with us. He liked it too.

This week we have the FFA banquet. I can't believe this year is almost over!

Biology class was fun! We dissected a frog. That was interesting. We could see all the parts inside. Mine was a female with eggs.

We went to a reunion for my dad on Saturday. It was for Gotebo, Oklahoma. When my dad was very young his first job in teaching was in Gotebo. He loved that place. All of the people told me that "Mr. Meriwether" was their favorite teacher. He was very strict, but they love him. The next reunion will be in 2022. I will graduate from High School that year. That's it!

RETIREMENT PARTY: Tracie Simpson was the honoree at a retirement reception Thursday, April 29, 2019; she was leaving her job at the Wheeler County Tax Office after 20 years. The event was attended by all courthouse employees and some of Tracie's close friends. Pictured here with Tracie, second from the right, are (l. to r.) Christian Hefley, Mindy Duncan, Cindy Brown and Scott Porter. "She will be missed," stated Scott.
