the Lone Star Community to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Tippit where the quick work of Charlie Lewis with a bucket of water in the attic kept the fire contained inside until it could be put out. They made a run to Hagansport Saturday to a grass fire near a house.

PRECARIOUS — Residents of Deport were held in suspense while officials tried to find equipment to make safe this anhydrous ammonia tank dropped into a ditch by a transport truck in front of the Deport Nursing Home. The chemical fertilizer is explosive and poisonous. (Staff Photo).

Board Inspects Talco Campus

The Talco-Bogata School Board inspected the facilities on the Talco Elementary Campus prior to the regular meeting at Rivercrest January 13, 1976. From comments expressed, according to Superintendent Talmadge Morgan, the board appeared to be favorably impressed with the inspection.

In other matters, bids were opened on two surplus school buses that had been listed for sealed bids. All bids were rejected by the board with plans being to resubmit the buses for bids again in the near future.

Craig Ingram, vocational agriculture teacher, met with the board to make a request for the purchase of a meat mixer-grinder to be used in the meat laboratory at Rivercrest. One of the major advantages of this piece of equipment will be in preparing meat for use in the three school cafeterias. The superintendent stated that the district will be reimbursed by state funds for 74 percent of the cost of this equipment.

For sometime, the board has discussed the use of and qualifications of substitute teachers being used in the district. It was stated by the superintendent that principals are encouraged to obtain the best qualified (educationally trained) substitutes that are available to them. It was further stated that substitutes are to have at least a high school diploma and a TB examination on file with the district.

In matters related to personnel, the policy of the district is to give consideration to the contract renewal of the superintendent in January of each year, a one year contract extension of current contract in force. Superintendent Talmadge Morgan stated to the board that he was not requesting an extension of his present contract with the district. However, it was the feeling of the board that it would be in keeping with the policy to discuss the matter and that action should be taken. It was the decision of the board not to extend the present contract of the superintendent which is to expire on June 30, 1978.

Bobby Dobbs, Athletic Director and Head Football Coach as well as biology teacher for the past six years at Rivercrest, submitted his resignation effective at the end of the school year. Coach Dobbs has been working in the school system for the past 10 years having served as an assistant coach prior to becoming Head Coach in 1970. Superintendent Morgan stated that he appreciated the contribution that Coach Dobbs had made to the school system and that he wished for him and his family much success in their future plans.

Other matters related to the general operations of the school were discussed and approval was given to the various financial reports. The next regular meeting of the board will be on February 3.

Sad Day At Rivercrest As Rebelettes Beaten

The Rivercrest Rebelettes dropped their first district game in the history of the school January 16 to the Prairiland Patriots 21 to 19. Juanita Fulbright hit two field goals and six free throws for 10 points, and LeeAnn House hit two field goals and one free throw for five points. High for Prairiland was Bebo Blackburn with four field goals for eight points and Fran McKnight with two field goals and two free throws for six points.

Rivercrest met Commerce January 13 and was beaten 61 to 69. High scorers were Larry Taylor, 15; Bill Montgomery, 14; Owen Davis, 15; Ronnie Rape, 10; and Clyde Brown, eight. For the opposing team, Chris Potter, 19, and Cedric Pannell, 18.

On January 16 Rivercrest was defeated by Prairiland 22 to 62. Bill Montgomery, Larry Taylor and Owen Davis scored 16, 13 and 11 respectively. For the opposition Tom Ray and Brad Hudson scored 25 and 13 respectively.

On January 15 the Rebelette junior varsity met Prairiland junior varsity girls and were downed 18 to 51 with Traci Jeffery scoring 12 and Karen Pirtle six. Klinkerman and Newman scored 24 and 16 for the opponents.

Volunteer Firemen Join To Fight Reno Fire

Deport, Blossom, Bogata, Roxton, Caviness-Emberson

and Pattonville volunteer Fire Departments aided the Reno volunteers in fighting one of the largest grass and structure fires of the season Thursday. Some 700 acres of grass and brush were destroyed, along with several sheds. One house was damaged.

