Miss Lois West the 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. West of O'Brien died last Sunday afternoon May 3, at 3 o'clock after a lingering illness of several weeks. Every thing was done for the young lady that human hands and medical skill could do but all to no avail and she continually grew worse until the end came Sunday afternoon. Truly it is sad to see one so young and hopeful called from life, and deep sorrow reigns over the hearts of many who loved her so dearly. Funeral services were held by Rev. L. E. Frasier and Rev. J. ## BIG DELEGATION GOES TO MINERAL WELLS

Haskell was represented at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention at Mineral Wells the first of the week by about two hundred delegates. One hundred and fifty people were in the Haskell division of the mammoth parade which was staged Tuesday afternoon. The delegation was headed by the Haskell Band. Practically all the state papers gave Haskell credit with having one of the best showings in the parade of any of the smaller towns and cities.

In the Band contest which was held during the convention Haskell won second place in the one year old band class.

Haskell Distributed about 20,000 little red stickers in Mineral Wells and it was almost impossible for you to look in any direction without seeing the little round label advertising the merits of Haskell and Haskell County.

NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK CELEBRATED THIS WEEK

Many do not know that Dallas was the founder of National Music Week. She first celebrated May 3 to 10 as Music Week and it has since been adopted by the musical world. You have seen from the papers what a great celebration they have had this week. Dallas is our "Musical Mecca."

In 1924 the National Convention for Public School Music Supervisors met in Cincinnati. The inspiration and enthusiasm from this great celebration reached the whole musical world. There was a chorus of 2000 children singing great classics.

Twenty children under 10 years of age from different parts of the country, who had never seen each other before, played together for the first time, at 10 different pianos without a hesitation.

Many musical facts together with great addresses made this a wonderful convention.

The slogan adopted by this assembly was "Music for Every Child and Every Child for Music." Kansas City claims the honor of entertaining the 18th Annual Convention.

In many cities piano and orchestral instruments are taught at public expense. Wonderful talent is being discovered.

Lincoln, Neb., is one of these towns. Here every school ward has its own orchestra and any child may study piano music.

They claim to have about half boys and half girls who avail themselves of this opportunity.

Europe has for so long been the center of the musical world. There was a time when to be a finished musician one must study in Germany.

America with her brief history has begun to turn her attention to the fine arts.

HEAVY RAINS GENERAL OVER ALL WEST TEXAS

Wednesday morning another good rain fell over Haskell county, 1.19 inches fell in the city, according to the record kept by Judge P. D. Sanders. This seemed from reports over the state to have been by far the most general of any rain which has fallen in Texas since last September. Reports are to the effect the rains Wednesday completely blanketed the plains, the panhandle and central West Texas and also extended far into east and south Texas. While the rain has been broken more than a week, the rain Wednesday is believed to be far more valuable than previous rains, giving the soil the proper seasoning for a bumper crop throughout a wide area.

REV. MORRIS OF STAMFORD LECTURED AT SAYLES SCHOOL

Monday morning Rev. Morris of Stamford entertained the Sayles school with a talk on his experiences in the Civil War telling of his battles under the great leader Stonewall Jackson and also telling why General Jackson was called Stonewall. Rev. Morris is one of the few veterans of the Civil War and can speak well and entertain a congregation for hours with his experiences. He was only a boy when in the war. He lectured an hour and a half and it is needless to say his talk was enjoyed by teachers and pupils alike.

LAKE AT ENGLISH PARK NOW FULL

The recent rains have caused the water in the new lake at English park to begin flowing around the spillway. This is now one of the prettiest little lakes to be found in this section. Manager J. E. Bernard states that he expects to have the park ready to open in about two weeks.

The bath houses are being erected and will be ready for use on the opening day.

J. K. Shipman and family of Abilene spent Sunday with the family of J. O. Stark of this city. Mrs. Shipman and Mrs. Stark are sisters.

W. M. Free Makes Another Trip Saturday To The Thriving Little City Of Rule

Early last Saturday morning we arrived at Rule and stopped with Editor Harris of the Rule Review. Mr. Harris said the Rule trade territory was thoroughly soaked with bountiful rains and he further stated that his business was prospering and that best of all his subscription list was being kept up to all expectations by his friends dropping in and paying for the paper.

We met our old friend Dr. J. C. Davis while in Rule. He had just returned from New Orleans where he was taking a six weeks Post Graduate course in Medicine. He seemed to be greatly inspired from the experienced gained from having taken the course. Dr. Davis has practiced medicine in that section for a number of years and is well known for his faithful service.

