The guest evangelist was born in Shackelford County, Texas in 1929. He married Wynonne Gooch and they are parents of three children: Vivan married to Ron Stough, preacher at Cassville, Missouri; Dalton, who preaches for the church in Douglass, Kansas, and David, 14.

He has preached in 170 meetings in 16 states and Canada, conducting seven or eight meetings each year in addition to local work. He serves as editor of the monthly publication Four State Gospel News, which is in its sixteenth year and has a circulation of 16,000. School Calendar Has Been Adjusted

The school calendar for the Silverton Independent School District has been lengthened to add four school days to replace one day of school which was postponed by bad weather and three days which were postponed in order that students and teachers could attend the State Boys Basketball Tournament in Austin.

The days have been added on May 25-26-27-30. Graduation is scheduled May 26, and has not been changed. The schedule which had previously been set up for seniors has not been changed. There will be a day of in-service training for the teachers on May 31, and report cards will be handed or mailed out on June 1.

The March 24-27 Easter vacation has not been changed.

1978 growing season. The 1978 Warner Corn Growing Contest will be open to young people ages 12 through 21 in an area that includes the Oklahoma and Texas Panhandles and the Texas South Plains.

The contest area will be divided into two regions and there will be a winner in each region. The two winners will be the individuals with the largest total yields, corrected to 15.5% moisture, and they will be awarded all-expense-paid trips for themselves and their parents to the National Corn Growers Association Annual Meeting in LaCrosse, Wisconsin, July 15-18, 1979.

A Warner Seed Company spokesman said there are several reasons for the company's deciding to hold such a contest. He explained that in these times of economic stress for farmers, good land and crop management practices become increasingly important.

"It is our hope that this contest will offer an incentive for young people to learn more about good farming practices and agricultural economics through actual experience, and provide them a foundation which will help make their farming careers more successful," he said.

Contest details and entry forms may be obtained from Mr. Steve Fambrough, George Warner Seed Company, 120 S. Lawton, P.O. Box 1448, Hereford, Texas 79045.

Co-op Members To Hear Dr. G. B. Dunning

Swisher Electric Cooperative members and their guests will hear Dr. Gail B. Dunning of Greenwood, Nebraska during the Annual Members Meeting on Saturday, March 18, 1978 at the Cooperative's Headquarters Building located at 401 S.W. Second Street in Tullia.

Dr. Dunning was an overwhelming choice for speaker because of his innate ability to perceive and then discuss in a very humorous and interesting fashion the situations and human traits influencing our daily lives. He follows through with suggestions of actions for people to consider implementing to better accept and/or control the conditions around them. Dr. Dunning has a deep insight into human behavioral patterns and has very astute formulas for coping with these patterns. The approach he uses is such a humorous one that his audience is entertained as well as informed because he does get his ideas across.

G. B. Dunning received his doctor's degree in Counseling Psychology from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and holds three other degrees. He has a master's degree in Guidance and Counseling, a bachelor's degree in psychology and a bachelor's degree in history and religion. Until recently, Dr. Dunning was associated with the University of Nebraska where he was a member of the Graduate College Faculty and held joint appointments in the University Counseling Center and the Department of Educational Psychology and now in private practice specializing in marriage and family counseling. He also does consulting work for a number of firms in human relations training, curriculum development and management and employee training.

The Dunning family is active in church work. Dr. Dunning is an elder in the Greenwood Christian Church, teaches a Sunday morning Bible Class and hosts Bible classes in the Dunning home for interested groups. Carol Dunning, his wife, is the financial secretary of the Greenwood church. Dr. Dunning's father, Guy B. Dunning, was the founding president of Nebraska Christian College and his brother, Dwaine, is a professor at Dakota Bible College. Dr. Dunning conducts training programs for ministers, psychologists, social workers and other professionals in counseling psychology and does workshops for youth and adults in the application of psychological principles of Christian living.

Dr. Dunning will be working with Cooperative directors and employees during Thursday and Friday prior to the Annual Members Meeting.

"The Directors and Management of Swisher Electric are very pleased to bring Dr. Dunning to our Annual Members Meeting as speaker. He is a dynamic individual with a special talent and we feel all who hear him will benefit," said Emmett Pittman, President of the Board of Directors.

