Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

Well, January is here, and 1994 is a hard date for me to write. I get the "94" written about half the time, then my mind lapses and I go back to 1993. In a few weeks my mind will have made the transition and I'll be locked into the new year more firmly.

My mind isn't firmly locked into anything right now, I don't think. It is wavering and not wanting to "buckle down" after all the upset in routine during the holidays.

And, to cap it off, Thomas and I flew down to the coast last week and had a lovely little visit and min-vacation with my cousin and aunt and uncle.

They take a condo at Port Isabel every winter, and avoid the snowy winters of Amarillo or Tulsa, Oklahoma.

They kindly invite us down every year, and it doesn't take over one invitation for us to accept!

On the way home I was trying to decide what the nicest part of this little break was.

Of course, the trips into Mexico were nice. We brought back at least half of the national product of that country...rain sticks, ironwood carvings, peanuts.

Then, there was the seafood, fresh caught shrimp, just-shucked oysters, delectable crab meat.

There were the walks on the windy beaches, searching for shells or starfish. But best of all, I think, was just the chance to get away for three full days. I don't MIND the routines...I enjoy my work and Thomas enjoys his.

I don't mind cleaning or cooking or feeding the cats, dogs and Thomas enjoys feeding the cattle, ducks and geese. But...its just nice to not have to do it for a little while.

It's nice to not have to attend to the dozens upon dozens of little things required at the papers, or to attend to the dozens and dozens of little things that make up daily life.

And, on this little get-away reality just took a hike and we existed briefly in a pleasant, slow-paced world of waves and sand, and pleasant company!

I strongly recommend it as a cure for the winter doldrums, exhaustion or irritability.

If you have good folks to go visit...try it, or if you don't perhaps it is possible to pack up and just leave town for two or three days? And, failing that...just tell old reality to take a hike anyway! Read a good book and let routine wait...get a few good movies and spend a whole day just watching them, indulging yourself!

It's a good time to do this type of thing...so take a reality break and enjoy!

Miss Mae Williams,
Celebrating 100th Birthday

Mae Williams Is 100 Years Old

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Waddell was the setting for the birthday party held January 8 for Miss Mae Williams, who celebrated her 100th birthday.

She was born in Mira, LA in 1894 and is the sister of Mrs. Waddell and has lived in her home for 40 years. She is the second in a family of 12 children. Five are still living and all were present at the celebration.