We were given a subscription to the Free Press by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lett of Jud who were shopping in Rule for the day. Mr. Lett is a good farmer and is ably assisted in life's battles by his faithful wife who is one of the best poultry raisers in Haskell county and she will soon have a crop of frisks and we have a special invitation to visit that happy home. How can we resist so great a temptation?

We stopped a few moments with E. J. Cloud at the National Bank for a visit. Ed was so thankful for so many blessings he could not recall them singly and therefore his statement was that business was good and prospects fine.

We also learned that Layne Yates Dry Goods Store has a new manager in the person of Mr. Watson from Spur. The former manager of this successful business Mr. L. A. Hilbert resigned to go back to his former employer at Brenham.

Mrs. W. A. Davis of the Tonk Creek community and some of her children were shopping in Rule. She says that good rains had fallen in her community and that prospects were fine for good crops.

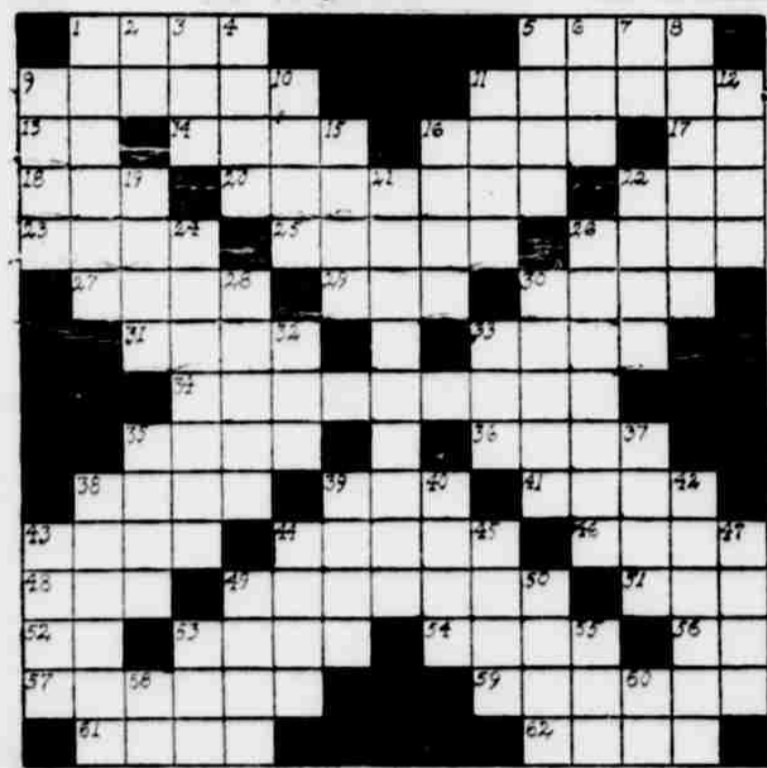

We had a little talk with Lee Humphreys manager of the Rule band. He said they were going to Mineral Wells to take part in the band contest and would do their best to win a prize among the younger bands of the state. Lee is an earnest worker and all ways

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

STAR Running-in-oil and Timken Bearings. This new STAR, with either Timken Tapered Roller Bearings or "NO-OIL-EM" Bearings, running-in-oil, has great efficiency as a pumping power in 8 to 10 mile winds. As you know, any mill will pump water in high winds, but the windmill that will provide water in the lighter breezes is the one you want. The Star can do this because it has a scientifically designed wheel. The fans have just the right curvature and are properly spaced. Bearings running in oil, with a flood of oil for cross-head, guides and pitmans, reduce friction to the minimum. The better features of the old Star, two gears, two pinions and two pitmans, are retained. This gives a direct center lift to pump rod and equalizes the load on working parts of the mill. Star is pivoted on ball-bearing turn table. Come in and see this new Star. You will be interested in seeing how effectively it is lubricated, and we know one erected on your place will prove a better water pumper than anything you have used in the windmill line. May be fitted on any tower. JONES, COX & CO.

Friend's Advice
 "When I was a young woman I became afflicted with a woman's trouble and got so I could hardly walk. I had a friend who advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I did so, and before long I had taken three bottles I felt right. Later on in life I was afflicted with a kind of polyp blood; for this I took the Medical Discovery, and my blood became pure. I had anything like either of these afflictions."—Mrs. D. M. 521 Fulton St. All dealers.

