Dear Friends, I am so happy that MaKalli (Marshall) is doing great! She got a new heart! She is up and moving around. People studied science to learn how to give MaKalli her new heart. It is a miracle that the doctors can do that surgery. I am thankful for science and thankful for MaKalli's new heart. Now she will have a good-healthy life. We all love you Kalli! Stay strong and keep smiling!

SATURN V DISPLAY: A Lego set of the Saturn V Rocket was purchased by Chip and Pam Hill for display at the Wheeler Historical Museum. Seth Bryant, age 10, had the honor of putting the 1969 pieces together for it to be on exhibit. Seth did not have school Friday, so he gladly spent 5 hours putting the rocket together; then he set up this display at his home in Oklahoma City. The completed model measures 39.5 inches and can be taken apart, showing the stages as they separate during launch. Saturn V was launched fifty years ago, Nov. 9, 1969. On the right is "moon landing" and left is "splash down" in proportion; they fit in place inside the rocket. Seth has been putting lego sets together since he was four; his largest was a project had 4867 pieces, which he got for Christmas.

AT THE DOCTOR'S OFFICE

BLONDES
 A gorgeous young redhead goes into the doctor's office and said that her body hurt wherever she touched it.
 "Impossible!" says the doctor. "Show me."
 The redhead took her finger, pushed on her left shoulder and screamed, she pushed her elbow and screamed even more. She pushed her knee and screamed; likewise she pushed her ankle and screamed.
 Everywhere she touched made her scream.
 The doctor said, "You're not really a redhead, are you?"

 "Well, no," she said, "I'm actually a blonde."
 "I thought so," the doctor said, "Your finger is broken."
KNITTING
 A Highway patrolman pulled alongside a speeding car on the freeway.
 Glancing at the car, he was astounded to see that the blonde behind the wheel was knitting!
 Realizing that she was oblivious to his flashing lights and siren, the trooper cranked down his window, turned on his bullhorn and yelled, "PULL OVER!" "NO!" the blonde yelled back, "IT'S A SCARF!"

Good Day to all of the Texas Panhandle! Things have been a bit cool and we are all trying to stay warm so if you trying to find that cozy place come see us at the Wheeler Public Library from 11:30 to 5:00 Monday thru Friday. We have some comfy chairs to sit in and read the newspaper or a great book.

"When You Read This" you probably won't be seeing "Blue Skies" but neither will you be breathing "The Dust". A "Hard Rain" will be a "Lucky Shot" but hopefully we won't be "Swept Away" and as you have guessed these are all new books we have on the shelf just waiting for you to read. It's "Never Too Late" to pick up a keeper and enjoy the adventure! So don't be the "Lone Rider" bring a friend or two so they can enjoy the craziness too!

This is the time I start preparing for the Summer which is just around the corner! Our Summer Reading Program will be about Space and we will read and make all things Space!

For our more Mature Readers we do have some books in Large Print and hopefully we will be adding to them in 2019 & 2020. We have had quite a few express a need for a bigger print. Our problem has been the price and size of the larger print books and if you have seen them some are very, very thick. So if you need the larger print I think I would purchase something to hold my book while I read. It can be stressful on your arms and neck if you haven't held one before.

Also, if you use Facebook you can find us on Wheeler-PublicLibrary1933 and see pics of the reads we have. Also, most of you don't realize that we do have a handicap ramp on the Southside of the Library and we urge you to park around there and come thru the back door which is always open during hours.

We are here to make your life more fun and less stressful!

See You Soon!
Vicki L. Ferguson/Librarian

Cindy Hartsfield/Assistant Marley/Mascot
Stay warm and safe hope to see you soon.

I think the sprayer to keep ice off the sidewalk was a Christmas present in 2018 and I used it a second time this past snow. It keeps the ice off, but the snow falls faster than it melts, but the snow does melt after it quits falling. So much easier than shoveling, sprinkling with salt or scraping.

On Saturday, we had a family dinner for those who were not sick or otherwise engaged. There was fifteen or so in attendance. Other than food, there was lots of visiting and cards.

Bird's Science class we made a DNA model. That was fun! Hunter and I are the first ones finished. The best thing last week was we got our letter jackets! I love my jacket! It is so cool! I got my 'W' for band. On the back of the jacket it has my name and "Clarinet". I also have an FFA patch and a pig patch on the sleeve. The jacket is very warm and I'm glad I have it because it is cold!

Another very important thing last week was Pop and Allison had birthday's. They were both born on Valentine's Day, but not the same year. We had a family dinner at Jennifer's.

I am so proud of Seth. He put a Lego Saturn V Rocket together for the museum. It is beautiful! He did a fantastic job. That is the rocket that launched Alan Bean to the Moon! That's it!

How children perceive their Grandparents.

She was in the bathroom, putting on her makeup, under the watchful eyes of her young granddaughter, as she'd done many times before. After she applied her lipstick and started to leave, the little one said, "But Grandma, you forgot to kiss the toilet paper good-bye!" I will probably never put lipstick on again without thinking about kissing the toilet paper good-bye.

A little girl was diligently pounding away on her grandfather's word processor. She told him she was writing a story. "What's it about?" he asked. "I don't know," she replied, "I can't read."

Tomato Story

An unemployed man is desperate to support his family of a wife and three kids.

He applies for a janitor's job at a large firm and easily passes an aptitude test.

The human resources manager tells him, "You will be hired at minimum wage of $9.35 an hour. Let me have your e-mail address so that we can get you in the loop. Our system will automatically e-mail you all the forms and advise you when to start and where to report on your first day"

Taken back, the man protests that he is poor and has neither a computer nor an e-mail address.

To this the manager replies, "You must understand that to a company like ours that means that you virtually do not exist. Without an e-mail address you can hardly expect to be employed by a high-tech firm. Good day."

Stunned, the man leaves. Not knowing where to turn and having $10 in his wallet, he walks past a farmers' market and sees a stand selling 25 lb. crates of beautiful red tomatoes. He buys a crate, carries it to a busy corner and displays the tomatoes. In less than 2 hours he sells all the tomatoes and makes 100% profit. Repeating the process several times more that day, he ends up with almost $100 and arrives home that night with several bags of groceries for his family.

During the night he decides to repeat the tomato business the next day. By the end of the week he is getting up early every day and working into the night. He multiplies his profits quickly.

Early in the second week he acquires a cart to transport several boxes of tomatoes at a time, but before a month is up he sells the cart to buy a broken-down pickup truck

At the end of a year he owns three old trucks. His two sons have left their neighborhood gangs to help him with the tomato business, his wife is buying the tomatoes, and his daughter is taking night courses at the community college so she can keep books for him.

By the end of the second year he has a dozen very nice used trucks and employs fifteen previously unemployed people, all selling tomatoes. He continues to work hard.

Time passes and at the end of the fifth year he owns a fleet of nice trucks and a warehouse that his wife supervises, plus two tomato farms that the boys manage. The tomato company's payroll has put hundreds of homeless and jobless people to work. His daughter reports that the business grossed over one million dollars.

Planning for the future, he decides to buy some life insurance.

Consulting with an insurance adviser, he picks an insurance plan to fit his new circumstances. Then the adviser asks him for his e-mail address in order to send the final documents electronically.

When the man replies that he doesn't have time to mess with a computer and has no e-mail address, the insurance man is stunned, "What, you don't have e-mail? No computer? No Internet? Just think where you would be today if you'd had all of that five years ago!"

"Ha!" snorts the man. "If I'd had e-mail five years ago I would be sweeping floors at IBM and making $9.35 an hour."
