by Mary Ann Sarchet

Due to the volume of Bicentennial Celebration news in last week's paper, some cards of thanks and important local news items were omitted from print. We are using these this week just as they were set up for last week's paper. Please keep in mind that the days mentioned are from last week.

Jeremy Hester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Hester, had the misfortune of cutting himself Sunday morning when he ran his hands through a glass storm door. He was taken to Swisher Memorial Hospital by the Silverton Volunteer Ambulance Service for some stitches.

Mrs. Lucille Eddleman and Mark returned to Amarillo Monday. They have been helping their daughter and sister, Mrs. Gary (LaDora) Rowell since she returned home following surgery at M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston June 7, and have been staying in Amarillo to be near their son and brother, Charles Eddleman, who was seriously burned June 13, and is still receiving treatment at St. Anthony's Hospital. He received first, second and third degree burns on his face, ears, neck, and to his waist when an irrigation engine backfired and threw burning gasoline on him on the Joe Montague farm where he had been working since receiving his discharge from the Army.

Another daughter of Mrs. Eddleman, Mrs. Freddie (Patsy) Stockton of Estelline, is receiving treatment at M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston every 14 days, and returned to Houston Tuesday. Mrs. Rowell will return to Houston July 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ledbetter met their son and family, Dr. and Mrs. Don Ledbetter, Debbie, Donna and Daniel, of Elko, Nevada at Morieta, New Mexico Friday, June 18, for a weekend of visiting with them and with Mr. and Mrs. Butch Langford and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledbetter have also spent a recent weekend visiting another son and family, Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Ledbetter and children in White Deer. Mr. and Mrs. Butch Langford and sons were also guests in the Ronald Ledbetter home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronny Vaughan, Rick Hutsell and Miss Paula Montague drove to California during spring break at Texas Tech. En route they visited Mr. and Mrs. Roger Harrison and son in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Mrs. Harrison is the former LaNell Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Stephens of Silverton, who graduated from Silverton High School with Mrs. Vaughan in 1972. Also enroute they stayed at the Grand Canyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Riddell C. Hutsell hosted a family dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan, Rick and Paula the day they arrived. Also present, in addition to Wayne, Ellen and Elliott Hutsell, were Miss Jan Hutsell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hutsell of Silverton, who is now residing in Santa Monica, California. Miss Montague returned to her home in Sunnyvale, California the same evening.

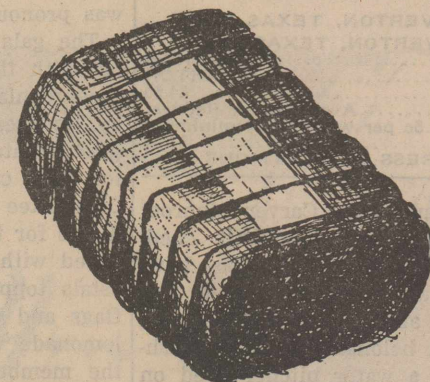

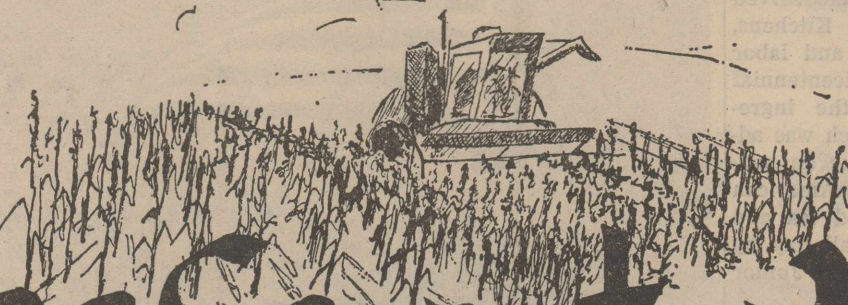

Points of interest visited during their 10-day visit included Ports O'Call, San Pedro, Olivera St., Farmers Market, Disneyland, Solvang, California, a quaint Danish community near Santa Barbara, San Juan Capistrano, and Old Town and Balboa Park in San Diego, with a visit also to Tijuana, Mexico. Ronny, Rick, Wayne and Riddell attended both a Dodgers and a Chicago White Sox baseball game. Mrs. Hutsell, Rick and Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan also enjoyed a Dionne Warwick and Isaac Hayes concert.

Both Pam and Rick are attending summer sessions at Texas Tech where Pam will be a senior this fall.

Bicentennial Celebration Was One To Be Long Remembered

Mrs. Marvin Montague, general chairman for the Bicentennial Celebration, received the first bite of birthday cake from Mrs. Joe Kitchens, who created the 100-pound red, white and blue cake. The cake was topped with two American flags and an eagle, and the top layer had the lettering "With Liberty and Justice for All," around it.

