supply friends and neighbors with these quality items. The Broom and Mop Sale will be located on the north side of the courthouse square, where citizens may purchase from the Caravan truck.

Sales of blind-made products in previous years have been very successful and Silverton Lions expressed confidence for reaching a new all-time goal this year. Every home and business can use some of these cleaning aids, and every item purchased helps to provide the dignity and security of regular employment for blind citizens.

Consulting Engineer Commissioned To Conduct Tests, Analysis

Late last week Bill McMorries, consulting engineer of the firm of McMorries and Associates, was commissioned by the Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority to conduct a full battery of tests and analysis of Lake Mackenzie water, in an effort to determine what has caused the odor and taste in the water.

Working in concert with Mr. McMorries is C. H. Scherer, a noted water consultant of Water and Environmental Technology of Amarillo. Both raw and treated water samples are being analyzed by this team to more clearly identify the cause. Final test results are expected by late this week.

In the interim, Mr. McMorries advises the Authority that the current treatment process is the best course for now.

Authority officials, as well as Health Department officials, continue to assure users the water is perfectly safe.

Mackenzie Authority Tax Rate To Remain Same

In its recent meeting, the Mackenzie Water Authority board voted to keep the present 25c per $100 valuation tax rate for another year.

The decision was made after Manager Neil Taylor presented the maintenance and recreational budget for the coming year. Taylor added, "This rate is not sufficient for the expenditures of the Authority; however, the Authority has some surplus monies which it needs to reduce."

Dale Bailey, owner of Cactus Cove Marina and the boat rental barns, told the board that his rate of rental for boat storage units was $180 per year or $30 per month. He said they were 40% occupied.

He further stated that he had to put additional money into the operation of Cactus Cove and the boat storage facilities during the past year; however, the situation was improving, although he was not at a break-even point.

In other business the board agreed to pay Hulén Wall, president of Hi-Plains Pavers, Inc., an additional $2,400 for pre-coated limestone aggregate that had to be used in paving at the lake to cure bleeding of tar caused by hot weather.

New manager Jim McAlister was introduced to the board and a plaque of appreciation was presented to the retiring manager, Neil Taylor.

A fish fry and supper preceded the meeting, with representatives from all four towns present at the retirement party honoring Mr. Taylor. He and his wife have returned to their home in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt visited Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hunt, Clint and Kayla in Clarendon Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Stan (Roma) Martin was a patient at Lockney General Hospital from August 15 until August 17.

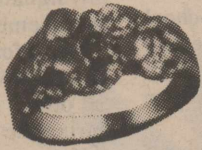

Mrs. Fred (Lois) Hill, Silverton Telethon Coordinator, recently attended the 1985 Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon Coordinators' Meeting in Amarillo. Mrs. Donnie (Sandy) Perkins will be the Pledge Center Coordinator this year. The Pledge Center will be located at City Hall, 409 Broadway.

Mayor Proclaims Telethon Weekend

Silverton Mayor A. R. Martin recently signed an official proclamation of Telethon Weekend. The Mayor's proclamation read:

Whereas, the citizens of Silverton have shown an ever-increasing concern with the welfare of this nation's victims of neuromuscular disease; and

Whereas, the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon provides major support for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, which sponsors a worldwide program of scientific research on neuromuscular diseases and maintains a network of 240 clinics to serve patients throughout the country suffering from this crippling illness; and

Whereas, the City of Silverton is honored to receive the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon—an event which each year unites millions of volunteers from every corner of America and which, with the dollar it raises, benefits the lives of so many more;

Now, Therefore, I, A. R. Martin, Mayor of the City of Silverton, Texas, do hereby proclaim September 1-2, 1985

Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon Weekend in Silverton, and urge all citizens to give full support, as they have done so generously in the past, to the programs of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, and to the unceasing efforts of its National Chairman Jerry Lewis.

School Serves Nutritious Meals Every School Day

The Silverton Public School serves nutritious meals every school day. Students may buy lunch for 75c and breakfast for 35c.

Children from families whose income falls within the level shown on the scale (available at the school office) are eligible for either free meals or reduced-price meals priced at 40c for lunch and 30c for breakfast.

To apply for free or reduced-price meals, you may fill out an application form (available at the school office), sign it, and return it to the school. All questions on the form are to be answered. An application which does not contain the following information cannot be processed: (1) the total household income listed by the amount received by each household member receiving income and the type of income it is (such as wages, child support, etc.) or the food stamp case number if your household is on food stamps, (2) names of all household members, (3) social security numbers of all household members 21 years old or older or the word "none" for any household member who does not have a social security number, and (4) the signature of an adult household member.

