A 2-year old Apricot tree at the Roland Trout home has evidently become confused by the varying weather of the past few weeks-its blooming for the second time this year.

Another week of peak cotton gathering has prevailed over this section, with everyone busy.

The local gins had a total of 7,400 bales at noon Wednesday and are running into the night.

Most farmers are gathering more cotton than was expected and without weather damage later in the season, local estimates for Rotan run from twenty to twenty-five thousand bales, which is a bumper crop with the reduced acreage.

L. V. Nurses Meet At Rest Home

The L. V. N. Association held their monthly meeting Monday night 7:00 o'clock in the dining room of the newly completed Fisher County Rest Home by the invitation of the manager, Mrs. Nona Thompson, who is also a member of the Licensed Vocational Nurses Association.

Members present said, "may we take this means to say we were very favorably impressed by the general appearance of the Rest Home.

The simple lines, the practical layout of the Home at once gives both a homelike appearance with a hospital-like efficiency to the visitor immediately upon entering the lovely building. This is an institution of which all Fisher County and especially those who had a hand in its instigation and building work, can justly be proud."

After a brief business meeting a large picture of "The Last Supper" was presented by president, Mrs. Nila Gray to Mrs. Nona Thompson to hang in the Home to show appreciation for her efforts to make life easier for those who require constant attention.

Rev. Carl Underhill arrived at the close of the business session, bringing a well prepared lecture on "Picking Up Loose Ends" of our belongings, our lives and even our conversation, after uttered, sounds lilence on our own part and by cooperation with each other.

Rev. Underhill pointed out if our conservation, after uttered, sounds different to that which we intended we should immediately pick up the loose ends and amend them to the satisfaction of the listener or we have offended one of Christ's creatures and might possibly do untold injury to someones peace of mind.

The group stated that they appreciated this and other thoughts he brought to mind because we as nurses must be ever on the alert as to what we say and how we say it to each individual person or patient we come in contact with. Ours is the privilege of serving and administering to and of showing loyalty and cooperation to our very capable Doctors and to each other. May we serve the public with dignity and humility.

Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served by Mrs. Thompson's capable staff.

Regular meeting nights are each third Monday night, 7:00 o'clock in the dining room of Gann's Cafe. All L. V. N. Nurses are urged to attend, whether a member of visitor.

A fired-up Yellowhammer squad threw up a stonewall defense to swamp a 22-8 victory over previously-undefeated Stanton Friday night in the opening District 6-A game for both teams.

The coaching staff was well pleased with their charges, and in naming outstanding players for the game, listed the 13 starters as outstanding for this game.

The Hammers gave up a first quarter touchdown to the Buffaloes and then tightened up their defense to hold them to 23 yards rushing and 90 yards passing for the entire game.

Quarterbacking of Todd Baugh and the running of Bradley Brittain paced the Yellowhammers to the surprise upset. Everyone but the Hammers and local fans had Stanton doped to take the conference tilt by a small score.

Stanton took the lead late in the first quarter when Brewer bucked over from the two-yard marker. A conversion pass went wide.

Rotan recovered a Stanton fumble on the Stanton 17 to set up the first TD. Baugh passed to Hiram Lopez for the tally. A final nine yards of the drive Baugh to Lopez pass added the two-point conversion and put the Hammers out front, 8-6.

The Buffaloes blocked a Rotan punt on the latter's 10-yard stripe and recovered in the end zone for a two-point safety to round out the Stanton scoring.

Yellowhammers took the lead in the third on a 70-yard march that was capped by Baugh's score on a one-yard keeper play. Baugh passed to Erbie Rodgers for the extra points.

Baugh again plunged over from the one on a keeper mid-way in the fourth period. The score was set up by a Baugh interception of a Buffalo pass. The conversion pass attempt by Baugh went wide.

The Hammers' fullback Brittain, led the game's ball carriers by picking up 95 yards rushing.

Rotan 0 0 8 6-22 Stanton 6 2 0 0-8

Yellowhammers go to Roscoe Friday night for another district game, in which the Plowboys are expected to be rough competition. October 30 they go to Stanton for the third district game of the season. About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. MOLLE, M. D., Commissioner of Health.

The heavy rains a while back caused millions of dollars in property damage. Worse still, there was some loss of life.

Often accompanying such flash flood activity is the danger of unsanitary conditions. These conditions range from improper sewage disposal to contamination of food-stuffs which must be destroyed.

One of the most important consequences is contamination of private water systems, especially rural wells. Heavy flooding invariably deposits surface contamination into such wells.

