Target Price Set For '79 Cotton Crop

The target price for 1979 crop upland cotton will be 57.7 cents per pound, the same as the preliminary target price announced last December 26.

Since the target price is used as a base to determine disaster payments, the 1979 disaster payment rate will be one-third of the target, or 19.2 cents per pound. Disaster payments are made if the producer is prevented from planting upland cotton or other nonconserving crops or if yields are substantially reduced. ASCS county offices may now begin making 1979 disaster payments to eligible upland cotton producers.

The target price is also the basis for a later determination of any deficiency payments to upland producers. If the national average price received by farmers during calendar year 1979 is less than 57.7 cents per pound, cotton producers will receive a deficiency payment at a rate equal to the difference between the higher of such average prices or the loan level of 50.23 cents.

To receive disaster or deficiency payments on upland cotton, farmers must comply with the set-aside requirements for any wheat and feed grains on the farm.

Boost Of Grain Exports Means
 Price Ceiling For Farmers

USDA's August 1 announcement that there will be no set-aside on 1980-crop wheat and concurrent boast of increased export grain sales to the USSR is in essence "a direct economic policy to impose a price ceiling," says the Texas Farmers Union.

According to the farm group, the combined actions of encouraging excessive production of wheat by announcing no planting restrictions, the resulting lower target price support required by law, and the announcement that Russia would be allowed to purchase a maximum of 10 million metric tons of wheat in the 1980 marketing year will together result in maintaining price suppressing surpluses on domestic markets.

After strong lobby efforts by farmers the past two years, Congress several months ago amended the 1977 Farm Act to allow for a higher wheat target price at the discretion of the Secretary whenever a set-aside requirement is in effect. Consequently, the 1979 target price was raised to $3.40. Due to no set-aside in 1980, however, the target will fall at least 20 cents a bushel and possibly be lowered by as much as 45 cents a bushel. The final target price for 1980 will not be announced until March 15, 1980, and must be in the range of $2.95 to $3.20 a bushel.

Beyond the lower support, the most serious price suppressing policy, according to TFU, is the restriction on the amount of wheat to be exported to the USSR.

Under a five-year agreement with Russia, the U. S. agreed to supply a minimum of eight million metric tons of grain each year. Any sale of grain above that amount is prohibited unless specifically ordered by USDA.

USDA Economist Howard Hjort has stated publicly that the shortfall in grain production in the Eastern Hemisphere could mean Russia may want to buy as much as 20 million tons of grain in 1980, the fourth year of the agreement. But the announced limit of 10 million tons of wheat sales casts doubt as to whether that predicted total will be realized in aggregate sales of other grains.

Simplifying the entire situation from the Texas Farmers Union perspective, state president Jay Naman called the U.S. - U.S.S.R. trade agreement "nothing more than a complex set of rules that amounts to a game of trade restrictions."

"With grain prices now stronger," he continued, "the Administration is lifting planting restrictions and creating optimistic press reports of increased foreign sales. They are suckering farmers into more fence-row to fence-row planting to create another domestic grain surplus and then plugging up international trade channels to keep the prices cheap at home."

"It doesn't matter how good foreign demand is when a Secretary of Agriculture has the arbitrary power of trade restrictions. Our trade negotiators decry all forms of trade restrictions and barriers in OTHER countries. But as soon as domestic commodity prices begin to rise, as they have with wheat, those same 'free trade' advocates suddenly become market manipulators to restrict exports and create domestic surpluses through one economic trick or another."

"There should be vivid memories among wheat farmers of the

Rescue Unit Has Practice Drill At Lake Mackenzie

Firemen and rescue unit volunteers from Tullia and Silverton took part in a practice drill at Lake Mackenzie early this week. They were assisted in the simulated rescue of a drowning victim by members of a scuba diving class from Amarillo.

Wilton Whitehead of Tullia was in charge of the program, and Billy Sims of Amarillo, a certified scuba diving instructor and rescue expert, gave the Tullia and Silverton rescue unit instructions on how to go about recovering the body of a drowning victim.

