WORST SNOW AND SLEET OF YEAR

The worst snow and sleet storm of the winter swept down on Haskell and all West Texas Monday night and has continued the rest of the week. The mercury registered as low as 10 above zero Wednesday morning. Considerable damage was done to local telephone and telegraph lines leading out of Haskell. The Western Union lines have been practically out of commission for most of the week and it has been almost impossible to get a message through to the outside world. As this is being written Thursday evening the sun has come out and prospects are favorable for warmer weather.

The snow and sleet which fell during Tuesday and Wednesday were drifted so by the high winds that it is almost impossible to tell the benefit that it will be to the farming interests.

SINGING CONVENTION MET AT WEINERT

The Haskell County Singing Convention met at the Methodist Church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Weinert and enjoyed one of the best numbers of the convention since its organization. The house was filled by the appointed hour and the president, J. C. Tremain, sang the opening song and Rev. Edwards offered a word of prayer, after which the program committee, I. V. Marrs, R. S. Edwards and W. M. Free, arranged the following program:

Ben Lynch was first leader, followed by R. S. Edwards, J. J. Keel, Mr. Davis, J. T. Finley, I. V. Marrs, W. M. Free, R. L. Huddleston, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Monke sang a duet, accompanied by Mrs. Cadenhead, which was a splendid selection well rendered. H. M. Cooner, A. J. Manual, C. H. Mansell, Nathan McGuire were called to the floor and good selections were rendered. J. J. Keel and Mrs. Fisher of Munday sang a special song, accompanied by Mrs. Cadenhead, which was enjoyed by the entire audience. H. F. Haley sang a special song and led two class songs, which were pleasing to all. The feature of the afternoon was the Weinert Sunbeam band, who sang "Beautiful Isles of Somewhere," led by Prof. Foreman, who also sang a solo that was enjoyed by all. J. O. Jones closed the program with two songs, after which the congregation was dismissed by Rev. Edwards.

HARVEY HINDERMYER AND THE DANN SISTERS TRIO

A very unique recital is to be presented on March 20th, at the First Christian Church in this city by the popular tenor, Mr. Harvey Hindermeyer, and the Dann Sisters.

Mr. Hindermeyer is one of the most enjoyable tenors in the concert and RECREATION field today. He has sung at the principal Musical Festivals throughout the country and the press and public have been unanimous in their praises of his glorious voice and wonderful art.

The Dann Sisters are three New England young ladies of distinct musical ability. They have appeared in numerous concerts during the past season with marked success and their appearance here is anticipated with a great deal of enthusiasm. They will present numbers especially arranged for Violin Piano and Cornet.

Admittance to the Recital will be by card only. Cards may be secured upon application to McNeill & Smith Hdw. Co.

LAKE CREEK SCHOOL GIVES WASHINGTON PROGRAM

An interesting program was given by the pupils of the Lake Creek school on Washington's Birthday. The house had been darkened and lighted with candles and the decoration scheme was very appropriate for the occasion. The program was well rendered and showed much talent and preparation. The teachers, Miss Clara Cliff and Miss Audra Mathison assisted by the pupils, served hot chocolate and cake to the guests on arrival. Mrs. Ed Robertson, County Superintendent, and Mrs. Mary A. Oates of Haskell were present and were called on for short talks.

The program was very much enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. W. E. Hilliard and daughter Miss Lucille of Seymour spent Sunday with Mrs. R. C. Montgomery.

CULLEN F. THOMAS I WILL SPEAK HERE

Hon. Cullen F. Thomas, candidate for the United States Senate, will speak at the Court House here Wednesday night, March 8th, in the interest of his candidacy.

Mr. Thomas has many warm admirers in Haskell and Haskell County who will be glad to hear him. He is a noted orator and understands the needs of the people and will make Texas an able Senator.

Mr. Thomas is expected to arrive on the morning train and will probably go to Rule for an address there in the afternoon, returning to Haskell in time to fill his appointment at the courthouse.

NG POON CHEW WILL LECTURE MARCH 6

High school Lyceum boosters felt "bluer" than our West Texas sky usually looks at the prospects of a "freeze-out" for Dr. Chew Tuesday night. But a telegram from the Dixie Bureau to the effect that Dr. Chew had found himself snowbound at Memphis, Texas, and that the date had been changed to March 6th, Monday, greatly heartened lyceum well-wishers.