To remedy the situation, certain steps must be taken. The well should first of all be thoroughly pumped out to remove all sediment.

Next the well should be treated with a suitable chlorine-type disinfectant. Local health departments will recommend the one that is best for a particular situation.

After the chlorine solution is deposited the water should be circulated so the chlorine solution reaches every part of the water system. Well, pump, all water lines, spigots—everywhere should be thoroughly disinfected by circulation and recirculation.

Following treatment the well and water system can then be flushed to remove the excess chlorine from the system. In 72 hours, samples should be taken and sent to the local or State Health Department for testing to determine that all of the contamination has been removed.

If any contamination is present, the entire process should be repeated.

Other post-flood measures should include ridding the premises of all possible mosquito breeding sites. Every possible container should be emptied or turned over. Not a single possible water catcher should be overlooked.

Mosquitoes can cause diseases such as encephalitis (sleeping sickness) and should not be permitted to breed on your premises.

All eating and drinking utensils should be disinfected also.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Graham, Roger and Fairy visited Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hall at Durant, Okla., over the weekend. Also visiting the Halls were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Rogers of Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Rogers of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Rogers and Brad Blanchard, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Roach spent Sunday in Abilene with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Murff.

Soil Fertility Program Planned By Texas Extension Service

College Station Texas—The Texas Agricultural Extension Service has announced a new intensified soil fertility program to increase net profit for farmers through proper use of fertilizer and other good soil management practices.

Director John E. Hutchinson said, "Three 'pilot' areas have been selected where an all-out effort will be made to use the fertilizer the way it should be used."

This entire program is designed to fit fertilizer into farming to make farmers more money, he pointed out. Fertilizer alone, however, is not the complete answer. All other phases of crop management necessary for efficient production will be included.

The program will be supervised by personnel of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Locally, members of the County Extension Program Building Committee, in cooperation with the Texas Plant Food Educational Society will assist in planning the program.

Support for the work will also come from the Texas Agricultural Limestone Association, the National Plant Food Institute, the American Potash Institute and other segments of the fertilizer industry.

Initial work in the pilot areas is planned for the coming crop season, Director Hutchinson added. The first step will include testing soil to determine the kinds and amounts of fertilizer and limestone needed. Additional phases will include balanced fertility, and soil, moisture and crop management.

The use of fertilizer has increased steadily in Texas. In the last decade its use has grown from 492,541 tons in 1949 to 676,210 tons during the 1958-59 crop season, he concluded. But the potential profits resulting from fertilizer still are much greater.

Mrs. J. V. Hellums and Mrs. James B. Day visited their sister, Mrs. Earl Keese and Mr. Keese in Stamford Tuesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis and Carla of Sweetwater visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Williamson Sunday.

TELEPHONE TALK

School is now well underway and the children have settled down to their studies. Let's all help them get thru the year by driving carefully especially around the schools and during the hours when the children are going to and from school. You may lose a minute by driving 20 miles an hour around the schools, but isn't it better for you to lose a minute than some child to lose it's life.

Beauty on Duty

What does this headline mean to you?

If you're a homemaker, it could mean a new washer or dryer, or maybe even a new dishwasher.

To a man "Beauty on Duty" could mean a new car or the new transistor radio that brings you the World Series.

For teenagers, it could mean the old but treasured jalopy sitting proudly in the driveway.

But here at the Telephone Company, we have our own special definition of "Beauty on Duty"—a bedroom telephone in color.

A bedroom phone in color deserves the title too, because it brightens your bedroom while helping you keep in touch between chores during the day. It also gives you a sense of security and keeps you free from care and worry at night.

Color telephones are also available with a built-in night light—ideal for bedrooms. To order your bedroom phone in color just call the telephone business office.

How Not To Tie Up Your Phones

I was passing the time of day with a fellow recently when he suddenly blurted out, as if he'd just thought of something, "I just found out that if the receiver isn't on your phone straight and firm that all the phones in your house can be tied up and nobody can call you."

"That's right," I said.

"Well," he said, "You ought to tell people about that. It's important."

My friend's right. It IS important to make sure receivers on all your telephones are on the hook. It's even more important if you're on a party line. A receiver off any phone ties up the line for everyone else.

"Why," I asked my friend, "Are you so suddenly interested in this subject?"

"Because a fellow tried to call me and couldn't, and I missed out on a fishing trip—that's why," he said sadly.

Can't say I blame him, can you?