Clubs Invited To Sponsor Girls

Local clubs are invited to sponsor unmarried girls between the ages of 14 and 21 in the 1976 Rodeo Queen Contest. The girl who sells the most tickets to the Silverton Young Farmers Rodeo will be declared the winner and will be presented on Saturday night, August 14, at the rodeo. Girls who will be candidates for rodeo queen are asked to furnish billfold size pictures of themselves and a list of their activities, accomplishments, special interests and hobbies. Each queen candidate and a member of her sponsoring organization are asked to meet with the rodeo chairman at The Coffee Shop at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, July 24, to finalize plans for the contest and receive her tickets.

County 4-H Dress Revue Being Held Today At Quitaque

Judging in the junior and senior divisions of the Briscoe County 4-H Dress Revue will begin at 9 o'clock this morning (Thursday, July 8) at the Community Center in Quitaque. The public viewing will begin at 8:00 p.m. Theme of this year's Dress Revue is "The Blooming Styles of Today."

According to County Extension Agent Linda Mullin, about 34 4-H girls are expected to participate. Photos in this issue were made by Gaston Owens of the Valley Tribune, Jack Robertson, Owllet editor, and Charles Sarchet of the Briscoe County News. Thanks to those who helped provide the pictorial review.

Choir To Have Family Picnic

The Briscoe County Bicentennial Choir and their families are invited to a weiner roast at the roadside park on Highway 86 between Silverton and Quitaque at 7:00 p.m. Monday, July 12. Each family is asked to bring its own picnic fixings. Books of the "I Love America" musical are to be autographed by the members of the choir. Mrs. Obra Watson was taken to Swisher Memorial Hospital in Tulia by the Silverton Volunteer Ambulance Service about 9:30 p.m. Saturday. Mrs. Watson was suffering with a case of flu and was quite ill, but was able to return to her home early this week. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McWilliams, Trey and Mike of Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Larry McWilliams and Lori of Midland, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ray McWilliams and Dee of Lub-

What a wonderful day the Fourth of July was for the people of Briscoe County, their families and friends! The Bicentennial Celebration was everything it had promised to be, enjoying the cooperation of people from all over the county and the weather, which had appeared threatening early in the day. The activities kicked off Saturday with the raising of a huge tent to provide shade. A special prayer service was held at midnight Saturday, attended by about 100 people of all faiths, all races. Among those on the program were Earl Cantwell, Ted Kingery, O. C. Rampley, Joe Gallington, and the meeting was closed with a prayer in Spanish by Johnny Asebedo. Sunday's activities began after services in all the churches with an old-fashioned barbecue lunch served in the Silverton School Cafeteria by Briscoe County Home Demonstration Clubwomen. At 1:00 p.m., bells and sirens of the community were rung for five minutes. At the same hour, the President of the United States was ringing a bell on the carrier "Forrestal," and bells, including the Liberty Bell, were ringing all over the United States of America. At 4:00 p.m., the United States and Bicentennial flags were presented, and Briscoe County Judge M. G. Moreland, master of ceremonies, led the Pledge of Allegiance. The invocation was given by Earl Cantwell, and the welcome was given by O. R. Stark, jr. It was estimated that the crowd numbered in the neighborhood of 600, with people there from Leveland, Snyder, Dalhart, Midland, Brownfield, Turkey, Quitaque, Silverton, Iowa, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tulia, Lubbock, Idalou, Amarillo, San Angelo, Plainview, Stratford, and other cities. The patriotic musical, "I Love America," was performed by the 40-voice Briscoe County Bicentennial Choir under the direction of Elgin Conner. Soloists were Donna Brown, Mary Stark, Becky Francis, Mary Ann Rauch, Mabry Greenhaw and Zeldia Leeper. The speaker was Roye Pigg, and there was narration by Terri Ramsey, John Francis and Mary Ann Rauch. Bennie Brown was guitarist and Elaine Stout was pianist. Judging of beards at 5:00 p.m. was by two Briscoe County pioneer ladies, Mrs. Cass Fowler and Mrs. Edna Taylor. They selected Doug Forbes, best character portrayal; Danny Green, best beard, and John Francis, grotiest beard. The ladies stated that judging the beards was very difficult because there were so many good ones. Winner of the junior division of the fiddler's contest was Scott Garvin. In the senior division, the winner was Henry Lester of Ida lou. Exhibitors of quilts during the Bicentennial Celebration were Joni Mayfield, Mrs. Doc Conner, Charles Sarchet, Shirley Durham, Devona Smith, Mrs. Jack Sutton, Lois Hollingsworth, Mrs. Marvin Montague, Mrs. R. L. McKenney, Mrs. D. H. Davis, Mrs. Ruby McWaters, Mrs. L. H. McWaters, Ruth West, Gladys Steele, Margie Turner, Becky Francis, Mrs. Ware Fogerson, Nena Loudermilk, Mrs. J. W. Wofford, Mrs. H. C. Mercer, Mrs. R. C. Hutsell, Mrs. Jim Davis, Jane Cushing, James Davis, Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mrs. W. E. Morrison, Ruby Cushmanberry, Mildred McDaniel, Anna Mae Smith, Ida Clouch, Mrs. Florence Fogerson, Theta Holt. The "Court-house Square" quilt, the original design of which won second place and $500 for Mrs. D. H. Davis in a contest conducted recently by The Progressive Farmer magazine was arranged in a special display. Arts and crafts were displayed by Ellon Yoakum, Louise Vaughan, Janet Schrandt, Mike Montague, Carol Ann Turner, Christeen Gilbert, Austella Brown, Mary Stark, Cora Gragson, Nadine Mills, Margaret Smith, Mrs. Ware Fogerson, Carolyn Montague, Mrs. D. H. Davis, Rena Schott, Josephine Anderson, Maud McJimsey, Betty Price, Jealeta Baird, Ruby Lee Eddleman, Judy Morris, Neva Dale Morrison, Norlin Morrison, Anna Lee Anderson, Wylie Bomar, III, Josephine Johnston, Jackie Mercer and Mrs. Watson Douglas. Antique wagons were displayed by Jimmy Burson and Terry Bomar. Antique cars were exhibited by Johnny Asebedo, Dwight Rampley, Rex Holt and Paul Stout. Among the other antiques brought in for a one-day show were an 1890 brass usabada belonging to Lily Wafford; a hat pin holder, China sugar, creamer and coffee cups from the collection of Anna Lee Anderson; cutglass pitcher and glasses, chocolate set, cutglass pickle and relish dishes, painted plate, candlesticks, several See BICENTENNIAL—

