

Silverton: Home of Scenic Lake Mackenzie

BY MARY ANN SARCHET

Finally! Briscoe County, Lake Mackenzie and Caprock Canyons State Park are getting some well-deserved publicity. (Dirk Aaron calls Briscoe County "the best-kept secret in Texas.") The Amarillo Daily News had a couple of articles—one entitled "Tough Times Put Briscoe in Recreation Business" and another on the state park and lakes which included a color photograph of the scenic caprock.

The July issue of Accent West magazine has color photographs of Lake Mackenzie and the Tule canyon, along with a nice narrative under the title, "A Hidden Jewel." The article includes a little of the history of the area and of the Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority. It was wonderful publicity and included a "most-scenic route" suggestion for getting from Amarillo to the lake.

I am noticing more things happening in Silverton which help make it a more attractive and inviting community. A new paint job is going up at Rick Hester's Gulf & Muffler Service. This business is on Highway 86, and adds a progressive note for people passing through.

One of the prettiest homes I saw during the past week in driving around town was that of Perry and Marsha Brunson, where there are lots of trees, flowers and hanging baskets.

Another attractive yard can be found at the home of Lem and Valeria Weaver, where the grass is neatly trimmed and there are lots of colorful flowers.

The home of Walter and Bobbye Bean is neat and well-landscaped, from street to alley. I really love what they've done in their back yard.

The homes of Anna Belle Tipton and David and Reba Tipton are very neat, and in addition, David has had the old foundation removed from the lot on South Main Street where the Gary Younger home was once located.

There is a new sign and laundry motif at M & M Laundry that I just love! It makes that place of business look ever-so-much more attractive.

The courthouse yard has been groomed during the past week, and we noticed Coach Shely working on the football field and area that surrounds it. The

Supply-Side Farm Bill To "Wait In Wings"

by Forrest Laws
Markets Editor,
Southwest Farm Press

Supply management proponents are writing a new farm bill that will be "waiting in the wings" if the current, market-oriented law is deemed a failure.

The legislation is being drafted by a working group of about a dozen senators, congressmen and staff that includes House Majority Leader Jim Wright of Texas.

Its basic premise is that the market enhancing provisions of the Food Security Act of 1985 will fail.

LAST EFFORT

"The current law is the last big effort of the free marketers to write farm legislation," says David Senter, national director of the American Agriculture Movement.

"Everyone is beginning to see that it won't work and we want to be waiting in the wings with one that will."

Senter said the congressmen have reached tentative agreement on a two-phase strategy:

—The first phase, described as an emergency program for the 1986 and/or 1987 crop years, would be voluntary and employ a marketing certificate scheme to get farmers to scale back production.

—The second would apply to the 1988 crop year and follow a national referendum on a mandatory supply management program.

One of the first steps in the first phase would be to establish loan rates at 75 percent of parity.

For cotton, that would be 92 cents per pound; soybeans, $9.08 per bushel; wheat, $5.04 per bushel; and rice, $14.40 per hundredweight, using USDA's parity price calculations for April.

The legislation would eliminate target price and diversion payments.

Producers would receive marketing certificates allowing them to sell their crops to the domestic market based on their pro rata share of a national marketing allocation.

DOMESTIC DEMAND

The latter would be determined, Senter said, by multiplying the farm acreage base established under the 1985 law by the established farm yield and the allocation percentage projected for the year.

"Production targets would be based upon domestic consumption, existing carryover stocks and required reserves," he said.

Farmers who chose not to participate in the voluntary phase of the program could sell to the export market only and would not be entitled to any federal benefits.

Senter said the marketing certificate program would be designed so that existing stocks would be reduced by an equal amount annually over a three-year period.

"Certificates could be received only for that portion of each producer's allocation based upon domestic demand," he noted.