The information on the application may be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must tell the school when your household income increases by more than $50 per month ($600 per year) or when your household size decreases.

You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

If you have foster children living with you, they may be eligible for these benefits. If you wish to apply for these benefits for them, please contact the school for help in completing the application.

Children who receive free or reduced-price meals benefits are treated the same as children who pay for meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or handicap. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250.

If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing the following official: O. C. Rampley, Superintendent, Box 597, Silverton, Texas 79257, 806-823-2476.

The information you provide will be treated confidentially and will be used only for eligibility determination and verification of data.

If you have questions or need help filling out the application, please contact Leonard Morgan, Principal, at 806-823-2476. You will be notified when the application is approved or denied.

Our prices may be discounted. Our values aren't.

Sure price is important. We'd be the first to admit that. Why else would we offer you all the discounts to buy that we do? But once you realize that almost everyone is priced about the same these days, you should look beyond the discounted price...to longer term value (who can top the John Deere 4020), dealer services (24-hour parts availability and financing), specific equipment features (Sound-Gard® body, 15-speed Power Shift, automatic round baling, synchronized TSS transmissions), and a name you know will be around forever. Remember, there will come a time when features other than price will be important to you. That's why we've been a good supplier to farmers like you since 1837.

Extension Soil Testing Lab Increases Automation

Another step for increased efficiency and turnaround time regarding soil testing is the result of a newly installed data logger in the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's Soil Testing Lab at Texas A&M University.

The small boxlike unit, called a polycorder, is about the size of a standard tape recorder and forms the link between the lab's fully automatic pH testing unit and a computer.

Now, once a soil sample is ready for testing, technology takes over. The pH unit automatically analyzes the sample, the polycorder records the data and feeds it into a computer, and the computer issues a printout. The printout is then mailed to the farmer or other individual who submitted the sample.

Someday the information will be sent from the computer to the individual's telephone.

"It all boils down to an extremely streamlined operation for pH testing," points out Dr. Dale Pennington, Extension soil chemist who operates the lab.

Pennington put together the unit along with help from Mike Gerst, Extension computer specialist at Lubbock, and Joe Bilbro, a systems analyst, also at Lubbock. Last year Pennington built the automated pH testing unit which forms the first link in this three-part chain of operation.

The polycorder has a 16k memory and can process up to about 3,000 soil analyses in one operation, or upload 300 entries in 30 seconds to the computer, Pennington explains.

"With this unit, we estimate that we can reduce paperwork at least three hours a day, and less paperwork means less cost and faster turnaround of soil samples," he adds.

"The next step is to develop the software (computer program) to handle other analyses, such as nitrogen, potassium and phosphorus," says the soil chemist. "This polycorder can process 10 different analyses, and once we develop the software, we'll be able to double the number of soil samples we can process in a given period of time."

The new operation in soil testing is a first for Texas and is the first step to fully automating the Extension Service's soil testing program, according to Pennington.

"We process from about 100 soil samples a day during slack seasons to some 250 a day at peak times," he points out. "The number of soil samples sent to our lab is up about 10 percent from a year ago. I think this increase will continue as people become more familiar with our lab and become more conscientious about the kind and amount of fertilizer to apply to crops, lawns and gardens."

SOYBEAN PRICES EXPECTED TO BE LOWER THIS FALL

Soybean growers in Texas and the U. S. will likely see prices around the $5.00 per bushel mark by the time their crop is ready to harvest this fall.

This projected low price is due to an expected good U. S. soybean crop as well as a good crop in Brazil, this nation's chief competitor in the export market, points out Johnny Feagan, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"A good crop along with reduced demand and a sluggish export market will mean larger carryover stocks," Feagan says. "And that can only mean lower prices to growers."

U. S. soybean oil had been selling at around 35 cents per pound until Brazilian oil began to move into export channels, Feagan points out. At that point, the price of U. S. bean oil began to recede and now has settled in at around 26 cents per pound.

According to the economist, the strong U. S. dollar abroad and European Economic Community

Andrew Johnson was the first ex-president to serve later in the Senate.

Wax coatings or rinds keep cheese fresh. To protect cut surfaces, coat them with butter.

