The music by Mrs. Pace was good and the songs by the choir were most excellent. The sermon was one of the most unusall who are interested in fishing, boat- ual and best ever preached here. Bro. Forrester brought out so forcibly the difference between dissatisfaction and unsatisfaction. The members of the class were a group of young people that any town would be proud to own. The girls looked so pretty in their costumes of beautiful pastel shade with hats to match and the boys looked very manly with their neat suits. The unusual program was as follows: Processional-Mrs. John W. Pace. "Lead Us Onward"-Choir.
