STORM REPORT

As Reported by...
Stormie Meriwether,
Ninth Grade Student

Dear Friends, We did it! Mom and I ran the 5K at the Oklahoma City Marathon. Ethan and Taylor talked my mom into doing that. It is called Run to Remember because a long time ago there was a crazy man that bombed a building there and killed 168 people. He killed little children! Now there is a museum and a memorial to remember all the people that were killed and survived.

Services Are April 27 For Former Wheeler Co. Sheriff, Joel Finsterwald

Joel Edwin Finsterwald, 63, of Mobeetie, died Sunday, April 21, 2019, in Mobeetie, Texas.

Services were Saturday, April 27, 2019, 2:00PM, at the Wheeler High School Gymnasium in Wheeler, Texas, with Carroll Thompson officiating. Burial followed in the Wheeler Cemetery.

Arrangements were by Robertson Funeral Directors of Wheeler.

Joel was born January 1, 1956 in Pampa, Texas, to Katherine Francis Topper and James Milton Finsterwald. He was a lifetime resident of Wheeler County, where he honorably served his county as a two-time Sheriff and many other years as Deputy Sheriff for the Wheeler County Sheriff's Office. He also served his community as an EMT for the North Wheeler County EMS. But even before he became Peace Officer, he proudly worked in the oilfield as a derrick hand and driller. He loved his ranching work and to go fishing & hunting. He collected guns and was a proud Wheeler Mustang Fan. But what he loved even more than any of those things, was being a Papa to his 5 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and 1 brother-in-law, Rick Woollard.

Survivors include his wife, Debbie Finsterwald, of Mobeetie; Caleb Finsterwald and wife, Heather, of Amarillo; 2 daughters, Lyndi Smith and husband, Jace, of Mobeetie, Lezli Burgess and husband, Cameron, of Australia; 5 grandchildren, Cheyenne Christian, Britt Finsterwald, Eliza Smith, Everett Smith, and Kipling Burgess; a brother, Larry and wife, Claudine, and a sister, Judy Woollard.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Fallen Peace Officers Association, North Wheeler CO. EMS, the Wheeler CO VFD, or any of the Wheeler CO. scholarship programs.

City-Wide Garage Sale Sat.

Wheeler is hosting the Annual Community-Wide Garage Sale on Saturday, May 4, 2019 in Wheeler with great spots located all throughout the town. The chamber wants to invite our community, as well as all others, to clean out your closets, garages, attics, kids' toy boxes and storage buildings. Load it up and bring it to town, and earn a little extra spending money at the same time. The garage sales will be found at different locations in or around the city limits and around the Courthouse Square.

Those wishing to participate in the sale will be charged a $10 fee. The charge will provide them a place on the city-wide garage sale map and a yard sign to display at the sale location. The garage sale yard sign must be picked up at the city office (located under the water tower) and returned.

Maps will be available at 7:45 am at the Courthouse Square, to help shoppers find their bargains. The deadline for contacting Kristen Moudy at the Wheeler Chamber of Commerce Office (806.826.3408 or chamber@wheeler-texas.org) was April 30th to be on the map or reserve your space.

Get a Free Car Seat Inspection

Every parent wants the best for their child's future, and one of the best ways to make sure your child will have a bright future is to be sure that you are correctly using the right car seat for your child and that the seat is correctly installed in your vehicle every time. The problem is that keeping them safe in vehicles isn't as easy as it might appear. Most parents think they are using their car seat correctly, but unfortunately, at least three out of four car seats are used incorrectly. For a car seat to best protect your child, it must be the one that fits your child, your vehicle, and one that you will use correctly every time you travel.

Paisley, Cristie, Katie and Larry Jones

Flaws And All

By Christie Jones
Jones family get-togethers are huge and seem to get bigger and bigger each holiday. Babies are born and in-laws join in the craziness. At the Easter shindig 34 were present and accounted for with only two Joneses left out, one for health reasons, the other adulting responsibilities.

Granny and PawPaw started off with four boys; Bobby, Larry, Ronny and David. I watched and marveled at how fast this Jones clan has been multiplying as each brother took pictures with their offspring. Granny and PawPaw had their picture taken with all nine of the little ones.

The sun was bright, I wanted to wait to take our picture when the lighting was just right, that's what I told Larry. The truth was ... insignificance crept in. The negative voice told me that no one even noticed or cared whether we were there or not. I felt overshadowed.

Each son's family seemed to cluster together with their lawn chairs round each other. We chose to cluster with Larry's older brother Bobby, the two of them are one year and three days apart. One can't remember life without the other, almost like fraternal twins.