The fire burned for three hours along the northeast section of the old Pine Mill Road in northeast Lamar County. Officials indicated the blaze apparently started from a brush fire. The fire ran through the Mount Olive Baptist Church graveyard, but did not harm the church structure itself. The Deport fire truck ran over a field line behind the VFW club and was stuck just after arriving at the fire.

Volunteer fire fighting organizations have asked that burning of trash be kept at a minimum, that no burning be undertaken when the wind is high, and that a garden hose be kept close by while the fire is burning.

Council Names Students

The Rivercrest Student Council in recent meetings selected as students of the month for January Lori Hervey and Mark Hudson. Students of the Month for December were Kathy Brooks and Ronald Allums.

A discussion was held about the seating arrangements in the auditorium and also about the students who were smoking in the bathrooms and other areas. A smoking committee was selected to talk to principal Mike Vinyard about this problem. The committee was composed of Denise Ward, chairman; Kathy Brooks, Karen Pirtle and Freda Cabell. Named to the boy's committee were Mike Medlin, Jerry Sulzar and Terry McGonagill.

The council voted to present jackets as scholastic awards to honor students, and to publicize the honor students every quarter through the newspapers.

Committee reports were given by Kathy Brooks, safety; Terry McGonagill, notebook. A decision was made to sell soft drink bottles to raise money, and Kathy Brooks, Terry McGonagill and Carolyn Carroll were appointed to this committee.

Few Changes In Brucellosis Program

By Paul D. Payne
The maneuvering between federal and state officials with regards to brucellosis is apparently over for the time being. To the average cowman, few changes in the Texas program will be evident.

According to information from the United States Department of Agriculture, cattle exposed to brucellosis will be required to be branded with an S-brand prior to the movement of cattle. The intent of this regulation is to prevent exposed cattle from being diverted from shipment to slaughter.

Treasurer Tommy Varner reported that a balance of $299.11 was left in the treasury, and the group voted 4-3 that the money should go to the Bogata Area Chamber of Commerce, which has indicated a desire to absorb the association into the Chamber.

Present at the meeting were Barney Gayler, Galen Legate, Joe Greger, Carl Williams, Tommy Varner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Wright and Mrs. Otha White.

Red River Haven Scrapbook Wins

The Red River Haven Nursing Home activities scrapbook has won honorable mention in the scrapbook contest for 1975 sponsored by the Texas Nursing Home Association.

Categories and contents of the scrapbook include nursing home events, outside events, employee recognition, the nursing home volunteers programs, publicity, and documentation of nursing home week.

The theme of the Red River Haven scrapbook for 1975 is "The Haven Happenings" and was planned by Mrs. Kenneth Jeffery of Bogata, and was completed by Mrs. Larry Gifford, activity director for the home. Red River Haven has received a plaque for the efforts on the scrapbook.

all mature cattle that are not tested at a sale barn prior to the sale will also be S-branded since the only place they are supposed to go is to slaughter or quarantined feed lot.

Exposed cattle will not be required to be S-branded unless they are moved. For instance, if a bangs reactor is found in a herd by some method the herd is quarantined until a clean test is received. These exposed cattle will not be required to be S-branded unless they change ownership. Many producers are under the impression that all exposed cattle will be S-branded, which of course is not true.

NEW OWNERS—J. C. Smith and Lindy Guest are the new owners of 271 Conoco Service Station in Bogata. The Tressa, are the new managers of the Mobil Station and Bait Shop in

Heating water is a major homeowner expense and a large national energy-user. Don't waste it. Avoid letting hot water run all the time when you're hand-washing or rinsing dishes, shaving, or doing other chores that require hot water intermittently. # Patman Not Running After Nearly 50 Years In House

TEXARKANA, TEXAS, January 14, 1976 — Congressman Wright Patman (D., Texas), veteran of nearly a half-century of service as United States Representative for the First Congressional District and Dean of the United States Congress, today announced that he will not seek election to the 95th Congress.

"I want to extend my warmest thanks to my friends throughout the First District, the State of Texas, and the nation who have stood by me and who have worked so hard in our many crusades for economic justice," Mr. Patman said. "I feel tremendously good about what we have been able to accomplish together through the years."

