The dictionary proclaims that inanimate objects have no life, no life at all.

In that case there are very few inanimate objects.

Take the little zipper bag in my purse, for example.

In it there is a chapstick, a metal container of aspirin, a tiny bottle of hand lotion, a nail file and a small address book.

Yet whenever I reach into that little bag for the chapstick, it hides behind something else, eluding my grasp. This usually occurs when I'm driving down the road and don't have the luxury of looking down and pursuing it by sight.

It doesn't matter how many items I identify by feel, no chapstick comes to light until I have been pushed to the brink.

The same is true, I'm told, of things in a man's pocket. If it's a knife wanted, it hides behind the handkerchief, or chapstick, or whatever.

It's as if these little items have a life, and come endowed with a mischievous sense of humor. They snicker and hide, then let themselves be "captured" right before the frustrated searcher dumps everything out on the table!

The same holds true of shopping bags full of items or groceries.

No matter how carefully a checker places an item at the top of the bag, by the time said bag has been carried to the car, the top item has fled to the bottom of the sack to huddle up under the cauliflower until it has driven the searcher totally bonkers.

Anything placed on the front of a shelf in the closet has the ability to do the same thing. Within mere hours it has managed to work its way to the back and frequently even managed to transfer to another shelf. (Sometimes even another closet!)

When exposed to the light of day the aforementioned objects assume a pretense of being truly inanimate. They simply lie there, stiff and still.

But it's impossible. Nothing that lifeless could possibly be that hard to FIND.

I've talked to many people, and they all agree with me. There is just no way that anything that elusive can be inanimate too.

No, those little items that hide from us all, whether it be in a purse, a pocket, bag or closet, must have a trifle of life all their own.

Country Cooking

By Genie Bankhead

"Country Cooking" this week comes from the home of Jerry and Pat Stansell of Talco. Jerry and Pat have been married for 20 years and have lived in Talco all their married life. They have two children, a son, Kip, wife, Kelly, and two children, Kyle 8 and Kendall 6 and one daughter, Kristie.

Jerry and Pat make cooking at their home "team work". Jerry said he started cooking as a small child. There were no girls at his home and his mother chose him to help her in the kitchen. He liked it and continued with it. Pat never learned to cook as a child. Her father did the cooking in their home. Jerry said Pat could not even boil water when they got married, so he has had to teach her how to cook. Jerry doesn't cook from a recipe at all, he calls his cooking "Gourmet Cooking" just taste and see.

Jerry is sharing his fabulous Green Enchilada and Creole Gumbo. Pat is sharing her Guacamole recipe that she serves with the Green Enchiladas, her Italian Creme Cake and her Strawberry Cheesecake. These two desserts will fit right in with your Christmas baking.

Jerry and Pat's most enjoyable hobby is their grandchildren. They come to their house every day to see what Mimie and Poppi have cooked for them to eat.

We hope you enjoy the recipes this week. If you have a feature suggestion, please call 652-6032 or write to Rt. 1, Box 67A, Deport.

*In our time of deep sorrow
Many of you were quickly there:
You didn't wait 'til the morrow
To let us know you care.*

*How can we ever truly express
The thoughts we wish to convey?
It's really difficult unless
We can tell you in this way.*

*So many deeds of kindness
And acts of love were shown:*

*And we will readily confess
You kept us from grieving alone.*

*God bless you, dear brothers
And sisters in Christ, so true.
Like you there are no others.
Without you, what would we do?*

*We do appreciate so very much
The sermon, songs, your loving care.
Flowers, cards, prayers, lunch,
And especially your being there!*

Andrews RoCo Bulls Honored At 1990 NFR

Representing the Andrews Rodeo Company of Addielou, TX, four bucking bulls and one bareback horse were selected by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association to compete at the 1990 National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas, Nevada, December Nov. 30-December 9.

Of the five head of livestock selected for competition, two bulls were recognized for their outstanding performances.

Sammy Andrews, owner of the Andrews Rodeo Company, was presented a trophy buckle for his bull

#77, Hardrock Copenhagen, having a go-round won during the NFR. Tuff Hedeman of Bowie, TX, former PRCA Bull Riding Champion, had drawn the bull and won the go-round. Andrews was presented the buckle at a special awards ceremony held after each performance of the rodeo at the Gold Coast Hotel and Casino.

Bull #363, Skoal's Outlaw Willie, was named as Runner-up to the Bucking Bull of the Finals by the Top 15 bull riders qualifying for the NFR, and Andrews was presented a cash award during the awards ceremony following the final performance of the NFR. "Willie" was drawn by Clint Branger of Canada in the final go-round of the NFR, and threw Branger off prior to the 8-second whistle.

Only two of the Andrews bulls were successfully qualified on during the 10-performance rodeo, along with #77, bull #H53 was ridden by Ty Murray, the 1990 All Around Champion, to win a third in a go-round during the week's competition.

Bareback horse #UPS was ridden to a fourth place finish in a go-round by Dave Appleton of Dallas, TX, former PRCA Bareback Riding Champion, in UPS' one out in competition.

Winning the Bucking Bull of the Finals award was the David Bailey Rodeo Company of Tahlequah, OK, and winning third place in the Bucking Bull of the Finals category was a bull from the Dell Hall Rodeo Company, also of Tahlequah, OK. Both these bulls were sired by the same bucking bull, Snoopy, owned by David Bailey.