Sims emphasized the importance of pin-pointing the spot where a person goes down in a lake, and how the rescue unit can expect eye-witness accounts to vary as to what happened.

Speed is of great importance if the life of the victim is to be saved, and for this reason accuracy as to location is vital. Also emphasized was the importance of getting a breath into the victim as quickly as possible, and Sims added, this can be done while he is still in the water.

All members of the rescue unit are trained in first aid, and most hold certification as Emergency Medical Technicians or Emergency Care Attendants. Two of the Silverton group hold Paramedic certification.

In addition to placing bouys on the surface, a line was placed on the bottom of the lake between the bouys, and observers took part in trying to pinpoint a location in the water and exactly replace a bouy at the spot where a person might have gone down. The exercise took place in about 40 feet of water in Cactus Cove. The water at the bottom, Sims said, was approximately 55°.

Sims instructed those present in ways they can help the scuba divers ready themselves for the descent into the water, and emphasized that at the scene of a drowning the divers do not need to be concerned with anything but locating the victim. "Others can be trained to help prepare their equipment so the divers' minds can be free of all other details. I would not be honest if I said that even the most experienced divers aren't afraid while they are searching for a body. Any brush with a tree, fish or any other object is extremely scary, and observers at the sur-

Divers assisting Sims in the demonstration were members of his current class, Gilbert G. Ramirez of Canyon, Derrel Martin of Tullia, Aubrey Smith and David Cook, both of Amarillo.

Others taking part in the exercise were Game Warden Ronnie Ainsworth; Alan Parsons, Milton Simon, Floyd Flow, Rod Howard, Foy Campbell, Lewis Bice, Wayne Nevins, Kenny Hughes, James Arnold and Ken Milsap, all of Tullia; Anthony Kingery, W. WESTWARD DOUGH!

OR how DO you COVER A Wagon?

The wild, wild West. Land of hope and opportunity to thousands of courageous settlers. But, if it weren't for the dollars of thousands more Americans taking stock in their country, there might never have been a West to go west to.

You see, money raised from the sale of government securities helped us purchase the Louisiana Territory from the French. Other securities helped buy the states of California, Nevada, Utah, western Colorado and most of New Mexico and Arizona from Mexico. Even settlement of the Oregon Territory was made possible through the issuance of United States securities.

Today, you can still take stock in your country's growth by buying U. S. Savings Bonds.

Just sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. There's no easier, safer way to save or help your country. After all, U. S. Savings Bonds are still a great way for you to go West. Or East, North and South.

Now U. S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4½% the first year). Lost, stolen or destroyed Bonds can be replaced if records are provided. When needed, Bonds can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

