FAMILY MATTERS

The last verse in the last chapter of the last book of the Old Testament says of "Elijah" (John, the Baptist, Mt. 17:11-13; Lk. 1:13-17) that "he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers" lest the Lord "come and smite the earth with a curse (Malachi 4:6).

It is interesting that this very "last verse" closes the Old Testament with such strong family-reference.

Although it seems that Malachi 4:6 may relate to turning the hearts of the Jews to the ancestral religion of their "fathers," there's no question about the need in every age to restore a right relationship between parents and children.

Prophets of doom affirm the demise of the family in America. But when the hearts of fathers and children turn wisely (through Christ) to each other, there is hope!

Some fathers (parents) are concerned only about a child's physical beauty, athletic prowess, acceptance and notoriety in society, and economic success.

Of her precious boy Hannah said, "I have granted him to Jehovah" (1 Sam. 1:28). Fathers are exhorted, "... provoke not your children to wrath: but nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord" (Eph. 6:4).

COMPARE COST PER SERVING FOR BEST BEEF BUYS

When making your beef selections at the meat counter, think in terms of cost per serving rather than cost per pound. This way you will be able to compare cuts to determine which are the best buys.

Some boneless cuts, although priced higher than bone-in cuts, may be better buys because there is less waste. To determine approximate cost per serving, simply divide the price per pound by the number of servings per pound the cut will yield.

An estimated 6,800 deaths in 1984 from cervical cancer, 2,900 from endometrial cancer.

Maxine Morris, Jody Dunham, Blanche Newman, Betty Olive, Anna Belle Tipton, Mary Martin and Rev. Jerry Miller attended the funeral services for Mrs. Mildred Crum in Dimmitt Saturday afternoon. Rev. Miller assisted with the funeral along with Rev. Vernon O'Kelly, pastor of the Methodist Church.

SERVING GUIDELINES FOR BEEF OUTDOORS

When cooking beef on the grill, be sure to plan for hearty appetites. It's generally recommended that you allow the following amounts per person: 1/4 to 1/2 pound ground beef, 1/2 pound boneless beef and 1/2 to one pound beef with bone. Remember, too, that some diners may want more than one serving.

Early warning signals include unusual bleeding or discharge.

CALL FAMILY TOGETHER FOR DAD'S DAY TRIBUTE

This year, make Father's Day a real family affair. In addition to honoring dad, pay tribute, too, to grandfathers, uncles, cousins and brothers. All are special and will enjoy being a part of the festivities.

An ideal menu choice for entertaining a crowd is an impressive beef roast cooked to perfection on the rotisserie. When choosing a roast, look for one that's boneless, naturally tender, compact and fairly uniform in shape. Beef rib eye, tip, rump and top round roasts are all popular rotisserie choices.

LOOK TO BEEF FOR MANY ESSENTIAL NUTRIENTS

It's reassuring to know that when you serve dad one of his favorite beef meals for Father's Day, you are not only satisfying his appetite, you are also satisfying many of his nutritional needs.

Beef is an outstanding source of high-quality protein needed daily by the body to build, maintain and repair tissues and help resist infection and disease. Essential B-vitamins found in beef include niacin, riboflavin, thiamin, B-6 and B-12. Beef is an especially important source of iron for it contains heme iron, the type easily utilized by the body.

GIFT IDEAS FOR THE OUTDOOR CHEF

Looking for something different to give dad this Father's Day—something he'll appreciate and be able to use?

If dad enjoys presiding over the outdoor grill, he's sure to welcome a variety of accessories that will make his job easier. Necessary tools include tongs for turning steaks and a spatula for turning burgers. A basting brush or small paint brush makes it easy to apply a glaze while a roast meat thermometer is a must when barbecuing roasts. You might also give him a grill thermometer that will indicate the fire's temperature.

For another great gift, give dad a good carving set with a sharp knife, fork and steel. He'll appreciate it every time he carves his favorite beef roast.

Marinated Blade Steaks Keep Budget In Line

If you want to treat dad to a satisfying beef steak for Father's Day, but need to keep within a limited food budget, choose economical yet flavorful beef blade steaks.

The secret to broiling blade steaks is to first marinate them. The marinade should contain some type of food acid such as vinegar, wine or tomato or lemon juice. Marinating should take place in the refrigerator for four to six hours or overnight, if desired.