With September 1 rapidly approaching, many new laws passed by the 69th Legislature will be taking effect.

One of the most publicized and controversial of these new laws is Senate Bill 500, the mandatory seat belt law. This bill passed the House by a narrow margin of only 15 votes.

While I adamantly opposed this bill during the session and continue to oppose the "big brother" philosophy behind the bill, it will soon be state law.

I religiously "buckle up" every time I get into a motor vehicle, but I resent the state and federal government acting as my big brother and telling me I have to use a seat belt.

Texas has a long-standing tradition of personal freedoms and individual responsibility and I do not believe the government has the right to infringe on these liberties.

However, beginning September 1, persons convicted of violating this law will be subject to a $25 to $50 fine. A "grace period," whereby offenses will not be subject to penalties, will be in effect until December 1, 1985.

Persons 15 years of age and older, who are passengers in the front seat of a motor vehicle, are required to wear a safety belt or be subject to a fine.

The driver of a motor vehicle will be responsible to see that a child at least four years old but less than 15 years old riding in the front seat be secured by a safety belt. Previous law requires infants through children four years old be secured in a child safety seat when riding in a motor vehicle.

Exemptions to this law will be granted to those persons who obtain a written statement from a licensed physician stating that for medical reasons the person is unable to wear a safety belt.

The U. S. soybean crop is estimated at 63.3 million acres compared to 67.7 million last year. Texas farmers should harvest about 350,000 acres, down 50,000 acres from 1984.

If this is your child's first year of school, his first day is a milestone in his life. You, as a parent, play an important role in your child's lifelong attitude toward school and learning. His confidence in dealing with teachers, classmates and authority figures in school is developed by your attitudes toward these new people and situations. His first real separation from the security of home and family should be a positive experience. Your enthusiasm about this new adventure is your greatest gift to your child at this time.

Treat going to school as a normal part of the events of growing up. Be understanding of his feelings and encouraging about his difficulties, but remember, he doesn't have the option of not going to school if he doesn't like it.

Your positive attitude, enthusiasm and support will help him feel excited by this new challenge and build his confidence in accepting future opportunities.

Record books from the 14 districts in Texas were entered in the state-wide competition.

Entries in this 4-H activity reflect a member's project work in all the projects he/she has carried during his/her 4-H years, as well as leadership and community service related to these projects.

Silverton to Take Part in Jerry Lewis Telethon

Silverton will again be one of over 30 cities taking part in the Panhandle segment of the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon with a special Pledge Center located at the City Hall, 409 Broadway Street.

Lois Hill will be the coordinator for the Telethon, and Sandy Perkins will be the Center Co-ordinator this year. The Pledge Center which will be open throughout the Telethon from 9:00 p.m. Sunday, September 1, until 6:30 p.m. Monday, September 2, Labor Day Weekend. A special phone number, 823-2125, has been assigned for use by the people of Silverton to phone in their pledges.

Originating from Las Vegas, the 22½ hour TV marathon is held to benefit the medical services and research programs of the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA). Telephone pledges and donations made through the Silverton Pledge Center, to be manned around the clock by volunteers, will be credited to the citizens throughout the Telethon.

The Panhandle show will again be broadcast by KFDD-TV 10 in Amarillo and will feature Mark Robertson-Baker as host with Marcy Burchett and Don Alexander (KFDD news personalities) as co-hosts. They will interview patients from Pledge Center towns, and will recognize various fund-raisers throughout the Panhandle, in addition to first-hand reports of Pledge Center activities.

This year, "The" Telethon will be aired live from Western Plaza Mall. The location should generate a lot of excitement, as well as increased dollars for the fight against muscular dystrophy. A variety of special events will take place in the mall in conjunction with the marathon show, including various radio station promotions, clowns and a carnival.

Anyone wishing to volunteer to answer phones or help at the Pledge Center in any other way should call Sandy Perkins at 847-2246 as soon as possible.

Funds raised through the Telethon by Silverton citizens will be spent in the Panhandle area to assist patients with muscular dystrophy and to advance MDA's world-wide research program.

Children's Eating Habits Can Be Source Of Worry For Parents

A child's eating habits can be a source of constant worry for parents.

If you think your child overeats, undereats, is overweight or too thin, it's a good idea to check with your family doctor. A physician can use growth charts and medical tests to determine your child's growth rate. If the child is found to be growing well with no weight problems, you can stop worrying.

