Don Fugett, former Briscoe County Deputy Sheriff, has entered Oklahoma Highway Patrol training in Oklahoma City this week. His family is remaining in Silverton until May, at which time they will move to his assigned location in Oklahoma.

Fugett made very high grades on his entrance examinations, just as he did when he attended Peace Officer School.

We hate to see bright young people like Fugett leave, but Briscoe County's loss surely is Oklahoma's gain.

Mignone Rauch underwent knee surgery in Waco on Wednesday of last week, and is attending classes at Baylor University on crutches.

Mignone had made the traveling squad with the Baylor Bearettes, and even though she wasn't getting to play a lot, she was seeing some action. She received the knee injury in a game, and is now out for the season.

The South Plains College women's basketball team jumped out to a 46-33 halftime lead against Howard County Monday night and then held off a late HC rally to win 71-69.

Former Silverton Owlette Linda Vaughn pumped in 18 points to key the SPC home-court victory and give them a 2-4 Western Junior College Conference slate.

The South Plains College men outlasted Howard County 92-82 in a Western JC Conference contest.

The men's game saw 61 fouls called, 36 against the host Texans. However they had but one man to foul out, and Howard County had three.

Five SPC men scored in double figures, including former Silverton Owl All-Stater Jackie Vaughn, who netted 10 points for the Texans.

What Think Ye?

What the scriptures have to say about the little member called the tongue. "Turn now and read the third chapter of James" To more fully realize what a dangerous weapon each of us has behind the lips re-read verses five and six. Controlled and used properly the tongue can be a messenger of Heaven. Let loose and misused it becomes an implement of torment, both here and hereafter.

"For good or bad your conversation is your advertisement. Everytime you open your mouth you give others a glimpse into your mind."

We often get into trouble because we combine a narrow mind with a wide mouth. Or maybe a closed mind with an open mouth.

What is deep in the well of my heart is bound to come up in the bucket of my speech. It may be tepid and polluted or cool and so refreshing.

"You talk about your riches, your stocks and bond and gold; we talk about the weather, of days some hot, some cold; but what of God's redemption, and of salvation's plan? Let us speak a word for Jesus and speak it like a man. The hardest job that people have, it seems, is to move religion from the throat to the muscles.

Do you know a heart that hungers

For a word of love and cheer? There are many such about us—It may be that one is near.

Look around you, if you find one, Speak the word that's needed so And your heart will be strengthened By the help that you bestow.

MR. AND MRS. ONER CORNETT

Mr. and Mrs. Oner Cornett To Celebrate Fifty Years of Marriage

Wisdom is knowing when to speak your mind, and when to mind your speech—the gift of gab is not really a gift—it's a peril.

Some of us use language to express thought—Some to conceal thought—And some instead of thought.

Now my friends, wouldn't it be a great society if when we part it would be with only loving words? This should be so, then we would have them to think about in our absence. It may be that we will not meet again in this life.

—EARL CANTWELL

Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Oner Cornett are invited to attend a reception in honor of their Golden Wedding Anniversary from 2:00 until 4:00 on Sunday afternoon, February 11, in the Pioneer Room at the First State Bank in Silverton. It has been requested that no gifts be sent.

LURA BROWN IS NEW SILVERTON BRANCH MANAGER

Olan Alexander, president of Central Plains Savings Association, is pleased to announce the employment of Lura Brown as manager of the Silverton branch office.

Mrs. Brown and her family moved to Silverton in 1977 when her husband, Buddy Brown, purchased the gin in the Rock Creek Community known as the Brown and Son Gin. He is the owner and manager of this gin.

Mrs. Brown grew up in Idalou where she graduated from high school and later attended Wayland College. Prior to moving to Silverton, Mrs. Brown was employed by Denzil McMillian, Certified Public Accountant, as a secretary, bookkeeper and accountant for eight years.

She and her husband have two children: a daughter, Mrs. Jerry Matlock, who lives in Silverton, and a son, Mark, who is a junior in Silverton High School and is active in sports. The family are members of the First Baptist Church in Silverton. She is also a member of Southwestern Extension Homemakers Club.

"We are proud to have Mrs. Brown on our staff," Mr. Alexander said.

Central Plains Savings Association has other offices in Tulia, Plainview, Hale Center and Dimmitt, with assets of over $38,000,000.00.

doubtful this would be the case. I am told several other pieces of legislation have been introduced that would prohibit the insurance companies from having access to the file of the Department of Public Safety.

The legislative wheels are beginning to spin in Austin. There have been 688 bills introduced into the House through January 29. It is anticipated that 4000 bills will be proposed before the session ends in late May. Here are a few briefs on some of the new legislation.

HB 19 requires horses to be tattooed inside the lower lip. This would apply only to horses born or imported into Texas after December 31, 1980. Several bills have been introduced that would restrict or prohibit foreign investments in Texas agricultural land. HB 227 would create an Agricultural Relations Board. This bill provides for collective bargaining between employers and labor organizations.

HB 491 is bound to bring forth a lot of action. This one tinkers with our long established homestead laws that prohibit the remortgaging of equity one has built up in his homestead. I would take a hard look at this one. The old homestead law gives a lot of protection to home and land owners who encounter financial difficulty during the course of their lives. It leaves them a nest egg if things go wrong. This prohibits creditors from taking homes and nest eggs away from over extended borrowers.