Not only does the marinade tenderize the blade steak, it also provides many possibilities for flavor variety. The marinade can also be used as a basting sauce during broiling. For the most tender results, marinated blade steaks should be broiled only to rare or medium.

Cemetery Association Has Annual Meeting

The Silvertown Cemetery Association held its annual meeting recently. Carrie Dell Dickerson and John Francis were re-elected to three-year terms on the board of directors.

Items discussed included the need for metal markers to be placed on new graves by the funeral directors; the surveying and remapping of the west side of the cemetery; the Memorial Day program; use of ground killer on charted lots; the possibility of having the entrances to the cemetery paved, and the repurchase of unused portions of available lots.

Anyone having as much as one-half lot in the cemetery that they don't plan to use is asked to contact Carolyn Lowrey by mail at Box 795, Silvertown, or by phone, 823-2255. One-half lot includes four burial spaces.

Since the annual meeting, the surveying and marking of the extreme west side has been completed by John Crowell, Cletus Grady, David Kellum, Pascal Garrison and Ashel McDaniel. The north portion of this area will continue to be sold as single spaces and the south portion will be sold in lots like the other part of the cemetery.

The Green Thumb workers repainted the fence installed last year on the south side of the cemetery. They did it because they wanted it to look better.

The Memorial Day program was held at 10:00 a.m. on May 28. Don Burson gave the welcome, followed by a response by Wayne Nance. Members of the Rock Creek Church of Christ sang several songs and Bro. Jerry Miller, pastor of the First Baptist Church, delivered the message. Rev. John Bailey, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, gave the benediction.

THANK YOU!

The Silvertown Cemetery Association again wants to express its appreciation to the March of Time and Century of Progress study clubs for collecting donations on Memorial Day. For your faithfulness through the years, we are most grateful.

To the many who brought and have sent donations, we again say thanks. It is your support that keeps the cemetery in good condition.

Thanks also to the Green Thumb workers who repainted the fence. You have helped to improve the looks of our cemetery.

To the men who surveyed and installed the markers on the west side, we also give appreciation. This will prove to be most helpful in measuring burial sites.

Thanks, too, to all who participated in the program on Memorial Day. It is a meaningful time for us all to come together and remember those who have gone before us. Maybe next year we can have better weather.

To the community, we also say thanks for all your support and encouragement.

Comptroller Sends Lawmakers A Research Report

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has sent state lawmakers a research report showing Texas exempts more items from its sales tax base than nearly any other state.

"Right now we're exempting from the sales tax about twice as much as we're collecting," Bullock said. "We collect about $4 billion a year and exempt about another $7.6 billion more."

Bullock said the Texas Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax now exempts all services, such as remodeling and dry cleaning; almost everything that is taxed under other statutes, such as cigarettes and gasoline; materials used in manufacturing and supplies and machinery used in farming and ranching.

"The Legislature has been adding to the list of exempt items nearly every time they have met since we adopted the sales tax in 1961," Bullock said. "This year, they're liable to be headed in the other direction, cancelling some of these exemptions to raise more revenue. Together with the revenue alternatives document I have sent them, this study comparing our state sales tax policy with policies in other states is the best set of tools I can give them for making decisions about our state tax structure."

Bullock cautioned Legislators about wholesale cancellation of the exemptions, however.

"When you look at exemptions, you've got to ask yourself why some things are taxed and some things are not. For instance, we don't tax necessities like groceries or prescription medicines so that we won't put too much of our state tax load on the poor people who are the least able to pay. And that's as it should be."

Governor's shopping list was just as long as expected. Over the next 30 days the House and Senate will concentrate on the educational needs of the State and strive to find a source of funds for our battered and declining highways.

First things first; the various committees in the two bodies will begin deliberations on public education reform before setting sights on legislation of a tax nature to pay for the increased spending levels being called for in teacher salaries and money to fix the roads.

