STORM REPORT

As Reported by...
Stormie Meriwether,
Ninth Grade Student

Dear Friends, Wheeler Mustang JV played a great game against Clarendon. They did not give up and they won! I worked in the concession stand for band.

Last week everything was going great in band. We were practicing our marching. I was excited about marching at the Clarendon football game on Friday. We had a fun pep rally. After the pep rally we had to take my dad to the emergency room because of his heart. It was over 180 beats a minute. Kyle Dawson's mom met us

The public is invited to a reception and ribbon cutting at the Wheeler Historical Museum on Wednesday afternoon, September 26, 2018. The event will be at 4 p.m.

The ribbon cutting will follow a private luncheon at 11:30 a.m. with Amy Bean as a guest speaker. Amy will be visiting the museum to see the items her father, Captain Alan L. Bean has donated for display at the museum. A limited number of tickets for the luncheon are available at $50 and may be obtained by contacting Rhonda Meriwether at 806 256 2436.

The museum, which completed building restoration in 2014, has been open for special events and by appointment, as interior walls and exhibits were added. During the summer of 2018, the museum was open 1 to 5 Tuesday through Saturday as volunteers and a part-time employee were available. This schedule will continue following the ribbon cutting.

Current displays at the museum honor our local veterans, the native born Alan L. Bean, fourth man to walk on the moon, Wheeler School, Red River War and Fort Elliott.

The museum is a work in progress with numerous items on display and several projects being prepared for display. The board wants the public to see what is being done and encourages the public making known items they would be willing to display.

Needed are pictures, items and/or information relating to the City of Wheeler—past and present, oil field, ranching heritage, etc.

The museum also welcomes individuals willing to help with the project. Board members are: President Pam Hill, members; Kay Christner, Kathleen Cross, Margaret Dorman, Marla Ford, Debbie Glazner, Linda Hink, James Hubble, Rhonda Meriwether, Brenda Mitchell, Louis Stas, Angie Ware and Renee Warren.

Each group that rents a booth will keep their own proceeds. We invite all schools, youth groups, churches and clubs to join us. We will have a variety of games and goods in addition to having a Chili and Baked Goods Competition, Pumpkin Carving Competition and Costume Contest.

Please contact any of the Fire Department Wives for more detailed information and forms to sign up.

Prepare yourselves for a Sonnet on Autumn:

"Now Autumns fires burn slowly along the woods, And day by day the dead leaves fall and melt, and night by night the monetary blast wails in the key hole, telling how it passed over empty fields, or upland solitudes, or grim wide wave; and the now the power is felt of melancholy, tenderer in its moods Than any joy indulgent summer dealt.

By William Allingham
Somehow poetry seems to share the change of Summer into Fall so eloquently and then Winter blasts its way onto the scene to make us all appreciate the home fires we have. I think this is the time of the year most folks like to sit and contemplate the times behind, the times ahead and being in a library seems to bring it all to a head. Books good tea a book that transform your mind into another world, always seem to go along with the colder seasons. Come in and look at some of the books we have that can move you into a different realm or level you out!

A closing Sonnet:
"The world puts on its robes of glory now; The very flowers are tinged with deeper dyes; The waves are bluer, and the angels pitch Their shining tents along the sunset skies.

because my mom called and told them we were coming.
She took my dad. Dad wanted me to go to the game. Mom took me to school. She got back to the hospital and they thought my dad had to go to the heart hospital. Mom went back to school to get me.
When we got to the hospital
my dad's heart was not beating. Then the doctor said it was starting up again. I am glad he is ok. I do not want to lose my dad or my mom. I love my family. If I lost one of them I would be broken.

Mr. Bratton, I am so sorry for not being able to go to the game on Friday. I hope they showed power in the march.
Wish I could have been there.
I bet you did great! That's it!

Our friend and employee of 38 years, Stacy McQueen is leaving us to move to Tulsa to be closer to grandkids. Please join us in giving her a sendoff on Thurs., Sept. 27, 2018 during banking hours 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

CLEAN HANDS: Wendy Hazzard, the Wheeler County Extension Agent, visited with the second grade students about the importance of proper hand washing. She demonstrated how easily germs can be transferred through sneezing, coughing, and shaking hands without washing properly. The students were able to see "fake germs" through the use of black light. They were then given the opportunity to wash their hands to see if they scrubbed all of the fake germs off using the learned washing technique.

 I was on the council when

 We did not come across the Meeks this year.