Preparatory to the lecture next Monday evening at the Christian Church, history classes are centering their current event study on the history of China and the character of the new Chinese Republic, together with that part of the Disarmament Conference's work that relates to China.

The lecture will take place at 8 p. m. at the New Christian Church Wednesday, March 6th.

HASKELL MERCHANTS PLAN TRADES DAY

Haskell's Big Trades Day which has been arranged for by the merchants to take place Monday, March 13th, is an event as well as an opportunity that every one in Haskell county should attend, and take advantage of the unusual bargains offered by these business concerns.

The prizes offered are useful as well as valuable, and everyone should bring in a corrected copy and try and win one of these prizes. Remember, each ad has one or more misspelled words, and the one bringing in the neatest and most properly corrected gets these prizes. Neatness counts as well in points as correctness. The chickens will be turned loose from the top of the courthouse about 11 a. m. of this day, so be on hand and catch one as they each have an order good for $5.00 in merchandise, tied to their leg.

In order that we as a merchant body may have an opportunity to show you the advantages of trading with us, we have quoted a few of our bargain prices for this day, in the big advertisement to be found on pages 4 and 5 of this issue.

We hope our readers will take advantage of this Trades Day of bargains and a hearty welcome awaits each and every one.

SPECIAL RATES TO FORT WORTH FAT STOCK SHOW

Special rates on the Fort Worth and Denver and Wichita Valley Railway have been granted for the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show to be held at Fort Worth March 11th to 18th. According to J. L. Southern, local agent for the Wichita Valley, the round trip rates will be as follows:

Round trip fare from Haskell, $8.10. Children over 5 and under 12, $4.05. Tickets will be on sale March 10th, to 18th inclusive, must reach original starting point prior to midnight of March 20, 1922. The above rates are one and one-fifth times regular one way fare.

There has been a moral slump all over the world and it is said to have affected all classes of people. It is blamed principally on the war.

BIG RABBIT DRIVE PLANNED TUESDAY

One of the biggest rabbit drives of the season will be staged west of town next Tuesday, March 7th. A big barbecue lunch will be prepared at the T. A. Pinkerton farm at the noon hour for all those who participate in the drive. Mr. Pinkerton's residence is about half way between Haskell and Rule, and it is planned for the Haskell people to be ready to leave town at 9:30 and drive in a V formation to the Pinkerton farm, where they will meet the party from Rule who will drive in the same way, closing the morning drive. The barbecue is expected to be ready to serve on arrival.

Everybody is invited to take part in this drive and a good time is promised as well as a good lunch.

HEALTH NURSE COMPLETES WORK HERE

Miss Seymour finished her examination of South Ward pupils Tuesday and left for home Tuesday night. Her stay in Haskell extended over only three weeks and one day, due to her decision to accept a new line of work at an early date. With the aid of Miss Ellis and other members of the faculty Miss Seymour managed to do all the work planned for five weeks in the abbreviated period, however. Miss Seymour leaves Texas soon to make health surveys in the vicinity of Chicago and to do permanent health nurse work in the schools there. Her work here can be commended in the highest terms as being tactful, untiring and thoroughly efficient in every way.

Miss Seymour stated before leaving that she had received more willing cooperation in Haskell than at almost any other place visited. She expressed herself as being glad to finish her work in Texas at this particular place for that reason. She was especially laudatory of the effort of the Hi-Y boys in furnishing milk at cost to children unable to obtain it at home. She insists that she has never seen anywhere the spirit of service so manifest in this case of the Hi-Y boys. She was also full of praise of the domestic science girls and teacher for the efficient help received in doing the necessary clerical work involved.

South Ward children showed up well except as to teeth and gums. Nearly half the children had either bad teeth or bad gums. One room proved particularly deficient in this respect. Upon inquiry most of the children admitted they did not own toothbrushes. It is really distressing to find parents negligent in such matters. Bad teeth and gums can so poison the child's system as to make progress in school impossible, besides leading to serious bodily trouble.

The South Ward showed a large number of granulated eye-lids, too. Miss Seymour warns parents that this particular disorder is most serious and should receive prompt attention in every case.