Unfortunately, given the current estimates of available revenue for Texas, it has become apparent that some sort of revenue increase will be necessary if we are to reach our goal of providing a quality education. At this point it would be a fairly accurate assumption, I think, to see a 1-cent increase in the State's 4-cent general sales and motor vehicle sales and rental taxes, a 5-cent a gallon hike in the gasoline tax, a 5-cent per pack boost in the cigarette tax and a 20 percent increase in levies on liquor beer, wine and mixed drinks. You can be sure that in selecting the appropriate form of revenue raising legislation, I will only support those increases which will prove the least burdensome to the citizens of Texas.

These combined taxes would produce revenue in the neighborhood of $4.8 billion over the next three years. Given these revenue limitations with which to work, the total cost of any educational reform and highway repair authorized by the Legislature must fall within this range.

My concerns during this important Session of the Legislature will be to ensure that the Panhandle receives an equitable portion of the funding, that our educational needs are met without sacrifice of existing programs and that the State as a whole benefits from what is done.

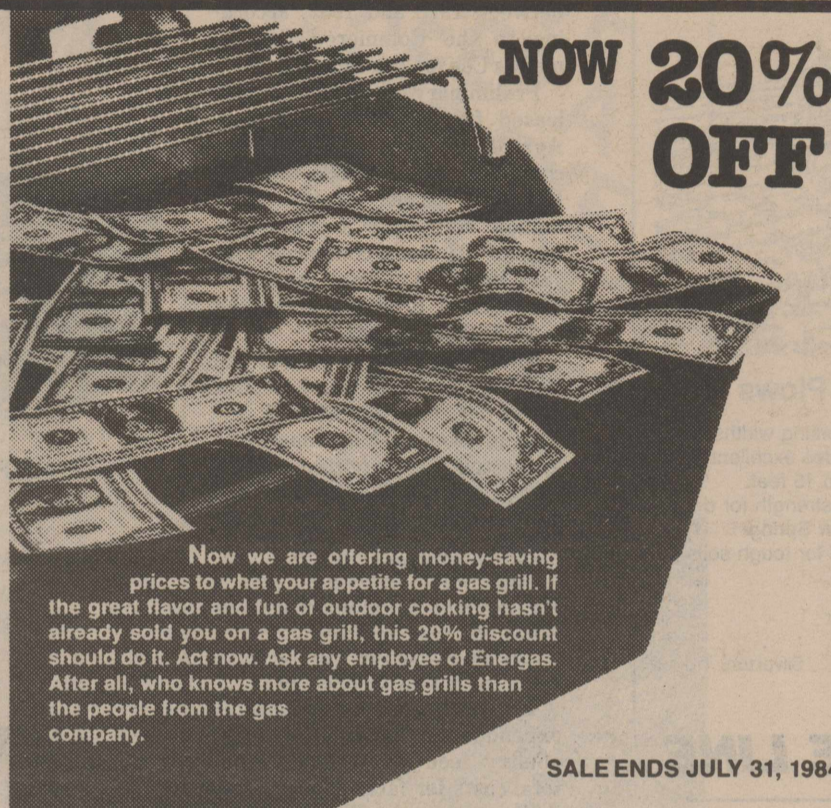

Of great concern to me is being asked as your State Senator to go to Austin and vote for all of these tax bills, and then to tell the people by doing this we will improve the quality of education in this state. At the same time, they are eliminating many of the valuable programs and are telling the school districts if they want to keep those programs they will have to pay for them on the local level. This means I will have to come back to the Texas Panhandle and tell our schools they, too, will be in the position of having to raise property taxes as well. I find this difficult to accept.

BUY TEXAS-GROWN PRODUCE THIS YEAR

The "fresh approach" is the in-thing again this year. Fresh vegetables are plentiful in Texas now, so make sure you get your share, says a horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Texas supplies broccoli, cabbage, carrots, spinach, lettuce and potatoes in early spring followed by cantaloupes, cucumbers, honeydews, squash, peppers and tomatoes.

Blackberries, plums and early peaches will be available in late May and June along with watermelons, blackeyed peas and okra.

Not only is this produce fresher than that usually found in supermarkets, but it is likely to be cheaper due to reduced costs in transportation, packaging and refrigeration.

The most commonly used word in English conversation is "I".

Number of Briscoe County Farms Is Decreasing

Preliminary reports of the 1982 Census of Agriculture show that the number of farms in Briscoe County decreased from 287 to 251 since the 1978 census. All land in farms totaled 397,057 acres in 1982, an average of 1,582 acres per farm. The Census Bureau defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were sold or normally would have been sold.

