OSHA Toilet Regulations Pose Some Urgent Problems

(Editor's note: The following letter was written by John A. Matthews, rancher at Albany, Texas, to Ed Wishcamper, editor of the Abilene (Texas) Reporter News, and copies were sent to Rep. Omar Burleson and Sen. John Tower as well as to WTLW and to OSHA headquarters in Washington.)

Dear Ed: The Occupational Safety and Health Administration, under the United States Department of Labor, is in the process of writing regulations whereby people working on farms and ranches must have toilet facilities within a five minute walk of where they are working.

I feel an average sized person can walk about 1/2 of a mile in five minutes. He might do better if he was in a hurry. This means that on a 30 section ranch, you would have to build 120 flush toilets complete with septic tank and water storage. They will also require proper toilet paper holders and locks on the doors to insure privacy.

Also, I think it would be necessary, on the ranches covered with brush, to erect a tall flag pole at the toilet site so the worker could zero in on his objective. Otherwise, he might get lost and you could be fined for non-compliance.

Beyond the fact that all of this will cost one big pot of money—no pun intended—I am worried about some other aspects. It seems to me that this is going to discriminate against short-legged people who can't walk a third of a mile in five minutes. Will the foreman have to work the short-legged man one minute closer to the toilet, or will it be necessary to have a walking demonstration before you can gauge just how far from the toilet he can work?

I can see further complications in that sometime some of the crew may drink some gyp water and come up with a case of the "Green Apple Two-Step". Then you would have to work them only a one or two minute walk from the toilet or be in danger of non-compliance if you had them three minutes away and they didn't make it. This is going to take some careful planning before you start a crew to work each morning. You will have to ask each one just what shape his innards are in before assigning jobs for the day, and you may never have a day when they will all be five minute men and can work in a group.

I thought at first that a person might get around the whole idea by designing a "Handy Dandy

Queen Candidates To Meet July 24

All rodeo queen candidates and a member of their sponsoring organizations are asked to meet with the 1976 Silverton Young Farmers rodeo chairmen, Wayne Stephens and Dan Herrington, at The Coffee Shop on Saturday, July 24 at 11:00 a.m. to be registered, receive their tickets and finalize plans for the rodeo queen contest.

Clown Heads Are Recovered

The clown head covers for trash barrels, which were stolen from the Silverton City Park many months ago, were recovered on Monday of this week from a man at Kress who said he found them at the Kress dumpground.

The clown heads were purchased as part of the park improvement project sponsored by the L. O. A. Junior Study Club and the City of Silverton, and were stolen just a few weeks after they were placed in the park.

Mrs. Jack Sutton saw the clown heads Sunday, and reported their whereabouts to the City.

Clubs Urged To Select Candidates

Although clubs were not sent personal invitations to enter a queen candidate in the 1976 Silverton Young Farmers Rodeo Queen Contest, the Young Farmers wish to invite all local clubs to enter any unmarried girl between the ages of 14 and 21 as their candidate in the August contest.

The girl who sells the most tickets to the Silverton Young Farmers Rodeo will be declared the winner and will be presented at the beginning of the rodeo on Saturday, August 14.

Area 4-H'ers To Study Citizenship On Tour

About 16 4-H'ers from throughout the High Plains will join other young Texans in Dallas July 27, to embark on a heritage tour to Washington, D. C. and points in between. They'll be participating in a six-day National 4-H Citizenship Short Course in the nation's capitol.

The delegation will include Miss Jo Jarrett from Briscoe County, according to Linda Mullin, County Extension Agent.

Miss Jarrett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jarrett.

The trip will cover 15 days travel to and from the nation's capitol by charter bus.

4-H members entering their junior or senior year in high school next school term are eligible.

The 35 Texas youth and their leaders will leave Dallas July 28, arriving in Washington, August 1. The excursion will take them through Mississippi, Tennessee and Virginia, with visits to historical sites at Washington, D. C.

Quick Relief Portable Toilet" that each man could carry, but that wouldn't work since OSHA's whole idea is to have the men use flush toilets—even the ones that don't know how to use them.