DO YOU WANT WINTER EGGS?
 If everybody knew how valuable May and June hatched White Leghorn Pullets are for egg production there would be a tremendous demand for chicks hatched at this time. Nearly all of the egg laying contests are won by "late hatched" pullets. White Leghorn Pullets mature quickly and if hatched early will lay all summer and go into a molt in the Fall and Winter when eggs are highest in price. But if they are hatched late they will not start laying till October and they will keep right on the job all Fall and Winter and will not molt until the following Fall. This assures you 12 to 14 months steady egg production. Some of you will say "If May and June hatched pullets are so valuable why do you lower egg prices?" We cut the prices during May and June because the late hatched cockerets are not as valuable as the early hatched birds. We take care of this loss by cutting prices on eggs. They can be brooded at a lower cost and do not require as much close attention as the early ones. Try May and June hatched chicks by setting your incubators with our eggs and reap the benefit of high priced eggs this fall and winter. WE DELIVER FOR $2.50 PER HUNDRED.

MOTHERS DAY

Mother's Day, which is the second Sunday in May, falls on May 10 this year and will be observed throughout the United States in response to the annual proclamation of the President. As is well known, the object of the day is to recall memories of the mothers who have passed to the beyond and to pay special tributes of affection to those living. The badge for the day is the white carnation, emblematic of the purity, beauty and fidelity of a mother's love. By some the red carnation is worn in honor of living mothers.

Miss Anna Jarvis, of Philadelphia, originated the idea of Mother's Day which was observed in several cities in 1910, the custom becoming general in the following years. In 1913 Congress passed a resolution offered by Congressman Heilm of Alabama, designating the day by its members and by the executive departments at Washington. In 1914 Congress authorized the President to designate the second Sunday of May of each year as Mother's Day, the first proclamation under this authority issued by President Wilson on May 9, 1914.

Few of us reflect as often as we should on the debt of love and gratitude we owe to our mothers. By thoughts and acts of sincere affection on Mother's Day, we not only honor them, but also honor ourselves. Help make your home town a better town. When it grows your business grows. It's welfare is your welfare.

The objection to a pistol is that you are tempted to use it when it isn't necessary and haven't the time to use it when it is.

What this country really needs for the benefit of everybody is a scheme to boost the price of wheat and at the same time bring down the price of flour.

It seems strange to think there was a time when all a Haskell girl's face needed before she went out was soap and water.

IN LEGAL TERMS

One thing that makes legal advice costly is that few of us can say what we want to say in legal terms. For instance if a Haskell man wanted to give a friend an orange he would simply say: "I give you an orange. But if he were to trust it to a lawyer—and pay legal rates—here is about how it would sound in writing:

"I hereby give and convey to you, all and singular, my estate and interest, right, title, claim and advantages of and in said orange, together with all its rind, juice, pulp and pips, and all rights and advantages therein, with full power to bite such and otherwise eat the same or give the same away, with or without the rind, skin, juice, pulp or pips, anything hereinbefore or hereinafter or in any other deed or deeds, instrument or instruments of whatever nature or kind whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

WE HOPE IT'S TRUE.

The other day we read a little news item that had been cabled over from London which should be spread across the front page of every paper in the world—if it proves to be true. It states that British physicians and chemists working together have succeeded in perfecting a vaccine known as "toxin anti-toxin" which it is claimed, prevents those vaccinated with it from contracting the flu, diphtheria, infantile paralysis or whooping cough. There is no end to the possibilities of medical science, and no reason to doubt but these men may have discovered something that will prove a blessing to the whole world for all time to come. If they have there should be erected at some suitable spot the greatest monument ever built. And we're ready to pledge the support of Haskell citizens right now in any movement to reward these men, if they have what they claim to have, with all the money they'll need as long as they live.

Abby Rockefeller is going to marry the young lawyer who got her out of her speeding scrapes. Maybe she figures that since she can't resist "stepping on it" she might as well marry a lawyer and save the fees.

Long Power

Got a touch of Spring fever yet? The month of flowers—and also Straw hats. Going to make the old one do for a while? The sweetest music in the world to the lazy man is the five o'clock whistle.

Especially when it is of the wrong kind, a little learning is a dangerous thing. It is now apparent to all that the government's oil lease cases lacked conviction.

The office cynic insists that where the population is most dense is just above the ears. The farmer usually finds that with crops the bigger the bumper the harder is the bump.

We never could understand why they are called "idle rumors" when they always seem to be busy. Baboons are said to be almost human in their liking for jazz, but there is a saying grace in the "almost."