I felt grief slowly seeping in as I watched Larry's brothers interacting with their grandkids. I withdrew into myself thinking about our oldest daughter, Haley, and all her health problems since birth that require specialized care. She can't make the four-hour round trip for a Jones celebration. Haley will never have children. Our second daughter Katie, that looks and acts so much like her precious daddy, at 23 years of age, is focused on school. She has no plans for marriage or children of her own anytime soon. Then my thoughts turned to Paisley as she was running and laughing, playing Annie Over with her first and second cousins. She's our youngest, at almost nine years old. Silently I asked the Lord if I was going to have to wait till Paisley grows up and marries to have grandkids. I was being snarky; He didn't answer but I felt a chuckle deep in my spirit like He knew something.

My mind is the Mixmaster so of course I was taking it all in, the past, present and future. My mood was less celebratory. Blakely's dandelion gift to me broke my heart wide open to embrace what I do have and not fixate on what I don't have or will never be. As quickly as turning on a light switch to let light in, I made the choice to celebrate my role as a Great Aunt. Oh my, how the youngest members of our clan, Bexleigh, Blakely, Dreyton and Maxon, whom all have unique names that totally go with their unique personalities, all began to capture my heart. My mood shifted as I joyfully watched their mannerisms that reminded me of their parents and grandparents.

The evening light was just right now, so was my mood. As the mother hen of my tiny flock, I gathered my Rooster and two chickadees together. I quickly scanned each one of them over to make sure everything was picture perfect. Paisley had chili dribbled ALL the way down the front of her brand new, first time to wear, shirt. I looked at Larry and noticed a mysterious trail down his front. He confessed that Texas Caviar (a black-eyed pea dip) had missed his mouth and landed on his shelf. My first thought was "there goes that picture". Then a smile spread across my face. I had to capture this moment, flaws and all. I deeply love my tiny family. Haley is missing but... this is us.

When I look at this picture, I can't find the flaws, somehow the camera didn't capture them. I see the people I live life with daily and love with my whole heart. The flaws didn't show through.

So friends ... capture those

Extension agent, Wendy Hazard, is urging all parents and caregivers to attend the child safety seat checkup event on May 7, 2019. Certified technicians will available to provide on-site child safety seat inspections and education from 2pm to 5pm at Wheeler County Ag and Family Life Center, 7939 US Hwy 83, Wheeler, TX.

Securing your children properly in age- and size-appropriate child safety seats — in the back seat of your vehicle — is the most effective thing you can do to protect them in the event of a crash. In fact, in motor vehicle crashes, child safety seats reduce the risk of a fatal injury by 71 percent for infants and 54 percent for toddlers. Misuse of car seats can cause needless injuries and fatalities.

For a child safety seat to do its job correctly, it has to be:

- Appropriate for your child's age and size,
- Installed properly in your vehicle, and
- Adjusted to fit your child securely.

Parents are reminded to keep children rear-facing until at least age 2 or until the limit of their rear-facing convertible seat, which is usually 40 pounds or more. Also, children should stay in a 5-point harness system until they are ready to ride in a booster seat. Booster seats are for children who are at least age 4 and 40 pounds or more, and mature enough to sit still in a booster. Finally, keep children in a booster seat until the seat belt fits correctly. This is usually sometime between ages 8 and 12. The average child fits in a seat belt at age 11.

There were twenty-five thousand people in the races. Almost five thousand ran the 5K. I was a little nervous at first, but after we started running I loved it! It was the best day ever running with my mom! We finished the race and got our medals.

Ethan and Taylor ran the half marathon. They did great! Then we all went with my dad to eat breakfast at IHOP.

Sunday evening we went to see the OAP in Wheeler. Hunter and I loved that play! It was even funnier than the first time I saw it.

This week we have our band concert. I can't wait! I love our director, Mr Bratton and I love our band!

Congratulations to Wheeler HS people who are going to State! That's it!

ible Seats

All infants and toddlers should ride in a rear-facing seat until they are at least 2 years of age or, preferably, until they reach the highest weight or height allowed by their car seat manufacturer.

- Toddlers and Pre-schoolers — Convertible and Forward-facing with a Harness Seats

Children who have outgrown the rear-facing weight or height limit for his convertible seat should use a forward-facing seat with a harness for as long as possible, up to the highest weight or height allowed by his car seat manufacturer.

- School-age Children-Booster Seats

Children whose weight or height exceeds the forward-facing limit for their car seat should use a belt-positioning booster seat until the vehicle seat belt fits properly; typically this is between the ages of 8-12 years old.