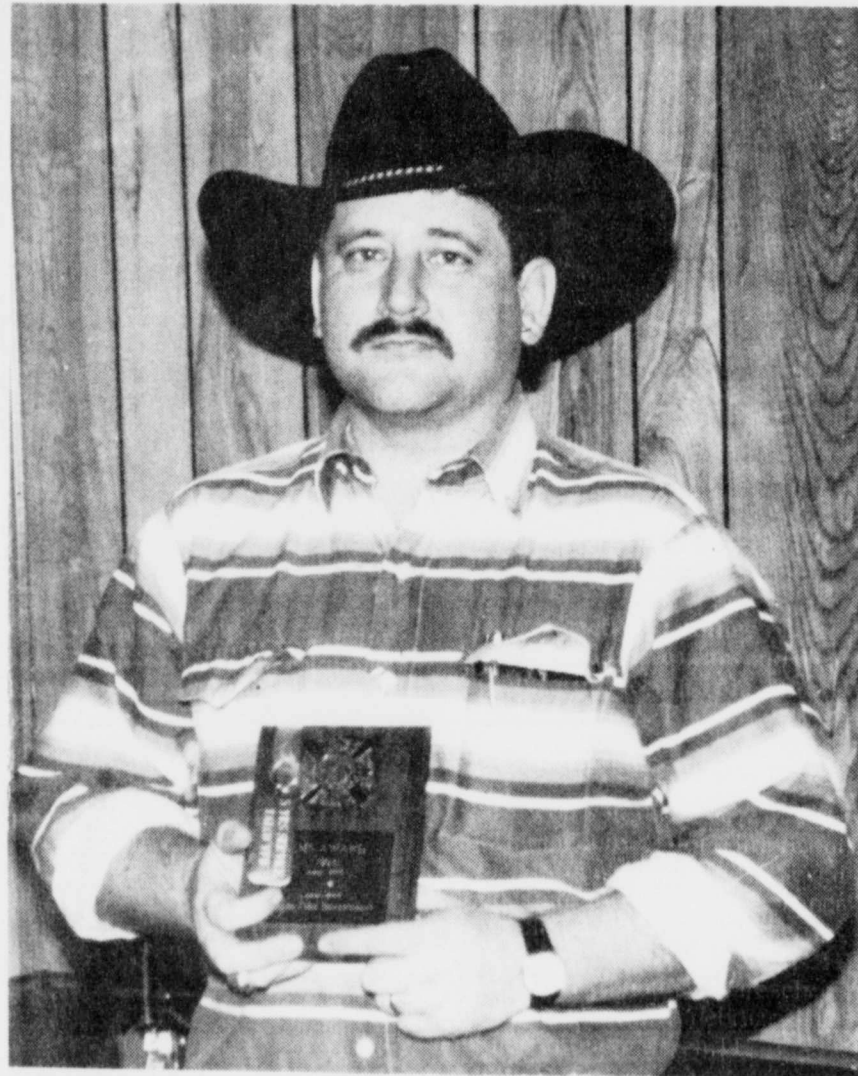

Twenty-five relatives enjoyed the day with her, bringing baskets of fruit, flowers and gifts. A large, beautifully decorated cake was made by a friend in West Monroe, LA.

Lost of pictures were taken and movies made and many remembrances were enjoyed by all.

December Notices Delayed, Will Be Sent Soon

If you think you may have needed to renew your subscription in December, but haven't received notice yet, we will be sending them very soon. We are a little behind here at the newspaper. YOU won't miss a paper, so don't worry.

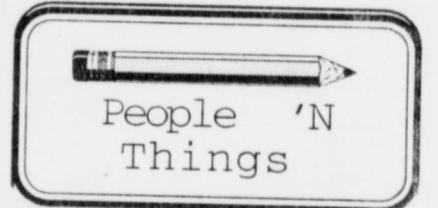

After the holiday rush, the person who usually does circulation in the computer became ill and has been out for several weeks now. During that time we have had to train another person to work on the circulation program, since the rest of us do not have time.

If you have turned in an address change or are a new subscriber, all of that should have been taken care of this week.

We apologize for our slowness in notifying our December subscribers, but again, your notices will be stamped on your newspaper VERY SOON.

We thank you for your patience.

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

People think I am not working with all my faculties, but the most relaxing thing I can think of to do is to get into the kitchen and cook. I don't like to cook things way ahead of time, because I work on them so much and keep adding to them that by the time we are ready to eat them they aren't fit to eat. It's also important for me to have most of the ingredients I need. I can make a few substitutions, but there are just some things you should not have to "make do" without. One of those things is flour. I made cornbread many years ago, and I didn't have any flour. I know that many people do not use much flour in cornbread, but I don't want mine to be so coarse, so I use more flour. I was able to make some pretty decent flour by crushing saltine crackers. I don't recommend this except in an emergency, but it served the purpose. I am looking for a cornbread recipe that uses grits. I am also looking for a recipe for a gelatin salad which had yogurt in it. I desperately need some recipes in which you can use the equal sugar substitute. Any help would be appreciated. Have a good week. Blossom Folks???

Energy Savings Flow When You Save Hot Water.
You can turn on energy savings with these few easy steps to reduce the amount of hot water you use:
• Keep your water heater set at 120° to 140°. If you have a dishwasher, check the manual to see if it recommends any water temperatures.
• Use less hot water. Wash clothes in cold or warm water and use cold water rinses. A low-flow shower head will also reduce water use. Remember, too, that small leaks add up to big waste.
• Use water heater insulation, especially on heaters that are located in unconditioned areas of the house.

A Note from the Editor:

People in the Bogata area are still having problems with vandalism to their rural mailboxes. The local law enforcement officers should be contacted for this problem. If a person is caught committing this crime, and found guilty, it is a federal crime. Even though it is a federal crime, it must first be investigated through local law officers.