Taxpayers Receiving Re-Appraisal Notices

All Briscoe County taxpayers have been mailed "Notices of Appraised Value" this week, according to Carlye Fleming, chief appraiser for the Briscoe County Tax Appraisal District. Because there has been a county-wide re-appraisal for the 1986 tax year, the notices are being mailed to all taxpayers this year, instead of only to those whose values have been increased.

Mrs. Fleming notes that these are not statements. They are to provide each taxpayer with information on 1986 values. Mrs. Fleming asks that you examine the notices very carefully.

The appraisal district determines only the value of property and/or qualified exemptions. If any of the information is wrong, or you disagree with this year's proposed value for your property, please contact the appraisal office at 806-823-2161. If the problem cannot be resolved, you have the right to appeal to the Appraisal Review Board (ARB). In order to appeal, you must file a written protest with the ARB before July 24, 1986. You can get a protest form at the appraisal district office in the basement of the Briscoe County Court House.

The Appraisal Review Board will begin hearing protests on July 24, 1986, at 10:00 a.m. in the County Court House, 415 Main Street, Silverton, Texas 79257.

Outage Was Due To Vandalism

A "fairly extensive" outage Friday afternoon was experienced by Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, Inc., in northern and eastern Floyd County and in Briscoe County as the result of vandalism. Lighthouse customers at Lone Star, South Plains and Cedar Hill were without electricity for "about an hour and a half."

Silverton's power was off for a longer period.

Alton Higginbotham, General Manager of Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, said vandals shot insulators off of a 69,000 volt transmission line near Silverton. This caused the power outage.

The incident has been reported to the Briscoe County Sheriff's Department for investigation.

Higginbotham explained that "as soon as we determined the

PAUL R. CABELLO

Paul R. Cabello, 50, of Plainview was killed Monday afternoon about 3:00 p.m. near Quitaque when a crane boom fell on him. He was working with Rhode Pipe Company on the construction of a water pipeline for the City of Quitaque at the time of the accident.

Funeral services will be at 11:00 a.m. today (July 3) at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Plainview with the Rev. Nicholl, Holy Spirit Catholic Church in Tulia, and the Rev. Mathew Desouza, pastor of Sacred Heart, and Leo Ramos, a deacon at Sacred Heart, officiating. Rosary was to have been read at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at Sacred Heart Church.

Burial will be in Plainview Memorial Park by Lemons Fu-

Briant of Dalhart; two brothers, Gene Dickenson of Dallas and Klee Dickenson of Blue Springs, Missouri; a sister, Marguerite Perry of Dallas; and five grandchildren.

Large Rattlesnakes Being Killed in Area

Some very large rattlesnakes are being killed, and residents are urged to be especially cautious.

Duane Reynolds and his son, Darrell Reynolds, killed a rattler that had just eaten a large meal, probably a jackrabbit, while they were working at the Lemons place June 10. (The photo didn't turn out.) Duane almost stepped on it before he saw it, and was still a bit shaken by the ordeal when he arrived back in town.

Robby Weaks and Carl Minyard killed another large rattler (with a shotgun) on one of the Weaks farms east of the farm-to-market highway to Claytonville on Wednesday of last week. The snake had fourteen rattles and a button, and was almost as long as Robby is tall. Carl said the snake had a very large head—before they blew it away.

The first ship to cross the North Pole beneath the ice was the Nautilus on August 3, 1958.

neral Home.

Mr. Cabello was born May 13, 1936 in Seguin. He was reared in Seguin and Quitaque. He married Delia Valdez January 15, 1956 in Nazareth. He moved to Plainview in 1971 and worked on farms. He worked at Edmonson Co-op Gin in 1973 and had been employed by Rhode Pipe Company since 1985.

He was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Josie C. Ramos of Wichita Falls and Juanita Cabello of Plainview; one son, Paul Cabello, jr., of Plainview; four brothers, Pedro Cabello and Vincente Cabello of Seguin, Pilar Cabello of Silvertown and Rosalio Cabello of Abernathy; five sisters, Antonia Guerra of Enos, Natividad Rodriguez and Amparo Campos, both of Seguin, Julia Nieto of Lubbock and Concha Sanchez of Miles; and three grandchildren.