Dr. Hoang Scheduled To Arrive Here First Of August

Briscoe County Clinic board has had contact with Dr. Hoang in the last few days. The Clinic Board and Dr. Hoang wish to make it clear as to the doctor's status when he arrives. Under present laws and regulations, Dr. Hoang will not be able to see and treat patients until such time as he receives his license. There are two or three tests that Dr. Hoang will be required to take and pass before he will receive his permanent license. The Clinic Board and Dr. Hoang do sincerely hope that the people of the community will realize the necessity of Dr. Hoang following the rules laid down by the State regarding what the doctor is able to do before he receives his license. At such time as the doctor is able to see and treat patients, public notice will be given.

Mrs. John (Jeannett) Herring, who lives between Silverton and Tulia and taught in Silverton High School for several years before retiring to begin her family, visited with several friends here last Thursday afternoon. She has been keeping a seven-month-old niece, Leah Herring, since Leah's family was involved in an automobile accident as they were returning to their home in Plainview following a family get-together at Tulia on Sunday, June 27. Leah's father, Robert Herring, and seven-year-old brother had been released from the hospital last week, her five-year-old brother was still receiving treatment for a badly injured leg. Leah's mother was thought to be improving at that time, but Saturday morning Shirley Herring's conditioned worsened and she died at Lubbock's Methodist Hospital. Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in Plainview Monday morning with Dr. Carlos McLeod officiating, and burial followed in Rose Hill Cemetery at Tulia. As far as is known here, John and Jeannett Herring will continue to keep Leah for awhile. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bridges and family of Levelland and Mrs. Barbara Perkins and children of Lubbock visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, and brother, Jim, over the weekend.

 pieces of silver, souvenir glass from the St. Louis World's Fair of 1902, 1912 child's chair, doll from the 1880's, 1913 and 1895 greeting cards, dark glasses and a carving set from the collection of Mr. and Mrs. Carver Monroe; a 125-year-old hand-knit bedspread, a 78-year-old cutglass bowl which was a wedding gift to her mother, and a 100-year-old bed chamber, belonging to Ruby Cushman; a water pitcher used on a merchant ship, pewter and silver which were in his mother's family, shown by W. E. (Bill) Cushing; handcuffs and 1892 badge which belonged to Briscoe County's first sheriff, Minor Crawford, China celery dish, earrings and a handwritten deed from Carroll Sears to Wm. Crawford executed in 1838, from the collection of Mrs. True Burson; a hand-spun and woven coverlet 100 years old belonging to Mrs. John Gill; a Stetson hat G. C. Holt bought in 1932, exhibited by Rex Holt; a cradle handmade by Alexander Merrell, a locket watch which belonged to her mother and a 1845 guerrilla picture, from the collection of Mrs. Jake Merrell.

Games for the children were directed by Briscoe County Senior 4-H Club members.

