CONFESSION CLEARS UP MURDER OF OFFICER

Walter King and Reuben Davis of Comanche County Held After Confession Is Made

After ten months of mystery which has surrounded the murder of J. K. Beauchamp, Haskell night watchman, the arrest last week of two Comanche county men and a confession by one of them in which he implicated the other, has proven the truth of the age-old adage that "murder will out."

Walter King, 20, and Reuben Davis, 26, both of Comanche county, are in jail charged with the murder of Beauchamp, who was slain on the night of October 23, 1926, apparently just as he had surprised thieves who had broken into the Davis Economy Store here. In a statement given out by Sheriff Al Grissom, King is said to have made a confession, in which he implicated Davis as his accomplice in the affair.

Both the men were arrested in Comanche county by Sheriff Gilbreath and deputies of that county, who have been working on the case for several months. King was brought to Haskell on Friday of last week, and after being questioned by Sheriff Cousins and District Attorney Grissom, as well as Sheriff Gilbreath, Deputy Sheriff Asa and City Marshal Pate, all of Comanche, he made a statement detailing his actions on the night Beauchamp was killed, finally admitting that he could not lie about the matter any more—that he had seen the dead man's face "too many times"—that he wanted to make a full confession of his part in the killing. It was then that he implicated Davis in the affair, stating that he and Davis were surprised by the act of robbing the Davis Economy Store by Beauchamp, and that the night watchman was instantly killed as he entered the rear door of the building.

After being questioned fully by the officers, King was placed in jail here under guard, and Monday afternoon was transferred to another jail outside of the county by Sheriff Al Cousins and City Marshal Welch, where he will remain until the coming of the Grand Jury at the next term of District Court. Davis is now being held in another jail for safe-keeping, it is stated.

In speaking of the apprehension of the two men, Sheriff Cousins stated that much credit is due Sheriff Gilbreath of Comanche, who after months of investigation finally succeeded in piecing out enough evidence that caused the arrest of King and Davis.

Mr. M. F. Spurlock was called to Elks City Tuesday to attend the funeral of his mother Mrs. Martha Spurlock who was buried in that city Wednesday. Mr. Spurlock has made a number of trips to Elks City this summer on the account of his mother's ill health.

CHEVROLET TRUCK CARAVAN VISITS HASKELL

Upon their arrival in the city, the Haskell Booster Band met their plans in one of the large houses, and led a parade around the square, which attracted quite a bit of attention. One of the most interesting features of the caravan was the Chevrolet truck, which was equipped with a large sign that read "Chevrolet Trucks." The truck was driven by Mr. J. B. Ginn, and it was followed by several other trucks. The caravan was a great success, and it was a pleasure to have it in Haskell.

Several officials of the Chevrolet Motor Company were with the caravan, including Mr. Howard, sales manager of the Dallas branch, who had charge of the caravan, assisted by Mr. C. M. Moore, parts and service manager of the Dallas branch, and Mr. Williams, sales representative of this branch. The caravan was a great success, and it was a pleasure to have it in Haskell.

PREMIUM GIVEN FOR FIRST BALES COTTON

Leafworms Appear in Haskell County

A premium which totaled $91.50 was raised by the business men of this city last week for the first bales of 1927 cotton, and was divided among the first three farmers who brought in last week's cotton.

First award of $50.00 was given to W. L. Davis, who brought in the first bale to weigh over 420 pounds. Second money, the sum of $25.00, went to Hurley Anderson, who brought in the first bale, a 385-pound one, however. Third award of $16.50 was given to Joe Grantham, who brought in the third bale of the season.

It was the decision of the Board of City Development, through which the awards were made, that next year's premium would be based upon the first 450 pound bale brought in, rather than giving the premium for the first bale, which is generally under this weight. A list of the business men and others who contributed to the premium was given us this week, but is not printed because of lack of space.