Land from which crops were harvested decreased to 83,014 acres since 1978.

The county's farmers sold $12.4 million in agricultural products according to preliminary reports from the 1982 Census of Agriculture. The 1982 sales figure represents an average of $49,597 for each of the county's farms.

The census reports that $7.8 million or 63% of total sales were for crops, while $4.7 million or 37% of the total came from the sale of livestock, poultry, and their products.

Preliminary data indicate that expenditures for feed for livestock and poultry were $578,000; total farm energy costs were $2.8 million; fertilizer costs were $731,000, and seed costs were $512,000.

Of the total farms in the county, 96 had gross sales of $40,000 or more; 82 reported sales of less than $10,000. Farms operated as sole proprietorships represented 82% of the total. In 1982, the average age of farm operators was 51.6 years. The proportion of operators reporting farming as their principal occupation decreased from 82 to 76% over the four-year period.

Data in the report for 1978 and 1982 are directly comparable for acreages and inventories. Dollar values have not been adjusted for changes in price levels.

Preliminary reports can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402.

CENSUS REPORT SHOWS TEXAS HAD GAIN IN FARMS
Texas farms gained in numbers and decreased in size between 1978 and 1982, according to the Commerce Department's Census Bureau.

Preliminary reports just released for the 1982 Census of Agriculture show 185,026 farms, compared with 175,395 in 1978. Land in farms totaled 130.8 million acres, an average per farm of 707 acres, compared with 773 in 1978. Total sales of agricultural products amounted to $8.9 billion in 1982.

The average value of land and buildings per farm was $388,198, with a per acre value of $549.

Land from which crops were harvested was reported at 20.8 million acres, and acres irrigated fell from 6.9 million to 5.6 million in 1982.

The Bureau defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were, or normally would have been, sold in the census year.

The preliminary data include expenditures for livestock and poultry feed were $1.5 billion; total costs for farm energy, $730 million; for fertilizer, $368.1 million; and for hired labor, $477.9 million.

The sales of livestock, poultry and their products were $5.9 billion, 66% of total agricultural sales. Dairy products amounting to $472.9 million were sold from 3,118 farms. The number of milk cows was up from 307,297 in the previous census to 322,198 in 1982.

The total cattle and calves inventory of 12.5 million head on 143,473 farms was down from 12.7 million in 1978. The 10.5 million sold were down from 12.1 million four years earlier.

Some 8,125 farms reported 2.3 million head of sheep and lambs, with 2.2 million shorn yielding 15.2 million pounds of wool; 1.8 million head were sold.

An inventory of 559,590 hogs and pigs including 76,195 for breeding purposes was reported on 9,484 farms of which 194 farms had inventories of 500 or more and accounted for 56 percent of the state's total inventory. A total of 925,303 hogs and pigs were reported sold, of which 118,076 were feeder pigs.

Sales of poultry and their products were $451.7 million. Some 16,873 farms reported an inventory of 15.1 million chickens three months old or older; 16,653 farms reported 12.8 million hens and pullets; and 1,024 farms, 176.6 million broilers sold. In addition 347 farms sold five million turkeys compared with 7.2 million sold in 1978.

The sale of crops amounted to $3 billion. By harvested acreage, among the leading crops were wheat, with 123 million bushels from 5.1 million acres; sorghum, with 256 million bushels from 4.8 million acres; and cotton, with 2.7 million bales from 4.5 million acres. Other crops included corn, 1.1 million acres; soybeans, 718,668 acres, and rice, 520,227 acres.

Agriculture census data for Texas also revealed these facts:

*Of the total farms in the state, 13,787 had gross sales of $10,000 or more; 121,183 reported sales of less than $10,000.

*The average age of farm operators was 52.9 years; 22,035 were under 35, and 88,677 were 55 or older.

*Women operated 12,427 or seven percent of the state's farms.

*Forty-three percent of the operators reported farming as their principal occupation, but 52% of all operators worked 100 days or more off the farm.

*Eighty-nine percent of the farms were operated by individuals. See NUMBER OF BRISCOE—Continued on Page 11

More Power To You

Pulling Power

When you buy a four-wheel-drive tractor you're buying pulling power. So put your money where the power is... at the drawbar. That's why Steigers are designed to deliver more of their rated engine horsepower to the drawbar. The rugged, reliable and efficient drivetrain is the key.