AS A MAN THINKETH

By Gerald Beasley
IT'S CONTAGIOUS

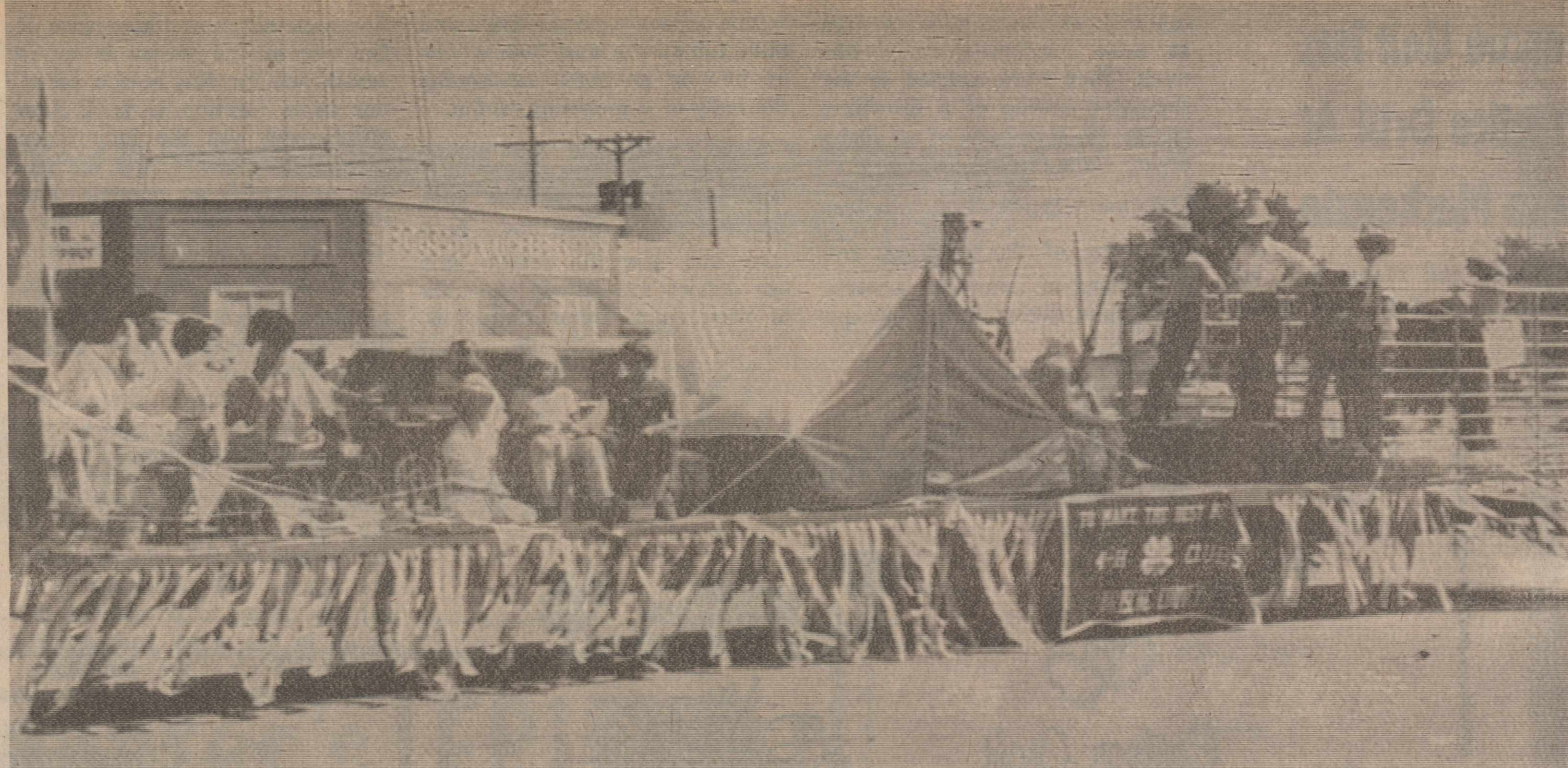

A community atheist gave church members a hard time. They'd invite. He wouldn't attend. He only scorned. The church building caught on fire. The atheist came close to observe. A surprised member said, "I thought you said you'd never come near this place." He replied, "This is the first time I've ever seen this place on fire!"

Any truly worthwhile endeavor deserves the fires of enthusiasm on the part of its supporters.

Emerson says, "Every great and commanding movement in the annals of the world is the triumph of enthusiasm. Nothing great was ever accomplished without it."

A genuine enthusiast warms us all! He moves us beyond mediocrity and propels us past pessimism. We stop loafing and reach out for real living. We endeavor instead of ever fuss. Enthusiasm is contagious. Expose yourself to its infection! There are those worthy souls who espouse great causes with honest fervor. Bask in their presence.

The word "enthusiasm" comes from a simple Greek expression, entheos ("God in"). How particu-

In the riding clubs division, Swisher County Sheriff's Posse was judged best and Clarendon Riding Club placed second.

FIDDLERS CONTEST

While celebration visitors sat in the shade of a large tent erected on the south courthouse lawn, they were entertained by fiddlers competing for prize money. First and $100 went to Jimmy Burson of Silverton, second and $75 went to Weldon Petty of Olton, and third and $50 went to Cecil Purcell of Quitaque.