Rick Hutsell underwent bone graft surgery on his leg in an Amarillo hospital last week. He returned Sunday to his home in Canyon, where he is a student at West Texas State University.

Proper use of a new microwave oven can make it an energy and time saver.

As with all appliances, care will increase the length of service it can give.

First, read the instruction book carefully. This is of vital importance with a microwave oven.

Learn the oven features in order to know what the appliance is able to do and to give yourself confidence in using the appliance.

Keep door seals on microwave ovens in top-notch condition.

Regularly, clean both sides of the door, door gasket and the door closure area with a warm, sudsy cloth. Food particle buildup can prevent door closure and create a hazard.

Do not attempt to operate the microwave oven if the gasket or seal is damaged or if particles of food have built up around the closure area.

Never allow anyone to pull on the microwave oven door, lean on it or mistreat it in any way—proper fit of the door is vitally important.

KIKER'S KORNER

Earnest C. Kiker

Twenty farmers and ranchers attended the Soil Fertility Meeting at First State Bank in Silverton Tuesday night, January 23, 1979.

Speakers who were on the program were: Kenneth Wolf, economist-agribusiness with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station, who discussed Farm Labor Management. Three important statements made by Mr. Wolf were that agriculture producers are competing with all area businesses for the same labor force, hiring is the most critical part of farm labor, and agricultural producers should use pay incentives. When hiring, the employer should explain in detail what is expected of his employees.

Dr. James Leser, area entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Lubbock, discussed Cotton Insects. Dr. Leser's main topic was the boll worm, Briscoe County's biggest threat to the local cotton industry in 1978. Leser also discussed beneficial insects and chemical control.

Fertilization of cotton was discussed by Dr. Dale Pennington, area soil chemist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Lubbock. Dr. Pennington stressed the importance of the soil test. He also pointed out MONEY CAN BE SAVED in your fertilization program by using the soil test to indicate the proper amount of fertilizer needed.

New cotton varieties, weed control in cotton and diking were the major topics Dr. James Supak, area agronomist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Lubbock, discussed. According to Dr. Supak, furrow diking has a place in dryland and limited irrigation situations.

Dr. John W. McNeill, area beef cattle specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Amarillo, discussed Management of Wheat Pasture Cattle. McNeill stated that with the prices of cattle supplemental feeding on wheat pastures can increase profits.

Cotton Marketing was the topic Dr. Carl G. Anderson, cotton marketing specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station, discussed. Dr. Anderson pointed out farmers should be in the selling business year round, not just at harvest time.

At the end of the meeting door prizes were awarded to Larry Comer, Gerald Smith and Orville Turner.

On behalf of the Crop and Livestock Sub-Committee, we say THANK YOU to D&D Fertilizer, Ray Thompson Implement Co., and Brown-McMurtry Implement for the door prizes. Our appreciation also is given to First State Bank in Silverton for allowing us to use the meeting room.

Cattlemen should keep their cow herds in good body condition since delayed rebreeding costs money.

A cow has to be in good shape at calving time to become pregnant again within three months after calving. This is necessary to maintain a 12-month calving interval. Any delay in calving interval, when multiplied by every cow in the herd, can lead to large reductions in pounds of calf weaned per cow per year.

The ability of cows to maintain a 12-month calving interval is mainly influenced by nutrition. Maintaining adequate levels of energy before and after calving is essential if cows are to have a high reproductive rate.

Of course, not all cows in a given herd are in the same body condition, so not all require the same type of weeding program.

By recognizing differences in body condition of their cows, producers can more intelligently plan a feeding program to keep them in satisfactory shape at calving.

PUBLIC NOTICE TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

The Texas Department of Health is soliciting applicants from any health agency(s) in Briscoe County for the purpose of providing the Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC). The WIC Program is a federal, supplemental feeding program administered by the U. S. Department of Agriculture through the Texas Department of Health. The purpose of the program is to provide nutritious supplemental foods to low-income, pregnant and lactating women, infants, and children who have been identified through regular clinic visits to be in nutritional need.

First priority for selection of a local agency shall be given to a public, non-profit, health agency which can provide both on-going health and administrative services to women, infants, and children. If no such agency exists or applies, second consideration is given to a public or private, non-profit health or welfare agency which must enter into a written agreement with another such agency for either health or administrative services.

Other agencies or individuals will be considered pursuant to Title 7, Section 246.4(3) of the Federal regulations governing the program.

Any interested agency should contact:

M. N. McIntyre,
Special Project Director
WIC Program

Austin, TX 78756
Phone: (512) 458-7429

Though it may sound unrealistic Free Enterprise farm organizations and free enterprise brokers and companies are the back bone of farm product marketing world wide. The government as a means to market even surplus product has been unsuccessful even in the world market. If you research closely you will find most of the product marketing by government is either given to underprivileged countries at the expense of the taxpayer of this country or sold internationally on long term loan. In the past 10 years according to a leading publication 80% of all farm product sold both domestically and foreign has been sold by private companies, many of which are farmer owned. Farm organization is progressing, though sometimes slow, to the point where they probably will do most of the marketing of farm products through their own marketing concerns.