Dr. Dymple Cooksey, a nutrition specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service, says children often go on eating jags, eating mostly one or a few foods for several days.

"Eating jags are usually temporary," Dr. Cooksey says, "so continue offering good nutritious food in a pleasing way."

When a child doesn't eat much, this may be a normal "slow-down" stage of growth. Eating will increase as nutrient needs increase, she explains.

If obesity is a problem, check to see whether your child is eating too many high fat or sweet foods, or just too much food. Are snacks nutritious or do they contribute excess calories? Does your child get enough exercise? Is too much time spent at quiet activities that use few calories?

The nutritionist points out that many overweight children have one or more overweight parents, and children often follow their parents' eating habits.

Popcorn is an American Indian invention.

shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all they soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.

The basis of God's first and greatest commandment is love. God gave man the freedom to choose ... and therefore will not force his love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

An outstanding season for 1985-86 is being offered by Plainview Community Concert Association with John Gary and Friends presenting the first concert Saturday, December 7.

Programs will continue with a rousing celebration of New Orleans music by the Dukes of Dixieland Thursday, January 23, 1986; the William Hall Chorale, one of the world's great choirs, Thursday, March 6, 1986; and the Empire Brass Quintet Sunday, April 20, 1986.

All performances will be in Herral Auditorium on the Wayland Baptist University campus in Plainview. The first three programs will begin at 8:00 p.m. and the last is set for 2:30 p.m.

Securing memberships in Silverton is Tina Nance, 823-2496.

Workers will be guests at the kick-off dinner September 9 at 7:00 p.m. in the Wayland University Center upstairs dining room. Mary Lloyd, representative from Columbia Artists, will be keynote speaker.

Wheeler and Mrs. Herman Driver, third vice presidents; Claude Witten, treasurer; Mrs. Roy Sawyer, recording secretary; Mrs. Ron White, corresponding secretary, and J. W. King, jr., parliamentarian.

Campaign headquarters are in the Centennial Room of the Hale County State Bank in Plainview, 293-1881.

China Sets Up European Distribution

China's efforts to set up distribution in Europe is just one of many challenges that Cotton Incorporated's new director of international marketing in London will have to tackle.

Brian Jones, formerly director of product and process research for Cotton Incorporated in Raleigh, returned to his native England August 1 to work with Norman Shwrats, manager, Europe. The two will work to expand markets for U. S. cotton by providing technical liaison and marketing services to European mills.

Ira Livingston, Cotton Incorporated vice president of international marketing, said China is still establishing itself in the Far Eastern market, but is making efforts to capture increased share of the European market.

In 1984, U. S. cotton represented roughly one million bales out of about five million consumed in Europe. In the Far East, U. S. cotton represented about four out of eight million bales consumed. The export market represents roughly 55 percent of the total U. S. crop.

The United States continues to be the No. 1 supplier of cotton to both Europe and the Far East, Livingston said.

"As the importance of exports grows for the U. S., it will be necessary for Cotton Incorporated to expand its activities in the international market so that we can establish additional contracts with other large textile markets both in countries that we are already working in and new areas," he said.

Since offices were opened in London and Osaka in 1982, Cotton Incorporated has been the only company that offers technical service, marketing services, new products and fashion ideas to international textile mills.

Cotton is Going Back to School

More than 40 million elementary and high school students are returning to public school and millions more are returning to private schools and college, and cotton—always a hot seller—is part of the action.

"Cotton is well represented in the back-to-school scene and this offers much opportunity to cotton growers," said Libby Clark, Cotton Incorporated Director of Merchandising in New York.

The really big sellers, Ms. Clark said, are the basic all-cotton blue jeans. Manufacturers are working overtime to produce jeans as stores are restocking; demand currently outstrips supply.

Dean Christian, a spokesman for Levi Strauss and Co. in San Francisco, said jeans sales have increased 20 percent this year and the trend is expected to continue into the holidays and beyond. Sales of the 100 percent cotton, five-pocket, button-fly 501 jeans are especially brisk.

Blue jeans are the biggest users of U. S. Upland cotton. Last year, 880,000 bales were used; cotton represented 87 percent of retail purchases (by weight) of the total jeans market, up from 80 percent in 1975.

Cotton Incorporated is also working with Levi's on a major new corduroy product—a 100 percent cotton five-pocket button-fly which will be introduced in key urban markets this month. This product marks the first time Levi's is using the Seal of Cotton in promotions, Ms. Clark said.