ARTS AND CRAFTS FAIR

One of the attractions of the day was the country arts and crafts fair. Booths had everything for sale from baby bibs to natural foods. There were photographs by Jack Robertson; paintings and watercolors by Junis Hutsell, Mark Eddleman, Wayne Nance and others; quilts, purses, bread boards, and many other items available at the booth of former residents, Juannah Jennings of Friona and Carol Ann Turner of Matador. There was wood work by John T. Francis and Jack Williams, lunch consisting of a tuna sandwich and tea for $1.00, lye soap homemade by Joy Stodghill, bonnets made by Eudean Crow and Bonnie May, jewelry made by Bernice May, cupcakes baked in ice cream cones offered by Century of Progress Study Club, and other items too numerous to mention offered for sale.

BIKE-A-THON

Scotty Harris won the prize for riding the furthest in the Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-Thon. Harris rode 32 miles to defeat Glen Kingery who rode 30 miles. It took Harris four hours to win the Bike-a-Thon. The winner of the prize for collecting the most money in donations and those who turned in $25 to win a T-shirt will be announced when the money has been turned in.

TRICYCLE RACES

A large number of children from two to four years of age took part in tricycle races before the beginning of the parade. Winners of the race for two and three year olds were Brandon Kitchens, first; Holly Nance, second, and Ashleigh Wyatt, third. The names of winners in the race for four year olds were not made available.

RODEO QUEEN

Stacy Robertson was presented as the 1979 Rodeo Queen at the Saturday night performance. Sally Northcutt was first runner-up and Vicki McJimsey was second runner-up. The other candidates were Melissa Greenhaw and Dena Green. All of the girls worked very hard, and the Silverton Young Farmers appreciate very much their service. Without the assistance of the queen contestants, it would not be possible to continue producing the rodeo during the county birthday celebration.

Among dignitaries in Silverton for the activities Thursday were United States Congressman Jack Hightower of Vernon; State Representative Foster Whaley of Pampa, and Woody Pond, a former game warden who was instrumental in transplanting the aoudad sheep to this area of Texas.

What Think Ye?

Someone has discovered a new and extra scriptural reason for the safety of Daniel while temporarily abiding in the lion's den. According to his conclusion it was impossible for the lions to eat Daniel, because "the most of him was backbone and the rest was grit." My, what a lucious meal the lions would have with some of us.

Many years ago a quaint old preacher in one of the rural churches deep in the mountains told the men to leave their cud of tobacco outside on a log or stump and promised them that "neither dog nor hog would bother it." I refer this suggestion to all persons who are so thoughtless and perhaps irreverent as to use chewing gum during the worship. It is distracting to try to hold the attention of the heart while he jaws are constantly working, whether talking or chewing.

Titus 3:2 "Nor be contentious"

A horse can't pull while kicking. This fact I merely mention. And he can't kick while pulling. Which is my chief contention. Let's imitate the good old horse and lead a life that's fitting. Just pull an honest load and then there'll be no time for kicking.

Office Caller: "How long has that office boy worked for you?" Chief Officer: "About four hours."

Caller: "Four hours! Why I thought he had been here a long time!"

Officer: "Oh, yes, he has been here about two years." I wonder if the Lord has anyone working for Him like this little fellow?

Take stock in America. Buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Announcing a new interest rate for U.S. Savings Bonds:

6 1/2%

Here's some great news for all Americans. On June 1, 1979, the interest rate on United States Savings Bonds, Series E and H, was increased to 6 1/2%.

This 6 1/2% rate will apply to new Bonds and to all outstanding ones, too. For Series E Bonds that have not reached original maturity of 5 years, the improved yield will be received as a bonus when the Bonds mature. For older Bonds and Notes, and for Series H Bonds, the increase takes effect with their next semiannual interest period, beginning on or after June 1, 1979.

So you see,

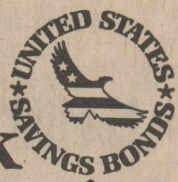

Bonds are getting better all the time. This new 6 1/2% interest rate, together with the tax advantages available, makes Savings Bonds even more attractive.