A picnic supper was spread at 6:00 p.m., with everything under the sun to eat, including a big pot of son-of-a-gun made by Clarice Douglas. The church service began about 7:30 p.m. The welcome was given by Earl Blair. Sid Parsley gave the invocation, and the hymn time was directed by Mrs. Shafe Weaver with Mrs. Bill Edwards at the piano. The scripture was read by Frank Roberson, and the sermon was given by Larry Wilson. The benediction was pronounced by Jesse Dea. The gala birthday party followed, with the red, white and blue Bicentennial birthday cake served by its creator, Carolyn Kitchens, who donated her time and labor for the cake. The Bicentennial Committee purchased the ingredients for the cake, which was adorned with a round cake on pedestals topped with two American flags and an eagle. Iced tea and lemonade were served all day by the members of L. O. A. Junior Study Club.

Several musicians provided vocal and instrumental music and after dark a fireworks display was ignited by members of the Silverton Fire Department and Silverton Young Farmers.

And finally, after midnight, when the tent was packed away and all the flags had been taken in, a group of bearded ones prevailed upon barber Boyd Bingham to open his shop. And there, past midnight, some of the beards were shaved off, giving a true old-time "Saturday night in town" appearance to the courthouse square.

Many have expressed the opinion that the Bicentennial Birthday Celebration was one of the really great things that has ever taken place in Briscoe County. For many, many years the people of Briscoe County have allowed the caprock to divide them geographically into two parts. During the planning and carrying out of plans for the Bicentennial Celebration, people from all parts of the county have worked together toward a common goal, and they have discovered that the only reason they weren't friends already was that they didn't know one another.

Mrs. Marvin Montague was the general chairman for the Celebration, and deserves a lot of credit for all the work she put into it. Even though she had said prior to the occasion that it was impossible to devise a schedule and stick to it, and that it would be necessary on some of it to "play it by ear," her efforts in coordinating the affair proved to be excellent. She has asked that her appreciation be expressed to everyone who took part in the celebration, those who took part in the church service, the committees for the exhibits, the musicians, the director of the musical and the singers, those who grew beards and wore pioneer costumes, the study club members who served cold drinks all day, the firemen and Young

Mary Stone and Bess McWilliams were pictured as the new Briscoe County flag was raised over the courthouse for the first time last week. The Briscoe County flag was provided by the Century of Progress Study Club, and flew with the American and Bicentennial flags over the Briscoe County Bicentennial Celebration Sunday. Briscoe County News Photo

Farmers who set off the fireworks, raised and lowered the tent—just everyone. "I am so afraid if I try to name the names of all those I'd like to say thank-you to that I'll overlook someone," she said. "Everyone was just great, and I want each one of you to know how much I appreciate you."

Mrs. Montague said she believes that the money donated for the celebration will be sufficient to pay all the bills, and if there is any money remaining after the bills are paid, she plans to divide it between the Quitaque and Silverton Lions Clubs to be used in the communities as those clubs see fit.

Mrs. Montague also has a few items which were left on the picnic tables: four spoons, a terry tablecloth, a relish dish and an earring.

A tempting offer on a gas grill.

Right now, we're making you a tempting offer on gas grills with twin burners! Independently controlled twin burners never use more gas than you need. For big meals, use both burners. For smaller meals, save gas and money by using one burner and half the grill. A gas grill adds a new dimension to family meals and entertaining. It eliminates the fuss and bother of cooking outside while it keeps the flavor and the fun. And, because you take cooking heat out of the house and the burden off your air conditioning, you save energy, too.

Buy one of these grills before August 1, 1976, and save.

Follow The Signs

Imagine yourself in a train depot in a foreign country, and the signs are in a language unfamiliar to you. You know that the signs are there to direct you, and you try to figure them out, but despite your best efforts you are not sure of your interpretation. The natural thing to do then, is to check with an attendant and have him explain things to you.

The Bible is a sign given to us, and directs us in a pathway of living. Interpreting these directions is not always easy, so the natural thing to do, should be to seek someone to help us. Our churches have many trained personnel who are familiar with the language of the Bible. Attend Church this week and follow God's way of life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Silverton Young Homemakers met Thursday, June 10, in the P. C. A. community room, with special guests, members of the Silverton Young Farmers and members of the summer home economics class.

Guest speaker was Dr. C. Gwin Morris, chairman, Division of Social Sciences at Wayland Baptist College. His topic was "The Bicentennial: A Year To Rediscover America."

Miss Tracy Gill gave the devotional which was a prayer from 200 years ago that Thomas Jefferson said about and for the nation.

Mrs. Wayne Stephens introduced Dr. Morris to the group. Discovery is an interesting thing, stated Dr. Morris. Let's take for example living with Columbus for days and days and nothing for ship but water. Then all of a sudden, land and America! The English colonies became less and less English and more and more American. These brave people carved a civilization out of a wilderness.