"This all-cotton corduroy and another version with a zipper front is expected to continue the momentum for all-cotton in this otherwise lackluster market," she said.

Microwave Ovens Best Used With Caution

Microwave ovens are one of today's biggest time-savers, but Baylor College of Medicine doctors warn that using one to heat a baby's bottle can result in serious injuries and less nutritious milk.

"Milk heated in a microwave oven can reach temperatures high enough to actually burn a baby's mouth, throat or stomach," said Peter Andrus, M. D., assistant professor of pediatrics at Baylor. "Since microwaves heat liquids, but not containers, parents and baby sitters are often unaware of how hot the milk becomes."

Enough heat can be generated by a microwave to build up steam and cause the milk container to explode, which could result in mother and baby suffering cuts or serious burns from the milk.

The uneven heat distribution of microwaves creates small pockets of intense heat in different parts of the bottle, said Judy Hopkinson, Ph.D., a researcher at Baylor's Children's Nutrition Research Center. The high temperatures destroy the vitamins in formulas and break down the disease-fighting antibodies in human milk.

"If a mother is providing breast milk with the intention of giving her baby these substances that assist in preserving health and promoting wellness, then it is pointless to defeat that purpose by using a microwave," Hopkinson said.

The best way to heat formula or human milk is to place the bottle in a bowl of warm water or shake it gently under warm running water. Test the temperature of the milk by sprinkling a few drops on the back of the hand. If the milk feels too warm on the back of the hand, it will be too warm for the baby.

"Babies are not nearly as worried about the temperature of milk as parents are," Andrus said. "Once it reaches room temperature, the baby's main concern is eating."

Plan to Save Money When Sewing at Home

Sewing at home for savings takes careful planning to make sure the investment pays off.

"Consider the value of the time spent sewing as well as your out-of-pocket costs," says Alma Fonseca, a clothing specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

Sewing children's garments is usually more economical than buying them. This is because children's clothes are often simple, have less detail, require little fabric and have a short life use.

Creative recycling of clothes that need updating or fitting adjustments can also save money, she points out.

Sewing custom-made articles for the home, such as draperies for an odd-sized window or slipcovers for an odd-sized sofa, result in a significant savings, Ms. Fonseca says. Good draperies with linings damaged by the sun can also be re-lined to save the cost of having to re-invest in new ones.

In addition, careful selection of styles and patterns will save sewing time and supplies, notes the specialist. For example, special patterns for knits often feature styles with no zipper, facing, interfacing or darts.

"When shopping for fabrics, always buy with use in mind. Quality fabrics may make up more attractively and hold their beauty longer, but it could be more economical to choose a less expensive fabric if the outfit is to be worn only a few times," Ms. Fonseca says.

Sales of fabrics and notions usually appeal to economy-minded sewers. But bargains often remain unused and therefore lose their savings potential, reminds the specialist.

When buying sale fabric for future use, choose colors you already have in your wardrobe, and classic designs rather than those topping the current fashion scene. Also check for off-grain fabrics, especially if designs require matching, and know yardage requirements before you buy, she advises.

Ms. Fonseca also recommends reusing patterns with a different fabric, neckline or sleeve change to get more mileage out of them. Try special patterns for knits. Some brands have several sizes on one pattern and can be used to accommodate figure variations, she says.

James Buchanan, the nation's 15th president, lived through the administrations of seventeen chief executives—from George Washington to Andrew Johnson.

"Living With Arthritis" Is Topic of Program

"Living With Arthritis" is a program planned by the County Extension Home Economics Committee (formerly Family Living Committee) at its meeting August 15. The program is set for Friday, September 20, at 1:00 p.m. at the Silverton Senior Citizens Center.

The program will be repeated in Quitaque in November, the date to be determined at the convenience of the speaker.

Presenting the program on arthritis will be Dr. Robert McNutt of the Amarillo Diagnostic Clinic.

The program is open to anyone who has arthritis or who is interested in learning about the disease. There will be no charge for the program, but donations to the Arthritis Foundation will be accepted.

The committee again selected Family Health and Nutrition as the area of greatest concern for program emphasis during 1986. It will meet in September to plan specific educational programs for next year.

A slide presentation, "Help Yourself to Good Health," was the program for the committee meeting.

Attending the meeting were Lottie Garrison, Johnnie Morrison, Roy Reed, and County Extension Agent Lynda Fogerson.