LEGAL NOTICE

General Telephone Company of the Southwest has filed tariffs with the Public Utility Commission of Texas to implement the Federal Communications Commission's telephone equipment registration program (FCC Docket 19528). The tariffs have an effective date of April 15, 1978. The proposed changes will reduce rates for extension telephones and 25 foot long cords; will restructure one-time charges for service connection, moves and changes, increasing some and reducing others; and will offer reduced monthly rates for one-party business and residence customers who provide their own primary telephone instrument. The proposed changes in rates, with some increasing and others decreasing, will reduce General's gross revenues from its Texas operations by $2,565.00.

DEAR EDITOR:

Because of the great interest expressed by you and your colleagues on the so-called Labor Law Reform issue, I am taking this opportunity to express by position on this legislation.

I have carefully studied the Labor Law Reform legislation reported by the Senate Human Resources Committee and passed by the House. I believe the legislation goes too far and, in my opinion, is not in our national interest. Therefore, I will vote against the Labor Law Reform bill because it is my best judgement that the proposal goes overboard in addressing problems which the National Labor Relations Board and the courts can remedy through existing channels.

Should you have any questions about Labor Law Reform or other matters to be considered by the Senate, do not hesitate to contact me or my staff.

Sincerely,
Lloyd Bentsen

VETERANS FAILING TO APPLY FOR STATE BENEFITS

Many eligible veterans residing in Texas are failing to apply for State benefits to which they might be entitled. According to Billye Kesler Veterans Service Officer for Briscoe and Swisher Counties, many veterans are still unaware of their possible entitlement to certain benefits provided through the State government of Texas.

A veteran residing in Texas is entitled to free Disabled Veteran license plates for his personal automobile if he has service-connected disabilities which are rated 70% or more by either the U. S. Veterans Administration or a branch of the Armed Forces of the United States. A veteran who has service-connected disabilities of 60% or more is entitled to free Texas drivers license.

Another benefit provided by State law is a property tax exemption for veterans with service-connected disabilities of 10% or more, and for widows and widowers of veterans whose disability ratings of 10% or more were in existence at the time of their deaths. Also eligible for a property tax exemption is the spouse of a person who died or was killed during military service, and the minor children of such active duty deceased persons. The tax exemption runs from the first $1,500 of the assessed value for a 10% rating, to a maximum of the first $3,000 of assessed value for the 100% rating. The exemption for the spouses of deceased servicemen is the first $2,500 of the assessed value.

Another benefit is free admission to all State Parks in Texas for veterans with service-connected disabilities rated 60% or more or suffered the loss of use of a lower extremity.

All of these benefits are provided through laws passed by the State Legislature, and additional information on them, and others, can be obtained from your local Veterans Service Officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sarchet spent Sunday visiting in the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sarchet, in Borger. Also visiting there were Mr. and Mrs. Kim Sarchet and Rhiannon of Lubbock.

TELEPHONE COMPANY FILES REVISED TARIFFS

General Telephone Company of the Southwest has filed revised tariffs with the Texas Public Utilities Commission which would give a credit to customers who provide their own primary instrument, reduce all extension rates and make service connection charges uniform across the state. R. Rex Bailey, vice president — revenue requirements for the company, said the filing is not a rate case filing but is being made in response to a PUC order issued to all Texas telephone companies. The order requested all companies to file tariffs in compliance with the new Federal Communications Commission registration program under FCC Docket 19528.

Bailey explained the filing as basically providing a credit for customers who provide their own primary instrument and a redistribution of revenues through reduced extension rates and adoption of a statewide multipart service connection charge. Effective date if approved would be April 15.

Under the new tariffs the company would provide a 55-cent per month credit to the bills of customers providing their own primary instruments.

At the same time, the company proposes to reduce all extension rates for both business and residence to 85 cents per month, resulting in an annual savings to existing customers of $2,614,500.

However, Bailey said to offset this decrease in revenues, the company proposes to extend to all Texas exchanges the multipart service connection or change in service charge similar to the one now being charged in some major Texas exchanges and other states served by General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

He continued this would result in $2,611,995 in additional revenues from new customers or customers who request a change or addition to existing service.

