I've never had such a response to a column in my life as I have to the one about insurance last week. By next week we will be able to furnish the names and addresses of people and commissions to write to about this situation.

Please don't wait to write thinking you don't know exactly what to say. Don't delay because to think someone else will do the writing...no, take pen and hand and let's start an insurance revolution!

Now to a new topic!

Someone explain to me the logic (if, indeed there is some logic) to the road work that we see around here.

Example: up in Paris a few weeks ago, while we were having the papers printed, we noticed five men out putting reflectors at an intersection.

They were happily going about their business. One measured and marked the spot, one put down some tar, another hammered the reflector in, yet another seemed to make sure it was seated correctly. What the fifth one was doing I haven't a clue.

One is forced to wonder if it really required the services of five men, all making who-knows-what and hour, to set reflectors into the pavement.

But, that isn't the last of the matter.

Exactly two weeks later we were in Paris once more to print the papers.

And, at that same location, there were three men.

One had a sledgehammer, one had a bucket of tar and the other had a sack.

They were carefully taking the hammer and breaking up the reflectors that had only been put down two weeks before!

A few days later it became obvious why...they had removed a large portion of the reflectors and put them back down in a similar pattern not a foot away from where they were originally!

It didn't make sense to me, and I still don't know why it took so many people to do.

All of us, as we watch road work, may have stories like this to relate. It seems that our governments just don't have to manage their time, employees, or funds the way ordinary citizens have to.

I'm sorry, folks, but it doesn't make much sense to me. And I sadly fear that we see this type of waste reflected (pardon the pun) in our tax bill!

F.Y.I.
We throw away 2.5 million plastic bottles every hour; 122 billion plastic bottles every year.

No Confirmation On AIDS

The Texas Department of Health announced Friday, July 31st that it has found no evidence to support claims by former HIV/AIDS case management worker Dona Spence that 13 students within the Ark-Tex Council of Governments region were HIV positive.

The region takes in nine counties. Dr. Charles Bell, chief of the department's HIV and sexually transmitted disease control division has publically stated that all 138 case files from Ms. Spence have been reviewed and that only ten people named were HIV positive or had AIDS.

All of these are over school age, and would not have been in school at the time the furor broke.

Bell stated that if the names in the files are real names then none of these individuals were born in Texas, are licensed to drive an automobile in Texas, have died in Texas or were listed on area school enrollment rosters", Bell said.

He did say that it's possible that "all 20 of these people gave her made up names and birth date," leaving the possibility for error in the review.

In February a nation-wide furor broke when Spence claimed that 20 of her HIV-positive clients were under the age of 20 and that 13 of them were students.

Dona Spence resigned February 25, 1992 after the uproar her claims created.

Rivercrest Installing Satellite System To Help In Educating

There's something new at Rivercrest High School.

A new satellite dish has been set up at the high school campus. According to Superintendent Wade, the new Cyberlink T-Star system will provide expanded curriculum for students by providing courses to them that have not been available in the past.

The system provides channels like the Discovery Channel and other educational channels.

There will be a teacher in-service program and staff development programs.

There will also be a two way communication system.

Superintendent Wade reports that there will be four drops (connection) provided through-out the school. The library will be the main drop but some classrooms will also have drops.

The system at Rivercrest is one of approximately eighty provided by grants from T.E.A. of Austin, Texas.

The school also has plans for a new computer system with a teaching station, a large screen television and C D Ranius, which is equal to a complete set of encyclopedias.

Teachers can use this system in the classroom, and it can be used for coordinated presentations.