"Let me emphasize that I am not 'retiring'. First, I have a full year left in my present term — my 48th year in the House of Representatives — and I intend to carry out all my Congressional duties vigorously. There is much work to be done in the Domestic Monetary Policy Sub-Committee of which I am Chairman, as well as in the Joint Committee on Defense Production of which I am also Chairman, and on the Joint Economic Committee on which I serve as Vice-Chairman."

Beyond the remaining year of his 24th term, Mr. Patman said he planned to "remain active, returning to a limited practice of law, and to use a variety of forums to pursue my positions on economic and monetary issues." "I regard this as an excellent opportunity to speak and write on the issues around which I have devoted my entire public life. I will continue to espouse the cause of the little man in whatever forum is available to me."

This will mark the first time since 1920 that the name of Wright Patman has not appeared on the ballot in the State of Texas. Prior to his election to Congress in 1928, Mr. Patman had spent eight years in state Government — three years as a member of the Texas House of Representatives and five years as a District Attorney for the Fifth Judicial District.

Although persistently and often, hotly, opposed in his 28 campaigns for public office, Mr. Patman has never been defeated or even forced into a runoff.

"The people have been very good to me and it is only because of their continued support that I have been able to accomplish things for my District and the nation," Mr. Patman said.

Mr. Patman first rose to prominence as a young new Congressman when he led a successful fight — over the opposition of the Congressional leadership and Presidential vetoes — to pay three and one-half million veterans of World War One adjusted payment certificates — which became popularly known as the bonus — of nearly $4 billion.

The successful fight, culminating with the payments in 1935, not only fulfilled the Government's promise to the World War One veterans, but provided an important stimulus to the economy during the depression.

His reputation as a battler against special interests gained early national recognition when on January 6, 1932, he alone among his fellow Congressmen, rose on the Floor to bring an impeachment case against the then-Secretary of Treasury Andrew Mellon on a broad range of conflict of interest charges. In the midst of the impeachment hearings before the House Judiciary Committee, President Hoover moved Mellon into an ambassadorship.

A consistent populist theme of the Texas Congressman has been his opposition to monopoly and concentration of economic power and wealth. One of his monumental efforts came in the mid-1960's when he fought — successfully — to retain the application of anti-trust laws to the commercial banking industry.

He co-sponsored the Robinson-Patman Act of 1936 — a major anti-trust bulwark which has been described as the "Magna Charta" of small business. He was author of the resolution which created the small Business Committee of the House of Representatives in 1941 and served as its first Chairman. Much of the small business legislation of the past four decades bears his name.

Serving from 1963 to 1974 as Chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee, he worked for lower interest rates and a more responsive and responsible Federal Reserve System, and his efforts led to classic confrontations with Federal Reserve Chairmen. In a series of investigations, studies and legislation, Mr. Patman sought a more competitive financial system — with full and equal rights to credit unions, savings and loan associations, mutual savings banks and independent commercial banks.

Consumer credit legislation — including the Truth-In-Lending Act — was moved to the forefront for the first time during his Chairmanship and he consistently fought to have the consumer represented in the decision-making processes of the bank regulatory agencies.

In addition to his battles for stronger anti-trust application to banks, Mr. Patman obtained major amendments to close loopholes in the Bank Holding Company Act in an effort to halt what he described as the "boardinghouse reach of the big commercial banks."

He co-sponsored the original Federal Credit Union Act in 1934 and through the years has pushed strengthening amendments and has worked for broader recognition of the credit union movement which now numbers over 32 million members.

As Chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee, Mr. Patman launched a number of landmark studies and investigations designed to peel back the secrecy of the commercial banking industry and its regulators. His studies have revealed for the first time the ownership of major commercial banks, the interlocking directorates and the concentration in that industry. He conducted the first study of bank trust departments and in 1973 and again in 1975 published studies calling for broad reform and structural change in the financial community and among the financial regulators.

Through much of his Congressional career, Mr. Patman has provided oversight of the wealth in privately-controlled, tax-exempt foundations and his work led to major amendments in the 1969 Tax Reform Act.