Flu Takes Toll On East Texas Blood Supply

The East Texas blood supply has reached an emergency level due to the Beijing flu. A nationwide blood shortage has made it extremely difficult for all blood centers. Stewart Regional Blood Center typically experiences holiday shortages, but this year has been extremely low. Donations usually increase after New Year's Day, but due to colds and the flu, they have not. "If the supply does not improve immediately, the East Texas area will be facing a very dangerous situation," said Bill Grimes, President and C.E.O. of Stewart Regional Blood Center.

A high incidence of colds and the flu in the area has caused several blood drives to cancel. "Businesses have had to cancel blood drives because their employees are out with the flu. Drives that have been going out have collected much less than expected," said Grimes. Stewart Regional Blood Center supplies blood to 40 hospitals in 26 East Texas counties.

All healthy persons 17 or older are urged to donate blood at Stewart Regional Blood Center in Paris, located at 3715 Lamar Avenue (Chisum Square). The center is open Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

For more information, call the blood center at (903) 785-9399.

Genealogists To Hold Seminar

The Genealogical Society of North-east Texas is pleased to announce an exciting seminar entitled "The World of Genealogy" featuring nationally known genealogist Ron Bremer of Salt Lake City, Utah. This event will take place on Thursday, January 20, 1994 in the outreach building of the Lamar Avenue Church of Christ, 3535 Lamar Avenue, in Paris, from 7:00 p.m. until 9 p.m., on the north-west side of the building.

Born and raised in Southern California, Mr Bremer now has an office near the Family History Library in Salt Lake City. He is the author of The Compendium of Historical Sources. Mr. Bremer has personally visited the major genealogical record centers in every state and province in North America.

He averages five seminars a week and travels about sixty-thousand miles a year. He is presently one of the most popular and sought after genealogical speakers in the country. His ability to answer questions from the audience makes his seminars more personal, and frequently he is able to help each individual in attendance. He seldom uses a microphone and is in constant demand as a motivational speaker. His lectures are not only most informative but also very entertaining.

"The World of Genealogy" seminar will contain information for both the beginner and the more advanced. Topics include: Introduction and Organization, Speeding up your Genealogy, Little Known Sources, Research by Correspondence, Solving Stone Wall Problems, Contacting Collateral Cousins, Courthouse to the Outhouse, Attic Archaeology, and Questions and Answers.

All those attending are encouraged to come prepared to discuss their genealogical research problems! Refreshments will be served. Arrive early for good seating.

For more information, please call the Genealogical Society of North-east Texas library at 903-784-9448 between 12:00 and 4:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

The Braschler Music Show will be presented in Mt. Pleasant at the Titus County Civic Center on January 21 at 7:30 p.m. The show is being sponsored by the Titus County Sheriff's Department. The show is not your typical country show. With its wide variety, there is something of enjoying for everyone. There are country and gospel tunes, featuring solos as well as a quartet, a trio and some five part harmony. The band backs up the group or drums, piano, guitar, fiddle, mandolin and banjo, but a fast paced instrumental features the somewhat unique additions of harmonica, trumpet saxophone and the kazoo. For ticket information, call (903) 572-9808, 572-6641, 572-7320. Price of tickets is $10.00 advance and $12.00 at the door, children 7 to 12 $3.00.

Final 1994 Upland Cotton Acreage Reduction Announced

Secretary of Agriculture, Mike Espy, announced that the acreage reduction percentage for 1994 crop upland cotton will be 11 percent. This is a 6.5 percentage point reduction from the preliminary level announced on November 1 and reflects tightened 1993 crop supplies resulting from a reduction in estimated U.S. and foreign cotton production in 1993. Espy said that the 11 percent acreage reduction for 1994 is projected by USDA to be the level which most closely conforms with applicable statutory requirements regarding the maintenance of a desirable end-of-year stock level. The announced upland cotton acreage reduction percentage is lower than the preliminary level, so upland cotton producers in "early planting areas" will not be unfairly disadvantaged by

To Avoid a Cold

There is one practical step that can minimize your chances of catching—or spreading—the common cold: Wash your hands.