Claude Jarrett is reported to be in very serious condition at the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. John Gill visited him there on Tuesday of last week.

trouble, we isolated that one segment" and were able to resume service to the other areas.

Service personnel for the cooperative replaced insulators shot off the pole near Silvertown. The vandal(s) had destroyed all fifteen "bell-type" or "skirt-type" insulators from the pole.

The incident represented "a potentially serious offense considering the possibility of injuries." It was not only potentially dangerous and a nuisance for customers, but expensive for Lighthouse. Officials point out that life-support systems are necessary in a few homes and an electrical outage renders these systems inoperable.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

We enjoy receiving the paper and are looking forward to seeing everyone at school in August.

Time does fly; my mother, Winnie Wimberly, graduated there in 1912 and I graduated in '42. She was in the first graduating class of Silverton High.

According to your report, Silverton is looking great!

Sincerely,
Freda Seefeldt

Dear Editor:

These renewals for MOM and me are very important, you see; Your paper brings Many interesting things in Iowa, Colorado and Arizona. He was born in Colorado and was reared in Arizona. "I don't have a hometown," he laughed, "I am the son of a Methodist minister!"

His wife, Barbara, was reared in Lubbock. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Lakey of Lubbock. They are parents of two sons, Sean, who will be attending Western Texas Junior College at Snyder this fall, and John, who is married and has two children and is a six-year career man with the Navy. He is stationed at a submarine base at Charleston, South Carolina, but is to be stationed in Lubbock as a recruiter in August.

Rev. Knowlton is a former public school teacher and administrator in Brownfield, Wellman and Loop. He was called to the ministry in 1974 at the age of 39. He follows Rev. Lanny Wheeler, who moved to Hereford, as pastor of the Vigo Park and Silverton churches.

"We are very happy to be here," he said. "Didn't know you were in the rain belt!" To this the newspaper editor replied, "We didn't either."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rhoderick have bought the Riley Harris house on Broadway Street, and I understand they will be moving here from Plainview in the near future. This home also has a very attractive yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Long have moved from Amarillo to the country home formerly occupied by the Jene Montague family before they moved to Plano.

The Jack Shelys have a very pretty vegetable garden at their home.

Other nice yards belong to the A. M. Perkins, Sylvia Fogerson, Edwin Mays, Terry Grimlands, Tillie May, O. E. Mays, Frank Hunts, Joe Grabbes, Vance Childresses, Annie Grabbe, the Virgil Crows, Roy Youngers and Donald Flemings.

There were places we saw that were near-perfect, but maybe just needed grass or weeds trimmed around trees, flower beds, etc. to make them picture-perfect.

John D. Baird and J. C. Jacobs were mowing when we made our survey.

Hats off to these folks who have made time to take care of their yards in spite of the weather. Keeping things neat hasn't been easy because the rains have not only made mowing impossible some days but have made the weeds grow more rapidly than usual to require cutting more often.