OSHA stands for safety and health. I am unable to see where making it mandatory to have millions of toilets scattered over the range is going to increase safety, so they must be aiming at the health aspect. When they get all these cowboys and farmhands "potty-trained," which will be no small undertaking, I guess they will start on my cows. Did you ever try to train a cow to walk anywhere to go to the bathroom?

Any help you can give us on the above will be appreciated. If we don't get this stopped, I suggest going to the nearest stockbroker and buying a large chunk of toilet stock.

In Washington, they'll participate with other youth from throughout the nation in a six-day citizenship short course. The program, Miss Mullin said, is designed to supplement the citizenship education and leadership development training young people receive through the home, school, church and other organizations.

Citizenship short courses are conducted at the National 4-H Foundation in Washington. Topics relating to the individual's concept and responsibilities of citizenship are covered in assemblies and opportunity sessions at the center.

Learning experiences are gained through visits to operational centers of many branches of government and to memorial centers in the nation's capitol, Miss Mullin added.

Tops on the agenda of the 4-Hers will be a visit with their local congressman.

They will return via Kingsport, Nashville and Memphis, Tennessee, Miss Mullin said, touring other historical sites enroute home. The group will return to Dallas August 10.

Mrs. Maud McJimsey, Mrs. Blanche Newman, Mrs. Mae Tenneson and Mrs. Bertha Rhoderick visited Mrs. Mary Rampley in the hospital in Lubbock Wednesday afternoon.

FOURTH OF JULY in Silverton—This view of the crowd on the lawn of the Briscoe County Courthouse was made during the presentation of the patriotic musical, "I Love America." There were more than 200 chairs in the shade of the tent, and quite a few brought folding chairs from home and placed them on the court-house lawn.

MR. AND MRS. EARL CANTWELL

Mr. And Mrs. Earl Cantwell Observe Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Datis Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Cantwell hosted a dinner on Sunday, July 11, 1976 to celebrate the Golden Wedding Anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cantwell.

Earl Cantwell and Miss Inetha Montague were united in marriage on Sunday, July 11, 1926 in Lockney, Texas, in the home of Bro. Charlie Graves. After the ceremony, the couple returned to Lakeview where the young minister of the Church of Christ preached a sermon.

Bro. Earl and his bride worked for Matt Skeen until Christmas of that year. They moved to Comanche County and lived there two years, and then returned to Briscoe County. The rest of their married life has been in the Francis community where Bro. Earl has been engaged in farming and preaching the gospel.

You Can BANK on it!

In 1690 The Massachusetts Bay Colony issued the first paper money in America, and, in fact, "also in the British Empire, and almost in the Christian world."

War brought paper money into existence. Sir William Phips led an expedition of Massachusetts irregulars against Quebec. The loot from the fall of the fortress was intended to pay for the expedition. The fortress held, and since there was little enthusiasm for levying taxes to pay the defeated soldiers, notes were issued promising to pay, eventually, in hard coin.

Redemption in gold or silver was promised, and for 20 years the notes circulated side by side with gold and silver of equivalent denomination. Notes and metal were interchangeable.

And although the notes eventually lost their value because of another war, Queen Anne's War, the colonists recognized the value of paper as currency and started issuing it in moderation.

Dear Charlotte.

Letters from children at camp are delightfully refreshing on a hot, humid August day-

Timmy Ratcliff's makes one proud of our town:

"Dear Family, I hope everything is all right at home. I sure do miss good old Jasper. Mother, you might think I like it here. I do, but I wouldn't mind being in good old Jasper moving the yard.

Your son, Timmy" Marcy Perkin's was most informative as to her welfare- "Dear Mom and Dad, There is a weenie dog I can buy with merits-say yes or no.

Love, Marcy" Lisa Bailey didn't write a letter, but visited in Austin for two weeks immediately after the arrival of her baby brother. Upon her return I asked her by telephone, "Lisa did you have a good time?" "Yes," she replied with disgust, "but do you know we've still got that baby?"