Colds are not spread as readily by sneezing and coughing as by contact of mucous membranes with nasal discharge: for example, wiping a child's nose, throwing away the tissue and then rubbing your eye will expose you to the cold virus. Wash-

Keeping Healthy

Rosacea

Frigid temperatures and biting winds may cause a significant increase in rosacea. A form of adult acne that can result in permanent skin damage, it is now affecting growing numbers of baby boomers.

In its mildest form, rosacea consists of a subtle redness appearing from the middle of the forehead to the tips of the nose and chin. As the disease progresses, inflammation and reddening of the eyes may appear.

Rosacea, which typically strikes people in their 30's and 40's, is often ignored because it tends to recede for a period of time, leading patients to believe that dermatological treatment is unnecessary. However, without treatment, the condition may worsen and cause permanent damage to the facial skin.

People who believe they may have rosacea should see a dermatologist for a specific diagnosis, follow the prescribed treatment and remember to use moisturizers everyday.

District 17 AA Basketball Starts Friday At Honey Grove

The Rivercrest Rebels will begin defense of their district 17AA crown Friday Night at Honey Grove. There will be 3 games. B Boys at 5 p.m. followed by Varsity Girls and then Varsity Boys.

In the 91-92 season, the Rebels were outright district champs of Dist. 17AA, having lost only 1 game that was a 1 point loss to Honey Grove at Honey Grove. In the 92-93 season, the Rebels also lost one game and that was to Honey Grove at Honey Grove. However, Honey Grove lost only one game in district and so the Rebels and Warriors were co-champions. The Rebels and Warriors both won their bi district games. Rivercrest lost in area to the eventual state champions Troup. Honey Grove advanced to Regionals before losing out in the state playoffs at the regional tournament in Tyler.

Honey Grove has their team basically the same from last year. The Rebels lost Reggie Alford and Dean Tiffie by graduation. Micquail Jackson moved to Dallas, and Kyle Kennedy was lost to the season due to back surgery.

Coach Wood said, "We are really missing Kyle Kennedy. He is about 6'4", and we were really counting on him to be a big factor in rebounding. Kyle is just a great competitor and we miss that spirit. Micquail would have helped our depth and he is a very effective low post player. Our players have responded very well to the adjustments we have had to make. We are not talking about winning or losing. We just try to execute our offense and defense to the best of our ability."

"I look for the district to be tougher than ever. Wolfe City is very strong. Chisum and Prairiland are young and getting better every time they play. Cooper is to get a good player eligible at mid term. Honey Grove and Rivercrest are the favorites to repeat in the playoffs, but anybody is capable of beating anyone else. We will just have to play hard and hope the season works out like we want it to."

JV Lady Rebs Play Tournament

The Rivercrest Lady Rebel JV traveled to Prairiland for tournament play Saturday, Jan. 8th.

The team began play vs. Prairiland and obviously were not quite awake and ready to play ball. The Lady Pats rolled right past the Lady Rebs with a half-time score of 20-3. The Lady Rebs presented no contest in the final half of the game, and the Lady Pats easily took the win 41-9.

Scoring for the Lady Rebs were Julie Lawings, Norma Jasso and Jaime Swarts.

The next game of the day was played vs. Chisum. The Lady Rebs made a much better showing for themselves vs. the Lady Mustangs. First quarter action saw the two teams tied at 6-6. The Lady Rebs fell behind 15-17 to end the first half. Third quarter action saw Michelle Savage go to the board for the Lady Rebs to score 11 points.

The third quarter ended with the Lady Rebs trailing 28-20. The fourth and final quarter saw the Lady Rebs fail to net 8 free shots that could have carried them on to win. Final was 35-39 Lady Mustangs.

High scorer for the game was Michelle Savage with 11 points. Also scoring were Jaime Swarts - 4 points, Norma Jasso 6 points, Crystal Bell - 6 points, Julie Lawings - 7 points, and Misty Rodden - 1 point.