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Don't be a statistic!

According to highway safety authorities, most serious automobile accidents happen at night. Poor visibility is an important cause.

Now that the days are getting shorter, it's a good idea to make sure that your car's headlights are properly focused and bright enough, and that your taillights and turn indicators are functioning properly. Your Phillips 66 Dealer will be glad to help you keep the lighting equipment on your car in top condition. Also, he has the fuses and sealed-beam units to fit your car.

If you possibly can, try to arrange your trips so that night-driving is kept to a minimum. When driving is unavoidable, take it easy, and the first time your eyelids get heavy, pull over to the side and get some rest. The life you save may be your own!

Is Your Driver's License Valid

Do you have a (VALID Drivers License? One that has expired is NOT VALID and proves quite embarrassing and sometimes expensive if you are driving a motor vehicle, according to Major Wilson E. Speir of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Major Speir reminds us that approximately one out of twenty-five drivers are found to be operating without a valid license. Many of those actually thought their license was still valid—that is, until a Patrolman checked the date of expiration.

The Department of Public Safety realized several years ago that a sizeable number of drivers overlooked the expiration date, so they instituted a system of mailing a courtesy reminder to each licensed driver in Texas shortly before it was to expire. This courtesy notice is put in the mail about a month before the license is to expire and it has instructions on how to renew by mail, or by presenting it at any Drivers License Office. However, this is only a courtesy notice and you should not rely on receiving it in every instance. For various and sundry reasons some license holders fail to receive this notice, ac-

FB State Convention Nov. 8-11 San Antonio

San Antonio—(Spl.)—Some 1,500 Farm Bureau members and families are expected to converge on the Alamo City Nov. 8-11 for the 26th annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Policies to guide the state's largest farm organization will be adopted by some 700 voting delegates from 198 organized counties. Headquarters for the four-day meeting will be the Hilton Hotel.

Featured at this year's meeting will be speeches by Governor Price Danil of Texas; U. S. Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock; Chester Lauck, formerly known as Lum of the "Lum and Abner" radio team; John C. Lynn of Washington, D. C., legislative director for the American Farm Bureau Federation; and J. H. West, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

In addition, Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, will conduct the vesper service. Other speakers include Mrs. Robert Crane of New Jersey, vice-chairman of the AIFBF Women's Committee; and Herman Aaberg, Chicago, livestock expert for the AIFBF.

A high-light of the convention will be the state finals of the Texas Farm Bureau Queen Contest. Thirteen lovely queen candidates, all winners of district eliminators, will compete for the state crown on the evening of Nov. 9 in the Grand Ballroom of the Hilton Hotel Annex.

The convention will end Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 11. The final day is the most important part of the convention when official voting delegates from the counties met in business session to debate and amend or reject or adopt tentative resolutions (recommendations) which have been forwarded to the state meeting from county conventions. The business session culminates the Farm Bureau's annual policy development process on the state level. Adopted resolutions pertaining to national issues become recommendations to the American Farm Bureau Federation convention which will be held in December in Chicago.

A 39-member TFB Resolution Committee, composed of the state director and two Farm Bureau lay members from each of the state's 13 districts, will meet in San Antonio for four days prior to the convention to draft tentative resolutions from the hundreds of recommendations on scores of subjects sent in by county Farm Bureaus. It is the responsibility of this com-

State Committee Plans On Youth Nutrition

Waco—(Spl.)—A state planning committee is meeting today in Waco to work out details for a long-range program to promote better nutrition among youths. The group will plan Food Comes First-For Youth-power activities to be carried on in Texas.

The committee was established Oct. 5 at an organizational meeting in Dallas. The Texas Farm Bureau arranged for the first meeting of representatives of farm organizations, the food industry, educators and the medical profession. Some 22 representatives of these mittee to sort these recommendations by subject matter and then draft tentative resolutions embodying the consensus of thinking on each issue.

These tentative resolutions are either rejected, amended or approved by the officials voting delegates on the final day of the convention. The number of voting delegates that each county sends to the convention is determined by the number of members in the county.

HERE'S WHAT MAKES the CORVAIR REVOLUTIONARY

Short and sweet! Engine's in the rear—where it belongs in a compact car. With more weight on rear wheels, you get extra road-gripping traction for cornering and driving on ice, mud or snow. Also, by avoiding nose-heaviness of front-engine compact cars, Corvair handles easier, brakes better, rides smoother. Styling of both 4-door models is clean and uncluttered... as fresh and functional as modern architecture.