"The five-part service connection charge is designed to pass the cost of providing each service to those customers using the service," Bailey explained.

The five-part service charge plan includes separate fees for: (1) paperwork in establishing records for billing, etc., associated with the account; (2) work performed to connect the customer's service to the telephone network; (3) premise visit; (4) customer-initiated premise wiring, and (5) instrument handling charge.

"Under this proposal, the customer pays only for services rendered," Bailey states.

The new charges, which would be a reduction from those already in effect in several Texas cities, would range from a minimum of $34.50 to $49.75 for a residence, the latter charge applying when all services are performed at least one time. Likewise, a business telephone installation or change of service would range from $46.50

Sunflowers Are Good High Protein Feed

For cattle and other ruminants, sunflowers may provide a cheaper high protein feed than cotton.

While cottonseed meal has a higher crude protein level, 41 percent, than sunflower seed meal, 30 percent, the two apparently have equal digestibility, according to Dr. Robert C. Albin, who heads the Department of Animal Science at Texas Tech University.

Albin, working with graduate students, studied the chemical composition, fiber content, digestibility, nitrogen balance values and roughage replacement value of whole sunflower seed meal in comparison with cottonseed meal and cottonseed hulls in a ruminant finishing ration. Eight Holsteins were used in the test, replicated four times. Consumption of all ra-to $73.00

Bailey pointed out the five-part charge is designed to place the cost of providing the service on the customer using the service, not the entire customer group.

"The changes are being proposed to comply with the new FCC registration program and to change current rate structures which have become inappropriate as a result of the FCC decision," he explained.

"Traditionally, basic service rates have been based upon value of service concept. Rates for optional services or products such as extensions were priced to contribute to basic service rates in an effort to keep basic rates at the lowest possible level."

"Now, under the current FCC program, the company believes extension telephones and non-recurring activities such as service connection charges should be closely related to actual costs, and that is what the revised tariff filing proposes."

Bailey said the end result will mean roughly the same amount of revenue for the company, in fact, an estimated $2,500 loss in revenue, with the reduced rates for extensions offsetting the increases to be received from the charge.

tions was limited to 15 pounds per head daily, fed in two equal feedings.

He said results indicated that growing-finishing beef cattle can use solvent-extracted sunflower seed meal as efficiently as solvent extracted cottonseed meal when fed on an equal crude protein and crude fiber basis.

In both rations, Albin said, there is no significant difference in digestibility of gross energy or nitrogen retention values.

There must be compensation for the reduced crude protein in sunflower seed meal, he said, and because the sunflower product includes the hulls it is necessary to lower the proportion of cottonseed hulls in the diet when using the sunflower seed meal.

The per unit cost of sunflower protein is cheaper, however, Albin said, than the cottonseed meal protein, and there is an added advantage for growers.

Sunflowers on the West Texas plains are considered at the minimum to be a 90-day crop. If a grower is hauled out or loses a cotton crop from some other cause early enough in the season, he can plant sunflowers and still produce an income.

They are hardy and adaptable, Albin said, although to make money high levels of water are necessary. Dryland sunflower production likely would not pay, in Albin's view.

Whether or not the sunflower seed meal is useful with non-ruminant livestock will be determined in tests underway at Texas Tech. Dr. C. Reed Richardson is the principal investigator. Work-

Blood Drive Is Here March 21

Plans have been announced for Coffee Memorial Blood Bank to bring its Bloodmobile to Silverton on March 21. It is hoped at that time blood donations can be received for replacement of the blood that has been used by Silverton patients.

Delma Davila has used 28 pints of blood which need to be replaced, or the family will have to pay for it. Already her hospital expenses are very high, and replacement of the blood she has used will help her family very much.

Blood donations can also be given at Coffee Memorial in Amarillo, and specified that they are for the Silverton Blood Pool or can be given for a specific person.

ing with him is Robert Beville, graduate student in animal science from Decatur.

