Research Workers Visit Rural Schools of the County

Misses Jahorska and Anderson, who have been doing social and religious research work here for the past few days, have visited all the rural schools this week. The Haskell county citizens are indebted to Mr. Lebo for seide and have M. F. Lowrance, a curing these young ladies to do this carpenter, overhauling the place work. It was through A. & M. College that he got them to come here, and they will put Haskell with 150 other small towns on the map, as everything of interest will be recorded. Research workers can find out everything about the cities, but this will be the first time in history that they will have knowledge of small towns available.

FOSTER GIRLS DEFEAT MIDWAY IN FIRST GAME

The Foster girls basket ball team played their first scheduled game Friday, when they defeated Midway in an easy game, the final score being 20 to 8. This was the second game that the Foster girls have played and they are going to make a strong bid for the county championship.

They will play Tanner Paint next Friday at Tanner Paint.

The following girls played for Foster in the last game: Forwards: Lola Faulkner, Robert Faulkner. Centers: Mildred Clark, Jewel Bristow. Guards: Bernice Best, Edith Turbyfield.

Boy Injured by Fall From Horse News was received here early this week that the little son of R. E. Reaves living on the Stoker farm near the Hemphill lake was thrown or accidentally fell from a horse he was rid-ing and received such injuries that he was taken to the Stamford sanitarium for treatment. We trust that his injuries will not prove serious.

FORMER HASKELL LADY ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Mrs. Roy Browning of Boulder, Colo. was instantly killed last Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in a street car accident in that city

The accident was caused by the motorman on the car in which she was riding losing control of the car, and seeing that he was going to crash into a passenger train ordered the occupants of the car to jump. Mrs. Browning's foot slipped on the ice and she fell under the rear coach of the train and was instantly killed.

Mrs. Browning was formerly Miss Lenn Glascow, a niece of Mrs. J. A. Couch and Mrs. J. A. Bailey of this city, and lived here a number of years. The deceased has a host of friends n this section who will be shocked at the news of her death.

R. E. LEE ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY JUDGE

Judge R. E. Lee authorizes the Free Press to make his announcement this week as a candidate for the office of County Judge to succeed himself, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

Judge Lee is now serving his first term as County Judge and will probably be re-elected without opposition. As public official he has fulfillel his duties and rendered the public honest and efficient service; always on the job and cheerfully doing his work as it should be done. Furthermore, no word of complaint has ever reached us concerning him or the manner in which he has performed his duties during his tenure of office.

He will appreciate your vote and influence and promises to give the same attention to the office in the future as has tried to render in the past.

RHODA AND JUD SCHOOLS

The Rhoda girls met the Jud girls in a hard fought basket ball game Friday afternoon, the 18th.

The first game was played with ourside players, score 14 to 4, in favor of Jud. The second game was played with school girls on both sides, score 4 to 3. in favor of Rhoda.

A nice representation turned out to see the girls play their first game of the season, and were complimented very highly on being the strongest team Rhoda has every known in basket ball.

Two men were talking about friendship, and one of them had praised 1-4t said, "I don't know what Emerson wrote on friendship, but I am willing to accept for myself the definition of a friend, written by some unknown writer, that I found somewhere the other day printed on a slip of paper. Let me read it to you.

"What is a friend," he read. "I will tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself. Your soul can go naked with him. He seems to ask of you to put on nothing, only to be what you are. He does not want you to be better or worse.

"When you are with him you feel as a prisoner feels who has been declared innocent. You do not have to be on your guard. You can say what you think, so long as it is geninely you. He understands those contradictions in your nature that leads others to misjudge you.

"With him you breathe free. You can take off your coat and loosen your little vanities and envies and hates and vicious sparks, your meaness and absurdities, and in opening them up to him they are lost, dissolved on the white ocean of his loyalty. He understands. You do not have to be care-

"You can abuse him, neglect him, tolerate him. Best of all, you can keep still with him. It makes no matter. He likes you. He is like fire that purges all you do. He is like water that cleanses all that you say. He is like wine that warms you to the bone. He understands.