Jim Kirby's mother shared this one with me:

"Dear Mom, I love camp. I love karate. Please send comic books, especially Thor. Love, Jim"

Jeanetta Ruth Platt, who accompanied us on our vacation trip and whose Mother knew she would die of homesickness, sent this card (with a little adult prompting)-

"Dear Mother, Mrs. Bertrand took Betty Ann and me to Pike's Peak today, and she has gone off and left us here. We are cold, hungry, and no one loves us. H E L P !

Love, Jeanette"

"A little child shall lead them."

Scott - Owens Vows Exchanged In Formal Double-Ring Ceremony

The Chapel of the First Baptist Church in Plainview was the setting for the double-ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss De-lorious Diane Scott and Eddie Owens Saturday evening, July 10, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Al Morgan, public relations director at Wayland College and former employer of the bridegroom, officiated. The bride is the daughter of

MRS. PAUL EDWIN OWENS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott of Seminole, formerly of Plainview, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Owens of Quitaque.

The church was adorned with a candlelight arch and scroll candelabra with baskets of white gladioli, white daisy mums and red carnations. The kneeling bench and memory candle, with the couple's original wedding invitation embedded and highlighted with hurricane lamps, complimented the setting. The aisle was decorated with clusters of strawberries and baby's breath.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Ross Herrington of Quitaque, organist; Glenna Jones, pianist, and soloists, Donna Kendall and Becky Cooper.

The bridegroom's father completed the ceremony by singing "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted by her father, the bride approached the altar wearing a romantic gown of white poly sheer organza, designed with a moulded bodice featuring a V-shaped neckline with a double organza ruffle spanning the shoulders over tiered caplet sleeves. The bodice and neckline were adorned with Venise lace. Daisy appliques of Venise lace enriched the front of the bouffant skirt which swept into a short chapel train. Bordering the hemline was more petite circlet Venise.

The bride's bouquet, designed by her aunt, Mrs. Nathan Gregory, was of white miniature carnations, daisy mums and baby's breath.

Becky Christie, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and Wayne Henderson, nephew of the groom, and Shane Baum, the bride's cousin, were ring bearers. Lighting the candles were Tycie Gregory, cousin of the bride, and Sonya Henderson, niece of the groom.

The attendants wore floor-length dresses of white bullseye bouquet adorned with embroidered strawberries, designed with empire waist and a double ruffle of white bullseye spanning the shoulders edged with Venise tating and was accented with a red bullseye sash that draped in the back to mid-calf. A red ruffle attached to a white skirt descended to the floor, with a progression of small embroidered strawberries to larger ones, meeting a border of scalloped red embroidery. Their white wide-brimmed hats were adorned with strawberry ribbon and a cluster of strawberries and baby's breath. They carried white baskets filled with imitation strawberries, baby's breath, carnations and ribbon.

Dwain Henderson served as his brother's best man, and groomsmen were Phil Golden, Rodney Dickenson, David Sanders and Ray Spradling. The groomsmen also seated the guests.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parlor of the church. Assisting were Mmes. Roy Daffern, W. H. Gorman, John Dayton, Robert Baum, Jimmie Christie and Ben Shoemaker; Misses Janabeth Willis, Ann Newman and Susan McEachern. Abby Todd distributed rice bags.

The bride's table was covered with a white sheer lace cloth with silk organza and wedding net topped with wedding bells and adorned with petite circlet Venise lace and white satin bows. The three-tiered cake completed the setting.

The groom's table featured a hand-crocheted cloth made by his mother, laid over a red linen cloth. The centerpiece was a ceramic bride and groom, daisy mums and red carnations, with strawberry - designed cakes completing the setting.

Where to ... ?

Did you ever look down railroad tracks and wonder where they went ... or put your ear to the track, listen to the hum, and try to guess when the train would reach you? These questions we may have asked when we were children, but as adults it is time to ask ... Are we headed in the right direction? Are we prepared for things in the future regardless of when they will arrive? Choose now the path you will take. Let the church help guide you.

"Oh that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!"

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
