CHAPTER I. HOW IT CAME ABOUT.

IT'S SURE to look up when you come to the city.

It is inevitable that a man can assume when he leaves that the person invited will never avail himself of the courtesy...

Tranley had asked to call, was too young to be invited to the wedding, and he was to regard the remark in any but its real sense.

It would have seemed odd to any one know the two men and their respective status in life.

Tranley was a New York man, well known and of fair standing in the trade.

Hayn was son of the farmer whose house the Tramley family had lived in for many years.

Most administrations have been more or less influenced by a group of men known as a "Kitchen Cabinet," but the nursery has been substituted by the press—Lord for the Kitchen and Baby McKee is Lord High Chancellor. Nearly all of the administrations are calling along upon the same...

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29 1889.

What about organizing the joint stock company to put up a roller mill?

The boll worm and dry weather combined will cut off the cotton crop considerably in Texas.

Those who favor the school tax will have to go to work if they really want the measure to carry.

The Anson boys do play ball for a fact. One consolation, however, the Baird Blues made them hump themselves.

A mill should be put up if it did not pay a dollar on the investment as the increased trade of the town would amply repay the investors.

Arlene, Albany, Cisco and Coleman, our nearest neighbors, are incorporated for school purposes and are satisfied with it.

The farmers and stockmen of the county would be greatly benefited by having a good roller mill at Baird, then come out and help us make a success of the enterprise.

This time is near at hand when an important measure will be voted on by the Baird school district.

There is talk of cutting up Fort Bend county and divide it out among surrounding counties.

The business men, of whatever character, in Baird, realize the necessity of a good mill here.

S. D. Blake and his little coterie of politicians, who were going to regulate things generally, have flickered.

There seems to be an epidemic of murders raging all over the country and yet some contend that capital punishment ought to be abolished.

DAVID S. TERRY who was recently killed in California while making an assault upon Justice Field, was a brother of Col. Terry who commanded the famous Terry Rangers in the Confederate army.

ANARCHIST does not like it because we tackled him on his native heath through the columns of his home paper.

THE STAR acknowledges receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Brownwood District Fair, to be held at Brownwood, beginning Oct. 1 and continuing five days.

It was rather unfair to go for an anarchist while he was off fishing, but then he ought to have been on his guard.

The first and second numbers of the Vernon Daily Guard have been received at this office.

Some say they are in favor of good schools, yet oppose the school tax. We have to have a good school tax to have a good school.

THE STAR acknowledges receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Brownwood District Fair, to be held at Brownwood, beginning Oct. 1 and continuing five days.

The defeat of the school tax on September 10, would be a serious blow to the educational interest of the town.

We are anxiously awaiting the close of the BAIRD STAR-Prodigal controversy—Sipe Springs Cyclone.

Frank is off, we have had no controversy with the Prodigal, but with a fellow who says he is an anarchist who writes for the Prodigal.

ANARCHIST says THE STAR and other democratic papers are mute upon the subject of national banks.

NEARLY all the leading papers approve of the killing of Terry in California by United States Marshal Nagle.

They may have construed as displaying ill temper. So far as we are concerned Anarchist can go on with his side of the controversy.

The latest phase of cotton bagging question is a letter from President Brown of the Liverpool Cotton association.