He was author of the Veterans Emergency Housing Act of 1946 and virtually all housing legislation — including the major housing acts of the 1960's — bear his name.

During his Chairmanship, the oversight functions of the Banking Committee were sharpened significantly including major investigations of the collapse of the Penn Central Transportation Company, housing scandals, commercial banks, misuse of the Small Business Administration, the Federal Reserve System and other regulatory agencies. He launched the first Congressional investigation of the Watergate scandal in the summer of 1972 — an effort which led to massive White House pressure to block subpoenas of the major characters in the scandal.

Although Mr. Patman's record has brought him wide national recognition, he has never forgotten what he considers his number one priority — the people and the interests of the First Congressional District where he lives and where he has his deepest roots.

"I am very proud of what we have been able to accomplish in the First District of Texas — often over great odds," Mr. Patman said. "Working together, we have been able to bring new economic development to this area and we have been able to develop our water and other resources on a broad basis. Overall, I am convinced that we have built a solid base for the future in this entire area. But I am proudest of the opportunities I have had to help individuals and families on all kinds of problems through the years. This is the thing that has given me deep satisfaction and really made my service worthwhile. I am proud that I have had the support of all groups — people of all political and economic philosophies — as we have worked for the progress of the First District."

Mr. Patman said that his decision not to seek another term will give him an opportunity to undertake a number of new projects. He has donated his thousands of papers and documents to the L. B. J. Library at the University of Texas where a special "Wright Patman Room" has been created. He plans to actively assist the L. B. J. Library in organizing the collection. The collection, once indexed and organized, will be made available to scholars and the public.

Mr. Patman emphasized that he will continue to take an active interest in the area which he has represented for a half-century.

"My successor will have my best wishes and my firm pledge of all the help and support I am able to give in representing this great District."

"To the many faithful grass roots citizens who have voted for me all these years, I say I tried always to vote for you in Congress. Together I believe we can be very proud of all that we have accomplished. Thank you for a wonderful, fulfilling 48 years."

"May God Bless you everyone."

Machine Embroidery Classes Planned At PJC

Machine embroidery and sewing classes are planned in January at the Sewing Cottage at 1700 Cleveland in Paris. The courses are sponsored through the Continuing Education Division of Paris Junior College.

Beginners Sewing will start on Monday, January 19, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. or from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. The course is designed to teach basics for the true beginner to learn to sew. Fee is $6 per lesson for six weeks. Two three-hour workshops on Lingerie Sewing for Beginners will be held Wednesday, January 22, and Wednesday, January 29, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. The course will include working with tricot to construct three items of lingerie, and materials and patterns will be furnished for each student. Fee is $15.

Reservations for the sewing classes should be made by calling Mrs. Anderson, 784-6342 or 784-2615, as the classes are limited.

Defensive Driving Course At PJC

A course in Defensive Driving will begin Monday, February 2, at Paris Junior College, according to Mrs. Bill Jones, coordinator of Continuing Education programs at PJC. Paul Daniels will teach the course from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. on four consecutive Mondays in Room 129 of the PJC Main Building. Fee is $10, but senior citizens with PJC Identification Cards may take the course at one-half price.

The course is important for all drivers, but is especially beneficial to older persons whose reflexes may be slower than they used to be, according to information from the National Safety Council. Defensive Driving will teach drivers to think ahead, to avoid changing intentions suddenly, to pass correctly, to avoid hazards, to turn properly and to be a safer, better driver. Statistics from the National Safety Council show that graduates of Defensive Driving courses have fewer accidents and traffic violations.

Upon successful completion of the course, students may obtain a 10 percent reduction on certain portions of their automobile insurance by presenting their completion certificates to their insurance agent. The course includes classroom presentations of safe driving, and no tests or driving demonstrations. Daniels has taught the course in past years for the American Association of Retired Persons' chapter in Paris and for Paris Junior College.