As elsewhere, numerous bad tonsils and adenoids were found at this building—108 cases, or 33 per cent, of bad tonsils alone. Adenoids and bad tonsils can absolutely block school progress besides leading to serious disease through weakened resistance and lowered vitality.

Health report cards will be sent to parents this week-end along with the customary scholarship report. It is hoped that parents will note defects and have serious troubles attended to at once.

Eugene Hunter of Munday has accepted a position with the Haskell Tailoring Co. Eugene comes here highly recommended.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Donohoo and family of Stamford were here for the funeral of their sister and aunt, Mrs. M. L. Lynch.

LEAGUE MEET OF SCHOOLS MARCH 24

The Haskell County Interscholastic League will meet in Haskell on March 24th, this year. According to the officers of the league a good program is being arranged in the different contests and a big time is expected. Further announcement will be made next week.

The Haskell National Bank is to be commended for their action in purchasing a herd of registered Duroc hogs with the intention of cooperating with the Pig Clubs of the County by giving the boys and girls an opportunity of securing the very best pigs to be had for their work. When the farmers, bankers and business men of Haskell county get behind any movement for the betterment of conditions of the county as a whole, the results will soon be apparent. We believe that the example set by the Haskell National Bank will soon be followed by others who are equally interested.

There is a demand on the part of the whole county for a fall fair and those interested in the various kinds of live stock and poultry are desirous of having some character of competitive exhibition and in order to meet this need a campaign for a County Fair should be launched at the earliest possible moment in order that the farmers and others interested will have time to prepare the proper exhibits. The Dallas State Fair exhibits that have been sent from Haskell County the past three years thoroughly demonstrates that we have plenty of material to make an interesting showing. We believe that a county fair would receive the full cooperation of practically every citizen in the county. The demand is apparent and it is up to Haskell as the leading town of the county to meet this demand. Are we going to do it?

CAUGHT IN THEIR OWN WEB

The folly of making lavish campaign promises without first ascertaining the possibility of redeeming them was never better exemplified than by the soldier bonus situation. To catch the soldier vote in the presidential election the Republicans promised a soldier bonus if they were given control of the government and the bait proved to be an attractive one. However, the former service men are now finding that a campaign promise is one thing and its fulfillment is quite another. Almost every conceivable plan has been suggested for paying the bonus, but none have met with much approval. Finding themselves in a hopeless tangle the Republican leaders in Congress have been looking to the White House for guidance in the perplexing problem but President Harding has informed them that he has found himself "unable to suggest any other commendable plan than a general sales tax" for raising the money needed to cover the bonus, thereby leaving Congress as much at sea as before. The general sales tax is not popular and there is much uncertainty of its being accepted for the "farm bloc" of both branches of Congress are unalterably opposed to it, and its suggestion as the means of raising the bonus money immediately brought threats from this source that the fight for the re-employment of excess profits taxes and high surtaxes would be reopened. There is good reason to believe that from the very beginning there has been a fixed purpose and a distinct understanding among the Republican leaders that a situation should be brought about whereby the bonus would be paid by a sales tax or there would be no bonus. The full realization of the burden of a general sales tax cannot be had until the payment of it begins, hence the protests, except from those persons who could promptly visualize it, would not begin to come until after the measure had been adopted and then it will be too late to protest. The Republicans have had from the beginning a desire to fasten the general sales tax on the public so that there may be a gradual reduction of taxes upon wealth.

There should not be so much perplexity to the situation as there seems—either the nation is able to pay the ex-service men a bonus, or it is not and if a bonus is paid it must come out of taxes. If there were more statesmanship and less politics in Congress the matter could be disposed of definitely in short order. If the country is able to stand the expense of a bonus tax a measure for raising it should be enacted. That would be statesmanship and it would be applauded. If the country is not financially able to meet the demand without making taxes too burdensome then the bonus should be dropped. That too would be statesmanship and would be applauded. But this is no time to expect statesmanship in Congress for it is a big election year and many Congressmen are planning to go before the people for reelection. It has been suggested that the cash bonus be postponed until a later date, but that would hardly catch the soldier vote again, for an old fish soon gets wary of the most attractive bait. The Republicans are caught in a web of their own weaving and the glibed promise they made in 1920 may prove a boomerang in the 1922 elections.