One value of the sunflower seed meal, Albin said, is its high level of methionine, the sulfur valuable in growth for chicks and lambs. The high fiber content, on the other hand, may reduce digestibility in single stomach animals.

Participating in the study with Albin was Robert Ratcliff, who earned the master's degree at Texas Tech in December and who is working with Hi-Pro Feeds in Friona.

Roller Coaster Spirit

There are days when we feel on top of the world. Everybody loves us and shows it. Nice things are done for us. Sunshine and happiness drenches everything. And then there are other days — when we're blue; people are busy. We're alone. We're afraid.

It might as well be raining. Nobody knows the trouble we're in. Needed is a little self-discipline, not a lot of self-pity. We must learn to face the fact that life is not always a flowery bed of ease, and pleasure.

Children dodge hard places, responsibility, and painful experiences.

A mature person stands on his own two feet under God.

Time, insight, and the grace of God can remove mountains — and take away that roller coaster spirit.

Begin the road to spiritual maturity by attending church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Deadline Nearing For Vehicle Registration

If you haven't already obtained your 1978 motor vehicle registration validation stickers, you may be in for a line at the registration counter.

That's the glum prediction today of Bob Townsley, director of the Motor Vehicle Division of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

On March 1, about 8.5 million vehicles still remained to be registered with only a month before the April 1 deadline.

Townsley said slow-moving registrations would assure long lines between now and the end of the month. However, in some counties waiting lines still weren't clogging court houses and substation halls, Townsley observed.

Registrations began a month earlier this year, on January 1 instead of February 1, due to the new staggered registration system. But every day of delay from now on will mean more waiting for tardy motorists, Townsley warned.

He suggested that motorists visit county tax assessor-collector offices where registrations can be obtained as soon as possible.

Only about one-third of Briscoe County residents have registered their vehicles. Friday, March 31, is the deadline and no one has the

What Think Ye?

"Jack Lee is in jail," said Mrs. M. to Mrs. A. as she met her on the street. "Well, well, who'd a thought it," said Mrs. A. "But I'm not surprised when I reflect, I'll bet that was what that bunch of men were talking about I just passed back there on the street."

"They just caught him," said Mrs. M., "for I just saw the sheriff taking him up the courthouse steps."

"What did they put him in jail for?" asked Mrs. A. "Oh I don't know," answered Mrs. M. "But I wouldn't be surprised if it was for writing a hot check." "My, my, what a terrible thing to do," murmured Mrs. A., as she walked on down the street." (to be continued)

Medicare Can Cover Kidney Care Patients

About 95 percent of the people in the United States under age 65 have Medicare protection available should they suffer permanent kidney failure and need a kidney transplant or dialysis, a social security spokesperson said today.

To be eligible for Medicare under this provision of the law, a person must have worked long enough under social security or railroad retirement to be insured or be the wife, husband, or dependent child of an insured worker. Only the family member with kidney failure is eligible for Medicare; other family members are not.

For a person with permanent kidney failure, Medicare coverage can begin either:

The first day of the third month after the month a course of maintenance dialysis treatments begins, or if earlier,

The month the person is admitted to an approved hospital to receive a kidney transplant or the month before the kidney transplant takes place if the person is admitted to an approved hospital for preparation for transplant, or

In two-stage transplant cases, the month the person is admitted to an approved hospital for the first stage of surgery in preparation for transplant from a living donor, or the month before the preparatory surgery is performed if in that month the person is in the hospital.

For people eligible for Medicare under this provision, their protection will last until 12 months after the month they either no longer require maintenance dialysis treatments or received a kidney transplant, the representative went on.

If maintenance dialysis or another transplant is needed during the 12-month period following transplant, however, Medicare coverage would continue. The medical insurance part of Medicare can end if the monthly premiums are not paid or the person decides to cancel this protection.

Full information about Medicare coverage of kidney dialysis and kidney transplant services can be obtained at any social security office. The address and telephone number of the nearest office can be found in the telephone directory under "Social Security Administration."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. When I started getting SSI payments, I was living with my son. Now I'm thinking of moving into an apartment by myself. Do I have to report this more?

A. Yes. SSI beneficiaries must report any change which may affect their eligibility or the amount of their payment. This includes changes in your living arrangements, income, resources, or marital status. You can make your report to any social security office by telephone, mail, or in person.