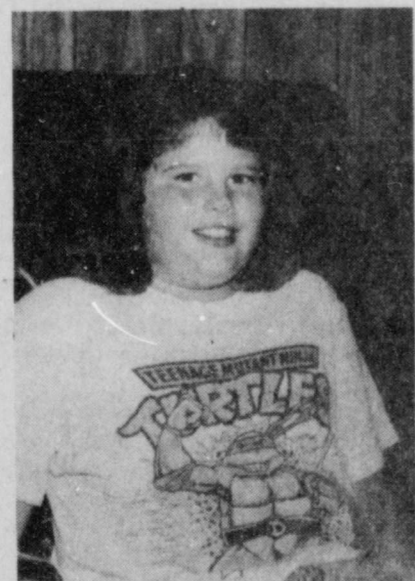

Installation of the new system is currently in progress.

JUST CALL HER LUCKY Laci! Laci Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor won a BMX bicycle from the Burger King Kids Club. Her name was drawn from hundreds of children to make her the winner. Laci is a Talco fourth grader and hopes to receive her bike before her birthday in August.

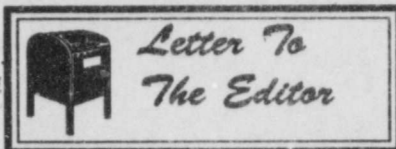

TERESA TAYLOR will be the new teacher aide at Talco Junior High this year. She will be replacing Sandra Southern, whose family moved. Teresa will work with the computer literacy classes and other areas at the school. She and her husband David and daughter Laci, a Talco fourth grader, are Talco residents. She is the daughter of Patsy Tyer of Bogata and the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Taylor of Talco. (Staff Photo by Nancy Brown)

Auxiliary Hosts Bingo

The V.F.W. Auxiliary played bingo with the folks at Red River Nursing Home on July 28th. Of the twenty players, those who bingoed were: Jane Davis, Oma McKinney, Odie Hervey, Irene House, Kate Guest, Dorothy Watkins, Inez Hinson and Jimmy Duffey. Tommy Corbell called bingo and the auxiliary members who enjoyed helping were: Zelma Mauldin, Jettie Minshew, Daphney Pointer, Georgia Hudson, Eunice Miller, Lorene Kennedy, Gordon House and Walker House.

A message from this newspaper and the Texas Dept. of Public Safety

Dear Editor,

As you know the Texas Department of Health announced last Friday that "it found no evidence to support claims by Donna Spence that 13 students in the nine county Ark-Tex Council of Government region including six Rivercrest students were HIV positive and were in her case files."

This situation should make us all aware of just how easy a good reputation can be damaged overnight. Many of us have acknowledged there is a drug problem in our midst but it isn't only at Rivercrest, nor is it probably any higher at Rivercrest. We realize promiscuous sex is abundant here but no more so than other and all high schools. But, the bottom line apparently was released by the Texas Department of Health, finally after months of investigations and interviews. The only known, documented and published AIDS at Rivercrest stands for Academics second to none, Intelligent instructors who give their all to intelligent students, a Dedication to greater heights of education by these students and administrators and Sports that compete for sportsmanship enjoyed by thousands each year.

I'm honored my three children proudly show their Rivercrest diploma and hope the chapter has been finally closed on this issue.

A proud parent of three Rivercrest graduates,
James Wood

Dear Editor Donna Rozell:

I feel that I must reply to the unjust arrest charges made by the Frontier Day Sheriff and his deputies on Rodeo Saturday June 27, 1992. There was NO Criminal intent on my part in planting a Mesquite bush in the Rodeo Arena!

I was doing that to help the rodeo cowboys. Once a cowboy has been thrown into a Mesquite bush, it is amazing how hard he will try to stay on an animal as it nears another Mesquite bush.

The reason that it has taken me so long to answer the charges is that I was waiting until I received the report from the team of Private Investigators that I have had working on the case. Their report confirmed my suspicions that Frances (Neil) Rozell was the perpetrator of the aforementioned act of injustice. At the present time I am working with my team of lawyers on what charges to bring against Mrs. Rozell.

we feel that she MUST be held accountable for her heinous actions.