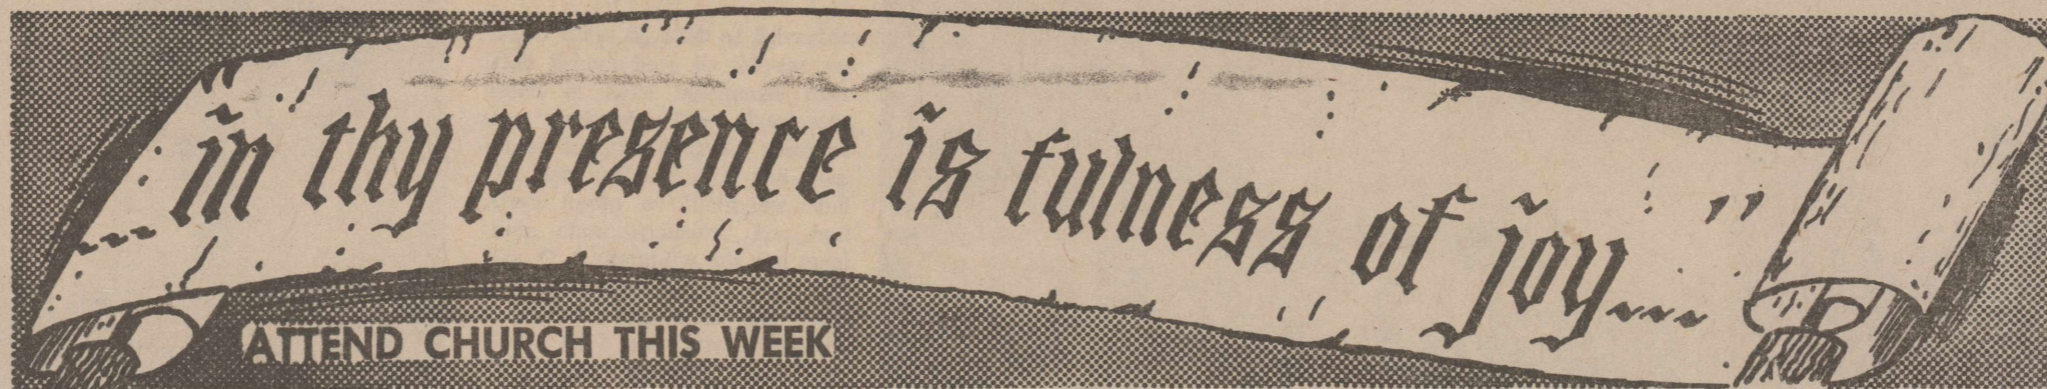

And when you buy Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan at work, or the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank, Bonds are still the most convenient, easiest, safest way to save.

If you haven't thought about Savings Bonds for awhile, this is the kind of news that should increase your interest.

Bonds are a better buy than ever before.

The Carpenter's FRIEND

To build... one must have plans, and plans give exact measurements. The carpenter who makes careful measurements finds that the work is made easier. Careful measuring prevents waste... waste of time and materials. Therefore the measuring device is truly a friend to the carpenter.

The church wants to be your friend, and help you to a easier and better way of life. The Bible clearly gives us a way to measure life. Through many centuries man has found no better rules than those given in the Bible.

Attend church and receive the friendly welcome that awaits you.

MRS. JOHN DUDLEY EDWARDS

Walker - Edwards Vows Exchanged
In Double-Ring Ceremony Saturday

Candelabra accented with greenery woven with coral flowers and ivory candles decorated the altar of the First Baptist Church in Silverton and provided a background for the marriage of Miss Cynthia Ann Walker and John Dudley Edwards on Saturday evening, August 11, 1979. The Rev. Royce Denton, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mack Walker of Silverton, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards of New Home, Texas.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal-length gown of ivory chiffon over taffeta underskirt fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline. Her sheer sleeves were accented with Alencon lace at the cuffs. Her bodice also was covered with Alencon lace and seed pearls. Her high waistline enhanced the A-line skirt which flowed into a chapel-length train.

A mantilla of ivory illusion edged with Chantilly lace and seed pearls completed her ensemble.

She carried a bouquet of silk coral and candlelight roses with baby's breath and rosebuds showered with candlelight ribbon tied in love knots atop a white Bible.