Dempsey lost his wife the other day in New York, but he's taking no such chances with his heavyweight crown. Adventurous souls who are willing to try anything once are liable to find that in some instances once is once too often.

A friend has figured it out that the reason a woman's head appears on silver coins because they say money talks. A rolling stone gathers no moss, according to an old adage, but in these times no one can afford to be a moss-back.

The fisherman who has just landed his biggest catch of the season doesn't need a loud speaker to tell the world about it. So far as can be learned no one has heard the Earl of Balfour complain that Damascus didn't give him a warm reception.

An automobile can't furnish any more thrills than a horse that can be driven with on hand, and a narrow seated buggy. Ask any of the older boys.

BOOST
We are just returned from Mineral Wells where to all of West Texas we boosted, praised and toasted Haskell and Haskell County, proclaiming the progressiveness of her people—a progressiveness seasoned with that genial spirit of hospitality indigenous to the nature of Texas; boasting of our agriculture and various industries and pointing into the future as far as human eye can see to our possibilities ready to bud into probabilities and then open full bloom into wonderful entities.

Haskell boosters did well for though some may devalue the height to which she ascended in the public estimate by virtue of the loudations and enthusiasm of her representatives, they placed her in a position in this constellation West Texas, such as a star of the first magnitude deserves and is entitled. Let us forget after the pleasures and excitement of our visit to Mineral Wells, it is well to be reminded that all the advantages and possibilities, which we pictured Haskell and Haskell County as possessing are in our keeping and that all growth comes from within and not from without. It then behooves us to see that no diminishing no laxity in boosting Haskell occurs. Away from home we boost with blare of trumpets and with flare of banners, but to be able to boost conscientiously and honestly away from home, we must boost at home. The word boost at home is spelled with two letters D-O.

We must not let any opportunity that will accrue to the benefit of Haskell pass unheeded. We must not let any legitimate enterprise come into or start in our midst without an honest and conscientious approval "I'll Do My Part" accompanied by a determination to do it, until it hurts. To be honest with our selves we must do it, for to be so, we have it to do. Such action accompanied by an honest desire to benefit and help our town and county is a prayer for that end; and any honest effort preceded by an earnest prayer will not fail of accomplishment. An honest desire is an earnest prayer.

Let us have for our slogan "Haskell Is and Shall Be." With this motive spurring us on to newer and greater activities to enhance the growth and progress of Haskell in a few short years, from out of her possibilities, she will spring like magic into such proportions that even those who have watched her ready responses and enjoyed the prosperity which accompanies growth, will upon retrospection, stand amazed amidst the wonders of their accomplishment, while falling upon our ears from a distance she will be the voices of the constellated stars singing "Haskell Is" to the harmony of which we will add "And Shall Be." 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished that we may leave to our children and our children's children such a legacy.

Mr. William Ewart of Boston, Massachusetts was the week end guest of Miss LaVerne Cummins last week.

Harry Lee was in town last week and accompanied the delegates to the Mineral Wells convention.

FORMER COUNTY JUDGE VISITS HASKELL

Judge and Mrs. D. H. Hamilton arrived here from Dallas last Thursday evening to spend a few days with their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Perry of this city. Judge Hamilton made this office a very pleasant call Tuesday and stated that he and Mrs. Hamilton were on an extended trip to visit all their children who, live in different sections of Texas and New Mexico. He further stated that after they had finished their visits with their children they would probably go to Groverton, Texas his boyhood home and make their home there. Judge Hamilton moved from Groverton to Haskell county in 1896 and lived here continuously until five years ago when they moved to Dallas where they have remained with their daughter Mrs. Walter Hicks. Judge Hamilton served two terms as county Judge from 1902 to 1906 and he likes to talk of the busy days of his life spent in Haskell county. He says that 1896 was the driest year he ever saw in Haskell county including the year 1918. According to Judge Hamilton no rain fell in the county in that eventful year until the 14th day of July when a light rain fell in and near town and from that rain he grew a volun- teer crop of Black Amber which was about the only kind of feed or crops grown in the county. He said the seed failed to produce a crop that year He planted 80 acres of cotton but it never came up. He said up to that time he was not sure that sorghum was a safe feed for stock but was convinced through that crop that sorghum was the best feed crop the farmer could grow.

Judge Hamilton is now nearing his 82nd birthday and Mrs. Hamilton is in her 80th year. They have been married 57 years and nine children were born unto them and eight of them are living. One little boy died at the age of three years. They have 27 grand children and 4 great grand children.