DOUBLE-DIGIT INFLATION

...it's affecting fuel prices

You know only too well how the cost of living has put a squeeze on your family's budget. At Community Public Service Company, we're feeling the inflation squeeze, too, since our suppliers have raised the prices of fuel needed to produce electricity. If we are to provide good electric service, we have no alternative but to pay the high prices. The added fuel costs are passed along to our customers through the fuel adjustment charge on your electric bill. We don't like passing the added costs along but we have no choice. Every cent of the fuel adjustment charge on your bill is passed through directly to our suppliers. We do not retain any of the money. At Community Public Service Company, we're doing everything we can to keep costs down and still provide you with the electric service necessary to make your daily lives more comfortable.

It's Really True
TEXAS HISTORY
Copyright 1975
by Weldon Owens

The only woman elected to the Texas Veterans Association was Rebecca Jane Fisher, who for many years opened sessions of the Texas Legislature with prayer and whose portrait hangs in the Senate Chamber of the state capitol.

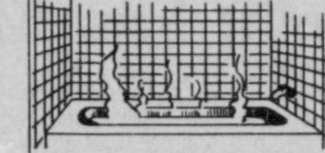

The indefatigable pioneer wife of a Methodist minister who was brought to Texas when she was six years old, survived an incredible career that included capture by Comanche Indians, rescue by Albert Sidney Johnston and endless ordeals before she died in Austin in 1926 at the age of 95.

In 1837, her first Texas home was the Don Carlos Rancho in Refugio county. When she was nine, while her father was home on leave from the Army, Indians attacked and killed her parents and captured her and her brother. After her rescue by Johnston, she later entered Rutgersville College, graduated and married Rev. Oraneth Fisher for whom she bore six children.

She served as dean of women at Corvallis College and was a charter member of Daughters of the Republic of Texas, of which she was president the last 32 years of her life. Mrs. Fisher became widely known as the "Mother of Texas" because of her incessant campaigning for better schools, increased interest in politics and religion. Also, she was at the forefront in Clara Driscoll's saving the Alamo from destruction.

CONSUMER GUIDELINES

After taking a bath —don't pull the plug so fast. You've already paid to heat the water, so get more for your money. Let the tub water cool to room temperature before draining. Approximately 10,000 BTU's will be added to your house from a tub of water as it cools from 100 to 70 degrees Fahrenheit. That's enough heat to keep your well-insulated three bedroom home warm when it is 10 degrees above zero outside.

Business Letters Course Offered At PJC

and dictating business letters. In class, students will receive practice in dictating business letters. PJC's secretarial laboratory, where the course will be taught, includes the most modern equipment available.

Mrs. Glover also will teach a shorthand refresher course beginning Monday, February 16, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. for 20 lessons. The course will include a review of shorthand theory, brief forms, phrases, and practice in building speed in taking dictation and transcribing. Fee is $40.

SSI Income Changes Should Be Reported

According to Mrs. Emma Ware, District Manager of the Paris, Texas, Social Security Office, people receiving supplemental security income payments should promptly report changes in their income and resources to social security. Supplemental security income checks are gold-colored and usually delivered on the first day of the month.

Mrs. Larry Gifford Attends Directors Meeting

Religion in Nursing Homes and Physical Therapy as Used in Social Activities were the themes discussed at the meeting of Northeast Texas Area Social Directors in Mount Pleasant at the Holiday Inn Monday.

Mrs. Larry Gifford, Social Director of Red River Haven Nursing Home, attended the meeting. This is held every two months.

The February, 1976, Veterans Administration checks, in some instances, will be higher due to an increase in income limitations. Therefore, any person who receives an increase in their VA check and also draws the gold-colored supplement check, should report the increase in the VA check immediately to the nearest social security office. The District Office in Paris is located at 2995 Lamar Avenue and the telephone number is 784-2593.

Circle 8 Communicators Hosted By Boogie Baby And Boutique Lady

The Circle Eight Communicators C.B. Club met at Hagansport Community Center Monday night with approximately 45 members and visitors present.

The president, Blue Goose, called the meeting to order, with Buckshot, the secretary, reading the minutes of the January 5 meeting. Nannie, the treasurer, gave her report on the bank balance and those paying their dues. Sweetheart was appointed to be the reporter for the Mount Vernon area. Those having any news to report should contact her and Honey Bee of Talco for their news to be reported.

