A REVIEW OF WEATHER CONDITIONS OF 1925

The weather conditions of 1925 were characterized by some very peculiar circumstances. The total rain fall for the year was light, but the crop yield over the entire country was surprising. It is better than it was thought could possibly be during the crop making season. The largest snow fall was experienced here during the month of January for the past 30 years which gave a wonderful underground season supplying the growing crops with moisture to withstand the heat and drouth of the summer months which was in excess of normal conditions.

According to Judge P. D. Sanders who keeps a record of the weather conditions of each day of the year and makes his daily report to the weather bureau at Washington D. C. the month of January was a very cold month. The 18, 19 and 26 were the coldest days the mercury standing at 15 above during that time. The warmest day in the month was on the 6th when the thermometer reached the maximum of 71.

20 inches of snow fell on the 18th which was the greatest fall of snow since February 1895 when a similar snow was reported by Judge Sanders for this section. The moisture realized from the snow was 2.05 inches.

February was a cold dry month only .15 of an inch of rain fell. The warmest days of the month the temperature reached 82 degrees while the lowest was only 24.

March was a hummer, a killing frost fell March the 12th a cold wave following which killed most of the fruit crop that was in the bud. The coldest day of the month reached 29 above and the hottest day is reported standing at 90. No rain fell during the month. April gave more moisture 3.13 inches of rain fell during the month, the hottest day was 100 and the coldest stood at 45.

May gave a maximum of 100 and a minimum of 45 degrees of temperature which is the same as the month of April with a rain fall of 4.40 inches.

During the month of June only 2.17 inches of rain fell and the month was very hot as a whole. The temperature ranging from 100 highest to 64 lowest.

July was the hottest month of the year and it gave to us the hottest day of the year and on the 19 reached the high mark 108. There were 15 days during the month that registered 100 or more, with only .03 of an inch of rain.

August followed with another drouth during the month, only .10 of an inch fell with a temperature ranging from 101 highest to 57 lowest. Many days of the month was around the 100 mark. This was a severe set back to the growing crops.

September was more favorable to the crops and 8.79 inches of rain is reported during the month. This was the greatest rainfall for any month in the year. Temperature ranging from 98 highest to 30 lowest.

October brought more good rains which totaled for the month 2.50 in. but on the 29th a killing frost came and the temperature reached the minimum of 29 and remained very cold for the month until the 31. This is reported to be the most severe frost in a number of years past. The maximum temperature reached 92 and the minimum 29.

November was noted for its beautiful clear days and only .72 of an inch of rain fell. The temperature of the month ranging from 82 highest to 31 lowest.

est. The farmers made their greatest headway during this month in gathering their crops.

December was also a favorable month in crop gathering for the farmers the weather was normal for the entire month. The highest temperature was 72 and the lowest going to 16 near the close of the month. 78900... for only one day which was on the 28th near the close of the month. No rain fell during the month of December.

The total rain fall for the year was 24.04 inches. The largest number of inches of rain which fell in one day was September the 11, which totaled 4.08 inches.

New Prices Studebaker Values Supreme Quality Sedan Field

These new prices on the finest enclosed cars Studebaker ever produced represent reductions of $100 on each model. This is the third time since January 1, 1925, that Studebaker has reduced prices thereby passing on to purchasers the savings resulting from One-Profits manufacture.

Table with 2 columns: Model Name and Price. Models include Standard Six Sedan (Wool Trimmed) at $1295, Standard Six Sedan (Mohair Trimmed) at $1395, Big Six Sedan (5-Passenger) at $1895, Big Six Sedan (7-passenger) at $2145, Big Six Brougham at $2095, Big Six Berline at $2225, Big Six Club Coupe at $1655. Freight and war tax extra.

Studebaker Sedans are more up-to-date than the newest yearly models because of the Studebaker policy of adding every improvement as soon as developed without waiting for annual announcements. Studebaker Sedans have been reduced in price without reduction in quality because of these two factors: 1. Studebaker has net assets exceeding $100,000,000 concentrated on the production of One-Profits cars. 2. The vast Studebaker plant has been kept going at capacity during the past year. Sales in 1925 exceeded 136,000 cars—an increase of 23 per cent over 1924.

