STORM REPORT

As Reported by . . .
Stormie Meriwether,
Seventh Grade Student

Dear Friends, I miss Layne so much. I will never forget how sweet he was to me. We went to the celebration of his life at the school where Michael (his dad) is principal. The room was full of people that love Layne. Everyone is sorry that we lost Layne. My class at school gave me a sympathy card with all their names and Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Koelzer on it. It said, “May you find kindness to warm you, sympathy to comfort you, and cherished memories to bring peace to your heart.” That is so nice of them to give me that card. I will keep it in our scrapbook of Layne that has all the cards from friends. On the same week when we lost Layne my teacher, Mrs. Keys, lost her dad. That is so sad. I know she will miss him like I miss Layne.

Now it is Valentine’s Day and birthdays! On Valentine’s Day it is Pop’s birthday and Allison’s and Saidy’s (Hernandez). Happy Birthday to all the people that have birthday’s on Valentine’s Day. That is a good day to have a happy time! That’s it!

CHILDREN OF THE GREATEST GENERATION

§ Born in the 1930s and early 40s, we exist as a very special age cohort. We are the Silent Generation.

§ We are the smallest number of children born since the early 1900s. We are the "last ones."

§ We are the last generation, climbing out of the depression, who can remember the winds of war and the impact of a world at war which rattled the structure of our daily lives for years.

§ We are the last to remember ration books for everything from gas to sugar to shoes to stoves.

§ We saved tin foil and poured fat into tin cans.

§ We hand mixed 'white stuff' with 'yellow stuff' to make fake butter.

§ We saw cars up on blocks because tires weren't available.

§ We are the last to hear Roosevelt's radio assurances and to see gold stars in the front windows of our grieving neighbors.