Q. Through my work as a church volunteer, I come in contact with many elderly and handicapped people. Some of them have limited income and assets, and I think they might be eligible for SSI payments. What are the eligibility requirements for SSI?

A. To be eligible for SSI, a person must be 65 or older, or blind, or disabled, and have limited income and resources. An individual is eligible with countable income of less than $177.80 a month; a couple, with countable income of less than $266.70 a month. In some states these amounts are higher. An individual may have resources—things owned—of up to $1,500; a couple may have resources of up to $2,250. Not all income or resources count, however. Claimants also must be U.S. residents and either U.S. citizens or lawfully admitted immigrants. People who think they may be eligible for SSI can apply at any social security office.

Q. My daughter, who's 25, just started getting social security disability payments. I remember hearing that disabled people can get Medicare. If this is true, how does she qualify?

A. Disabled people under 65 are eligible for Medicare after they have been entitled to social security disability benefits (or railroad disability annuities) for two consecutive years. Your daughter will receive information about Medicare in the mail several months before her coverage becomes effective.

Farm Bureau Supporting Higher Payment Incentives

The Texas Farm Bureau will support legislation which would provide higher payment incentives for cutting acreages of wheat, feed grains, and cotton this year, according to Carrol Chaloupka of Dalhart, president of the 214,000-member organization.

The Texas Farm Bureau Board of Directors Friday (February 24) adopted a recommendation to the American Farm Bureau Federation which states, "We support higher target prices and set asides such as those proposed in the Dole Bill."

The AFBF Board, of which Chaloupka is a member, will meet March 5-9 in Washington, D. C. "Our intent is to get a workable program that will pump money immediately into the farmers' pockets, reduce production, and not be too costly to the taxpayers," the Dalhart cattle and grain producer said.

"We are not locking ourselves onto any one proposal, but are free to work in any way we can for the principles of the Dole Bill which is designed to cut production in return for higher target prices," Chaloupka said.

The Dole Bill (S. 2481) by Senator Robert Dole of Kansas provides a formula of variable government-set target prices for set aside acres. The more a farmer sets aside, based on past history, the higher his target price would be. The government would pay the farmer the difference between the market price and the target price. This is known as a "deficiency" payment.

Under the Dole Bill, a 50 percent reduction in wheat acreage would provide a target price of $5.00 per bushel.

Corn acreage reduced by 50 percent would result in a target price of $3.45 per bushel. Grain sorghum, and other feed grains if the Secretary of Agriculture so designates them, would have a target price based on corn.

Cotton producers could earn a target price of 84 cents a pound by cutting acreage in half.

Lloyd Bentsen Report

UNLIKE MOST OTHER countries of the world — and several of the states in this country — the United States Government has never had a uniformly drafted, consistently organized criminal code.

What we have are more than 3,000 criminal laws enacted individually as needs have arisen, over the past 201 years.

Granted, there have been efforts to consolidate and revise our federal criminal laws. The last such attempt was made in 1948. But, by and large, these efforts were limited to eliminating gross inconsistencies.

They weren't even totally successful at that.

Under a law passed in 1918, and never repealed, it is a federal crime to detain a U. S. Government carrier pigeon.

The maximum federal prison sentence for bank robbery is 25 years, but the maximum term for robbery of a post office is only 10 years.

The severity of punishment under mail fraud laws depends on the number of letters sent. If someone sends out three letters and makes off with, say, $200, he faces up to 15 years in prison. But if only one letter is sent the maximum is five years — even for a major fraud involving $25,000.

THE SENATE RECENTLY approved a bill, which I supported, that creates a modern, streamlined 400-page criminal code. It is the result of more than 20 years' work.

Over 50 federal laws dealing with perjury and false statements will be converted into four laws.

Theoretically, the program should not be costly to the taxpayers. If production is cut enough, market prices would rise and the "deficiency" payments would be minimal.

if this bill is given final approval by Congress; over 70 laws relating to fraud and theft would be consolidated into one law, 80 forgery and counterfeiting offenses into five years.