You cannot judge value by price. Ask for a demonstration Studebaker Sedan.

One of the most unique and delightfully planned parties was Mrs. B. C. Montgomery's entertainment, honoring the retiring president of the Methodist Missionary Society, Mrs. I. W. Rike, Vaughn, I. W. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Ethel Irby showed them to the bedroom to remove their wraps. As soon as all the guests were assembled Mrs. P. D. In a contest, Mrs. Vaughn, the new pastor's wife, won the prize, a bottle of French toilet water. Mrs. Kimbrough paid a beautiful tribute to the outgoing president, and Mrs. Ethel Irby to the incoming president. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Rike responded with a splendid and heart felt talk. While Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bland of Center Point were in the field pulling bolls, their dog began to fight and snap his teeth in mad frenzy at them, while foam gushed from his mouth. L. The neighbors around Center Point were warned to keep their dogs tied for several days.

Haskell, Texas, Thursday, Jan. 21, 1926

R. E. Sherrill a former business man of Haskell who has spent much of his time since he sold his hardware business two years ago in traveling over the state and other states where his business calls him says, that he is impressed with the idea of the cow and the hen as the greatest source of production for the farmer in this great state. He told of visiting a dairy not far from our section in which the owner was realizing a nice profit daily from 24 Holstein cows which produced around four gallons daily to the cow. He believes that this is the greatest section for dairying and raising poultry of any section of the United States, because of our usually short and mild winters and the many days of sunshine. Lets make this the banner year for dairy and poultry products.

LIGHT RAIN FOLLOWED BY SUNSHINE; THEN NORTHER

A light rain fell here last Saturday afternoon and night changing to clear weather Sunday followed by warm and pleasant weather until Tuesday night when a norther blew up and Wednesday morning came with dampness and fog which is thought by some of the weather prognosticators that it will either turn to rain or snow, but that waits to be seen.

Don't Neglect That Stubborn Hacking Cough

It is not only dangerous but entirely unnecessary to let a persistent, hacking cough rob you of sleep and strength. For through a very simple treatment you can get almost instant relief, and very often break the most stubborn cough completely in 24 hours.

This treatment is based on the famous prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take one teaspoonful at bed-time and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of night coughing. So the coughing quickly ceases and you sleep right through undisturbed.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, sore throat, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children as well as grown-ups—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

VENERABLE WOMAN PASSES TO HER REWARD

Mrs. Fritz Steinfath age 73 died Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter Mrs. H. Kreschmer of the Irby Community after a lingering illness. Her husband Fritz Steinfath preceded her in death about a year ago. She was known as a noble good woman and to know her was to love her. In her passing away many hearts are made sad because of her going. Funeral services were held at Willow Cemetery in this city Monday afternoon by Rev. Koeppe pastor of the Lutheran Church of Sagerton after which her remains were laid to rest. She is survived by four children all of whom live in Haskell county: August Steinfath, Mrs. Mary Kreschmer, Mrs. Martha Kreschmer, and Mrs. Lena Weise. The Free Press extends condolence to the bereaved loved ones.

VISITS COUNTY SCHOOLS WITH SUPERINTENDENT

Thursday afternoon we made a trip with County Superintendent A. A. Heathington to the Weinert and Lone Star Schools. Leaving Haskell about 12 o'clock we arrived at Weinert during the noon hour of the Weinert School. Prof. Jno. F. Odor one of the states best instructors is superintendent of this excellent school. Our time was limited and we could not take in all the departments of the school but we know from our fore knowledge of the work that Mr. Odor has done in the county as a teacher that the Weinert School is progressing in every line. We note that a brass band has been organized and we learn from good authority that the band is making wonderful advancement. This is characteristic of the work of Mr. Odor. He always makes a strong effort for the upbuilding of the town and community in which he is employed.

According to reports from the school every teacher is making an enviable record with their work in all the grades of which the Weinert School District should feel very much elated. We believe that good work will continue in this excellent school.

We drove from Weinert to Lone Star where C. W. Williamson is teaching his second term as principal of this progressive school. A cozy brick building stands as a living monument to progressiveness of that enterprising community. Mr. Williamson is assisted by his wife and Miss Alma McNeil and the enrollment has already past the 100 mark. The school is one of the best taught rural schools in the county and the pupils proved themselves to be very bright, energetic workers. We had a good time visiting these two schools and Mr. Heathington made a short but interesting talk at each school which was received with much applause.

