FROM THE COUNTRY

(By W. M. FREE) PRIDAY OCTOBER 30, 1925. Again we embarked in our gas wagor friday morning of the above date and our souls desire was to hi-away to country and get away from the Curmoil of the city, out where the folks Live closer to nature,, where the air is pur e and the people are happy. Ve made our first stop at the home of Mr. W. E. Taylor who lives on the Rayner Road just a mile out of town

He bought the farming tools and growing crop of J. L. Seets and moved on this farm early in the spring. Mrs. Taylor's mother Mrs. L. E. Rogers who has been spending the summer with them was preparing to go to Dale, in Caldwlel county to spend the winter with a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are sending their children to school in

The next place we came to was the home of M. D. Hutchins who is farming about two miles west of otwn He has lived in the county about two years. Mrs. Hutchins has the pure bred Rhode Island Red chickens was too busy with their crop to place them in the Haskell County Fair They arrived at his place. He has a nice bunch of milch cows and markets cream. He sells about $15.00 worth of cream each week. He has a cream to his hogs. He has a line bunch porkers for his meat and pigs for meat another year. Mrs. Foster has Plyamouth Rock chickens which are milk fed and they sure look fine.

We stopped at the home of Will Iohnson who has lived in the county a number of years. He is now talking of moving to his farm in New Mexico. but we trust that he will change his notion and stay in Haskell county. His daughters, Misses Bessie and Jessie will teach in the schools of Haskell county --this winter.

The home of W. R. Cook was our next stop and he was busy gathering his cotton. He had out fourteen bales of cotton when we were there. He and his family have picked most of the cotton themselves. W. R. is a hustler Mrs. Cook has about 50 fine turkeys for the market this year.

We called at the home of J. Q. Adams He was busy taking care of his young feed. His feed had already been headed once, but he was harvesting the succor erop of maize by binding it in bundles with a binder Mrs. Adam's mother Mrs. J. A. Gholson is visiting her from Grand Saline. She says the recent cold spell was the coldest weather she ever saw in October and she is a very old lady and has seen many winters in Texas and she says she has observed them closely.

We called at the home of the Morrison brothers and met J. L. and I. N. for the first time in their home. They are farming and getting along nicely They have lived in Haskell County two years coming from Stephenville here.

We called at the home of D. D. Pitman he was in the city hauling cotton seed for the Harrison & Spurlock Gin. father and mother and Mrs. W. R. Hathcock are living with them, they have recently moved from Bell county. O. G. Hathcock a brother of Mrs. Pitman and his family from Bell county are also here helping them gather their crop.

G. F. Moore had just returned from Haskell with twine for Johnson and Spurlock to cut his late feed when we called on him. We have been knowing Mr. Moore for a number of years and although he has not seen fit to take a wife for himself, he is a good cook and keeps his house clean and nice and he enjoys reading very much. Of course he reads the Free Press

O. M. Spariock was helping Will Johnson out feed with a binder and they had just driven out of Mr. Spurlock's field where the had been cutting late feed. Mr. Spurlock is the son of M. F. Surlock of this city and he moved here from Oklahoma in the spring.

Our next stop was at the home of Will Campbell where we remained for dinner. We sure enjoyed the good meal with our friends. Will hasmade a good crop. He had picked 20 bales of cotton and will make plenty of maize to feed his stock. He has some fine milch cows and Mrs Campbell has about 75 fine Bronze turkeys They have the Cornish Game Chickens. We enjoyed our stay with them very much and longing for the time when we can go back that way.

C. E. Williams had moved into the Gauntt community from Old Glory last spring but has not been able to find a place for rent up to the present and he expects to move away later on after the cotton is gathered.

We stopped with Uncle Jess Miller, It is always an inspiration to visit uncle Jess and look over his place and learn of his successes. He came here 6 years ago and bought this farm near Gauntt and he has made a success in every undertaking with his farm projects. He has wheat in his barn worth around $200.00 and has 3.000 pounds of flour in his home enough to last a whole year. He has lots of Barley in the granary. He has some fine hogs and they are now fat and ready to butcher. He has the Buff Orpington chickens and they are fine. He has nade since he came here more than 12,000.00 farming. Some day we hope to have a complete story of the me-hode he uses but space forbids in this and it is growing nicely. Mrs. Miller so he bought a new one and went to has been sick for some time but we hope that she may soon recover her health. Her children have recently been to see her and she enjoyed their visits very much.