HENRY ALEXANDER RETURNS FROM MARKET

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alexander returned Tuesday morning from St. Louis, where they purchased the fall stock of goods for the F. G. Alexander & Sons Store of this city.

Mr. Alexander was elated over the fine rain which fell during his absence, which greatly enhanced the already bright prospects of the farmers. He stated that the wholesalers this year have on display the best stocks of merchandise that he has seen in several years, and that buyers from the Southwest were much in evidence in the St. Louis markets. It seems that the disastrous floods in the Mississippi valley and the short crop prospects of that region have greatly curtailed buying for that section, which will enable the merchants of the southwest to offer fall and winter merchandise at very reasonable prices this year.

Mr. Alexander states that part of the fall purchases have already begun to arrive, and are being placed on display in their store.

W. M. S. Executive Board Meets With Mrs. Gilstrap

Members of the New Executive Board and special committee chairmen of the Baptist W. M. S. met in the home of the president, Mrs. J. A. Gilstrap, from five to seven on Wednesday afternoon the 17th, to discuss plans of work for the coming year. Mrs. Gilstrap opened the meeting by reading a chapter of Psalms. Then in a short but excellent talk outlined some of the things she hoped to see accomplished during the year. She especially stressed two points: spirituality among the members and enlistment of others. There are numbers of women, who by virtue of their church membership, should be members of the Missionary Society, and it is the president's plan to enlist many of these during the year.

Each phase of the work was discussed during the afternoon special stress being laid on the study course and young peoples work. We feel that much good has been done during the leadership of Mrs. C. M. Connor. This is especially true in regard to the four young peoples organizations, fostered by the Society. Mrs. I. N. Simmons has proven a most capable leader and with the aid of three co-leaders has made decided progress during the year. The enrollment now averaging ninety-eight with good weekly attendance.

This was a most enjoyable meeting and we feel sure that we are better acquainted with the work in general. Those present were: Mrs. J. A. Gilstrap, Pres.; Mrs. D. Scott, Recording Secretary; Mrs. I. N. Simmons, Young Peoples Leader; Mrs. W. C. Williams, Y. W. A. Leader; Mrs. R. J. Reynolds, Mission Study Chairman; Mrs. H. R. Whitley, Missions; Mrs. John Ellis, Historian; Mrs. M. Pierson, Benevolence Chairman; Mrs. K. D. Simmons, House Chairman; Mrs. John Lamkin, Leader East Circle; Mrs. Vaughn Bailey, Leader Central Circle; Mrs. W. P. Price, Leader North Circle; Mrs. Jno. Fouts, South Circle and Mrs. B. M. Whitaker, Publicity Chairman.

Delicious iced melon was served by Misses Verna and Norma Gilstrap and Miss Mildred Simmons.

Wedding of Miss Anne LaVerne Cummins and Mr. Eugene Marshall Regan, solemnized Wednesday evening

The First Christian Church, of Haskell, Texas was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday evening, August 22, at eight o'clock, when Miss Anne LaVerne Cummins, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Lipscomb Cummins, became the bride of Mr. Eugene Marshall Regan of Franklin, Tennessee.

The altar of the church was banked with palms and ferns, and tall peaked chandeliers holding Cathedral tapers formed an outline for the greens. Large baskets of tube roses on each side of the altar steps completed the setting. The nuptial songs, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," were sung by Mrs. Wayne Koonce, accompanied by Mrs. John W. Pace, who also played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" preceding the ceremony.

The Reverend Mr. George Robert Forrester entered from the vestry and took his place at the altar, followed by the groom and his brother, Mr. Clair Regan. The ushers in pairs, advanced down the aisle. They were Messrs. Reynolds Wilson, Earnest Sanders, John Rike, and John W. Pace Jr. Following the ushers were the bridesmaids, Misses Agnes Cox and Virginia Evans,

Virgil Meadors Jr. carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

The veil of real lace was caught by a coronet of orange blossoms and floated on clouds of tulle. During the double ring ceremony Mrs. Virgil Walter Meadors, sister of the bride, played, "To A Wild Rose" on the violin. The recessional was Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

Following the reception in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Regan left for Nashville, Tennessee. The bride's going away costume was a black Elizabeth crepe gown with hat and accessories harmonizing.