We enjoyed the courtesy of Mr. Heathington in providing this pleasurable outing for us. W. M. Free.

The game was played at Foster and good sportsmanship was shown by Foster spectators who welcomed the Jud visitors.

RETURNS FROM RIO GRANDE VALLEY

Mr. L. T. Stringfield of Rochester called at our sanctum early Monday morning on his return trip from the Rio Grande Valley. He made the trip in his auto taking his family with him and spending several days traveling up and down the valley seeing the sights and wonders, which he says if told as they are folks would not believe you, who have never seen this wonderful section of our state. He brought two Ponderosa Lemons into the office that weighed one and one half pounds each and were sure fine production of the citrus fruit belt. He also gave us a few oranges and a grape fruit which he brought back in the car. He has bought a tract of land down there and had it planted to corn and a tenant will cultivate it for him. He will not move to the valley until next year.

FIND SKELETON OF MAN ON M'GREGOR FARM

The skeleton of a man was found on the banks of the Brazos near the Red Bluff crossing on the Chas. McGregor farm in the north west part of the county last week. There is doubtless no possible chance of identification. Old timers are reported to have stated that there were several instances of some missing men more than 30 years ago in this section. One instance in particular about 30 years ago the gun of a man was found about a half mile from where the skeleton was found but the man who owned the gun was never heard of. So it might be his remains or some one else who passed that way and was laid to rest. The skeleton was found near the famous Kiawa peak.

HASKELL MINISTER CALLED TO FUNERAL OF FRIEND

Rev. Geo. H. Morrison of this city was called last Thursday afternoon to Abilene to attend the funeral of Ben O. Schmidt who was a prominent business man of Abilene and well known to many Haskell people.

Died.

Virginia Gale the little one year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thomas passed away at the family residence Friday morning January 1st at 10:30. She was laid to rest in Willow Cemetery Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. W. B. Vaughan conducted the funeral services.

No words can comfort those who mourn for little Virginia Gale but our prayer is that the Father who alone can heal the bleeding heart will speak peace to those upon whom the rod of affliction rests so heavily.

Good Woman Passes to Her Reward.

Mrs. Tom Messenger died at her home in the south part of the city Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock after a lingering illness of many months. She was 33 years of age when the end came. She was a noble Christian woman and had been a member of the Christian Church for a number of years and her life was spent in the service of her Saviour. She will be keenly missed by loved ones and friends and her going brings sadness to many hearts. She suffered much during her illness but was always patient and cheerful and her gentle spirit was fully manifested through her suffering.

Funeral services were held by Rev. G. Robert Forrester at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, after which her remains were laid to rest in beautiful Willow Cemetery.

She is survived by her husband and three children ranging in age from 5 to 13 years, and a number of brothers and sisters who were present at the funeral. Among them were J. E.

FARMER RECOVERS BALE OF STOLEN COTTON

On Thanksgiving night a bale of cotton with the trailer on which it was loaded was stolen from the farm of W. E. Bland of Center Point. Mr. Bland after a few weeks search found the trailer in Abilene and caused the arrest of some parties who are alleged to have confessed to theft of the trailer and the cotton. The cotton had been ginned and sold in Abilene and Mr. Bland got busy with the information in hand found the bale of cotton in a cotton yard in Abilene and had it attached. The case was tried in Justice court in Abilene last Monday and Mr. Bland was given his bale of cotton by the court. The work of running down the parties who took his trailer and cotton is a clever piece of detective work and Mr. Bland deserves much credit for bringing the alleged Thieves into the clutches of the law.

In Interest of Light Plant (From Paducah Post)

Several members of the West Texas Utilities Company, including E. V. Sells, G. W. Fry, of Abilene, W. R. Cabaness of Cisco, and V. O. Wallace of Haskell, were here Wednesday looking over the Paducah Light Plant, and seeking a new location for the light plant. They are endeavoring to get on the square with their office and sales room, if possible, and if they fail on that they will endeavor to get as close as possible.