THE LINO TYPE MAN

Washington dispatches are to the effect that the Smithsonian Institution has launched a search investigation into the origin of the various types of man—genius homo, as they catalogue him.

One of the types which will undoubtedly prove a fertile field for the scientific sharps in the linotype man. Shirt-sleeved and oft-times profane, besmeared with oil in his working hours, this king of the composing room emerges a regular Beau Brummel when his daily stint is over.

He amasses great wealth by glancing his eyes to the keyboard of a red-hot, jingling, smoking machine whose metallic lustre—for six hours per diem. Most of them either go crazy or join the editorial staff of their newspaper after a few years work.

This peculiar sect has three or more special words which they carefully weave into all copy which they handle, thus mystifying all newspaper readers. The meaning of these words is obscure, but they are said to have a hidden significance known only to the brothers of the craft.

The first word "etiam" resembles the Ancient Greek, and is said to be written by a linotypist only under great mental duress, such as when he is refused a chew of tobacco by the composing room foreman.

The second mystic word is "shrdlu." This undoubtedly is from the Phoenician. It was probably first uttered when one of these men washed his finger with a hammer while engraving a line of bunk on the corner stone of the pyramid of Cheops.

At last, the ultimate anathema of the linotype craft, which is usually shyly slipped into religious notices to frightfully bewilder both clergy and laity is "entwarp." This word which sounds like Lloyd George's home address, is said to be Celtic or derived from the ancient Welsh.

Despite their queer customs, there is little harm in linotypers. They merely present an interesting study. That's all.

Because this is the first expose of the secrets of the linotype fraternity, telling their secret passwords, the linotype who sets up this article will probably so distort it that it can not be read with intelligence. This excuse sets the writer out—"Up Elm and Down Main" in Dallas Times Herald, by "Vahghol."

Marrying one's mother-in-law is forbidden by law in England. That's our idea of a piece of useless legislation.

A man sixty years old has married for the fourth time. Some people are certainly glibious for punishment.

For some reason the fellow who has never been able to lay up a cent is always able to see how others could economize.

The Marine Corps is now closed to married men. Evidently the marines want raw recruits and drill them in their own way of fighting.

Bill Boozem says he knew that the Scotch had a reputation for being awfully "tight", but he never knew the reason till he was given a drink of their brandy.

The King of Bulgaria has an elephant on his hands. President Harding has the soldier bonus on his hands. Why not write him a letter of sympathy, Warren?

FREE PRESS RECEIVES COMPLIMENTARY LETTER
We all appreciate a compliment, especially when we believe that the party making it is in earnest. We received a very nice letter from one of the wholesale houses this week which is very flattering indeed. We are publishing a portion of it below, so that our many loyal readers may know what others think of our effort to give Haskell County a good newspaper. The letter follows:

"We want to compliment you on the appearance of your paper last week, and the cuts and cartoons which you used on the front page made your paper loom up like a metropolitan daily. Frankly, out of some three hundred papers we reviewed last week, your paper and the Brownwood Bulletin stands out as the best composed papers to our notion in the state of Texas."

J. D. Josslet and little son Homer, of Sierra Blanca, are here this week visiting relatives. Mr. Josslet formerly lived in Haskell county and has many friends here who are glad to see him again. Mr. Josslet moved to Sierra Blanca about two years ago.

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Lula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

"... I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

OF INTEREST TO ALL RURAL ROUTE PATRONS

H. H. Billany, fourth assistant postmaster general, has issued the following statement to rural route patrons throughout the country, and desires that all of them read it and carefully consider its contents:

By direction of the Post Office Department, postmasters throughout the country have recently made an inspection of the rural routes from their offices. The purpose was that they might ascertain by personal observation and made report whether the roads used were in good condition for travel, the routes well arranged, boxes properly erected, so as to be easily reached by the carriers without difficulty and without obstructing travel, the carriers carrying their routes as officially prescribed, the schedule observed, and whether the families served were satisfied with the service rendered, or there were improvements which could be suggested in the interest of the patrons of the Department.

It became necessary, in connection with the inspections, to request many patrons to take action to the end that their boxes might conform with the regulations as to kind, condition, location, or height, and in having the name of the owner plainly printed on them. Also, to bring to the attention of road overseers or other responsible persons the need for improvement in roads or repair or construction of culverts and bridges.