Buying Power

It seems like a lot of people think that a Steiger costs more than it does. They look at the tractor's pulling power, its reputation for reliability, and the ruggedness. And then mistakenly assume they have to pay extra to get all this. Steigers cost less than a lot of competitive four-wheel drives that have lesser features and specs.

SPECIAL SUMMER FINANCING

Now your buying power is even better! For a limited time when you buy a new Steiger in addition to its efficient pulling power you can receive:

- ◆ Financing as low as 8.9% APR*
- ◆ Interest Waiver to March 1, 1985*
- ◆ $5000 Cash Rebate From Steiger

See your Steiger dealer for details today!

SAY THANKS TO DAD WITH SPECIAL TRIBUTE

Today we celebrate Father's Day thanks to the efforts of a grateful daughter, Mrs. John Dodd of Spokane, Washington, who was Father's Day's most influential promoter. She first got the idea for the celebration while listening to a sermon on Mother's Day in 1909. Her own father had raised six children after his wife died at an early age. Because of the sacrifices of her father and fathers everywhere, Mrs. Dodd drew up a proposal for Father's Day. Her idea was approved and in 1910, Spokane was the first city to honor fathers with their special day.

Mrs. Dodd had chosen June 5th, her father's birthday, for the observance, but this didn't allow sufficient time for ministers to prepare their sermons. So Spokane's first Father's Day actually took place on the third Sunday in June.

We are still honoring fathers on the third Sunday in June and for the same reason—grateful appreciation. To let your father know just how much he's appreciated, honor him with a special family meal featuring all his favorite foods, including a satisfying beef steak or juicy roast.

The American Cancer Society recommends the monthly practice of breast self-examination (BSE) by all women of all ages.

Dale McWaters is coaching the team composed of Bradley Brunson, Stan Gamble, Wayne Martin, Amy Ramsey, Justin McFall and Lance Bradford.

TIPS FOR COOKING A ROTISSERIE ROAST

What could be more impressive than a tantalizing beef roast cooked to perfection on the outdoor rotisserie! Fortunately for the grillside chef, cooking a boneless beef tip, top round, rump or ribeye roast to a turn on the spit is as easy as it is delicious.

For even turning the roast should be balanced on the rod before cooking begins. A roast meat thermometer should be used to determine exact degree of doneness. Be sure that the thermometer does not rest in fat or on the rod and check to see that it will clear the grill as the roast turns.

Once cooking begins, the roast requires little attention for it bastes itself in its own juices as it turns. It may be necessary, however, to add coals as the roast cooks to maintain a constant moderate temperature. If desired, the roast can be brushed with your favorite barbecue sauce during the last 20 to 30 minutes of cooking.

CARDS OF THANKS

We want to thank each and every one for their assistance in putting out our grass fire. A special thank-you to the Silvertown Volunteer Fire Department. We are very grateful.
Gail and Walter Arnold

Thank you to all persons of Silvertown, Quitaque and Briscoe County for your assistance to the Matador Volunteer Fire Department and our community after the tornado on May 1, 1984. It is comforting to know we have so many friends who are there to help whenever needed.
Thanks for all your help.
The officers and members of Matador Volunteer Fire Department

We want to thank everyone for the food, visits, flowers, cards, telephone calls, prayers and words of encouragement during the illness and death of our mother and grandmother.

It was appreciated very much.
Ann and Sherri McJimsey
Juanita Mattice and family
Raymond Crum and family

A very special thank-you for the cards, plants, prayers, visits and phone calls since I broke my leg. An especially big thanks to my Fifth Grade Class and mothers for the surprise party and the sweet gifts, and refreshments they brought; also thanks to the faculty and kids at school for all their help and consideration.

Also, I appreciate my family taking time from their busy lives to slow down and help me. It's strange how we take things so for granted until we have to do without them. I'll always be more thankful for two good legs to walk on when I get well. I appreciate my friends more than words can express.

People in this town are the greatest when help and support are needed.
May God bless each of you.

I want to thank everyone who called, sent flowers, cards, food and all the things that were done for me in the loss of my brother. God bless each and every one of you.