Mrs. Regan is a prominent member of Haskell's younger social set. She is a graduate of the University of Texas. Mr. Regan is a graduate of Davidson College and a senior in the medical school of Vanderbilt University.

Baskets of Zennias and lanterns were the decorations. CONGRATULATIONS MUNDAY
 We congratulate you Monday on the splendid vote given for good roads in your election Monday. When the citizenship of any community votes as near solid for a proposition as the returns indicate, it is a pretty good sign that the citizenship is working as a unit for the betterment of their community. A town or community that has a vision of the future and is willing to work and pay, if necessary, to make their dream come true, will grow into a bigger and better place in which to live.

When a proposition is presented to the Munday people, for the betterment of their town, it is always received with a receptive ear. It has not been many years since the business section of Munday was almost wiped out by fire—they rebuilt the burned section better than before and in a few short years, they have paved the business district, built a first class water system, a new sewer system covering practically the entire town, besides numerous other public improvements. Now they will have a paved highway leading through their town. Such a spirit is commendable and we extend our sincere congratulations.

HASKELL COUNTY ROAD BONDS DEFEATED

The proposed million and a half-dollar road bond issue in Haskell county failed of adoption by less than seventy votes in the election last Saturday. At first glance it seems very disappointing to know that the bonds lost by so small a margin. However, on second thought the result of the election is not nearly so discouraging as it would have been had the bond issue been "snowed under." The election showed that a great majority of the taxpayers of Haskell county want good roads. That majority lacked only a few votes of being the two-thirds majority, which is required to carry a bond election.

We understand that a movement is on foot to call another election immediately, or as soon as the necessary legal procedure can be gone through with. We are glad to see that spirit of determination on the part of the progressive forces of Haskell county and we hope to see enough votes won over to carry the election next time.—Stanford American.

Mr. C. A. Additional power has been added, however, with the installation of a huge electric motor to pull a part of the machinery.

In order to install the added equipment it was necessary to increase the size of the building, and the roof of the main building was raised six feet, with that of the engine room being raised eight feet.

The equipment consists of the latest Continental 80 stands, four of these units, all new, replacing the former gin stands, latest type 3-drum Hart Cleaner-Feeder, two new Continental fans, in fact every piece of ginning machinery has been replaced this year.

A separate installation comprises the equipment for handling bollies or snapped cotton. This includes five 80's Mitchell triple saw model boll extractor and cleaner, with two separate over-

Frequent Bilious Attacks

"I suffered with severe bilious attacks which came on me two or three times every month," says Mr. Ollie Miller, of Murray, Ky. "I would become dizzy. My head would ache terribly, feeling as if it would almost burst. It felt exactly like a tight band was being drawn closer and closer around my temples. My stomach would be so upset I could not retain any kind of nourishment for hours. I would have to quit work and go to bed. My color was awful. I was yellow and my skin was drawn and dry. I did not have any energy—no ambition to work. I was just about half sick most of the time because of these spells. One day one of my neighbors, who has used Theford's Black-Draught for years, said he had noticed how bad my color was and thought it would help me. I got some Black-Draught immediately and began to take it regularly until I got my system clear of the poison I had been absorbing. I soon began to feel better and developed a fine appetite. I had no more bad headaches or bilious spells." 2-100

Carolina and California Meat Recipes which Satisfy

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of cooking articles by 6 famous cooks.)

"Almost everyone enjoys meat," says Miss Rosa Michaels, the New Orleans cooking authority. "It's highly nutritious, because of its high protein content. It contains valuable fats, mineral salts, and important vitamins."