This year marks the third year for the Andrews Rodeo Company to be a PRCA stock contracting company, and this is the second consecutive year that Andrews livestock has been selected to attend the NFR.

Rivercrest Varsity Goes To Celeste Tournament

The Rivercrest varsity boys and girls traveled to Celeste December 6-8 for tournament play. Thursday saw the Rebels lose in the last four minutes of the game to Tom Bean.

Foul troubles took Galen Logan and Jim Purviance out. Dean Tiffie led scorers with Jim Purviance close behind. The team had 25 team fouls. Final score was 66-56, Tom Bean.

The Rebels returned Friday to meet Celeste. The Blue Devils took the lead early, holding a 45-21 halftime score over the Rebels. Rebel Galen Logan was missed due to an injury received in Thursday's game. Three-pointers dropped by Jerry Francis and Dean Tiffie, free shots netted by Croy Gable and rebounds pulled down by Ronald Simmons and Jim Purviance put the Rebels back in the game in the last half but they couldn't reach the lead.

The team committed 17 team fouls. High scorers were Dean Tiffie and Eric Curtiss. Final score was 74-66, Celeste.

The Lady Rebs began toumey play against Tom Bean and took the win to return Friday for a showdown with the Celeste Lady Blue Devils. The game began with simple mistakes, missed lay-ups and bad passes on the Lady Rebs part. Halftime score was 40-28, Celeste.

In the third and fourth quarters, the Lady Rebs lost Tiffany Parrish, Jerilyn Russell and Patches Raines to fouls. A frustrated coach, Velinda Arbuckle, received a technical for unwanted comments. Krista Weatherall was high scorer for the ladies, followed by Katy Ross and B.J. Thompson. Total team fouls were 29, the final score was 80-59, Celeste.

The girls returned Saturday at 4:30 to play for third place. Wolfe City didn't hold a light to the girls from Rivercrest and the Lady Rebels took an easy win to bring home the third place trophy.

Rivercrest JV & B Teams Tourney

The Rivercrest Rebel JV and B teams played host to Como-Pickton, Mt. Pleasant JV and B teams, James Bowie, Sulphur Bluff and Mt. Vernon in a tournament on Dec. 6-8.

The Rebel B team began playing the Mt. Pleasant JV on Thursday but couldn't hold out and lost throwing them into the loser's bracket with consolation their only hope.

The team returned Friday to take the win over Sulphur Bluff.

On Saturday, they faced the Mt. Pleasant B team. At halftime the Rebels held a 33-10 lead. Elliot Pogue was high scorer for the Rebs followed closely by Trey Beverlin. An easy 73-30 win saw the B team made up of John Bell, Jerry McClour, Brad Davidson, Eddie Williams, Elliott Pogue, Trey Beverlin, Micahel Coggins, Jonathan Jordan and Brad Lankford take the consolation trophy.

The Rebel JV began tournament play Thursday against Mt. Pleasant's B team winning easily. On Friday, another easy win over Como-Pickton set the JV Rebs waiting to play for first place. One of the most exciting games of the season began at 8 p.m. Saturday when the JV Rebs Brad Ingram, Reggie Alford, Mike McGee, Brandon Williams, Jeremy Beyleu, Clay Pirtle and Geno Sartor took the court to play the Mt. Pleasant JV.

The first jump of the ball saw Rebel Sartor score two points on a pass from Jeremy Beyleu. First quarter ended 10-8 Rebel lead. Halftime saw Mt. Pleasant with a 23-22 lead. By the end of the third, the two teams were 37-all. The score seesawed back and forth and the Rebel team was in serious foul trouble. With 2:57 left, the team lost post Reggie Alford and with 1:19 left, Brad Ingram went out with five fouls. Mt. Pleasant tied the game with :07 left on the clock. Rebel Clay Pirtle went in for the winning lay-up at the buzzer. The Rebels took the first place trophy with a score of 52-50. Talco JH Teams Play Ball

The Talco Junior High teams played host to Saltillo on December 10, losing the tip of the ball to give the Saltillo young ladies the opportunity for the first score of the game.

The girls first quarter was rough, and the second quarter saw the girls come to life. Jennifer Bodn stole the ball time and time again and completed good passes to the post for the score. Tawala Padgett, Julie Nolen and Karen Williams did a good job under the goal, pulling down rebounds. Wing player Shaunda Jones did a very good job also for the Junior Lady Rebels. Halftime score was 11-11 tied. The score remained close with the third quarter ending showing a 17-15 score. The girls held Saltillo to four points in the fourth quarter ending the game with a 24-19 win. Karen Williams was high scorer followed by Julie Nolen and Tawala Padgett. The team committed 16 team fouls.

The Talco Junior High Rebels took the court with the odds against them. The height difference was great and Saltillo took early control of the game and the Rebs couldn't recover. The team lost Jeremy Loggins and Joe Grissom to fouls and had a 43-13 halftime score. The final score was 69-22. High scorer for the young Rebels was Clint Franks. Nineteen team fouls were committed and the free shot percentage made by Saltillo made up a large amount of their score.

The girls and boys will play Thursday and Friday in Talco and at Rivercrest on Saturday as they host an invitational tournament. Everyone is invited to come out and support the young Rebel teams.
