Sorry to hear of the loss of Hyland Weaver. He arrived in Wheeler a year before Barbara and I. He did a lot for the community and will be missed.

Congratulations to our Wheeler Mustang players named for Basketball honors.

STORM REPORT

As Reported by... Stormie Meriwether, Tenth Grade Student

Dear Friends, I can't believe it! We almost had a white Easter! We went to Cornerstone Church on the Square. It was a great day. It was cold, cloudy, and windy, but we had church anyway and I loved it! On top of the building there were three empty crosses and an empty tomb. At the end of church a man dressed like Jesus stood by the tomb with his arms up. It was very impressive. After church, my favorite part was driving by and waving at Pastors Erion and Sonia, and Leon and Marianne and all the people. I really miss seeing them.

We had Easter Dinner at home with just us. The best

$37,500.00 Challenge Grant

Wheeler Area Activities and Wheeler Sports Association received a Challenge Grant from Mary E. Bivens Foundation for $37,500.00. This will be awarded when matching funds for the lights for the Little League baseball field at Tom Britt Park are received.

This years project will include flipping the baseball fields and adding new poles and lighting for both fields. The current configuration does not allow for a centrally located concession stand and restroom facility, as the home plates are located on the south end of the complex. The west baseball field will be built within UIL regulations enabling Wheeler to have a high school baseball team and hold tournaments for other teams. These regulations include the fence being 310 feet from home plate. Plans for the east ball field are primarily to be used for little league games and tournaments. Both fields can be used for adult softball. With this expansion and upgrade, the lighting for the west field will be relocated on new poles, the east field currently has no lighting requiring new poles and light fixtures to be added. The funding for this project will allow for more opportunities for our kids, youth and adults to play during their seasons. We will be able to host tournaments, which allows for economic growth.

Bob Young

In Remembrance Of Bob W. Young

The family had a private time of fellowship and remembrance from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Wednesday, April 8, 2020, at Lake Ridge Chapel and Memorial Designers. A service is planned for a future date when the restrictions are lifted at Lake Ridge Chapel.

Bob Wayne Young grew up in a large ranching family from Canadian Texas, and family was what he loved most. After marrying his wife of 50 years, Valerie Chandler Young, he attended West Texas State University. He graduated with a Master's in History. After graduating, he moved his budding family to Lubbock, Texas, where he built a successful family business: repairing cars. His company, Hub City Body Works, became a lifelong application of his blood, sweat, tears, and unwavering, rock-solid faith. He pursued lifelong hobbies of collecting cars, with several nationally recognized acquisitions, loved to fish and hunt (not always well), steadfast traditions of breakfasts and home-cooked meals with his Kids, and a love for the Lord and His Word. Bob always loved his family, was a best friend, comfortable companion, the true love of his wife, her forever husband, and never made anyone he ever met feel small. His heart engulfed us all in its arms and sought to provide what he could, no matter if it was the last of what he had, a kind word, or simply a hug and handshake. He is loved by all that ever had a word from him and any that knew him in the brief time he was with us.

Survivors include his wife, Valerie Young; daughter, Mercedes Young and husband, Marc Lambright; four grandchildren, Hunter Bob Young, Chevy Thomas Lee

Hot, dusty; dry, crusty; old, rusty; damp, musty

What am I describing? The weather? My attitude? Your reaction to reading these words? Correlative physical realities? Or am I describing anything at all? Perhaps. Then again, it could merely be a senseless rhyme - a childish playing with words, by a juvenile or a geriatric (depending on whether age is classified as a matter of years or a matter of mindset). It may be childish, but children are the masters of wordplay. Poets, authors, and composers all struggle to create, only to fall short of what a child can do by nature, without effort or strain. Professionals must practice their craft; a child must only be in order to create. Indeed, in order to enhance creativity, professionals may utilize various practices or tactics with the goal of enabling them to approach the freedom that a child would have by instinct.

The basic reality is that a child has not yet learned the boxes that constrain the proper usage of words (or practically anything else, for that matter) - the unyielding and rigid walls created by generation upon generation of predecessors, both deliberately and, as through a form of osmosis, as it were, by societies' buying in to certain modes or manners of speech and/or behavior. In this way boxes are formed. There are other ways that boxes are formed, such as by groupthink, but identifying other methods of box creation is beyond our purpose here. The point is that boxes are ubiquitous throughout our lives, and within their confines, drab or dreary, supportive or vivifying, we do our thinking and living. We have boxes for speech, for educational topics and tactics, careers, professions, you name it. We place ideas, customs, and people into boxes. We even, often in the form of religious doctrine, endeavor to perform the absurdly impossible act of placing God into a box. Yes, boxes exist, both overt and covert.

And the master, the innovator, the trailblazer, demands to not be limited. These people are often the ones who find a way to either expand the dimensions of the box so as to accommodate their novel ideas, or, occasionally, in a flash of brilliance, like a lustrous cloud-to-ground lightning bolt; in a thrilling display of potential like the eruption of a volcano; in an exhilarating act of liberty, the true master manages to escape altogether the confines of the box, and exist apart, as isolated and alone as the victor on the medal stand, as a glorious testament to human ingenuity and an exemplar of freedom of spirit. It is almost like something a child would do. And now the question remains as to whether this composition is childish. In light of these considerations, I certainly hope so.

John and Liz Jackson have purchased a home in OKC; it is 20 miles straight south of Jennifer. Practicing 'safe distancing' we toured the unfinished home and got to wish Liz 'Happy Birthday'. Jaden was also there.

— cwe —

William came over Sunday evening and I got to play card for the first time in three weeks.

— cwe —

We are going to apply for one of those government loans for small businesses. You don't get much smaller than The Wheeler Times. I will be surprised if we get one.

— cwe —

We had applied for a low interest government loan several years ago and was not eligible since we helped to form public opinion.

— cwe —

Also along the lines of my being told after surgery I was not to work for a year. I went to the Social Security Office to see about disability and they asked, "When are you going to die." I did not get disability.

— cwe —

Enough of my sob stories.

— cwe —

Arrived home in time Monday morning to see a few snow flakes fall.

— cwe —

Now, let's tell one more story. Greg gave me a Power-it 1200 for Christmas; it is a battery charger, air compressor, spot light, has a 110 outlet and usb ports. I carry it in the trunk.

— cwe —

I used it to air up the lawnmower tire and jump started the lawn mower several times; but it would not turn off.

— cwe —

Several individuals looked at the instruction and could not understand how you were to turn it off.

— cwe —

I went to the computer and tried to find the company for help. After some effort I finally found the number and while looking for numbers on the charger for my "helper" I found a band on the handle with the number to call for assistance.

— cwe —

Turns out the 'on' button is also the 'off' button, but mine was defective. They are going to replace it.

— cwe —

On the bright side. I aired up the tire before I jump started the mower, as the air compressor would not have worked, since I could not turn off the jumper.

— cwe —

Looking forward to getting it replaced.

SOCIAL SECURITY CARD HISTORY LESSON

Facts are Facts

Social Security Cards up until the 1980s expressly stated the number and card were not to be used for identification purposes.

Since nearly everyone in the United States now has a number, it became convenient to use it anyway and the NOT FOR IDENTIFICATION message was removed.

Franklin Roosevelt, a Democrat, introduced the Social Security (FICA) Program.

• That participation in the Program would be Completely voluntary [No longer voluntary].