It is the desire of the Department, and its purpose, to provide adequate and convenient service, so far as may be possible, to all persons residing in rural communities, but this end can not be attained without the full cooperation of the patrons in the efforts of postmasters and carriers to serve them promptly, regularly and satisfactorily. Whatever facilitates the work of the carrier is of direct benefit to the patrons, for the greater the ease and speed with which a carrier may cover his route the earlier and better the service afforded.

So patrons of rural delivery can greatly help themselves by helping their carrier, seeing to it that roads are kept in good condition and promptly opened after storms, by keeping the approaches to their boxes clear, and by promptly and willingly correcting any irregularities affecting their boxes when asked to do so.

Another great assistance that patrons can render carriers is by keeping themselves supplied with and using stamps instead of placing unstamped mail, with money for the purchase of the required postage in the boxes. This delays the carrier and sometimes imposes a great hardship on him, especially in cold or stormy weather. If preferred, stamped envelopes, either printed or plain, may be obtained from the carrier, are of good quality, and cost but little more than the value of the stamps upon them, and are redeemable at the value of the stamps if damaged, but returned in a practically whole condition. If necessary to place money in a box, it should be put in a coin-holding receptacle or be properly wrapped so as to be easily picked up by the carrier.

Money for the purchase of money orders should not be left in the boxes, but should be handed to the carrier, and a receipt obtained.

MRS. S. A. SMITH DIES FROM BURNS SUSTAINED FRIDAY

Burns sustained Friday noon when her clothing caught fire from a gas heater proved fatal for Mrs. Sarah A. Smith, aged 80. Mrs. Smith died in the Call Field hospital at 9:45 Friday night after having been taken to the medical institution from the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. R. Walker, 2209 Ninth street where the accident occurred. Little hope was held out for Mrs. Smith's recovery from the first, the severe nature of the burns and her advanced age rendering her condition extremely critical.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Smith was standing near a heater in the front part of the house just before noon Friday and flames from this ignited her dress. She attempted to extinguish the blaze by herself, and falling in this ran to the rear of the house where blankets and rugs and finally a garden hose was used to put out the flames.

Severe burns about the body caused her death, the injuries to her face and arms not having been so serious. She was taken to the hospital immediately, where medical attention failed to save her life.

Mr. Walker was burned slightly about the face and arms in an effort to smother the fire enveloping Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Smith was born in Howard county, Missouri, Nov. 1, 1841. She had been living with her daughter here for some time and had many friends in Wichita Falls and other north Texas points. She leaves as survivors four daughters, Mrs. J. S. Baskett of Howard county, Missouri; Mrs. D. E. Smith of McAlester, Okla.; Mrs. S. J. Teuton of Kansas City; Mrs. G. R. Walker of this city and three sons, N. T. Smith and Dr. J. D. Smith of Haskell, Texas, and C. J. Smith of Crowell, Texas.

Funeral services will be conducted at the First Christian church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon with Rev. J. Lem Keevil, pastor of the church, officiating. The body will be sent to Howard county, Missouri, for burial—Wich.

Its Daily Times. The above article in the Wichita Falls Daily, Feb. 25, Tuesday from Wichita Falls and his brother's receipt of a newspaper account of the accident Friday, painted the remains for burial. Mrs. Smith was in the city, having visited several occasions. The tragedy comes to many friends.