Carolina Broiled Steak
Steak is especially good when prepared Carolina broiled. Be sure to select a tender steak, preferably 1 1/2 inches thick.
"Have the skillets piping hot, and salted. Put in the steak, searing it quickly. Turn often. Use two forks, and try not to puncture the steak. Keep all the juices in."
"Steak should be cooked rare in 10 minutes. Well done in 15. When done as you prefer it, place on a heated platter. Season with pepper and butter, and serve piping hot."

For frying steak you need a very hot fire. If you use an oil stove with long chimney burners, you will get most satisfactory results by turning the flame until yellow tips appear, about 1 1/2 inches high above the blue area.

California Peppers

Mrs. Belle DeGraf, San Francisco home economics counselor, is very fond of California stuffed peppers and West Coast pot roast.

For the former, select short, plump peppers; cut off tops and remove seeds. Put in a saucepan and cover with boiling water to which has been added a bit of soda the size of a pea. Let peppers stand in water about 10 minutes. Drain and place each pepper in a greased muffin pan. Then fill with the following mixture:

Mix 1 1/2 cups boiled rice with 1 cup of minced ham and 1 cup of savory sauce. Add 2 tablespoons of melted butter to 1/4 cup of dry fine bread crumbs and place on top of filling. Serve with sauce.

West Coast Pot Roast

Select not less than 4 pounds of beef from the round. With a sharp-pointed knife make deep incisions and force in stuffed olives. Make about 15 incisions. Sprinkle meat with salt and pepper then dredge with flour.

Heat 3 or 4 tablespoons of beef drippings and brown meat on all sides. Then add 3 cups of boiling water, 1 teaspoon salt and one onion for each pound. Simmer 1 1/2 hours. Cover closely and cook over a low flame under boiling point until meat is tender, about 2 hours for each pound of meat. Keep about the same amount of water in the pan. Add more as it cooks away. When cooked, remove meat and onions and thicken gravy.

The best oil stoves are designed for woman's convenience and comfort. Their cooking surface is 23 inches from the floor, just like a kitchen table. This makes bending or stooping totally unnecessary.

Veal Birds

Try veal birds once, and you'll want to cook them often in the way suggested by Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, director home economics department, Los Angeles Evening Express.

6 slices veal off loin cut thin (1 1/2 lbs.)
Flour, salt and pepper to taste
6 tablespoonfuls bread crumbs
Savory dressing
1 tablespoonful lemon juice
1/2 onion
2 tablespoonfuls butter
1/2 cup cream

Brown well on one side. Dredge with flour, salt and pepper and put in the center of each a tablespoonful of bread crumbs seasoned with savory dressing and a few drops of lemon juice and onion (1/4).
Bring the birds together as neatly in the shape of a bird as possible and tie with a string. Fry slowly until a golden brown in two tablespoonfuls butter in a pudding pan.

Then cover with 1/2 cup cream. Place in hot oven for 20 minutes (450° F.). Remove the cover from the vessel and allow to brown for seven minutes. The drippings in the pan may be used for gravy, if liked.

Ham and Raisin Sauce

Ham with raisin sauce is delicious, and can be cooked in 50 minutes according to Mrs. Vaughn's recipe.
1 slice ham (1 lb. 10 oz.)
1 cup brown sugar
1 tablespoonfuls cornstarch
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup vinegar
1/2 cup raisins

Place slice of ham in oven 400 degrees F. in a small baking pan. Mix sugar, cornstarch in saucepan, and add water and vinegar slowly, stirring until thick. Add raisins. Cook ham for 45 minutes, pour the raisin sauce over ham and continue to cook for 10 minutes longer.

Mildewed linens may be restored by wetting and soaping the spots. Then cover with fine powders, chalk and rub it in well.

Mrs. Bill McDonald Entertains S. S. Class with Slumber Party.