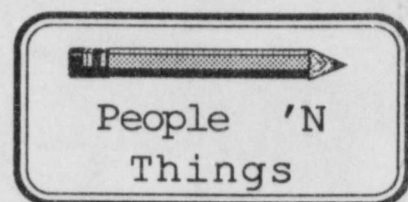

Sincerely,
Charles Wilkinson

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

LINDA WOODS serves Country Cooking column writer, Judy Screws, some of her Banana Pudding. Linda will be sharing this recipe and others in this week's column. (Staff Photo by Judy Screws)

We left Talco and went a few miles into the country to visit the home of Linda and Wayne Woods. On our way we passed a place where they raise ostriches. Those poor birds aren't very beautiful, but their eggs are supposed to be valuable. I don't guess you'd want to cook with them.

When we got out of the car at the Woods' home, we were greeted by a poodle named Rocky and an assortment of chickens, ducks and guineas. Linda said the guineas keep snakes, wolves and chicken hawks away from their yard. She has to keep adding hummingbird feeders to the ones on the porch outside her kitchen window because there are so many birds and she doesn't want to miss any.

Linda is employed as a teacher's aide at Talco Elementary School and Wayne drives a truck for Hinton Drilling. They have three sons, Michael, the oldest, who works for TU Electric and is moving into his new home; Bradley who attends the University of Arkansas, majoring in Electrical Engineering; and Jessie, who is studying at ETSU to become a Physical Therapist.

It would take me a week to follow Linda around for a day. She is a busy lady. Besides working at school, maintaining a home, and attending school and church activities, she attends ETSU at night and summers. She should have a degree in Elementary Education in 1994.

All this activity is nothing new for Linda. She was on the school basketball and cheerleading teams from the time she was old enough until she graduated in 1966. Some of those basketball teams were state play-off teams. At that time, girls still played half-court, but even on half a court, she managed to keep her knees torn up most of the time. Her class was the first class to graduate from the newly consolidated Talco-Bogata School District. Before the merger, she was a Bogata girl.

We ate some wonderful banana pudding at the kitchen table and admired Linda's collection of butterflies and wind chimes.

When I asked what she preferred to cook, she said she always liked new dessert recipes, and that with four men to feed, she had to fix more casseroles than anything.

The No Bake Banana Pudding recipe came from the Assembly of God cookbook. The recipe was printed in memory of Alice Tidwell. The Chocolate Chip Pie was given to her by Wyndel Dixon and the Cherry Dessert was out of Mailbox Magazine at school. It is for busy people.

Thanks so much for your kind comments that I have received about the column. I'm really having a good time. Please continue to call and send suggestions and recipes to Box 293, Bogata or call 632-4543.

Smile! It's your day!