Existing U. S. criminal laws use more than 80 terms to describe criminal intent; words like "wantonly" and "lasciviously" or "maliciously" and "corrupting." The new code would reduce those 80 terms to four: intentional, knowing, reckless and negligent.

I am especially interested in one section of the new code. That part establishing a tougher, more effective sentencing procedure in federal courts was modeled along the lines of legislation I introduced in 1976.

The new code replaces the "undeterminate" sentencing system currently used by the courts.

As things now stand, federal judges sentence persons convicted of a crime to an indeterminate number of years in prison and then leave it up to the parole board to decide how long any individual should actually serve.

WHAT I HAVE PROPOSED — and what my colleagues in the Senate have now approved — is a system of fixed, specific sentences written into law for specific crimes.

The fact is that our system of criminal justice is not working as it should.

Mass murderers like Charles Manson and Richard Speck are eligible for parole. Other dangerous offenders go unpunished. And glaring disparities in the sentences of those who are punished lead to numerous and great injustices.

The comprehensive new criminal code, certainly falls short of perfection. There are bound to be some flaws in any undertaking of this size. But as the late Supreme Court Justice Benjamin Cardozo said:

The flaws are in every human institution. Because they are not only there but visible, we have faith that they will be corrected.

The tide rises and falls, but the sands of error crumble.

Final passage of the new U. S. criminal code will not mean an end to the problems confronting our troubled criminal justice system. But it will mark the beginning of a promising effort to

TEAMSTER LEADER CALLS ON CONGRESS TO HELP FARMERS GET DECENT RETURN

Teamster General President Frank E. Fitzsimmons called today for the White House and the straighten out that system.

I am hopeful that Congress will give final approval to this new code in the near future.

U.S. Congress to take action to insure that the nation's farmers receive decent prices for their products.

In a statement issued from Teamster headquarters here, Fitzsimmons said:

"We in the Teamsters endorse the present efforts of the nation's farmers to call attention to their plight. The work of the nation's farmers is basic to our well-being, and they deserve a decent return for the service they perform for all of us.

"From the White House to the Congress, the more than two million members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters urge action on the farmers' behalf.

"While we cannot violate our contractual obligations with employers by honoring farmers' picket lines, we do support their objectives and say it is time now that something be done to help them."

SORGHUM FARMER'S CORN...

So different from commonly grown corns we call it "the other crop."

- Yields more than grain sorghum for greater income potential.

- Total water needs same as sorghum...less water, insecticide and fertilizer cost than commonly grown corn.

- Harvests earlier than sorghum or most other corns.

- Dries fast for lower harvest, hauling and dockage costs.

PIONEER BRAND

Pioneer® brand 3780 is like no other corn hybrid you've ever planted. It yields well on land where commonly grown corns can't. Why? Because 3780 has an earlier water use pattern than commonly grown corn, and is able to use early-season rainfall better than other corns or grain sorghum. Because of its fast growth pattern, it will need one to two less irrigations than other corns, too.

3780 grows and matures faster, so it's ready for harvest earlier... usually 4 to 6 weeks ahead of sorghum. And it won't require late-season insecticide treatments most fuller season corns need. The kind of yields you expect from corn, with management and costs similar to grain sorghum... that adds up to more income per acre with 3780 — "the other crop."

DAILY WATER USE FOR 3780 AND SORGHUM

Marketing Ideas To Boost Farm Revenue To Be Explained

Choices available to South Plains farmers as to the best products to raise and how to market them more profitably this year in light of economic conditions and the new federal farm bill will be explored in one-day conferences March 8 at Lamesa and March 9 at Plainview.

Extension agricultural economics and marketing specialists from Texas A&M University, College Station, will conduct the programs, Billy C. Gunter, Extension district agricultural agent here, said. They are Dr. William E. Black, project leader in marketing and economist-marketing and policy, and Dr. Ronald D. Knutson, economist-marketing policy and research.

The conference in Lamesa will begin at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, March 8, at the Community Building, South Houston at Ninth Street across from Forest Park. The Plainview meeting will be at 9:30 a.m. in the Centennial Room of the Hale County State Bank, 201 West Sixth Street. Parking for this meeting will be available in the east lot across the street from the bank.