A report was given on the condition of Billy Ray

Dickerson, who is in the hospital in Dallas. A blood bank will be set up in Talco, Thursday for those who would like to donate a pint of blood for Billy Ray. Any type of blood will do as they will replace the blood used for him. The Blood Bank will be at the Exxon Office in Talco. This will be deeply appreciated by the family and the company and also the C. B. Club. Also reported sick was one of the club's members, The Talco Kid. He was in the hospital in Shreveport a few days. He is now at home to be in bed for at least seven more days. Let's remember those who are sick with visits, cards or any act of kindness while they are confined at home or in the hospital.

The door prize was won by John Boy of Mount Vernon, the lucky number drawn by Little Bit. With the weather being so bad the transmitting treasure hunt was postponed until the next meeting.

Don! Ray Newsome, better known as Pokie the Clown, was introduced and he gave a nice talk on clowning for the children and elderly people who are in the hospitals and nursing homes. He has been a clown for five years. His home town is Mount Vernon. He is a clown for the Shriners Circus. Also Boogie Baby presented a special program for the Club. Country and Western songs were sung by Boutique Lady, Sweetheart, Buckshot and Boogie Baby. Everyone enjoyed their program very much.

All members are urged to come to these meetings and to pay their dues to retain their numbers. Those who do not intend on staying in the club are asked to let our president, secretary or treasurer know so your number will be issued to others who would like to join the club. These dues go to help the sick, distressed and those who are in need of help in our communities and is a non-profit organization. Everyone is invited to come and visit these meetings or join the club if they desire to do so.

Refreshments were served by Wonder Woman and Boss Lady. Refreshments were chips, dips, cookies, coffee and cold drinks.

The meeting closed with Blue Goose calling next meeting for February 2 at 7:30 p.m. at Hagansport Community Center, and would like for all members to be present.

have a nice weekend...

Catfish Farming Booklet Available From USDA

How to grow catfish on farms is the subject of a new booklet written by USDA Soil Conservation Service biologists. The booklet, "Catfish Farming," replaces an earlier publication on the same subject.

Charles VanDeaver, district conservationist for SCS at Clarksville, says the new booklet tells how to raise channel catfish, blue catfish, and white catfish in ponds, raceways, and cages.

VanDeaver said a well designed catfish farm should include separate ponds for breeding, rearing, and holding fish. At least one separate holding vat would also be needed. A typical farm might consist of about 40 surface acres of ponds with 10 to 20 acres for roads, levees, and other facilities. It would include five ponds of 1 acre each for breeding, rearing, and holding fish and five production ponds averaging 7 acres each.

Cages are used in water where it is impractical to grow and harvest catfish by regular methods. Cages are made of corrosion-resistant wire on wooden or metal frames, have a hinged door on the top for feeding and harvesting, and are floated by Styrofoam blocks. "Help in pond design and location is available from SCS offices," VanDeaver said. "Since there are several hazards to raising catfish, producers should plan their operation carefully," he warned.

High quality water is one essential of growing catfish. The water should be above 70 degrees for at least four months out of the year. The booklet outlines methods of commercially producing and harvesting catfish.

Catfish can also be raised in raceways where water is scarce and must be re-used or where the land is too steep for economical pond construction. A fish raceway is a long, narrow channel especially designed for fish production through which there is continuous flow of water.

PJC's Bicentennial Homecoming Set

Plans are underway for Paris Junior College's annual Homecoming, scheduled for Saturday, February 14, announced Daon Wall, president of the PJC Association of Former Students and Friends. All Paris Junior College students and friends are urged to begin making plans to attend the college's Bicentennial Homecoming this year, Wall said.

Among special events planned for Homecoming are an entertainment program featuring music, dance, slides, speech and drama presentations at 1:00 p.m.; dedication of the Mamie Fenet Memorial Room at 11:00 a.m.; an informal luncheon from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.; coffee, visiting and campus tours beginning at 10:00 a.m. Concluding the day will be the PJC basketball game with Angelina College at 7:30 p.m. and a Homecoming dance following the game. The 1976 Homecoming Queen, chosen by the student body, will be crowned at the game halftime.

