OLD TIMES NOT FORGOTTEN
 By Roland Miles

HE'S A BUSTER

Have you ever stopped to think about the word, "buster"? When you get to mulling about it, there's a lot of different uses for that word, and always has been. If you're a cowboy, you might be a "bronc buster." Everybody knows about that. If you're a farmer, I guess you might be a "sod-buster." On second thought, that might apply more to our ancestors, who broke out native land to farm. If you were an FBI agent, you might be a "gang buster." If you're old like me, you might remember a TV show called "The Untouchables." They were FBI and IRS agents back in the 1920's during "Prohibition," when it was a crime to make or, sell alcohol to drink. Needless to say, there was plenty made, and guys like Al Capone, got rich supplying it. The Feds were never able to convict him of any of the murders, but did convict him of tax evasion. When I was a kid, there was a program on the radio, called "The Buster Brown show." It was for kids, and also advertised genuine Buster Brown shoes, for sale at your local shoe store. I always thought I'd get a pair, but never did. Just as a point of little importance, Shirley sometimes calls me Buster Brown, when she's aggravated at me. Imagine that! We used to have a neighbor named Buster Walser. Then there was an old comedian from back in the 1920's era, named Buster Keaton. My favorite "Buster," was Buster Black, who had a grocery store in Wheeler, with a butcher shop in the back. I've mentioned him once before, several years ago. My cousin and I worked for him after school, my Junior year, then Jimmy Hill and I worked for him our Senior year. One night, we butchered 13 hogs and 2 calves. It was in the "wee hours of the morning" when we got finished. Needless to say, we weren't worth much at school the next day. Buster was one of the best guys I've ever worked for.

Answer to last week's history trivia question: Doctor Henry Hoyt, practiced medicine at Tascosa, from 1877 to 1878. While there, he became friends with "Billy the Kid". The day before Dr. Hoyt was to leave, Billy gave him a horse he had stolen from Sheriff James Brady, after murdering Brady in a jail break in Lincoln County, New Mexico. When Dr. Hoyt, seemed a little apprehensive about taking the horse, Billy wrote him a bill of sale. Later in life, Dr. Hoyt became Surgeon General of the United States: This week's question: What year was the Cowboy Strike, in the Texas Panhandle? What was the cause of the strike? Answer next week.

Exciting Times
 at Wheeler Public Library
 By: Vicki Ferguson, Librarian

Hot Time Summer in the City... Back of My Neck gettin' Dirt and Gritty.

Truer words were never sung in a song during the 60's, not that I was around at that time or anything! Well, what I'm getting at is we have a nice relaxing, cool place for you to visit and look at all the good reads we offer to check out. Been awhile since you've been in, well you need to take time to come in and see what is happening in your local library.

The children's Summer Reading Program is going strong and we are having the time of our lives. This Friday at 10:00 a.m. we will continue to read about SHILOH and do a craft, so make sure you are here at 10:00 sharp so you don't miss out on anything. This program will last until August 12th so come and join in all the fun we have.

New books, new authors and new subjects seem to be the thing for this summer. Our series of the Culinary Mystery Stories by Josi S. Kilpack has been a big hit and it could be that they have awesome recipes in the books. All I know is we can't keep them on the shelf! Yeah!!!

Also, Dashner & Patterson seem to be a big hit with the young readers and boy do we have the Chapter Readers coming in big time! We are teaching them how to look for their books by author and titles and it is fun to watch when they find what they are looking for. You know libraries can be a load of fun!

Hope your summer is filled with fun and family and don't forget the Library, we are here for all the quiet times you need to fill in with a journey just for you!

READ, READ, READ!

We cooked a ton of food. Jaeden (Musae) and I made cookies. Baba and Pop and their family came. The kids played CSI. That was fun. I love to have all the people at my house, but it is very quiet when they go home.

My favorite part was the motorcycles and the fireworks. Wheeler is the BEST! I am so excited that Sierra (Hardcastle) is Little Miss Firecracker! That's it!
