15 Mustangs Receive District Recognition

Congratulations to the Mustangs receiving Dist. Honors.

— cwe —

Congratulations to those students named on the “Pride Program Honor Roll”.

— cwe —

I appreciate all the cooperation I received in getting this paper put together this past Friday so I could have Christmas without worrying about the paper.

— cwe —

Therefore you will not find anything about Christmas; we have not had it yet.

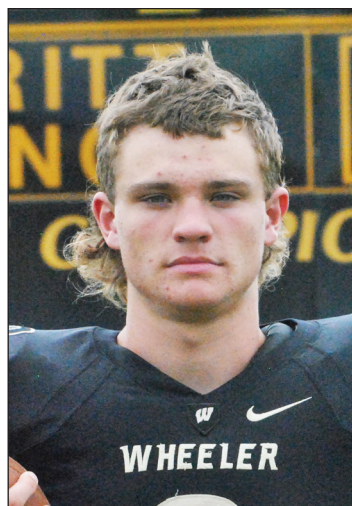

— cwe —

As you have seen at the top of the page, the paper is now available on the internet.

— cwe —

I am going to need help in figuring out how it all works. eType wrote me a news release, which I have published explaining it to you. So don't call me.

STORM REPORT

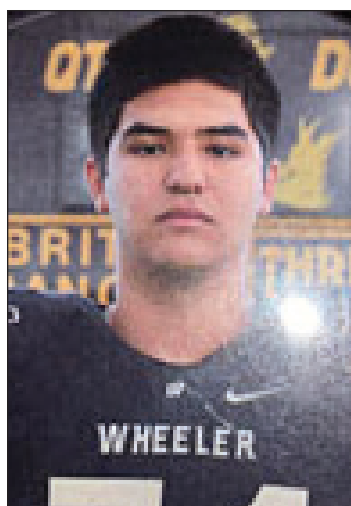

As Reported by...
Stormie Meriwether,
Tenth Grade Student

Dear Friends, It's Christmas! This has been a good year. I hope everyone is happy and healthy. It has been a good year for me and my family. Daxton (James) is one year old. He is adorable. Addy (James) and Clark (Meriwether) are growing up and in school. I hope they never have anyone bully them. That would make me so sad. Bullies have a problem and they are mean to other people because they are not happy. I have no idea how to make someone stop bullying. Sometimes they call people bad names. Sometimes they put garbage in your locker. They try to take your friends away. If someone bullies you, just ignore them. Sometimes it is really hard to ignore bullies, but it is better than getting in trouble yourself. Not all people are bullies. Some people are so sweet. They will always be your friend. Just remember that there are more nice people than bullies. Don't let mean people make you sad. I feel sorry for them. I hope they have a nice Christmas and come back to school happy so they won't bully anyone ever again.