These people will take over the Paducah light plant on the first of February. They will soon construct a light line into the city, at which time we will have highline service. The Paducah plant will be maintained, however, and this will be made a re-lay station for several other towns in this section.

This is one of the largest companies in the country. They are doing business all over West Texas and are found to be one of the best utilities companies working in the State. Paducah will gladly welcome them here, despite the fact that Mr. Heim has been giving wonderful service all the time since he installed the plant at this place.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. 6¢ per bottle.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE (Tablets) 3 times the Cold and Headache and works off the Cold. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. 25¢

IS IT CATARRH?

Oden, Ark.—"About four years ago I was troubled with catarrh in the head and with indigestion. My doctor did me no good. Finally I wrote to Dr. Pierce and when I received an answer I sent for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Pleasant Peppets, and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, also a Nasal Irrigator. I commenced to doctor myself and had good success. I'm sure I would not have been living if I hadn't obtained relief. I am 64 years of age. I tell every one who has catarrh to consult Dr. Pierce, as he surely helped me."—J. W. Ledbetter. All dealers. Write Dr. Pierce, President Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free advice.

President Fields reported for Chairman Patterson, of the Roads and Highway Committee, stating the work promised by the County some time back was fast being done and he felt sure that the State would take the East and West road over just as soon as the work required to put it in shape was completed.

Director Patterson represented the Boy Scout Committee at a meeting held at Stamford, when district workers and committeemen met and discussed the district program and methods of financing. He will report to his local executive committee and to the B. C. D. Board at a later date.

General discussion brought out the statements that Haskell can well look forward to activities suggesting development and just as soon as details were in shape to present them to the Board and then to the membership and citizenship as a whole this would be done.

Manager Clifford stated he would call several committees for conference in a few days and that the Finance committee would be first. Each Chairman was asked to hurry his organization as there were matters to present and time was flying.

Following one of the best sessions the Board has experienced in a long time, due to business demanding short sessions and the postponement of activities by various workers, it was felt that the organization was taking its place in the sun in a manner complimentary to all.

Among the leading activities the organization hopes to accomplish this year is street lighting system, improved streets and extension of the sewer system.

The next regular session will be held Thursday evening January 28th.

FAMOUS LOUISIANA LOTTERY WHEEL'S LAST SPIN

Tragic memories of the Louisiana Lottery and its victims have been awakened by the news that the famous wheel used for the drawing of its prizes had been spun again, after a stillness of a quarter of a century. This time, according to a New Orleans dispatch, the purpose of its gyrations was the harmless one of assigning prizes to the holders of city bonds. A writer in the New York Evening World, Joseph S. Gorgon, recalls that the wheel did service for the notorious Louisiana Lottery for twenty-five years. He writes: "The last generation saw the end of the Louisiana Lottery; to be exact, it was put out of business by the United States Government in 1903. While it lasted it was the greatest gambling game ever conducted in the United States and, although set in motion by crooked lawmakers, its operation was within the law, and, in gambling parlance, absolutely 'on the square'."

"It made millions of dollars for its promoters and brought a few thousand annually to the State of Louisiana; it made small fortunes overnight for some thousands of lucky little fellows; but the big wheel that was turned in New Orleans by aristocrats of the South ground down monthly thousands of good men and women into the dust of adversity and spread ruin through countless homes in the United States."

"In the last quarter of the last century the Louisiana Lottery was an institution of the country in which every other man was interested. He played it. It was the gambler's hunch and the washer-woman's dream. Clerks were pikers and their bosses were plungers. The drawing lists containing the lucky numbers were displayed in saloons, on bootblack stands, in hotels and barber-shops. They were printed in newspapers. The big monthly prize was $60,000 and a ticket cost $5. The tickets were scattered so that a player could win $15,000 on $1.25 coupon."

"The big players planked down $5 on a number. The little fellows held four numbers for $5, each of their $1.25 coupons bearing a different number. The New Orleans office had branches in every city of importance in the United States, and there wasn't a village of any size that didn't have a subbranch. When a big winning was made there was a polly story published about the winner at advertising rates."