Chip-A-Roox
By Linda Woods
3 eggs
1 box light brown sugar
2/3 cups oil
2 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1-6 oz. package chocolate chips (do not add to dough. Sprinkle on top)
1 teaspoon vanilla
Mix all ingredients. Spread dough in greased and floured pan. Sprinkle with chocolate chips. Bake at 350 for 25-30 minutes. Bake until a light brown. Let cool 20 minutes before cutting.
No Bake Banana Pudding
2 (3 1/2 oz.) pkgs. vanilla instant pudding and pie filling mix
1-14 oz. can Eagle Brand milk
1-8 oz. container frozen whipped topping
6 large bananas
1-11 oz. box vanilla wafers
Prepare pudding mix following directions. Let stand until slightly thickened, 3 minutes. Mix in milk and topping. Slice bananas. Layer wafers, bananas and filling in clear glass bowl or 9x13x2 inch glass dish. Serve immediately or chilled. Makes a large dessert.
Washington's Cherry Dessert
2 cans cherry pie filling
1 box yellow cake mix
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup sugar
1 stick margarine, melted
Pour cherry pie filling into 9x13x2 baking pan or dish. Then pour cake mix over pie filling. Mix milk, sugar and margarine. Pour this mixture over cake mix. Bake at 350 for approximately 25 minutes or until dessert is brown.
Chocolate Chip Pie
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup flour
1 stick margarine, melted and cooled
3/4 cup sugar, divided
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons butter, melted
2 beaten eggs
3-3 1/2 cups all purpose flour, divided
2 tablespoons butter, softened
Dissolve yeast in warm water; let stand 5 minutes. Combine sour cream, 1/4 cup sugar and salt in small mixing bowl; mix well. Add 1/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons melted butter, eggs, 2 cups flour and yeast mixture; mix well. Gradually add enough remaining flour to make soft dough.
Turn dough out on floured surface and knead until smooth and elastic (about 5 minutes). Place in well greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover and let rise in a warm place, free from drafts, 1 1/2 to 2 hours or until double in size.
Punch dough down and divide in half. Roll each half into a 12" circle on floured surface. Combine remaining 1/2 cup sugar and 1 tablespoon butter. Cut each circle into 12 wedges. Roll up each wedge tightly; place point side down on greased baking sheets. Cover and let rise in a warm place 1 hour or until almost double in size. Bake at 350 for 18-20 minutes or until golden. Remove from baking sheets immediately. Makes 2 dozen.
To freeze: bake rolls at 350 for 15 minutes; cool. Wrap in aluminum foil; freeze. To serve, place rolls on lightly greased baking sheets and thaw. Bake at 350 for 8-10 minutes or until golden.

Planes, Trains and Definitely Automobiles!!

By Liz Irwin

"You can take the city out of a country gal, but you can't take the country out of a city gal" or vice-versa, whichever, I was definitely out of my element Sunday morning, June 28 as my husband and I drove up to the DFW terminal to board a flight to Las Vegas. Can you guess that this was my first airplane ride? First of all, they tell you to be there at least two hours early to be sure to get a good seat. Well, my husband being the wonderful person he is, decided that I needed a window seat. Sure, okay, I'm not going to look out the window anyway, I'll be sleeping the whole time or reading. NOT! Definitely not!

Here I am assuming that we will be in one piece when this clown gets us down when we crash into the mountain. Up we go after our little tour of the canyon and I finally take a peak out the window as we go over Lake Meade. Yes folks, it took me that long to look out the window. I am still thinking about that movie Airplane! or something like that and kept constant check on the walls of the plane to make sure there were no jagged pieces falling off or if we suddenly developed strange noises. I'm sure Jim got tired of my saying "what's that noise" and punching him in the ribs or leaving fingernail marks in his arm.

Darla Ottinger, Anita Hood, Amber Lum and Pat Bond attended the wedding shower for Kendra Grissom, bride-elect of Heath Rester on August 2 at Trinity Baptist Church in Mt. Pleasant. Celebrating August birthdays are Lynn Fail, Gina Point, Lisa Mercer, Larry Kennedy, Bryan Ottinger, Kevin Ottinger, Laura Deaton, Evelyn Bowman, Beth Wood and Julie White. Julie White and Paul Tulley of Dallas visited Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown over the weekend. On Friday the family enjoyed a fish fry. On Saturday Julie was honored with a birthday supper. Kelly Stansell, Kyle and Kendall and Pat Stansell and Erin Stansell enjoyed the Caldwell Zoo and shopping in Tyler Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hall and Chasity enjoyed Marshall Pottery and shopping in Marshall on Friday. They had supper at the 155 Fish Fry. Sue Nolen, Jody and Julie, Louise Nolen and Jack Brown enjoyed Canton trade days Saturday. Saturday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Brown, Kim and Jack were Diann Duffie and B.W., Pete Swarts, Jaime and Joanie. Celebrating August birthdays are Eddie Brown, Mona Wright, Lou Hall, Shane Wright, Zoanetta Hawkins, Toknya Hawkins, Trisha Pittman, Shari Wisinger, Sheila Johnson, Galen Logan, Kristi Goates, Lekeitha Savage, Amber Forsyth, Laci Taylor, Becky Linthicum, Katy Stin-