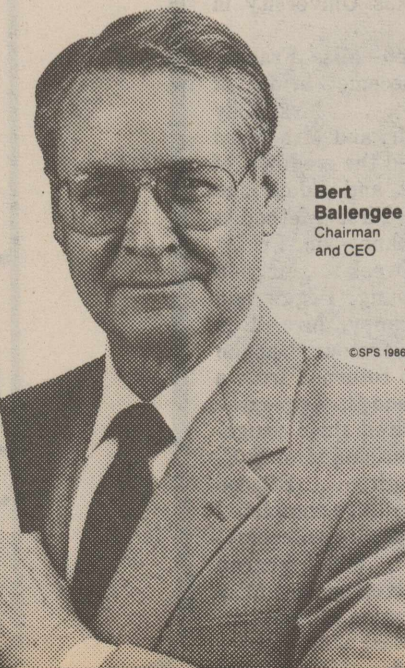

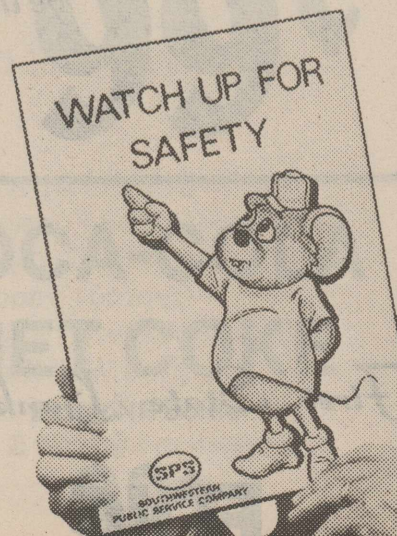

I am very proud of the business people on the east side of the alley from Lone Star Street to Sixth Street for keeping their back alleys so neat.

Come on, folks; let's get all our painting projects off the ground so that everything will look fresh and pretty for the Sesquicentennial Celebration and School Homecoming in August. We've only got about six weeks to get a lot done!

"Proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

—Leviticus 25:10

Throughout the course of history,
Although they seldom dared to try,
All men had dreamed of being free—
Until that fourth day of July;
For then, two hundred ten years ago,
With help from God a tiny band
Of men proclaimed the thing we know
As Liberty throughout the land.

Because of them, we speak our mind;
In government we have a voice.
And then we may, when we're inclined,
Attend the Church that is our choice.
So, climb aboard the Freedom Train
This special Independence Day;
And pray that freedom will remain
Forever, in the U. S. A.!

The first radio SOS was sent in 1909 when the liner Arapahoe, with its engines disabled, radioed for help off Cape Hatteras, North Carolina.

The tidal wave caused by the eruption of a volcano on the island of Krakatau in 1883 reached as far as England.

The first police force in America was a "Rattle Watch" of eight men established in the Colony of New Amsterdam in 1658.

FARM BILL—

"They would not be negotiable, but would accompany the commodity through each transfer of ownership until it is processed or fed."

Endorsed certificates would be surrendered to the originating ASCS office by the end user.

Penalties would be imposed to discourage "bootleg" movement of the commodities or certificates, he said.

Participating producers would be required to place any land idled as a result of the program in a conserving use or cover.

"A producer might accomplish a reduction to stay within the combined farm allocation by cutting back on irrigation, fertilizer or other elements," Senter said.

"DISASTER INSURANCE"

"Any small overproduction on a complying farm could be fed on the farm or carried over to another year to move within the marketing certificate allocation of that year as a personal form of disaster insurance."

Mandatory cross-compliance would be imposed for all program crops, under the legislation.

"As with current law, the agriculture secretary could limit access to certain non-program crop markets for program participants if he finds that those markets are being unduly harmed."

Senter said that some targeting of benefits would occur to protect middle-sized family farm operators.

Those growers might receive additional marketing certificates designated for use in the P.L.-480 program and other humanitarian relief.

Also, livestock producers would be allowed to purchase existing stocks of grain from the Commodity Credit Corp. at the current loan level during a transition period of 18 months.

The new bill includes a dairy base quota plan with increased support levels, Senter said. Details of the provision have not been finalized.

He said the legislation is "not very far" from being ready for introduction.

"We have been having discussions on whether to wait until after the completion of the wheat poll or to introduce it now," he says.

MUDDY THE WATERS

"There is some concern that we might confuse the issue if we try to bring it out now."

USDA has begun a massive survey of wheat growers to determine the amount of support for a mandatory supply management program. The administration has said it will not be bound by the poll which is required under the 1985 farm law.

Organizations like the AAM, the National Farmers Organization and the Farmers Union believe, however, that a favorable outcome would add steam to their drive for a new farm bill.