"The winner was willing, and the lottery promoters knew it was good business for the future of the lottery. It meant more players for the next drawing, more victims with sentimentalities. The lottery was a great and good, thing it was said, for our brothers down South; it was a state institution operated by and for Louisiana to help rebuild it from the ravages of the war."

"But it wasn't anything of the kind, although thousands at this day still believe it. It was the concoction of two of the smartest carpetbaggers who ever went South to prey on the needs of a badly disorganized section of the country after the Civil War. Adroit advertising started the lottery wheel rolling and the stupidity of human nature supplied the stream of money to keep it turning. Thrifty housewives hurled themselves at the wheel of fortune, and the ever growing stream sucked in their savings. Workingmen went home on Saturday nights with lottery coupons instead of their pay envelopes, with dimes instead of dollars. The Louisiana Lottery was a maelstrom which was draining the little money of the country and converting it into millions of dollars for the fat promoters."

"'Sure-thing' men found a new world for old tricks, shady lawyers found a good field for shady practices where the laws were still lax and the good people not too exacting. New Orleans was a promising city, as well as a refreshing and inviting one in which to live. All kinds of characters drifted there, and among them came, in the spring of 1868, two men from New York, known as Charles Howard and Johnny Morris."

"They were well-met fellows, hale and of good cheer, and it didn't take them long to ingratiate themselves, not only with other adventurers like themselves, but with the best people of the town. It was Johnny Morris who thought of the scheme of the lottery. He read where cities of Italy and little states of Germany were conducting such schemes for their revenues; and of Russia and Austria, the South American countries and Mexico, making good money in similar enterprises. The ideal was to get the State of Louisiana to father the scheme whereby the state would get a little each year and Morris and Howard would get a whole lot."

"It required months to get the scheme whereby the state would get a little each year and Morris and Howard would get a whole lot."

"It required months to get the scheme in motion, the carpetbagger legislators of Louisiana being as eager for the graft as they were. They formed a $1,000,000 company and paid the grafters in stock, afterward worth a small fortune. But, of course, Howard and Morris held the bulk of the stock themselves and when, within twenty years after, Howard sold his stock he got for it $1250 a share. He retired with millions."

"The company was holding monthly drawings for the country at large and daily drawings for New Orleans; and semi annual pickings for the world at large. The capital prize in the latter was $600,000. The annual receipts were estimated at from $30,000,000 to $60,000,000 and the State of Louisiana was receiving $40,000. John A. Morris was a multi-millionaire, master of Morris Park in New York, owner of the Westchester racetrack, breeder of thoroughbred horses and owner of stables as well as a dozen homes in America and Europe and within the hallway of society."

"But the end of the Louisiana Lottery was in sight. It had become a menace to the whole country, and Congress was appealed to to put it out of existence. The money of Morris could not prevail against the sentiment, and the ban of the United States was put on its literature. Even then Morris offered the State of Louisiana $1,250,000 a year to let it go on. But the doors were closed when his charter expired in 1903, and the big wheel shut down. "The promoters moved to Honduras home of refugees from justice and overnight revolutions. But there Confederate generals did not turn the wheel, and John Morris died. His successors used the express companies instead of the mails; the Secret Service of the United States got after them and laid them by the heels in three years."

Farmer Kills Big Hog

J. F. (Floyd) Gilland of Howard was in the city Saturday talking to some friends about killing a hog this year that weighed more than 500 pounds to be exact the hog tipped the scales at 530 pounds after it was dressed. FEDERAL AID ROAD FUNDS APPOINTED TO STATES

Secretary of Agriculture Jardine today announced the apportionment of $73,125,000 to the States for use in the construction of Federal aid roads. This apportionment was authorized by the Post Office Appropriation Act of February 12, 1925, and is for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1926.

The new funds will be spent entirely on the Federal aid highway system under the same plan of co-operation with the States that has been in successful operation for ten years. The roads included in the system are the most important in the country and reach directly or indirectly every city of over 5,000 population. The bureau reports that approximately 10,000 miles of Federal aid road were brought to completion during 1925 and the indications are that the coming year will be equally successful.

The apportionment for Texas according to Mr. Jardine is 4,426,917 which is in excess of any other state in the union according to the list sent out.

G. W. Vernon of Cook Springs community was in the city Monday on business.

Are we a nation of spenders, or buyers?