APRIL NINTH WAS SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF ENDING OF THE CIVIL WAR AT APPOMATTOX

Sixty years have passed since Appomattox. On April 9, 1865, the greatest civil war in history came very simply to an end when General Lee surrendered to General Grant. There had been four years of bloodshed. Several millions of men in that time had fought on battle fields from the Atlantic Coast to west of the Mississippi River.

There was no fanfare of trumpets. No earth-shaking salutes from the artillery. No flaunting flags. Nor diplomats in scarlet and gold lace accompanied by swarms of secretaries. None of the modern trappings of news photographers, motion pictures or radio.

Grant had entered Petersburg on his heels. The Union general might have turned his artillery on the retreating men in gray in the Appomattox bottoms and annihilated them, but he had not. Lee's plan to slip away on the Danville railroad had failed.

On the 7th Grant had written to Lee that he could crush the Southern army but hesitated to make the useless sacrifice of life entailed, and invited Lee to surrender. Lee had debated surrender for two days, and on Sunday morning April 8 yielded and wrote Grant he was willing to meet him for that purpose.

Habitual Constipation Cured in 14 to 21 Days "LAX-POS WITH PEPSIN" is a specially-prepared Syrup Tonic-Laxative for Habitual Constipation.

The Two Generals

As Grant climbed the steps and entered the front room of McLean's two-story brick house Lee rose from a chair and stepped forward. Grant took his hand, saying, "General Lee." Sheridan, Ord and the members of Grant's staff, out of deliberate remark, but Babcock soon came to the door and called: "The General says come in."

The two generals then began recalling incidents of the campaign in Mexico. Grant in his memoirs says he became so interested that the object of their interview slipped from his mind. Presently General Lee brought up the subject by saying, "I suppose, General Grant, that the object of our meeting is fully understood."

Decided to Surrender Grant had entered Petersburg on his heels. The Union general might have turned his artillery on the retreating men in gray in the Appomattox bottoms and annihilated them, but he had not.

Lee paused once to ask if the word "exchanged" had not been omitted. Grant looked and said it had. The word was inserted. Lee showed by his countenance that he was touched when he read the passage exempting the officers' side-arms, horses and baggage.

General Lee shook hands with Dan and Grant, looked to the "Cherubs" and with Colonel Marshall left the room. One after another we followed and I quipped out as we passed: "Lee up his horse, and while the animal was being bridled stood on the lowest step and gazed sadly in the direction of the valley beyond where his army lay—now an army of prisoners."

Real Optimism.

"I met a real optimist the other day," said the physician; "a fellow to whom I certainly doff my hat. He had lost a leg in a railroad accident, and when they picked him up the first thing he said was: 'Thank God, it was the leg with the rheumatism.'"

Not Necessary.

Manager—The man we want must be neat, hardworking, upright and tactful. Can you fill the bill?

Applicant—Yes, sir; and besides that I am honest, truthful—

Manager—Never mind that. We want you to work in the automobile salesroom.

Practice Makes Perfect.

Doctor—It seems to me you cough a little easier this morning.

Old Gink (ironically)—I ought to; I've been practicing all night.

Already Stocked Up

Jimmie (saying prayers)—What comes next Ruthie?

Ruthie—Give us this day our daily bread.

Extravagance

Old Hen Roddy from Hogskin Hollow, is fond of boasting of his amazing thriftiness, by virtue of which he has accumulated a fairly substantial bank account.

"You're very careful about your expenditures, aren't you, Uncle Hen?" the village schoolmaster asked one day.

"Yes, perfesser, I'm right smart that-away. Fact, I don't recollect that I ever spent but one quarter fer just dern foolishness. That was when I let a store-keeper talk me into buying a pair of socks."

Applied Mathematics.

The old lady was timidly inspecting a stock of spectacles.

"How much are these?" she asked, selecting a pair.

"A dollar and a half, madam."

"And how much without the case?"

"Well, the case makes little difference. Suppose we say $1.45."

"What? Is the case only worth five cents?"

"Yes, madam," firmly.

"Well, I'm very glad to hear it; it's the case I want."

And, placing the nickel on the counter, the dear old lady took up the case and walked timidly into the street, while the optician gasped for breath.

Indian Legend.

According to legend, the American Indian received corn directly from the hand of the Creator. The story goes that a young brave, who was looking for a gift that would help his people, hid himself in the forest for seven days. During this time he encountered a spirit whom he killed, and it was from this spirit's grave that plant which bore the plumes of the unknown visitor sprang. Thus we have Mandamin or the Spirit's grain.

Right Up-todate.