Young Rebels Fall

The Rebel JV and 9th grade teams combined to play the Clarksville Tigers JV at Rivercrest Monday, Jan. 10, with just the opposite outcome of Friday night's game.
The Rebels held a 16-10 lead over the Tigers at the end of the first quarter and fell behind one point by the half-25-26.
The third quarter was the killer for the team. Missed lay-ups and a generally cold Rebel team saw the Tigers take and keep control of the game. A strong effort by Eric Waller in the fourth quarter helped the team stay in semi-range. Waller was high-point man for the team, scoring 13 points. The Tigers maintained a 19-point spread to win the game, Final-70-51.
Scoring for the Rebels were Jack Brown - 6 points, Steven Thomas - 6 points, Eric Martin - 7 points, Jay Hancock - 4 points, Toddy Barker - 4 points, Clint Gage - 6 points, and Mitch Ellis - 5 points.

9th And JV Skin Tigers

The young men of the Rivercrest Rebel 9th grade basketball team set the pace for the Rebel teams Friday, January 7, vs. Mt. Vernon at Rivercrest.
A 38-11 half-time score for the Reb team was the start to the evening's wins. Aaron Martin finished as high-point man for the team with 23 points, followed by Alvin Savage with 20 points. The young Tigers simply could not stop the rolling Rebs. Final was 64-24 Rebels. Also scoring were Clint Gage - 6 points, Todd Barker - 7 points, Dru Denison - 4 points, and Mitch Ellis - 2 points.
The Rebel JV, made up of six players, faced a full bench of Tigers and fell behind in the first quarter, 20-16. By the half, the Rebs had come to life, ending with a 42-29 Rebel lead. Jack Brown posted 23 points to finish as high-point man for the JV. He was followed by Eric Waller with 16 points, and Jay Hancock with 15 points. Before the final buzzer, the Rebs had three players on the edge with four fouls each. A. J. Lee, Eric Waller, and Steven Thomas played a touch-me-not fourth quarter in order to finish on the floor. All three boys did a fine job. Also scoring were Sedrick Cuellar - 1 point, A. J. Lee - 8 points, Steven Thomas - 8 points. Final 71-62.

Rebels Blast Mt. Vernon On Friday Night

The Rivercrest Rebels continued their winning ways Friday night with a convincing 75-39 victory over the AAA Mt. Vernon Tigers.
The Rebels were never seriously challenged as they jumped out to an 18-3 1st quarter lead and coasted throughout the game. The victory improved the Rebels record to 15-6 for the season.
Four players scored in double figures for the Rebels. Jerry Francis pumped in 17 points, Elliot Pogue had 16 points in his first role as a starter, while Eddie Williams and Clay Pirtle each had 15 points. The Rebels had 18 steals against Mt. Vernon as Clay Pirtle led in that category with 7. The Rebels had a total of 37 rebounds with Elliot Pogue leading the way in rebounding with 12 rebounds. The Rebels had a team total in assists of 25. Jeff Savage, a freshman guard, led in assists with 9.

Coach Woods comments, "We did not play a great game. However when your team has 25 assists out of a total of 30 field goals, this means you are playing team ball. A lot of our success can be accounted for because we play good together as a team."

Rebels 70- Clarksville Tigers 59

The Rivercrest Rebels upset the #12 state rated AAA Clarksville Tigers Monday night. The Rebels entered the game underdogs to the strong AAA team from Clarksville. A strong 1st quarter by the Rebels shocked Clarksville and the Red River County neighbor could not overcome the tough play of the Rebels. Eddie Williams was the big gun for the Rebels as he burned the nets for 11 first quarter points and finished the game with 27 points along with 10 rebounds, 5 assists and two blocked shots. Jerry Francis added tremendously to the Rebel cause with 20 big points and good floor play. Clay Pirtle had key three pointers for the Rebels as he came up with a total of 15 points. Mike McGee still recovering from the flu had 6 points and continues to show improvement each game. Elliot Pogue had a good floor game, key rebounds and assists to strengthen the Rebels overall. Andy Speir came up with a key defensive play as he drew the charge on the Clarksville team. Coach Woods commented, "We probably played our best offensive game of the year. Our defense was lacking. I thought. We did not block out well. We let Clarksville really hurt us inside rebounding. We also left Clarksville open for too many unguarded three point shots. We simply must get better on defense. We will have to work hard to improve our defense. On the positive side, I was glad to see Eddie Williams take control early. Eddie tried to go to the goal more and he really controlled the game for us early. Elliot Pogue and Mike McGee are really beginning to help our rebounding game. Clay Pirtle and Jerry Francis are shooting the ball well. Andy Speir and Jeremy Weatherall give us very good bench support. Jeff Savage, our freshman point guard really helps our team fit together. Jeff is leading the team in assists."