THERE are persons, of course, who "throw their money to the winds." There are "free spenders" and those who "don't know the value of a dollar." Every community in America has at least a few wayward sons.

But we cannot properly be called a nation of spenders. We are a nation of industrious, progressive folks, whose buying power is tremendous. And we certainly do exert that power.

In this community, as elsewhere, we keep our money pretty much in circulation. But we are buying, not wastefully spending. We are investing in homes and their equipment, in clothing and food, in health and the comforts of life.

The greatest aid to such wise use of money is the newspaper with its group of display advertisements. Folks who consistently read the ads—and follow their advice—are not inclined to waste their earnings. They readily learn the wisdom of exchanging their funds only for those things that bring them genuine happiness.

General Motors' New Six is here!

GENERAL MOTORS now presents through its Oakland division the New Pontiac Six—the first six-cylinder car it has ever named and sponsored from the original design.

Representing the supreme embodiment of the corporation's almost limitless resources, this new Six is destined to compel a complete revision of existing ideas in motor car value.

The Pontiac Six is not another of the so-called "revolutionary" cars.

It is simply and solely a car of high quality developed to dominate a definite market... and as such represents an achievement no less significant, no less unprecedented, no less epochal than the invention of the first six-cylinder engine.

In the Pontiac Six you are offered a new order of beauty—that grace of line and balanced proportion characteristic only of Fisher craftsmanship. You are offered precisely the enduring body construction that is used on cars selling for $2,000 or more, finished in rich Duco colors.

You are offered a roadability of extraordinary scope—exhilarating power for hills, refreshing agility in traffic, a maximum speed you will use only in emergencies.

Add to this new order of beauty and this performance of unprecedented brilliance, the equally important matter of accessory equipment, and the preponderance of Pontiac value becomes literally irresistible—

—for the Pontiac Six comes equipped with full balloon cords, nicked radiator, Fisher VV windshield, automatic windshield cleaner, indirectly illuminated instrument panel, rear vision mirror, high-speed window regulators and other important essentials to pride of ownership.

The Pontiac Six is now on display in our salesrooms. Demonstrations may be arranged for. We not only invite you to see this newest creation of General Motors at the earliest possible moment—we urge you to come prepared for a new and unique experience—for here at last is the Six you have always wanted... at a price so unexpectedly low that only General Motors could possibly achieve it.

The Pontiac Six, companion car to the Oakland Six, is built and distributed by the

If you will lend a hand as a salesman, everywhere you can, in every way you can and you ought to know where and how you can, if you will but think, Haskell will go up and "over the top" and your Commercial organization, though not in the front rank waving a red flag, nor in the rear beating the drum, will be found in the crowd, with you, hand in hand, regarding that service you expect of it and have a right to expect, but, but after all it is up to you to see that the result that ought to occur are enjoyed, that's that, so far as Selling Your Home Town and the service your Commercial organization can render, as little as you have thought about it might now think about it. We thank you.

Child Painfully Hurt

Kenneth the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kirby of Center Point was painfully injured when he fell while holding a stick in his mouth and throat. He was rushed to town for medical treatment and on last report he was getting along nicely.

FOSTER SCHOOL HAS INCREASE IN ENROLLMENT

The Foster Rural School has increased its enrollment above the one hundred mark which ranks it among the largest if not the largest rural school in the county. This is a good record for a school that has only one hundred and thirty-five scholastics in its school district. The three teachers of this school are working hard to make its work equal to a first class school, and the pupils are helping by doing splendid work, and showing that they are interested in school work.

The building and school ground has been repaired and are in first class condition, which is a good asset to this community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cabiness of Cisco are spending a few days with the West Texas Utilities Company before going to Paducah where Mr. Cabiness will take charge of the West Texas Utilities office of that city. Lieut. General Wm. A. Collier, Commanding Forrest Cavalry Corps Memphis, Tennessee requests that all survivors of Forest Cavalry in Texas report to the State Commander, General Wm. N. Halliburton of Rule Route One spent the day in Haskell last Saturday in exhibiting and selling a number of fine cockerels of his famous Rhode Island Reds which he has been carefully breeding for years. C. F. Omen of Weimer was in the city Tuesday on business. Mr. Omen formerly lived in Haskell but sold his home in the city and purchased a farm near Weimer to which he moved early last year. He says that he did lots of farm work last year but he has rented his place to his son Frank and he will not be as actively engaged in farming as he was last year. Mr. Omen moved from Clay County about 10 years ago and he owns two good farms in Haskell county and is pleased with his investment.

