“Wheeler: town of friendship and pride”

This is our annual 'Christmas Greeting' edition of the Times. Merry Christmas!

— cwe —

We appreciate the teachers for getting their Santa Letters in to us for publication. We attempted to type them as the youngsters wrote.

— cwe —

We had our usual problems with the edition. Many thanks to Barbara for typing into the late hours and proofing the pages twice or more. I will take the blame for the mistakes.

— cwe —

We were made aware of an error on page one of section 2 after section two went to press. The names on the Bryant girls were switched. Again, my mistake.

— cwe —

Section 2 went to press Monday and section 1 is underway as I type and will be printed on Tuesday.

— cwe —

Take note, in order for us to have a paper in your mailbox

On Friday Mrs. Lohberger's class will be at the Parkview Assisted Living to do a program for the residents there. Some students will play the piano and we will sing Christmas.

"Rusty" Ferguson's Celebration of Life

Russell "Rusty" Gene Ferguson, 50, of Pampa, passed away on November 23, 2019 in Pampa.

Celebration of life services were 10:00 AM Saturday, November 30, 2019 at Carmichael-Whately Colonial Chapel in Pampa, with Rev. Rodney Weatherly, pastor of the Cornerstone Baptist Church, officiating. Inturnment followed at Mobeetie Cemetery under the direction of Carmichael-Whately Funeral Directors of Pampa.

Rusty was born on June 16, 1969 in Pampa to Gene and Marilyn Pool Ferguson. He attended B.M. Baker Elementary School before moving to Briscoe, where he graduated in 1988. He then attended the Canadian Valley Technology Center in El Reno for two years. He began working as an autobody mechanic for McCain's Autobody in Wheeler, where he worked for nine years. During his time in Wheeler he also served as a volunteer firefighter for the Wheeler Volunteer Fire Department. He was a truck driver, for Reliant, for many years before working in the pipelining industry. At the time of his passing, he worked as a maintenance technician for Walmart, he was truly a jack of all trades. Rusty loved fishing, hunting, working cattle, riding horses, and spending time in the mountains. He was incredibly hard-headed. He was a supportive brother and a proud uncle. During the summers he mowed yards for those that were no longer able to. He was a generous and kind-hearted soul. He wanted to help everyone and would give the shirt off his back if they needed it.

Rusty was preceded in death by his mother, Marilyn Ferguson; stepmother, Rhonda Ferguson; paternal grandparents, Orvel and Billie Ferguson, and maternal grandparents, Beuron and Frankie Stevens.

Survivors include his father, Gene Ferguson and wife, Vicki, of Wheeler; brother, Ty Ferguson and wife, Christi, of Twitty; 2 sisters, Mandy Meadows and husband, Mark, of Briscoe and Stacey Booth and husband, Steve, of Fritch; 3 nieces Tatum Meadows, MiKayleigh Ferguson and Sidney Mills; 5 nephews Landry Meadows, Barrett Meadows, Landon Ferguson, Quintin Mills and Colton Saavedra; and numerous friends.

If you have something you need in the paper, get it in today, Thursday afternoon or contact us and let us know on Thursday and get it to us very early Friday.

We returned from OKC early Sunday morning to attend Cornerstone Church, as Stormie sang a solo. That girl can sing.

ditional help to arrive, Deputy Reeves believed the children to be seriously injured and decided to transport them to the hospital in Shamrock in his patrol vehicle. The other three occupants later died as a result of their injuries.

According to the Northwest Texas Regional Director, J.C. Longway: "Deputy Reeves' compassion as a peace officer and father was evident as he prioritized the well being of the surviving children of a heartbreaking auto accident under harsh weather conditions. This is an outstanding example of the type of character we have come to expect from our Northwest Texas city, county, and state law enforcement professionals."

mas Carols. It will be a fun day! I hope they enjoy it.

Mrs. Lohberger is awesome! She came to Cornerstone Church last Sunday to play for me to sing "Oh, Holy Night." That is the first time that I ever sang in front of the church. Yes, I was a little nervous. I am so thankful for Mrs. Lohberger. She is a great teacher and she always tells me I can do it. I love to sing and I love to take lessons from her.

School is almost out for Christmas. It is really cold, but I don't think we are going to have snow. I love the houses and stores in town that have lights! The Schafer's house is always the best! It is like a Christmas Park! I hope they leave their lights up for a long time. That is too much work to take it down right after Christmas!

Wheeler had a very special event this year. It was a Tour of Homes. The Wheeler Historical Museum was the place where everyone went to get their tickets. They could get refreshments, visit, and see the museum. My favorite part was Ryder Moudy! He was with his mother and I got to hold that precious little boy. He was adorable in his "My 1st Christmas" suit.

December 14 was a very special day! It was Ms Paula's (Britt) birthday! Happy Birthday, Ms Paula! That's it!

Question: Among retirees, what is considered formal attire?

Answer: Tied shoes.

Dear Santa,

How is Mrs. Claus doing? I have been very good because I want presents. I would like an Alexa for Christmas. Most of all I want a cat stuffed animal. I would also like some new pajamas, a Hello Kitty toy set, and an art set to paint with. I hope I get these things on my Christmas list.

From,
Makayla Bowman

Dear Santa,

How have you and your reindeer been? I have been good and not naughty. I have been nice and helpful to my family and friends so I can get presents. For Christmas this year I would like fuzzy boots, Adidas pants and jacket, a new phone, Airpod Pros, and food for my easy bake oven. That's all I want for Christmas this year. I hope you have a good Christmas and you stay safe! Sincerely,

Jayla Dickey

Dear Santa,

It's me again. How are Mrs. Claus, the elves, and the reindeer? I've been pretty great this past year except the part where Franky died. She had one more kitten and she is just like Franky who was a good hunter and the fur patterns and eyes are the same. For Christmas I would like a guitar pick, a new belt, a new cowboy hat, and a guitar strap. I deserve these presents because I help my friends, my mom and sister, and my friend at school go get to her scooter while she is hurt. So anyway, Merry Christmas. I hope your sleigh doesn't fall apart this year.

Sincerely your friend,
Landon Ferguson

Dear Santa,

How's it going? How's the North Pole? Have the elves been getting into trouble lately? Well I guess I've been doing good. I'm having to take care of my little brother. Also, I've been going to school which is kind of boring, but can be fun. Oh well I guess, at least I get a good education. This year has been going good. Thanks to daylight savings time I'm always tired. Anyway I've been helping my mom a lot. People say I'm helpful and kind. So I hope I'm on the nice list. There have been a lot of things I've been wanting for Christmas but I know I won't get them all, so I'm just going to name the ones that I really want. I would like a Cozmo the Robot, the Lego Technic 4X4 Extreme Off-Roader, and the Lego Technic Baja Trophy Truck. I really hope you have a safe trip and make sure those cookies are yummy.
From your friend,
Colton Holbrook

Dear Santa,

How have you been? How is Rudolph? I have been great. I love helping my mom make cookies. When my sister was in the hospital I chose to stay by her side.