"Part of the answer to the plight of the farmer lies in improved marketing," Black said. Federal target prices and deficiency payments need to be supplemented by well-planned marketing decisions and action by the farmers, he said.

"Anything the farmer can do to keep his prices above the national average price for his commodity is very much to his benefit," Black stressed.

During the morning sessions of each day's conference, Black and Knutson will analyze the marketing situation, explain the 1977 farm bill and its implications for agriculture on the South Plains, and discuss eight marketing alternatives which can help farmers improve their economic situation.

After lunch, participants will divide into discussion groups to examine choices which look best for the spring of 1978 in view of the federal farm bill and the marketing alternatives available. Time is being set aside for questions and answers for the farmers, Gunter said.

NEW SCHEDULE GIVEN FOR SOCIAL SECURITY REP

Beginning with April, the representative from the Plainview Social Security office will be visiting Silverton the second Tuesday of each month at the Courthouse between the hours of 10:00-12:00 p.m. The schedule has been changed slightly from prior months in order to provide more time for aged or disabled persons to reach the office.

Although the office is scheduled to close at noon, persons who arrive at the office before noon will be served.

The representative will also be in Matador at the First State Bank between the hours of 10:00-12:00 p.m. on the First Tuesday of each month.

County Offices

Figuring "Established" Yield

County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation offices are now in the process of figuring the "established" yield to be used on each farm in the 1978 government cotton program, following a new formula just in from Washington.

The results will affect potential producer benefits under the program, and this in turn may have some effect on producer planting decisions.

Producer payments under the disaster section of the program, and price deficiency payments, if any, will be based on each farm's established yield as opposed to actual yield. Disaster payments will be made to program cooperators at the rate of 17.3 cents per pound times the established yield when crops are destroyed or production severely reduced by drought, hail or other factor beyond producer control. Price deficiency payments, which will be due only if the national average price paid to farmers in 1978 falls below the 52-cent target price, will equal the amount of the short-fall times established yield.

In essence the new ASCS instructions call for basing established yields on the average actual yields for the past three years. However the average yield for the best four of the last five years will be taken, and if this average is below any one of the yields of the last three years, the four-year average will be substituted

HIGHTOWER DEFENDS PARITY CONCEPT FOR FARMERS

During debate of the Humphrey-Hawkins full employment bill on the floor of the House of Representatives, Congressman Jack Hightower effectively defended the parity concept for farmers and helped place an amendment on the bill that established as a goal of full parity for farmers by at least 1983 as well as a goal of full employment.

In his remarks to the full House of Representatives, the Texas Congressman stated, "I think that full employment will have a great positive effect for the economy of this nation, but at the same time we cannot have full employment in towns and have people leaving the farms because they cannot make a living."

The amendment by Congressman Quie of Minnesota added to the economic goals of HR 50, the "full employment" bill, the goal of 100 percent of parity of income for farmers at the marketplace by at least 1983. HR 50, weakened from its original concept, now merely establishes priorities for job expansion and mandates by law that top priority must be given to expansion of conventional jobs in the private sector.

Hightower stated following the victory for the rural Congressmen, "I am pleased the majority of the House of Representatives seems to understand that the problems and needs of farmers are the problems and needs of the entire country." Final action on the legislation will come next week.

Dear Customer:

The City of Silverton collected four bacteriological samples during the month of December 1977. The results of the coliform bacteriological samples exceeded the Texas Department of Health's "Drinking Water Standards," which were promulgated as required by the "Safe Drinking Water Act," Public Law 93-523. Drinking water containing coliform bacteria in excess of the standard may constitute a potential threat to public health. Your water system has collected additional check samples as required by the "Drinking Water Standards," and these were found to be free of coliform bacteria.

Coliform organisms are common to the intestinal tracts of man and animals. Their presence in water is an indicator of bacteriological contamination of the sample either from the water system or from a sampling error.

In the months of October, November and December 1977, four water samples were tested each month and three of the four samples taken for the month of December were in excess of the standard. The following week additional samples were taken as required and were found to be free of coliform organisms.