"USDA has been delaying the vote because they know that if they take it now, they would lose," said Senter.

"A victory for us would certainly help with our referendum concept."

The department was scheduled to begin mailing ballots for the poll June 18. Responses must be postmarked no later than July 7 to be counted.

Opposing the AAM and NFO on the poll are the American Farm Bureau Federation and the Fertilizer Institute which contend that the supply management scheme would lead to a 60 percent reduction annually in planted acreage for the major row crops.

"Farmers would not necessarily receive more income under supply management," said a recent statement issued by the Farm Bureau.

"And what's more, they would be turning over management of their farms to the government."

But Senter says that pressure is building from around the country for a change in farm programs.

"We just received a late notice from USDA allowing farmers to store grain on the ground and cover it with plastic. They have people out trying to rent hopper cars and everything else to have somewhere to put all this surplus."

"It looks like they have themselves a real train wreck."

He said the AAM believes farmers should be given an opportunity to decide whether they want market-oriented farm programs or supply management.

Some farm leaders would argue that producers have spoken, given the heavy input of the major commodity organizations in the 1985 farm law.

Majority Representation

But Senter and other AAM leaders contend that the commodity groups do not speak for the majority of growers.

"Allowing farmers to vote on whether to impose production controls on themselves lets them choose the kind of farm policy they want," he said.

The AAM opposes placing production controls on farmers unless they are approved by a sizable majority of growers, according to Senter.

"If controls are as disastrous as critics contend, then those in the best position to judge—the producers—will reject them," he noted.

"Opponents of production controls are really saying that farmers don't know what is best for themselves."

County 4-H'ers
Attend South Plains
Leadership Camp

Nine Briscoe County 4-H members attended the South Plains 4-H Leadership Camp June 17-18-19. The camp was held at South Plains College in Levelland.

Members attending received specific leadership training in project areas of their liking. Areas of instruction included archery, clowning, photography, clothing, sports, health, kite-making, recreation, and leathercraft. Members also enjoyed many fun activities which included sports tournaments, folk games and much more.

Members attending were Josh Brooks, Bradley Price, Ricky Hughes, Langdon Reagan, Chad Powell, Amy Ramsey, Christi Nease, Penni Fogerson and Jennifer Grimland.

SEVERAL TO ATTEND COACHING SCHOOL

Several Silverton residents will be attending the annual Coaching School and its all-star football and basketball games in Stephenville July 13-19.

Coach Jack Shely will be coaching the West Team in the all-star football classic which will be held Saturday night, July 19. Two of his Silverton High School players, Todd Reagan and Russell Simpson, will be playing for the West Team.

Cal Mack Brannon is first-alternate for both the football and basketball games, and Coach Shely is still hoping he will have an opportunity to participate. The all-star basketball game takes place Saturday afternoon, July 19.

Several from Silverton are planning to attend the all-star games.

Coach Bob Loy, who with his family has been on vacation in Pennsylvania, is also planning to attend the Coaching School, but will not be leaving on Sunday with the other coach and players.

Mrs. Flute (Junis) Hutsell continued to receive treatment early this week at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo. She entered the hospital the first of last week.

Crappie Fishing Continues Good

Crappie fishing in the late evening hours has continued to be good for those using minnows. Tom Moore, Tom Mann and Mickey Craigg of Lubbock brought in several nice crappie in the 3/4 to one-pound range they caught up Tule Creek using minnows.

Bass fishing is still good. Most fish are being caught in shallow water using buzz-baits and plastic worms.

Catfish are starting to move and feed at night. Several three-and four-pound channel cat were caught over the weekend using liver and cut shad.

Walleye and hybrid stripers continue slow.

Water depth at the dam is 113.6 feet, and water temperature at a four-foot depth is 80°.

Amy Lynne Hughes of Roscoe is spending this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Berton Hughes. They will return her home this week, and spent the Fourth of July weekend in Roscoe.

About 16 million Americans are employed by all levels of government.