Following a delightful program, refreshments were served to Dr. Morris, Mrs. Coleman Garrison, Tracy Gill, Kim Hutsell, Colleen Hutsell, Lisa Younger, Becky Perkins and Beverly Boling.

Young Farmers present were Fred Hill, Wayne Stephens, G. W. Chappell, Tobe Riddell, Bailey Loyd, Clinton Dickerson, Jimmy Myers, Orville Turner, Fred Minyard, Steve Barbour and Calvin Shelton.

Young Homemakers present were Linda Minyard, Lois Hill, Debbie Barbour, Betty Stephens and advisor Kathy King.

You Can BANK on it!

The family farm could become a vanished specie if revisions in federal and state estate laws aren't made soon.

Outdated estate tax exemptions and an Internal Revenue Service provision which forces settlement of estate taxes within nine months after death are forcing hundreds of family farms out of existence.

Estate tax reform has become a prime issue on Capitol Hill, and a bill before Congress would raise the personal exemption to levels more realistic for today's farm valuations.

There are two basic courses a farm family can take: (1) form a corporation and distribute shares to the children ahead of time; (2) form a legal partnership which will guarantee that half of the farm belongs to the wife.

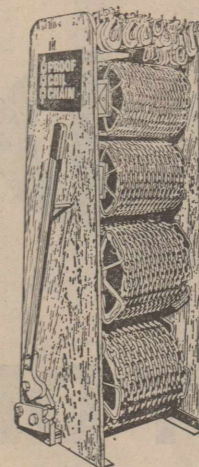

One thing a farm wife can do to help overcome estate tax problems is to document her contributions to capitalization of the farm so that she has proof that she helped operate and finance the business and was a true business partner.

Why lose what you have worked so hard to accumulate, when a little time and effort toward estate planning will save much of your investment.

Future Independence Requires Energy Independence!

social gains of the past several years will be meaningless.

To properly develop our own energy sources is a complex job that will take time and money...but it's a job that must be done. It can be done by private enterprise working with the blessing and the cooperation of our government.

You can help by just simply understanding the need because that's the first step in solving the problem...the more people who understand and appreciate the need, obviously, the easier will be the massive job.

This nation, now celebrating its 200th birthday of independence, must, if it is to enjoy future independence, develop its own sources of energy.

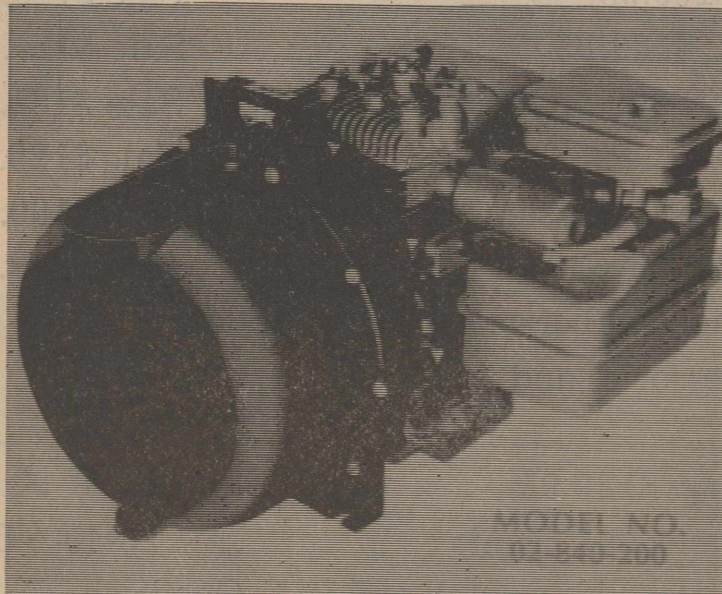

Militarily, economically, and socially, this nation's people must not be humbled by dependence on foreign oil cartels, friendly or unfriendly.

Without our own basic energy sources, we face the loss of jobs because it takes energy to move the factory wheels. Without our own basic energy sources, we are but putty in the hands of foreign militarists who would not hesitate to destroy us. Without our own energy sources, the

No segment of the economy has ever changed so fast and so completely as has agriculture during the past 60 years. When these changes have required capital, your Federal Land Bank has been a primary source of funds. There will be more changes. PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF '76

On May 28, 1986, I, Becky Francis, journalist for the nationally famous newspaper, "The Silverton Avalanche," am sent forth on a special assignment. I am to interview the president of Tumbleweed Toys Incorporated, Randy Clay. He is now the richest man on Earth and is estimated to be worth over ten billion dollars. It seems that today is his birthday and there is to be a big party. As I am approaching Mr. and Mrs. Tupin's house, I try to remember all of my class the way they were back in ole high school days. I am greeted at the door by a tall and handsome boy. Later I find out that this was Tegin Tupin, and he has been doing rather well lately. Not only was he all-state in football, but was chosen as Most Likely to Succeed by all the girls. As I enter the house, I find myself shaking hands with Mr. Tupin, who hasn't changed much except for a few gray hairs here and there. The next thing I know, I am sitting in the living room talking to Wendell and Nedra Hardin. It seems that they are having a slight argument over who is to cook breakfast in the morning. When I asked Wendell how things were going his way, he said that he was kept busy tending to his many oil wells, and chasing after their nine kids. Nedra divides her time between weight watchers and Women's Lib.