The special Homecoming program at 1:00 p.m. in the new Theater for the Performing Arts will include PJC present and former students in a musical dance program highlighting the six decades since PJC was founded in 1924. The second part of the program will have a Bicentennial theme and will be presented by PJC drama, speech and instrumental students. Arrangements for the program are being made by David Denney, program chairman, with the assistance of Ray Karrer, Charles Stephens and other members of the PJC Fine Arts Division.

$30 Tax Credit Misunderstood

Dallas, Texas—Officials of the Internal Revenue Service's Dallas District office say that, so far in the 1976 filing season, the most common errors showing up on tax returns are those caused by a misunderstanding of the $30 tax credit for each personal exemption.

"Apparently, many taxpayers are confusing the $30 tax credit with the $750 personal exemption deduction," A. W. McCannless, district director of the IRS for North Texas, said today. "They wind up thinking each personal exemption is worth one deduction of $780."

The two are not related, however. Mr. McCannless said that taxpayers should compute their tax liability in the normal manner before dealing with the $30 tax credit. When the normal tax is computed, the taxpayer is then entitled to subtract $30 from the total tax liability for each personal exemption claimed on the return. For example, a married couple with two children would claim four personal exemptions on a joint return and come up with a certain amount of tax due. They would then subtract $120, or $30 for each exemption, from the tax due. "A deduction, such as the personal exemption, is a reduction of the income on which tax is figured," the tax official said. "A tax credit, on the other hand, is a dollar for dollar reduction of the actual amount of tax due."

He also pointed out that, while extra exemptions are allowed for blind taxpayers and those over 65, these people do not receive extra tax credits.

Hiring From Welfare Rolls May Mean Tax Credit For Employer

When a person on welfare moves into a job, it's a step up for a lot of people.

The worker's job is more profitable to him than receiving welfare alone.

The nation gains in two-fold measure. Welfare payments are reduced and the newly-employed worker starts paying taxes.

Now employers can realize personal gain by recouping a sizable share of their employment costs if they hire a worker from the welfare rolls.

This applies both to employers of domestics engaged as household workers, and to employers in a trade or a business. There is a substantial tax credit for employers on the wages of a worker who comes from the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) welfare program, or from the Work Incentive Program (WIN).

People in the WIN program include large numbers who have volunteered for training and jobs. They are employable, having job skills upgraded through their WIN training.

The amount of tax credit from both AFDC and WIN is 20 per cent of the cash wages paid to eligible workers. There also may be compensation to the employer for training the worker, for erecting training facilities, or for providing day care for the worker's child or children.

Further information may be obtained from the State Department of Public Welfare office in the employer's community.

Soybean Association To Meet In Dallas

DALLAS, Texas—Texas soybean producers from the Coast Prairie and High Plains will "meet each other halfway" this year by gathering in Dallas for the annual meeting of the Texas Soybean Association (TSA) January 28.

Highlighting the meeting will be a slide presentation on soybean production in Brazil, which is rapidly becoming a major competitor for the U. S. in world soybean markets.

Don Blacketer of Honey Grove, president of TSA, and W. B. Tilson of Plainview, chairman of the American Soybean Association (ASA) board of directors, will present the program as a follow-up to their study trip to Mexico, Colombia and Brazil last March.

Merv Syverson, ASA field services director, will speak to the group about the need for a stronger membership base "to make ASA more effective in working for the soybean farmer's interests on the legislative front."

Syverson will also discuss progress of a membership drive to increase TSA membership by 50 percent this winter. Dr. Keith Smith of the ASA market development staff will report on new ASA activities to create additional soybean demand overseas and generate new markets for the large carryover of U. S. soybeans this year.

"I would urge everyone interested in soybeans to attend this important and informative meeting," says Blacketer.

The meeting, which opens at 9:20 a.m. at the Dallas Executive Inn, will also include soybean yield contest awards, a business session, election of directors and officers, and a series of presentations on soybean production and marketing tips by Texas extension and experiment station personnel.