WIT AND HUMOR

Young Willie was a born gambler. Many times his schoolmates had to part with their weekly pennies through being foolish enough to bet with him.
As time went on he became quite wealthy in a small way, but his father determined to break him of his gambling habit.
He interviewed the school teacher one day and said:
"I want to cure my boy of his betting habits, so if you can get him to make a bet with you and you are certain he'll lose take him out then when he loses his money he will be sorry for himself."
The teacher consented. Next day Willie said to him: "I'll bet you a dime you've got corns, sir!"
"Good!" thought the teacher. "I know you haven't, so he's sure to lose." Aloud he said: "All right, Willie. I will bet you I have no corns." And he took off his boots and proved it.
"You've won," said Willie, and paid up.
Next day the teacher met Willie's pa and said:
"Well, I won a dime off your boy. He bet me I had corns and I showed him he was wrong!"
"What!" shouted pa. "Why, the little scamp bet me a half dollar he'd get you to show him your bare feet, and he's won!"
Maggie had been awarded $5,000 for injuries received in a train wreck, and she was surrounded by her admiring friends. Finally her husband, who was being ignored by all present, could stand it no longer.
"Aw, don't I get any credit at all?" he blurted out. "Wasn't it me that had the presence of mind to life me foot and give you that bet in the face with me brogan when you were lyin' there with nothin' the matter with you?"
"That you, dearie? I'm detained at the office on very important business and I may not be home until late. Don't sit up for me."
"I won't, dearie. You'll come home as early as you can, won't you? And John, dear—"
"Yes! What is it?"
"Please don't draw to many inside straight's."
The benevolent man espied a little tot weeping and said to her: "Now be a good little boy and stop crying."
The child replied: "I can't."
"Well, here's a penny. Tell me why you can't be a good boy."
"Cause I'm a girl."
An attendant, perspiring freely from sundry trips to the aviation field to carry gas and oil for the planes, had reached the end of his patience.
Each trip he had been delayed by inquisitive persons, who bombarded him with foolish questions, Nos. 1 to 1,000, inclusive.
Finally an old lady stopped him.
"Young man," she said, "what do you do when a machine gets up in the air and runs out of gasoline?"
"Confidentially, ma'am," he replied, "that's just what has happened now. There's a couple of them stranded up in the air now, and we're just sending up emergency balloons to fetch them down!"

NEWS OF THE WEEK FROM THE SAGERTON SECTION

Lois, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stephens, came near being seriously injured one evening last week when she attempted to jump from the wagon in which she was riding with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Caudle. As she jumped she fell under the rear wheel and the wheel passed over her body. Fortunately she was only slightly bruised and is now able to be up and about.
In the election that was held last Saturday for the purpose of determining the will of the people in regard to raising the tax rate for school purpose from fifty cents on the one hundred dollars to one dollar the ones who were in favor of the raise were successful by three votes. This is a step in the right direction. The children of the Sagerton community are in blood as good as the best that the sun shines on and it is only just and right that they should have equal chances to obtain an education and grow up into citizens that the State of Texas will be proud of. There were ninety-three votes polled, forty-five voted "No" on the question and forty-eight "Yes."
Rev. Mays of Abilene preached at the Baptist Church Sunday morning on the subject of "Tithing." He quoted Scripture and cited examples to show that tithing was the best way to handle the finances of any church.
T. J. Ratliff spent the week end visiting homefolks in Haskell.
Rev. Alvis and Rev. Seal, both of Haskell, are to conduct a Bible Institute at the Baptist Church this week. In the local B. Y. P. U. are the sponsors of the Institute.
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McCoull, nationally known entertainers will appear at the High School Auditorium Friday night, March 3rd. Forty per cent of the proceeds are to go to the school and everyone who wishes to enjoy an evening of good wholesome entertainment are invited to be present.
Strife is rampant in the village of Sagerton. Last week we reported Dr. J. C. Davis as being the champion rabbit killer of the district saying that he shot fifty-six and kicked one to death in the space of four hours. It now appears that the Doctor was only trying to reduce the good old West Texas sport to the level of th sold time fishing party when each man thought it his duty to claim all the fish in the creek as being caught. Creditable witnesses now declare that the Doctor was not even on the drive and that he never killed but one rabbit in his life and that was with a hammer, all in self-defense.
The prospects are now for the High School to run on another month at least. This will give the children an opportunity to complete their grades and the Senior class to receive their long hoped for diplomas.
Monday evening Sagerton was visited by the worst norther of the winter. The temperature fell several degrees in as many minutes and Monday night snow and sleet fell. School was considerably short Tuesday, only two or three pupils reporting in some of the rooms. We are now at the point where we will accept any sort of moisture that a Republican Weather Bureau will send us. We have had no rain to speak of since June and it may be that a good snow will save the day.