We called on Mr. and Mrs. O. L Reaves who will teach the Gauntt school again this year. They are good teachers and this is their second term for the Gauntt school.

Uncle Tommie Highnote was helping shock his bundle feed and had not come to the house for dinner at 2 p. m. in an essay contest in Jones county when we called. He is 75 years of age and was setting a preceedent for the younger folks in sticking to the job. Press. We enjoyed our visit with these out 32 bales of cotton and was having plenty of cows for milk and butter. his late feed cut with a binder.

G M. Sims was looking after the cut ting of some fine late feed. He has the field where he had recently piled made a good crop this year. He has it up. He has just fimshed cutting his Miss Willie Frances who has been in training at the Alexander Sanitarium saw. He had some excellent good cotat Abilene for a nurse was at home for a short stay with the family.

T. C. Conner was busy with his crop. when we called to see him. He is an excellent young farmer and was almost reared in Haskell county. He lives on the Leon farm and has a good place to live and he appreciates it and is taking care of the place. Mrs. Conner ed his family here. Mrs. Knipling has has some fine Red Chickens which pay around 300 chickens and is a good their way in eggs.

We made our next stop at the home of E. L. Conner he was busy with his crop and he has an excellent crop this year. Mrs. Conner has agreed to write the news items from Gauntt and her first letter appeared in last week's Free Press. We are glad to enlist her in the

We made our last stop for the day with R. P. Graham on the Morrison Farm on Rule Route 1. He is a good save his late feed and he started the of 1902 the ranchmen and cowboys binder to work while we were there. and has some fine hogs for his meat. He has some good milch cows and is was up and he would come out better

We worked in the office until Tuesday morning November the third when we made a trip to the Bunkerhill community making our first stop at the home of our old friend J. P. McIntyre who was busy with his children gathering maize and letting his cotton wait on picking for a few days until he could save his feed. His daughter Miss Virgie is our correspondent from Bunkerhill. Last year she won a cultivator among the school children and we feel very proud of her as our correspondent.

Mrs. Highnote renewed for the Free spent the noon hour. Mrs. Boedecker gave us a good dinner which was a real fine old people. Mrs. Highnote raises farm dinner, most of the good things to the Plymouth Rock chickens and she eat were grown on the farm. We went stock for two years and then sells his has some fine ones this year. She to the field before noon where Mr. says she has had the best garden this Boedecker and the boys were heading fall she has had since she has lived on maize. Mr. Ervy has some real good mules, some Boedecker had a car stolen during the fine hogs and a bunch of turkeys and fair at Haskell. The car was found in on the Mueller farm Mr. Scott has ome fine milch cows. He and his the road near lowa Park abondoned lived in this county only two years but children have picked most of his cot, and he now has it back home and it ton. He is doing fine with farming in good condition. Mr. Boedecker and is happy and contented. He reads will make more than 60 bales of cotton on his farms this year and plenty W E. Powler who is an extensive of feed to run them. He has five good otton farmer was very busy gathering hogs for his meat, plenty of good mules is an experienced turkey grower and his cotton when we called. He has and horses for all farm purposes, and

When we called on Wm. Knipling he was hauling in headed maize from ots of cotton to pick. His daughter second crop of sorghum which was some of the best bundle feed we ever ton and the largest boll we have seen. He beleives in pure bred planting seed and says it pays to plant the best seed. He has the pure Ed Kasch seed. He plants his land to feed at least every fourth year which keeps it from too long run of cotton. He has lived in Haskell County 18 years and has rearpoultry raiser.

We called on H. G. Mueller who was preparing to go to the gin with cotton. He is a good farmer and has lived in Haskell county 21 years. He has three head of hogs for his meat and plenty of cows for milk and butter for the family and raises lots of chickens. He makes the effort to grow a living at home.

other land is rented out. We made our last call for the day with J. F. Scott a progressive farmer likes it fine and is making plans to become a permanent citizen in the future They have a family of fine girls and some of them will teach in the Jones county schools this year. Mrs. Scott had good luck for the past several years She only has about fifty head this year but the past two years had raised more than a hundred each year. She is keep ing the Black Langshang chickens and

The following Wednesday we again went south to Howard School house We had heard of the improvements and were anxious to see about them. You will find an article in another part of the paper telling about the improvements. We found Mr. and Mrs. Covey at the teacherage and they showed us through the school grounds and the teachers home. We pronounced it not only good , but very good.