"You can weep with him, laugh with him, sin with him, pray with him, Through and underneath it all he sees, knows and loves you.

"A friend, I repeat, is one whom you dare to be yourself."

THE STATE

People around here have not settled lively interest in pushing the mrsical down to business since the holidays.

No one has plowed any for this year's crop unless it is Uncle Joe Perry, as we see a few furrows that he that is never absent from his place has plowed and is threatening to tear up a lot more of it soon.

Some few bolls to pull yet, but it seems that road working is the order of the day, and radio programs for the night.

Nearly every family have colds among some of its members.

Mrs. Owens seems to be improving but visits the Stamford sanitarium occasionally.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ake of Abilene spent several days in the home of R. L. Livengood recently.

Mrs. John Earls was real sick, but we have not heard how she is for several days.

Mr. Breigh has sold his home to D. L. Adcock and D. L. has already moved so we are told.

Our school seems to be doing fine and has a heavy enrollment.

We have others who would like to do this, ery but put it off from day to day until it is often too late for a news item. There is nothing that can do more for your town than a good newsy paper and you who live in the city and help by giving their news to your county paper. One of our force called on a business man for news last week and the answer came "I have no news to day". After the paper was mailed out the business man said "I thought of two or more news items last week that should have been in the paper but I failed to tell you when you called." This was an honest confession from an honest heart. We appreciate the frank ness of this statement .This is one instance and of cource there are many you do us this little favor? Money-Saving Price-Demolishing

Begins Friday, January 25—Lasts 14 Days

THE MOST AMAZING SALE IN THE STATE OF TEXAS—NEVER IN THE ENTIRE HISTORY OF HASKELL HAVE THERE BEEN SUCH WONDERFUL VALUES!

J. E. GRISSOM & CO. $45,000.00 STOCK of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Oxfords, Ready-to-Wear, Etc.

SOLD TO COURTNEY HUNT &CO. AT A VERY LOW PRICE AND IS NOW BEING SOLD AT SWEEPING REDUCTIONS

If Money Saving Means Anything to You Read This and Profit Thereby

This is not an ordinary sale, not a removal sale. It is not a fake of any sort. It is a case of entirely too much goods. It's just a real oldfashioned, straight-out selling of high-grade, seasonable merchandise at prices far below their value. Look where you will, read what you please, your eyes, your mind and your feet should lead you towards this store, for so apparent will be the great money-saving benefits of this extraordinary sale event that it will pay you to investigate our statement, which will prove to you that this is no fairy tale but actual facts.

A SALE OF UNUSUAL IMPORTANCE—This announcement is worthy of your consideration, for it's really worth your while to make a mental note of, and come here to see the merchandise, whether you are in immediate need or not. A special sale of such unusual importance (at this time of the year) requires a little explanation—an explanation with a clear, truthful ring. Now here is the reason:

J. E. Grissom & Co., desirous of closing out this stock for personal reasons, the management having other matters coming up, were willing to make a sacrifice rather than to go through the strenuous task of closing the stock out at retail, offering it to Courtney Hunt & Co. at a very low price. Courtney Hunt, being on the alert, was quick to realize what a wonderful opportunity was offered and bought this stock in a manner that will make it profitable to him to give the public even greater price concessions than has ever been offered in Haskell.

It is the intention of Courtney Hunt & Co. to "sell the goods for what they will bring"-sell it at such drastic reductions as enumerated in this mammoth four-page circular.

In giving a list of prices in this bill, we have taken a few scattering items from various lines we carry, merely to show the reductions made on the entire stock. It would be impossible in a sale bill to give a complete line of price quotations where a whole stock is involved. We want you to know, and we want to assure you, that the bargains to be found here are not confined to the goods listed in this bill, but our entire stock is on sale.

Mr. Courtney Hunt's Statement To You

Having recently purchased interests in this establishment and taking this stock over as manager, and owner in part, I feel that a statement from me to my many friends and customers, whom I prize very highly and upon whose good will rests the success of this establish-

To begin with, it is our intention to reduce certain lines and perhaps certain brands and especially sell out all of this season's goods. We are financially able to carry these goods into next season, but we bought this stock cheap and our policy mapped out is "to carry nothing over from season to season that a price will move.'