I leave Nedra and Wendell to go talk to Marilyn Asebedo. She has really changed since high school, and has been in demand lately. Ever since the equal rights business where men and women compete together as equals in sports, she has been playing professional basketball. She has a contract with the New York basketball team to play with Wilt Chamberlain and Nate Archibald. She is their secret weapon, and they use her to slip through those big guys and go for a bucket. The last I heard, the Dallas Cowboys were trying their best to get her signed up.

After I get Marilyn's autograph, I enter the kitchen where Mrs. Tupin is whipping up a batch of her secret recipe. She has become a chef for Pizza Planet, where they let her cook her well known "Spaghagna." Obviously it is a mixture of Spaghetti and Lasagna, but it looks like a large amount of . . . well, I don't really know. As Mrs. Tupin offers me a taste of her Spaghagna, Suzette comes up and tells about all of the green pet rocks that she had found in her pasture. She has a very active business selling them to tourists, and gets kicks out of teaching them to heel, sit and play dead. There seems to be a problem about their size. They seem to be a little bigger than most pet rocks, and they have a natural friendship for all of her horses. "If you want any pet rocks, just let me know!" Suzette said.

David Lewis walks in and says, "Who wants to get in on the Monopoly game before it starts?" "Clyde" as his ole Oregon buddies all call him, has just been nominated for one of the Ten Best Dressed Men of the Year. It seems that his suede overalls have become quite popular in Oregon. David is a rutabaga farmer during the day and a computer programmer at night. Suzette and I decide to go and see what is happening and I begin to look around for Randy Clay, but He has not arrived yet. As we go into the living room, we see that Debra Strange, New York model and part-time florist, is all excited and talking about her newest flower that she has developed. She has been working very hard during her spare time to come up with a plant like this. She crossed a snapdragon with a Venus flytrap. The outcome, she said, was a very "strange" plant. Not only does it look pretty, it eats all the flies that land on it. Before long, we were talking of all the possibilities of flowers. David was getting impatient with us and said, "Come on y'all, lets get this show on the road!" But we still can't play Monopoly without a few more people.

Up drove Ken Sarchet, Editor of "The Silverton Avalanche," in his four door chevy. We excused him for being late because as Ken said, "Since it was such a foggy night, I thought I would do my 'thing' across the courthouse lawn." I noticed he was still wearing his green shoes with the glowing-in-the-dark stripes down the sides. Still trying to convince us, he said, "I would've made it sooner, but I had to stop when I saw a bunch of kids throwing bricks at the highway signs. I had to show them the correct angle to go about it." For a part time hobby, Ken does ballet. His favorite piece to dance to is "Bohemian Rhapsody."

Next walks in Karen Childress, whoops! I mean Karen Hughes. A former stewardess, she fell in love with Howard Hughes' son. For a wedding present, they were given the state of Illinois where they turned it into one big sunflower seed farm. When I asked how they were doing, she said that they were doing quite well except for a few minor details. In confidence she told me that something keeps eating up their profit. She handed me a souvenir bag of sunflower seeds and I went over to talk to Kerri Arnold. "Punkin", as they call her in Las Vegas, now has her own show, and is doing quite well as an actress. We begin to set up the Monopoly board and start to play Monopoly. Everything was going just great when Ken landed on Debra's Park Place with four hotels. All that he could say was "How sweet." I was wondering how I was going to get out of jail without any money, and a certain person said that it was easy because he had learned how to climb the jailhouse. Everyone except David and Tammy went bankrupt. It seems that even now, David is a Monopoly wizard. Tammy, president of the Silverton Bank, knows the tricks of the trade. She turned a little country bank into one of the most famous banks of all time. People who once would take their money to Switzerland, now take it to Tammy's Bank. I asked her where she learned how to be such an efficient money manager and she said she learned it while she attended Angelo State University. Tammy still goes back down there during football season to be a cheerleader.

Ken went and changed to a t-shirt and is still wearing his old green shoes with glow-in-the-dark stripes down the side. His shoes have become quite popular lately and he put a patent on them and sold them to the latest rock and roll artists, a sub-division from the old group KISS, SMOOCH.