Celebrating a July birthday is Melba Reed. The youth from Calvary Baptist Church in Talco and Harris Chapel Church in Sugar Hill returned home Friday after a fun week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graf, Katherine, Justin, Rachel and Susan enjoyed Canton trade days Saturday. Tonya Hawkins moved to Sulphur springs last week. She will attend East Texas State University this fall. Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Williams and Tommie, Amy Carroll of Kilgore visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Easley and boys. Craig Easley of Kilgore spent the weekend with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Easley, Tim and John. Tammie Case, Ryan and Rachel visited Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Hare in Sulphur Springs also visiting were Tina Jagers and children and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howell of Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown enjoyed Canton Trade Days Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Reed, Kristie, Jackie and Mitzi of Dufson, LA are home visiting Mrs. Melba Reed this week.

As the time approached to board, my nerves settled somewhat as we saw the plane being loaded with our luggage and all the necessities we needed for the flight, lots of fuel, in case we crash somewhere, plenty of food, wrapped in small, very small, aluminum containers. But did they have Dr. Pepper? No. They had the right one baby! Pepsi! And they say Dr. Pepper is made from prune juice! HaHa! Anyway, I'm straying from my story. They call seats and everyone boards the plane through a large enclosed ramp. It really looks like an inchworm because they can expand to various lengths and it's the same color as one. I am very brave and Jim assures me that he has flown many times and everything is going to be fine. Yea, right! We take our seats and are buckling our seat belts and everything is still okay. The stewardess enlightens us on what to do in case of...you know...small emergencies like crashing, you may need oxygen, perhaps a life vest. What about a parachute! Why did I do this?

At this point and time they decide to land and then we feel like we are (I speak only for myself when I say "we") sliding forward. "Oh, look," everyone says, "there's Las Vegas!". As we land, we bounce a couple of times (maybe not that hard) and come to a stop. I begin to get up and am told to sit down that we can't get off the plane yet. We are early and there are two planes in front of us that have to empty. We move on down the runway and I wonder could we have driven this plane here? I am assured by Jim that we could not and he says "Now that wasn't so bad, was it?" No, on the way back, four days later, we hit turbulence, remind me to tell you about that. Oh, and while we were there, we were in an earthquake and one aftershock. Naa! No problem, I just slept through them.

The engine starts up, if that's what the term is. I don't hear any odd sounds, but then the only times I have ever heard a plane is when we look up in the backyard and say "hey kids, there's a big jet!" As we slowly start our way down the runway, I think well, this may not be so bad after all. Famous last words. We are taking off and I am getting worried. What was it everyone says about chewing gum? I needed gum or something and everyone says look out the window and oohs and aahs! I couldn't even turn my head, I was literally scared to death. I really thought I was going to faint. My head started to buzz and I got weak and where did she say that little bag was? I had this sensation of goin' guphill and was told that yes, we were gaining altitude. Really, how far did we have to go up just to go from Texas to Nevada? Finally, we leveled off. I really think it was Arizona, but Jim says we were still in Texas. The pilot comes on and says to unbuckle your seat belt and welcomes us to the wonderful world of flying. If you look in this direction you can see Lubbock and in this direction, oh look, there's New Mexico. No thanks, but I don't think I can turn my head. Well, we must have had a real smart-alec for a pilot, because when we got over the Grand Canyon, he decided we needed a closer look and did a little dive. I'm thinking I hope they packed enough food for us to live on until they can find us.

Jerry Dodd Graduates from Air Force

Cadet Jerry Dodd became Second Lieutenant Jerry Dodd in a commissioning ceremony on May 27 at Arnold Hall in Colorado. He was commissioned by Lt. Col. Roger A. McFarland of the United States Air Force. His parents, Jerry and Susan Dodd of Lovington, pinned his gold bars and his brother James witnessed the ceremony.