The next game for the Rebels will be at Honey Grove Friday Night in the district opener for both teams.

If It's Too Late Don't Vaccinate Heifers

State veterinarian Terry Beals is polishing a well-worn bullet used in the war against cattle brucellosis. "Simply put," he tells cattle producers and veterinarians, "If it's too late, don't vaccinate."

"For years, in the battle against brucellosis, we've urged ranchers to have female calves vaccinated to build disease resistance. I still encourage this practice, but I'm campaigning against vaccinating heifers that are too old or are already pregnant," explained Dr. Beals. He is executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC), the state's livestock health regulatory agency.

During fiscal year 1993, ranchers had about a third of Texas heifers vaccinated to protect them against brucellosis. This bacterial infection can cause cows to abort, deliver weak calves or produce less milk.

National and state livestock regulations allow female calves to receive the calfhood vaccination when they are four to 12 months old. Dr. Beals noted that, for best results, heifers should receive the one-time injection when they are between four and eight months old. Because the Strain 19 vaccine contains "live" bacteria, its use is restricted to trained veterinarians. In all but the few counties where the TAHC is conducting area or county-wide brucellosis testing, ranchers pay for the vaccination.

When over-aged heifers are vaccinated, the Strain 19 vaccine interacts unpredictably with the heifers immune system and reproductive system. This can wreak havoc when the animal matures and is tested for brucellosis. Even with our sophisticated, computerized laboratory equipment, the cow can have false-positive blood test results," he said. Dr. Beals estimates that more than half the cows with the false positive brucellosis tests were vaccinated when they were pregnant or over 12 months.

When cattle test positive for brucellosis infection, we trace them back to their herd--and all the animals undergo a blood test. Usually we find that the herd isn't infected; the test results were due to vaccine given to over-aged or pregnant heifers. Even so, the rancher had to gather the cattle for the test," said Dr. Beals. "Properly timing the vaccines can save the headache."

"Today 25 states don't require arriving heifers to be calfhood vaccinated. This includes Kansas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma--states where many Texas cattle are shipped. A few years ago, when Brucellosis infection was rampant, nearly every state required incoming female cattle to the vaccination. That resulted in many heifers being vaccinated haphazardly, to meet the entry requirements," Beals explained.

"Female calves coming into Texas when they are four to twelve months old still are required to be vaccinated," explained Beals. "But TAHC commissioners recently dropped rules requiring incoming female cattle older than twelve months to get the reduced adult dose of vaccine. This also will help reduce the incidence of false-positive tests."

"Texas has only 158 brucellosis-infected herds, and we're nearly ready to join 17 other Class "A" states with a very low infection rate. Thirty-two states have no brucellosis infection. The chance of cattle being exposed to brucellosis has dropped greatly. The problems caused when over-aged heifers are vaccinated won't be offset by the protection provided," he said. "A U.S. Department of Agriculture study indicates only 60 to 130 of every 100,000 cattle may be exposed to infection."

"If unvaccinated adult cows in a herd are threatened by brucellosis, we can target these animals with the use of adult vaccination. This highly reduced dose for older animals is administered only by TAHC or USDA veterinarians when there is a clear risk of disease exposure," explained Dr. Beals. "Product vaccine use and proper timing can prevent false-positive brucellosis tests. I urge producers and veterinarians to remember--if it's too late, don't vaccinate."