Our Monopoly game was getting boring, so we quit and retreated back into the kitchen to play poker and cards with Mrs. Tupin's matches. Ken is teaching us how to play Mexican Sweat, when we hear this cry, "Alright, who done it?" Suzette was keeping score on a pad of paper and someone whose initials I won't mention wrote "Suzette is a bird" on every single sheet of paper that she had. As usual, Suzette won with cards, but we notice something weird about her shirt sleeve. There is something peculiar about the shape of her shirt sleeve, but before we can say something, about all the missing aces in our deck of cards, Kerri shows some of the ways to make sure of getting a good hand. It seems that old Las Vegas has let some of the secrets slip. In walks Mrs. Tupin and says "Hi-lo! The Spaghagna won't be ready for a long time yet, because I froze it and it hasn't thawed out yet." I'm beginning to get worried that I won't get to interview Randy, when in walks Debra Roehr. Debra raises pet mice, and starts giggling when she tells of the latest catastrophe of one mouse named "Rouse," crawling out of her purse while she was at the beauty shop. She is planning to run for Sheriff since she won a school board election. Debra decides that she is thirsty and goes over to get a glass of water. Just before she takes a sip, her glass shatters. In walks Danna with a smile on her face. It seems that she has achieved the impossible. She can now go higher than any piano, and now due to her voice range, they are having to put out a new piano that can go as high as she. She is putting glass factories out of business by shattering all of the glass that they have. In the music world, she is known as Supre Singer, however, she is not praised so highly by glass factory owners.

Mrs. Tupin is about to serve the Spaghagna when in walks Brett. "I knew that y'all were fixing to eat. I could smell the food." So now Brett is here, commonly known as Coach Brett to all the West Texas State University students. But before he gets something to eat, he goes over to Tegin and asks him how he has been doing in all sports this year. He says that WTSU is on the lookout for an all around athlete. We are all eating our Spaghagna and salad, except for Nedra, and her diet won't allow it, and it is beginning to seem like old days again. Except it isn't the same. No, something very drastic is missing! Sherri and Jeanette aren't here. All of a sudden we hear a terrible crash. It sounds like someone was in a car wreck. We all rush outside to see what has happened and to our surprise . . . out jumps Sherri McJimsey from an old car. She is wearing a fireproof suit and crash helmet. She was just trying out her new funny car on Mrs. Tupin's tree. "Works pretty good, huh?" she says as she takes off her helmet. Sherri has received two Indianapolis 500 trophies and is now working on her Funny Car Queen trophy. From the other door comes Jeanette. She is now a very famous actress and does many commercials. Immediately she brings out her lighter and says, "With a flick of my Bic I'm beginning to feel sick." So we all take Jeanette inside and get her to tell us more about old show business. Jeanette also does commercials for Purina Cat Chow. "Without Suzette—one, two, cha cha cha, three, four, cha cha cha, I would've never made it." So after dinner, when everyone has finished, Marilyn passes out the alka seltzers while Mrs. Tupin isn't looking and everyone joins in with harmony on "plop plop fizz fizz oh what a relief it is."

Out of nowhere appear Susan and David McCoy. Susan looks very tired because, due to Women's Liberation, they have reversed the traditional roles. Susan now runs the tractor and combine all day while David stays home to take care of their seven kids. David is carrying a batch of cookies that he has just made, but everyone is to full to enjoy them. I have about given up hope for Randy Clay to come, but just about that time, the door bursts open and Randy comes flying through the living room at a record breaking speed and tries to hurdle the coffee table that Mrs. Tupin got in Lorenzo. Before we know it, he is lying on the floor hugging his hurt ankle. It seems that he is hurt. Coach Brett says, "How many times have I told you to stretch more on those hurdles?"

So, finally I have the chance to interview him although the circumstances aren't exactly what I wanted them to be. As I asked Randy some questions, Sherri and Kerri are tending to his ankle and nursing him back to health. "To what do you attribute your success, Mr. Randy Clay?" I ask him. He sits and thinks for a while before he answers but he comes up with what I expected him to say. "Well," he said modestly, "when I was a kid, all that I had to play with was a tumbleweed. People need to get down to basics. We were so poor that we had to live off the country, and I think that everyone needs to use their resources." And that was the extent of my interview. After everyone finally arrived, we decided to see if we could all fit into Kerri's toyota like we used to. So we got all that we could into it and went and did donuts on the cob. And when we came back everyone got very solemn because we knew that the end was near. It was fun to come back ten years after and see what everyone has turned out like. And so thus was our class reunion. Everyone is still the same, yet everyone was different. After we all told Mrs. Tupin how much we appreciated her Italian dish, we all decided to sing our class song one more time for old time's sake. Danna really got down on this, and Ken kept asking Danna to sing Bohemian Rhapsody until she did. But anyway, we all left with tears in our eyes, because we know that we may never pass this way again or ever see any of our classmates again because everyone has his own separate life and everyone went his own way. Everyone seemed so happy and fulfilled, but do we know where we're going to. Where are we going to—Do you like the things that life is showing you? I keep asking myself questions about each and everyone of them. Are we getting what we're hoping for, because when you look behind there's no open door. Once we were standing still in time, chasing the fantasies that filled our minds, and our minds were free. What are you hoping for? Do you know where you're going to? Do you know? huh? Do you?