THANKS FREE PRESS FOR POULTRY DAY PUBLICITY

The following letter was received last week from M. B. Oates, agricultural agent of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway, thanking the Free Press for the publicity given to the Poultry School. The letter follows:

Wichita Falls, Texas, Feb. 21, 1922.
Editor, The Free Press,
Haskell, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I have written more than one hundred personal letters of thanks to the Committeemen who did so much to make the Poultry Schools possible by the Denver Road and the A. & M. College cooperating, such a big success, and I am sorry that I do not have time to write nearly fifty more personal letters to the Editors of County papers whose help was so valuable.

The publicity given to the Poultry School in your county thru your paper aroused a great deal of interest in the event and brought us a fine crowd of interested people. Without your help the crowd and the interest would have been much less. Please accept my personal and sincere thanks for your invaluable cooperation. Your help was worth a great deal and I certainly appreciate it very much.

Very truly,
M. B. Oates,
Agricultural Agent.

LAMBERT ROOMING HOUSE BURNS AT CLEBURNE

The following account of the burning of the rooming house of Mrs. A. G. Lambert at Cleburne appeared in the Dallas News of Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert formerly lived in Haskell and have many friends here who will regret to learn of their misfortune.

Three persons, two men and a woman, were burned to death at Cleburne at 4 o'clock Friday morning when they were trapped in a frame building which was occupied as a rooming-house. The building was located on East Willingham street, across the Santa Fe railroad tracks from the Y. M. C. A. The rooming-house was operated by Mrs. A. G. Lambert.

Eight other persons were injured in making their escape from the fire.

The dead:
J. W. SKAGGS, 80 years old,
MRS. J. W. SKAGGS, 74 years old,
JOHN BAILEY.

Mrs. E. L. Warnell, 39 years old, sustained a broken back when she jumped from the second story with her 4-year-old son in her arms. Her son suffered a broken arm. Both were taken to the Cleburne Hospital.

Mrs. Warnell is not expected to recover.

Miss Ruth Skaggs, 18 years old, daughter of the couple burned to death, was seriously burned and also received a broken arm when she jumped from the building.

Six other persons were injured, many bruised, but only slightly, and due to the confusion, no check of the injured and missing has been made. It started when an oil stove in the room of Mr. and Mrs. Skaggs got out of commission and threatened to explode. The man who is believed to have been John Bailey and who was sitting up with Mrs. Skaggs, who was ill, started down the stairway with the stove. He had gone only a short distance when it exploded, covering him with the flaming oil. He was burned to death.

Justice E. L. Stovall held an inquest over the three bodies and said that his verdict would be that they came to their death in a fire caused by the explosion of an oil stove at the Lambert boarding house.

At the evening meeting of the Chamber of Commerce the proposition of building a light plant was discussed and several letters from parties interested were read.

INFORMATION ON REDEMPTION OF VICTORY NOTES JUNE 15

Desiring to be of service to its readers, many of whom own Victory Notes the following information is presented by The Free Press, with reference to the June 15, 1922, call by the Treasury for 3% Victory Notes, and the temporary redemption privilege relative to Victory 4's. Inquiries indicate there has been some misunderstanding on the part of the public.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has called Victory 3's Notes for redemption at par and accrued interest June 15, 1922. After June 15 these bonds, because they have been called, will bear no interest. It is the owner's advantage to surrender them at that time, or any time before at par plus accrued interest, and re-invest the proceeds. For reinvestment, the U. S. Government Savings Organization at Dallas has suggested the New Issue of Treasury Savings Certificates which are to be had at postoffices or through banks in $1000, $100 and $25 maturity value, denominations, costing, respectively, $800, $80 and $20.

These are registered in the owner's name when purchased and are loss-proof as well as depreciation- or market fluctuation-proof. They mature five years from date of purchase; bear 4 1/2 per cent, compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. Over a period of five years they yield 25 per cent on the investment. They are cashable at purchaser's option before maturity. Ownership limit is $5,000, maturity value.

Until March 15, the Treasury has authorized the Federal Reserve Bank to receive 4% Victories from owners who desire to set them to the Government at par plus accrued interest. If held after that time, unless the purchase period is extended, the 4% Victories will run on till maturity, which is May 23, 1923. Those who desire may take advantage of this temporary period and convert their bonds into cash. Re-investment in Treasury Savings Certificates of the New Issue has been recommended.

Owners are advised to consult local bankers for specific advice.