To carry out bridal tradition, she wore a diamond necklace given to her by her parents as something old, her dress and pearl earrings given to her by the bridegroom as something new, borrowed the white Bible that her mother carried in her own wedding, and added an ivory garter accented with a touch of blue.

Serving her friend as maid of honor was Miss Bryndy Cullum of Dallas. She wore a coral qiana gown designed with spaghetti straps and a matching lace jacket, and carried three long-stemmed silk candlelight roses with baby's breath tied with matching ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Misses Rita Pinkerton and Valerie Craig, of Canyon, and Debbie Hall of Sudan. Their gowns and flowerers were the same as those of the maid of honor.

Candles were lighted by Miss Donna Boling of Silverton and

Grant To Fund Study Of Solar System Electric Generating Units

Berl Springer, president and chief operating officer of Southwestern Public Service Company, has announced that the Department of Energy (DOE) has awarded a grant of approximately $500 thousand to the General Electric Company and Southwestern Public Service Company to study the feasibility of repowering one of Southwestern's generating units with a solar system.

"This would be one of the largest solar projects in the United States," Springer said. "The grant will fund an engineering study for repowering our No. 3 generating unit at Plant X, near Earth, Texas."

The proposed solar system would utilize a liquid metal-cooled central receiver to re-power the 100,000 kilowatt gas-fired unit at Plant X and would be designed to supply 60% of the thermal energy required for the full output of the generating unit.

The solar portion of the system consists of a surround field of glass, unenclosed heliostats reflecting the solar insolation to a tower-mounted cylindrical receiver. The receiver is cooled by liquid sodium with the flow rate through each receiver panel controlled by individual electromagnetic pumps, so that a constant outlet temperature can be maintained.

James Kent of Carlsbad, New Mexico. Miss Boling wore a coral gown with spaghetti straps fashioned identically to the dresses worn by the bridesmaids. Guests were seated by Jimmy Walker of Breckenridge, brother of the bride; Larry Durham, brother-in-law of the groom, Alan Eades, cousin of the groom, Monty Moleny and Dale Clem, all of New Home, Texas.

Groomsmen were Chief Davidson of Silverton, Robbie Young of Muleshoe and Scott McAllister, New Home.

Best man was Marty McClintock of New Home.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Karen Walker of Breckenridge, soloist, Mrs. Bob Rauch, pianist, and Jimmy Burson, violinist. Selections included "Looking Through the Eyes of Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother chose a gown of aqua lace designed with a matching long-sleeved jacket and added a corsage of white cushion mums for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length gown of dusty rose and also added a corsage of white cushion mums.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony.

The refreshment table was covered with a candlelight lace cloth over a coral underlay. Crystal candle holders with ivory tapers and the bouquets of the bride and her attendants were placed in the center of the table. A three-tiered ivory cake accented with net and small coral roses was served with punch, mints and nuts by Miss Celia Martin, Silverton; Mrs. Ken Cantrell, Canyon, and Miss Andrea Eades, New Home.

Mrs. Victor Weaks presided at the guest registry.

Others assisting with the reception were Mrs. Buck Hardin, Mrs. Guinn Fitzgerald, Mrs. Jessie Bomar, Mrs. Duane Reynolds, Mrs. Johnnie Burson, Mrs. Gordon Lowrey, Miss Jan Reynolds and Miss Angie Lowrey, all of Silverton, and Mrs. Carroll Welch of Tulia.

Little Misses Sunny Walker of Breckenridge and Kary Durham of New Home, nieces of the couple, distributed rice bags made of candlelight tulle tied with cocoa ribbon from wicker baskets during the reception. They wore long floral coral dresses with matching hats and ribbon.

Following their wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the couple will be at home in Canyon where both are students at West Texas State University. For traveling, the bride chose a red sundress with matching jacket and added a corsage of white cushion mums.

The bride is a graduate of Silverton High School, and has attended Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene. She is presently employed by the Economics Department at WTSU.

The bridegroom is a graduate of New Home High School and is employed by Radio Shack at Puckett Place in Amarillo.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, the bridegroom's parents, were hosts for a rehearsal party August 10 in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church in Silverton.