A man was spending a night at a hotel in a small Southern town, and when going to his room for the night he told the porter that he wanted to be called early in the morning.

"Say, boss," replied the porter, "I reckon yo' ain't familiar wid dese heah modern inventions. When yo' wants to be called in de mawnin' all yo' has to do is to press de button at de head of yo' bed. Den we comes up an' calls yo'."

GIVES RADIO STATION TO TWO UNIVERSITIES

Radio broadcasting stations to aid the cause of education were given to the University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill., and Notre Dame University, Valparaiso, Ind., by Boetius H. Sullivan, in honor of his father, the late Roger C. Sullivan, Chicago democratic leader. He has given each $100,000.00 to outfit the stations and with no strings attached has promised $8,000.00 to maintain each station. The stations will be for the people who can not afford a university education, but can enjoy good lectures by capable speakers, Mr. Sullivan declared. The call letters of the U. of I. station will be WILL, and for the Notre Dame station, WIND. Each will maintain a studio in Chicago. The stations will be in operation in two months. Our photo shows left Boetius Sullivan, and, right, David Kinley president of University of Illinois, accepting the gift on behalf of the university.

The Free Press began the advocating of more and better poultry soon after the present management took charge, and after several years of labor, we can see the gratifying results in the production. We do not claim the honor for this progressive step but we are glad to say that we were in the move and glad to know that the results have been obtained. Those who are growing poultry are the ones receiving the profits and setting the examples for still greater progress. Under southern skies and temperate climate we are in position to become the greatest in production of any section of country, because of these favorable conditions. The poultry business is just in its infancy in this section. It is our prediction that in a very short period of time the poultry industry will be the greatest known to our people and the profits received will be very gratifying to the producer. The history of the poultry industry is the more grown the better the market because of greater shipping facilities.

The Snow of 1857.

Old records tell us that on the 11th day of May, 1857, snow fell throughout North Texas to a depth of twelve inches and all vegetation was destroyed. Forest trees were stripped of their foliage, wheat, corn, oats and all farm and garden crops were as completely destroyed as if the entire country had been swept by fire. On the 8th of May, in 1877, the cold was nearly as intense, but there was no snow.

HASKELL COUNTY SCORES AGAIN!

During the carnival held last week the professional wrestler met his match in the person of J. B. Beauchamp, well known Rochester boy. The showing of Young Beauchamp was so good that a match to the finish, best two out of three falls has been arranged for this coming Saturday, May 9th, 2 p. m., at the hall in Rochester. The professional, Roy Reynolds of Waco, 165 pounds, participated in fifteen professional matches in 1924 and won them all.

It will be a pleasure to see him pinned to the mat by a Haskell county boy who can boast of strength, ability and hardiness, gained by right living, and a little training.

Pains Very Severe

"I suffered from womanly troubles which grew worse and worse as the months went by," says Mrs. L. H. Castrell of R. F. D. 9, Gainesville, Georgia.

"I frequently had very severe pains. These were so bad that I was forced to go to bed and stay there. It seemed to me my back would come in two."

CARDUI

For Female Troubles

"I taught school for a while, but my health was so bad I would have to stay out sometimes. This went on till I got so bad I didn't know what to do.

"One day I read about the merits of Cardui, and as I had some friends who had been helped by it, I thought I would try it. I began to get better after I had taken half a bottle. I decided to keep on and give it a thorough trial and I did. I took in all about 12 bottles and now I am perfectly well. I do not get any more pain and can do all my housework."

MIDWAY

(By Velma Frierson)

In spite of the sandstorm that is blowing today most of the farmers are busy planting.

Some of the people of this community have been attending the meeting at Jud the past week.

The singing at our last meeting was not very well attended and we hope more people will take interest in this singing class and be present each singing date and be ready when we are called on to lead for church services or anything you may be asked to do. It is truly said that you learn something new each day and I believe if you will try you can learn something more about singing each Friday night. Come and let's all be present Friday night May 8th. to learn to sing by practicing.

Rev. Ben Hardy preached a good sermon Sunday evening to a small crowd. Rev. Lawrence will preach at this place next Sunday at 3:30 o'clock. Everyone is invited to come and hear him.

Miss Ethel Frierson of Midway spent Sunday with Avis Lawson of Haskell.

Mrs. I. B. Crow and little daughter Martha Dean of Bellevue are visiting Mrs. John B. Lamkin and family of this city. Mrs. Crow and Mrs. Lamkin are sisters.

The spiked hat is expected to become the style in German millinery now that Hindenburg has been elected President.