Dear Charlotte,
"The unanimous declaration of the thirteen United States of America, in Congress, July 4, 1776. "When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they shall declare the causes which impel them to the separation. BEARD JUDGING—Pictured during the judging of the beards were Loyd Stephens, John Gill, Calvin Shelton, Jack Davis, Bill Yoakum.

O. R. Stark, jr., gave the welcome prior to the beginning of the patriotic musical, "I Love America."

AMONG THOSE apparently enjoying the day's activities were Dora Hawkins, Billie Wise, Ruby Cushman and Ruth Anderson.

ENTERTAINING during the Fiddler's Contest were Ruth, Dianna and Cecil Purcell. The Purcells are a very talented family of musicians.

FIRST PLACE JUNIOR FIDDLER—Scott Garvin competed successfully in the Junior Division of the Fiddler's Contest and won a trophy. In the background, Red Diney of Burlington, Iowa, awaits his turn in the competition.

TWO COLORFUL CHARACTERS who showed up at the Bicentennial Celebration were portrayed by James Davis and Doug Forbes.

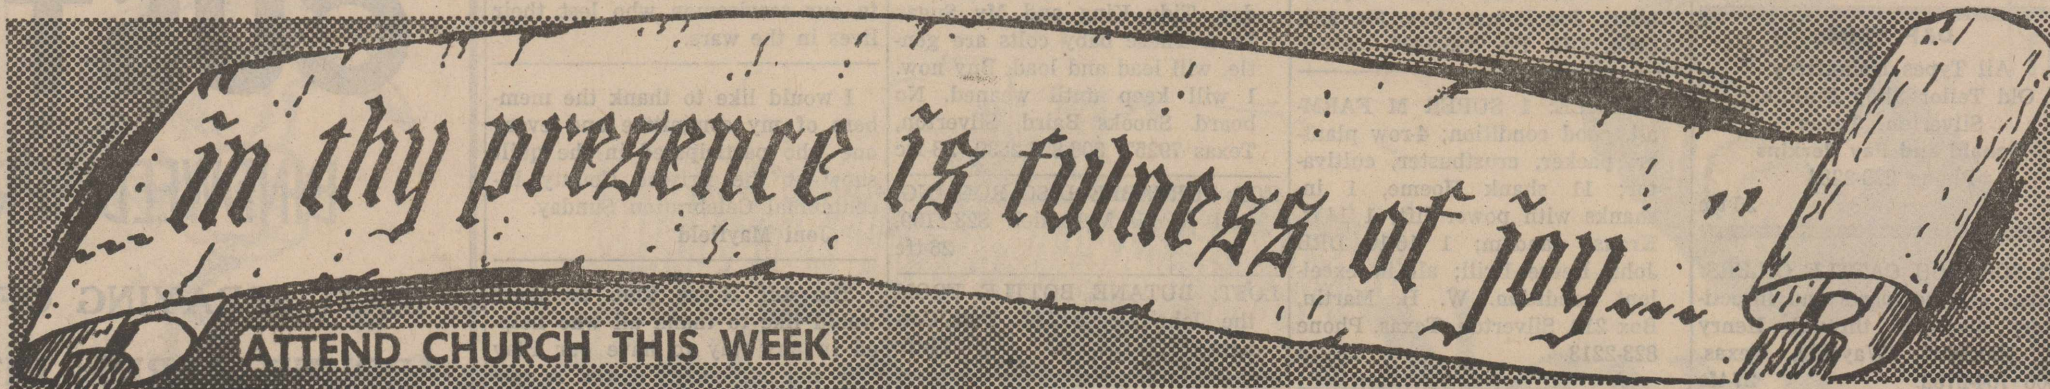

JUNIOR FIDDLER — Bobby McPherson entertained the crowd with several selections during the Junior Division of the Fiddler's Contest.

WAYLAND FITZGERALD wasn't the only one with hot, tired feet at the Bicentennial Celebration, but he was one of the first to let his toes out for a breath of fresh air.

STRIKE ZONE

PLAY BALL... is a familiar cry in the spring and summer. This is a time that parents and coaches, alike, encourage the boy not to swing unless the ball is in the strike zone... for in the early years of playing the game, the tendency is to swing at every pitch. This holds true in all of life, so it is up to wiser and older heads to train and encourage him in the better things. Bringing up a child is a serious matter and all can use help. Let the church help you to teach him the right ways.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