The Graduation ceremony was postponed until 12 noon at Falcon Stadium because of the late arrival of U. S. Vice President Dan Quayle who presented the graduation address. He had to land in Pueblo, Colorado because of inclement weather. Confering of degrees and presentation of commissions was by Vice-President Quayle.

"The National Anthem and "The Air Force Song" were played by the Air Force Academy Band. Presentation of graduates was under the direction of Brigadier General Ruben A. Cubero, dean of the faculty and the oath of office was administered by Maj. Gen Joseph J. Redden, Commandant of Cadets of the USAF Academy.

An aerial demonstration by the USAF Thunderbird Team was canceled because of the rain and low visibility.

Second Lieutenant Dodd was one of 28 cadets from squadron 10. His brother, James, on escort duty, handed his brother his diploma.

Second Lieutenant Dodd is the grandson of Blanton and Bonnie Gage of Talco; Faye Faulkenburg of Jothtown and Jerry Dodd of Bogata.

The former Lovington resident will be assigned to civil engineering, Beale Air Force Base, in California.

Build in energy savings from the ground up

From insulated floors to ventilated attics, the energy-saving systems in a Good Cents home control your energy costs and keep your home comfortable year-round. You can also take comfort in the fact that these systems can make your home more attractive if you decide to sell. As an added incentive, Texas-New Mexico Power Company is offering rebates of up to $500 when you build a Good Cents home. To learn more about benefits you'll enjoy now and later when you buy a Good Cents home, call your nearest TNP office.

KRISTI CLEMMONS will be the new sixth grade teacher at Bogata Junior High. Kristi and her husband, Craig and daughter Kayla, live in Talco. She is a graduate of Rivercrest and her family attends the Calvary Baptist Church in Talco. Craig is active with the Talco Fire Department and Rescue Unit. Kristi is very excited about the coming year and is preparing daily for her students. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Foxworthy of Talco and the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Clemmons of Talco. (Staff Photo by Nancy Brown)

VIRGINIA SPENCER will be the new Rivercrest School secretary replacing Lillian Taylor, who retired this year. Virginia and her husband Othal and girls Emily, a Rivercrest sophomore, Amber, an eighth grader and Bailie, 4 year old, are Bogata residents. Virginia served as Tax Assessor-Collector at Rivercrest for eight years. She is looking forward to her new job and the coming year. (Staff Photo by Nancy Brown)

Johntown News

By Jana Hawkins

We apologize for leaving out the Johntown News last week. We have included last week's items in this week's column. Don't forget to call Jana Hawkins at 632-5174 with your Johntown News, or turn in news to Donna Rozell at the Bogata Office at 632-5322.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hawkins spent Monday in Sulphur Springs visiting Mr. and Mrs. Coy Vicars and enjoyed lunch together at Western Sizzlin.

Mrs. Gene Hawkins visited Mr. and Mrs. Jess Morris in Clarksville Thursday while there they also enjoyed a visit with Sharla, Matt and Misti Simmons.

Visiting Lucille Childers Saturday was Tony and Amber Combst, Ashley and Kerry Hendricks of Halsville.

Coy and Lisa Allen of Negley visited Lucille Childers Monday.

Enjoying an overnight trip to Beavers Bend last week were Myra Jean, Donald, Freda Mitchell and Sarah Jean, Drue, Billie, Lana and Clay Pirtle, Billy Jordan of Bogata, Vance Pirtle of Daingerfield and Holly Jean of Paris.

Mark, Jana, Haley, Heath Hawkins enjoyed a four day weekend in Arkansas visiting his grandmother, Doris Hickam, brother Randy Hawkins, family and other family members.

While there they enjoyed horse back riding, shopping and on Sunday they attended services at the Green Hill Community Baptist Church.

Doug and Robbie Hawkins came up on Friday night for the weekend.

Treasure your time. Have a nice weekend!