It means just this. The closing out of thousands of dollars worth of new merchandise at radical price reductions and we feel that this policy is worth more to this store and its future business than mere

In an ordinary sense of the word, we have no old stock. Our entire stock has been purchased with care and the store has been run by thorough merchandising men and it positively can not grow old

The Future of This Store

It is the intention of Courtney Hunt & Co. to continue in business the location which we now occupy, being the former location of J. Grissom & Co. and we respectfully and earnestly solicit the patronage of the public of Haskell and adjoining trade territory. It shall be our aim to run an institution that will be worth something to the farmers and retail buying public and our motto will be "HIGHEST QUALITY-LOWEST PRICE AND BEST SERVICE."

Jur standard of merchandise begins where merit does and ends with the best. You may select what you require and feel confident you are buying from a most complete stock. The prices you will always find to be right—even when not at sale prices—lower than are named for similar qualities elsewhere. We aim to provide something new—something better—than the old style store—and always at the lowest price consistent with quality. We feel a bit proud of our store—and the way we have joined low prices and these high qualities.

C. O. Scott of Midway, one of Haskell county's best farmers, was in the city Wednesday and talking to a Free Press reporter about the farming conditions said, "The ground was plowing fine and that he was feeling good over the crop prospects for Haskell county. Mr. Scott further stated that he was a great advocate of the section harrow as a successful farm tool for West Texas soil. He uses the harrow extensively before plowing his ground and he states that it preserves the moisture and when the plowing is done the ground is better pulverised through the use of the harrow. He also finds a great service in the harrow for his growing crop.

Everyone who wants to improve his place or save money around his farm, needs the new Portland Cement Association booklet "Concrete Around the Home."

Home"

It tells in everyday language the easiest, simplest and most economical way to use Concrete for making drives, walks, septic tanks, garages and other permanent improvements. Easily followed instructions give you all the details necessary for estimating materials, mixing, placing and finishing the Concrete.

"Concrete Around the Home" is only one of our many booklets available without charge to those interested in using Concrete.

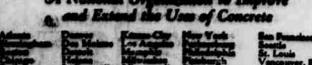

If you are planning any of the money-saving concrete improvements seen everywhere nowadays, such as a permanent floor, basement, or foundation for your buildings, a manure pit, feeding floor, corncrib or sile, we have a booklet on the subject with complete instructions for build-ing it of Concrete.

Remember this service is free. The Portland Cement Association has 28 offices, listed below, and one of them is your office—the one nearest you.

Find which one it is, and write today about the concrete improvements you are planning. There are people in that office whose business it is to help you save money by making it easy for you to use concrete. Let them show you how they can help you.

JANUARY IDEAL MONTH FOR SOWING SWEET CLOVER

January is perhaps the ideal month for sowing Sweet Clover. December is good but if for any reason it was not scape 1, resisting posse searching for done in December then January is just as good or even better.

Many farmers seem to have the idea that Sweet Clover should not be sown until warm spring weather. That is a mistake. Success does not follow late spring sowing but winter sowing. Freezing and thawing softens the hard seed coat of Sweet Clover seed and hastens and improves their germina-Missouri 1, Oklahoma 1, Texas 1, and tion. Get Behind Your Teacher

Now that the holidays are over, the children have had a restful and happy vacation from school work, the parents have dedicated selves anew to the kind of on earth" which makes for a better world for their children, and we enthusiastic accomplishment isn't it a good time for parents and school trustees to show their, appreciation of the work of the teacher Next to the parents no one is so interested in the children's welfare, so devoted to their general growth and development as well as their school education as the teacher. Their work will be far more effective if the children know that the parents and trustees believe in them, trust their judgment and back them up in their ideals and their decisions. They will be happier as well as more effective in doing it if ried darkey, was one day appr the appreciation that is in the hearts by a life insurance agent.