Unipack Power Team

Engine, transmission and drive gears are neatly wrapped in one lightweight package. Takes less space, leaves you more.

UNISTRUT BODY BY FISHER

Body and frame are combined into a single rigidly constructed unit that reduces Corvair's weight, enlarges its passenger space.

Practically FLAT FLOOR

Corvair is America's only compact car with a virtually flat floor that gives you full 6-passenger comfort. For extra space, folding rear seat* converts easily to make room for 17.6 cu. ft. of cargo. *Optional at extra cost.

TRUNK'S UP FRONT

Lots of luggage space under the hood, where it's convenient for groceries, packages.

NEARLY 3 FEET SHORTER

Corvair's almost 5 inches lower, 1,300 pounds lighter, too. Its compact size makes it a joy to jockey through traffic, a pleasure to park. No need for power assists.

AIR COOLED

You never have to fuss with antifreeze. Turbo-Air 6 warms up quicker, with less wear on parts. Air-plane-type heater* goes to work almost instantly. *Optional at extra cost.

Revolutionary Rear Engine

works small miracles with mileage. It's the world's first production 6 with the ultra-smooth power of horizontally opposed pistons.

NEWS

 County ***
Agricultural Agent
 Texas A. & M. College
 Extension Service

Johnsongrass or sorghum after a frost is sometimes extremely high in prussic acid content and is very dangerous to livestock, warns Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian.

Certain chemical changes sometimes occur in the plant and it develops a content of prussic acid, or hydrocyanic acid when wilted by frost or douth. The poison acts quickly and can kill an animal within a short time after the damaged plant is eaten.

An appearance of nervousness, difficult breathing and difficulty in standing are symptoms of the poisoning. Whether a poisoned animal can be saved depends upon how quickly a veterinarian can get to it. Treatment involves injecting antidotes directly into the blood stream.

Young plants will develop more prussic acid after frost or douth than those approaching maturity, points out the veterinarian. Their leaves will contain from 3 to 25 times more acid than leaves of plants in the boot stage. Also, upper, young leaves will contain more acid than lower leaves.

Dr. Patterson cautions against grazing frosted Johnsongrass or sorghum before it is completely dry. If Johnsongrass or sorghum is ready to cut for hay before a frost, it may be cut the first day after the frost if care is taken to see that it is completely cured before bailing.

It may also be used for silage, he adds. Generally, enough prussic acid is lost in gaseous form during the ensiling process and as the silage is removed and fed to make it safe for livestock. However, animals shouldn't be allowed to self-feed from a silo filled with frosted sudan or sorghum. If the silage is questionable it should be chemically tested by a local veterinarian or by letting one or two inferior animals eat it.

The following paragraph is from an article entitled, "Fingerling Recruits" which appeared in the September 1959, issue of Texas Games and Fish magazine. It was written by William H. Brow, assistant director, Inland Fisheries Division, Texas Game and Fish Commission.

"Stocking fish, especially largemouth black bass, accomplishes its ultimate good in new lakes and ponds and in other waters which have been rehabilitated by draining, chemically killing all the fish present, or by selectively reducing the numbers of undesirable fish present.

Experience continues to show that the stocking of a lake or pond year after year certainly is not the answer to producing and maintaining good fishing. This practice is actually a pathetic waste of fish that could have been utilized elsewhere. Once a new body of water is properly stocked, the natural reproduction of fish is more than enough to maintain a healthy fish population and good fishing for years to come."

The maintenance of good relations between landowners and sportsmen is a problem worthy of consideration. And feelings and misunderstandings result in loss of hunting privileges to potential hunters and economic return to landowners.

A sportsman should be able to answer 'yes' to all the following questions:

1. Do you ask permission to hunt any tract of land?
2. Do you respect the wishes of the landowner regarding the areas where hunting is to be permitted and the type of game to be hunted?
3. Do you enter hunting areas through gates when possible (making sure to close them) and prevent damage to fences?
4. Do you take precautions not to frighten or injure livestock or damage crops?
5. Do you take precautions not to fire in the direction of buildings, homes, people, pets, etc?
6. Do you obey game laws?
7. Do you handle firearms safely?
8. Do you offer to share your game with the landowner?
9. Do you offer to pay for hunting privileges?
10. Do you express gratitude to the landowner for permission to let you hunt?

A sportsman, according to Webster, is, "One who in sports is fair and generous; a good loser and a graceful winner."

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS TO THE NATION — INCLUDING YOU — EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman — even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.