Mrs. Bill McDonald entertained her Sunday School class last Monday night with a slumber party. The first thing after assembling at the home of Mrs. McDonald they all went to the Texas Theatre and while they were there "some one" made the McDonald home as "spooky" as possible, tying cord strings to all of the doors and chairs and shrouding all of the electric lights in long garments, and over the entrance door there was a bucket of water, that wouldn't keep in place when the door was pushed open, but the host, Mr. Bill McDonald came home before the party and received the baptismism for them. All of the sandwiches and soda pop that they cared for were served during the night.

JONES, COOK & CO.

LOWER IN 1926

The improvement in the condition of farmers is shown by the Department of Agriculture. Reports from all parts of the country show an average net return of $1,183 for 1926, compared with $1,297 for 1925, $1,020 for 1923 and $847 for 1922. Receipts averaged lower, except the same and cash balance in 1926 than in 1925, in which items averaged higher than preceding three years. The size of the farms reported was 315 acres, with an investment of $16,208. Average receipts were $2,448, consisting of $1,004 from crop sales, $589 from stock, $589 from sales of products and $39 from miscellaneous items.

Current cash expenses in 1926, consisting of $1,673 for labor, $242 for live stock and $73 for feed, $73 for seed, $183 for taxes, machinery and tools and $170 miscellaneous items.

Cash expenses averaged $1,673, in addition to which these farmers produced home-grown food products at an average of $262. The land and house rent was not reported. On the other hand, no allowance was made in the expenses for the labor of the farmer and which was estimated by the Department at an average value of $770. The balance of $975 represented the average farm made to the owner-operator to pay

WHAT OUR NEW MONEY IS GOING TO LOOK LIKE

We are going to have some new paper money; not new in the sense of being crisp and unsoiled merely, but different in size and in design. The work of making the new plates and arranging for the retirement of the old bills will delay the change until next year, but it is interesting now to hear about the plans of the Treasury Department, which contemplates a complete reform in our complicated system of paper currency.

In the first place all bills are to be about a third smaller—an inch and a quarter shorter and seven eighths of an inch narrower—than they are now. The treasury officials are sure that bank tellers will find the smaller bills easier to handle and that the public will find them more convenient for their pocket books or for mailing since they will require little or no folding. The government has been making currency of the new size for twenty-five years for the Philippine islands. Originally the smaller bills were used for that purpose, because twelve of them could be printed at once on the presses that would take only eight of our own bills and the economy of paper and labor was necessary when the Bureau of Engraving and Printing found itself suddenly called upon to furnish this extra supply of money to the government.

The Philippine currency has proved a great success. Everyone who has handled it prefers it to the larger bills. It was the general testimony of the superior convenience of the Philippine money that first suggested to the treasury the idea of making the domestic

NO MORE MONUMENTS FOR PAPA'S PEAK

An order issued by the United States Government has closed the summit of Papa's Peak, Colorado, to those who would use it as a burial ground. The custom of climbing to the heights and throwing the ashes of deceased persons to the winds has grown with the years. Now Uncle Sam says that it must stop. It may be rather difficult to keep the ashes away from the mountain, but there should be little trouble in confining the monuments to a lower level.

TELLING A FABLE

The Collingsworth Standard thus dresses up a well known contribution to the lore of mankind: Aesop, who made a lot of wisecracks many years ago, told a story about a grass hopper and an ant. The grasshopper, according to Mr. Aesop, sang, danced and played the ukelele and drank home brew all Summer. The ant put on his overalls and hotfooted it off to work every morning when the 6 o'clock whistle blew. After the beautiful Autumnal months had passed, as usual Winter came. The industrious ant had a barnful of maize and kaffir corn and a cellar full of home-canned peaches and plums. The sheik grasshopper had a dark brown taste, a threadbare overcoat and an empty tummy. It looked like it would be a hard winter for him. And it was. The point of this story, if any, is: The person who makes his plans during the Summer for the Fall is the person who reaps the greatest benefit. This applies to farmers as well as to merchants.