LOCAL CHARITY AND ITS DISTRIBUTION

There is in Haskell an organization known as the Haskell Associated Charities Committee or Association. The business and professional men have contributed various sums to make up a fund thought to be large enough to care for urgent needs.

Various church organizations also are taking active part in cases brought to their attention and Haskell is trying to serve in such matters as conditions suggest and within reason.

Care should be taken to investigate charity cases, carefully, earnestly, from every standpoint. There are professionals in this line also; many of them in fact.

Where it is found worthy, apply to Chairman Couch at the Farmers State Bank, B. Cox at Jones Cox & Co., and aid can be arranged for in keeping with the case. If every body wades in and digs and tries to serve with no regulation one case will get too much, another be overlooked, and a crook have easy pickings, as the saying goes.

Not a citizen of Haskell would refuse deserved charity, but deserving cases are permitted to suffer because a previous service to unworthy cases drained the funds or displeased those who were kind enough to help. Cooperation will bring results. Winter is here and Charity will soon be needed, it is unavoidable.

Colorado Wrestler Who Will Meet M. Barackman Friday

A. SEPP

Those who attended the wrestling match at the Elks Club Saturday night will recognize the above likeness of A. Sepp, the challenger who meets M. Barackman here Friday night. Mr. Sepp comes to Haskell from Boulder, Colo., and has a reputation of being one of the best middleweight wrestlers in America. He met and defeated a number of championship contenders in Colorado, Utah, Kansas, California and other states during the past year, and this will be his first match in this section. Many fans who saw him Saturday believe that he will be able to beat Barackman. Regardless of the outcome, the match promises to be the best yet offered anywhere in this section.

BARACKMAN DEFEATS ROUTE FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT WIN

Haskell sport fans witnessed another good wrestling match Saturday night at the Elks Club when M. Barackman defeated "Railroad" Route of Lubbock in a hotly contested match from the start, replete with blocks and breaks when one man would gain a hold. Barackman was easily the favorite, but Route followers were much in evidence.

The first fall was gained by Route after thirty-three minutes of hard work, when he slipped an unbreakable hold on Barackman and pinned him for the first fall. Barackman, however, showed more skill than his opponent, and came back after the intermission in fine shape and pinned Route after some fifteen minutes of effort. The last fall came after about ten or fifteen minutes of wrestling—giving Barackman the winning fall for his fourth straight win in his matches here.

The preliminaries preceding the main event were heartily enjoyed by the fans present—the largest crowd yet to witness the matches staged here.

Thompson of Ranger refereed the match.

REPRESENTATIVE OF COLORED SANITARIUM HERE

A representative by the name of Prof. Bogus was here Sunday in the interest of the Sanitarium for the colored folks which is now under construction at Kerrville. He made a little talk in the interest of the sanitarium at the Baptist Church Sunday night at the beginning of the services and also at the Methodist church at the close. The people who heard him were impressed with what he had to say in regard to the proposition for a sanitarium for the colored people. As it is today they have no place to go when in need of medical or surgical treatment.

HAVE YOU LOST YOUR PANTS YET?

"Good morning, have you lost your pants, yet?" has been the greetings passing between Haskell business men this past week. Petty thieves have entered several local shops and business houses and rifled the cash boxes, and registers, of small change, and several homes have been entered, the thief locating the husbands trousers and taking them outside, searches them, removing everything of value and throwing the trousers on the lawn or porch. In one instance they threw them in the hallway of the residence. Watch your pants; or better, lock your homes. Haskell seems to be in the grip of this activity. The Sheriff's Department as well as City officers are working on the case. In this connection it might be stated that quite a number of new faces, not complimentary to our citizenship, in general, are noticed loitering about the business section of late and local officers state a general clean-up is being planned, as several seem to have no employment and will be questioned, ordered out of town or locked up to serve out a time set by the proper officer, if the condition continues.