Our next stop was made at the home of J. F. Elmore, near the Howard school. We were met by one of the little boys who invited us into the home. Mr. Elmore was cutting his late feed and we learned from Mrs. Elmore and the boys that he was making a fair crop of feed and cotton. Mrs. Elmore has two dozen fine Rhode Island red pullets that she was going to keep and expects to keep only pure bred chickens next year. The little boys were very much interested in their bantams and they took us around the yard and pointed them out Mr. Elmore has hogs to make his meat.

Our next stop was at the home of John Nanny who also lives near Howard school building He was also busy with his late feed and according to Mrs. Nanny he is putting up lots of feed. lieves in saving what he makes. He souri and he was of the type of men getting along very nicely gathering it.

We stopped at the home of S. A. Medford who moved from Commanche county a few years ago. He was shocking cane. His cotton is fair. He has out 18 bales. He has two good hogs for his meat and has plenty of cows to supply the family with milk.

We called at the home of Monroe Howard who picks cotton in the morn ing while the dew is on and cuts feed for his neighbors in the afternoon. He has out six bales of cotton and has picked most of it he and his children. We ate dinner at the home of I. R.

Dinsmore. It was our good fortune to get to the home just about that time of day. We sure did enjoy the good dinner and we now know why Mr. and Mrs. Dinsmore are and all the children have so much good things to eat." Thanks for the good dinner. Mr. Dinsplant with a new supply of fuel. He says that this is the best lights for the country homes and it sure is more convenient than the oil lamps. Mrs. Dinsmore is a great poultry raiser. She has the red chickens and 50 or 60 fine turkeys for the market this fall. This Hoytt Perry and his wife and baby were at the Dinsmore home.

IT IS STRANGE: YET TRUE

Georgetown Sun: A newspaper pubished at-well, in Central Texas- tells of a merchant who called at the office of the publication a few days ago and told the editor of the paper just how he should denounce people who trade with mail order houses stating that he had just read statistics showing how much money went out of that particular town for mail order goods. Later on in the day the editor was advised by a lady, who takes pride in her home paper and furnishes regularly all the local news she happens to know, that the wife and daughter of the merchan were in a town almost a hundred miles away shopping at the very moment the merchant was berating the mail order house customers who in many instances do not own automobiles in which to run about over the country. In addition to that the merchant uses government printed envelopes and orders his letter heads out of town. Recently in this section of Texas a number of newspapers, The Sun included, refused an advertising contract from one of the greatest mail order houses in the world, because we believe it against the best interests of the community and away shopping at the very momen county, and yet there are today business enterprises benefitting by this who never spent five cents for advertising and we presume never will. It is strange that a man will label himself business man and refuse to benefit by the science of advertising save as he may gather the crubs from the table of others. Advertising is a direct science and the mail order people know

t. They are flooding this country with their catalogues asking the people for their business. Mr. Business Man, what are you going to do about it; let them get the business or meet their bid for the needs of the people? Twenty thousand individuals read The Sun every week: have you a message for Expensive Mathematics.

Some thirty years ago the Dallas News printed the following item, reciting what was purported to be an ac tual occurrence in the public schools of that city. The News reproduced it in its 40th anniversary number:

A teacher in one of the schools re ceived the following letter:

"Sir: Will you please for the future give my boy easier soms to do at nites? This is what he brought home to or three nites back: 'If fore gallins of bere will fill 30 to-pint bottles how many will 9 gallins of bere fill? - Well, we tried and could make nothin' of it at all, and my boy he cried and sed he didn't dare go back in the mornin' without doin' it. So I had to go and buy a nine gallin keg of bere, which I could ill afford to do, and then become bottles. We fill them and then counted them and there were ninety one of them, and my boy he put the number down for an answer. I don't know if it is rite or not, as we spilt some while
