Melon Money drawings will be held again this year, also. Starting next Monday, for every $10 spent at the downtown stores, customers will receive a ticket to be entered into the drawings held during the festival.

The tickets will be given Monday through Friday only. Drawings will be on Saturday at 12:00 p.m., 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. The drawings will be for $25, $50 and $100 gift certificates for shopping in Knox City stores.

The Watermelon Festival is sponsored in part by Atmos Energy and Windstream.

Parade Entries Needed For Annual Watermelon Festival

The Knox City Chamber of Commerce is encouraging everyone to join the Watermelon Festival parade on Friday, July 27th.

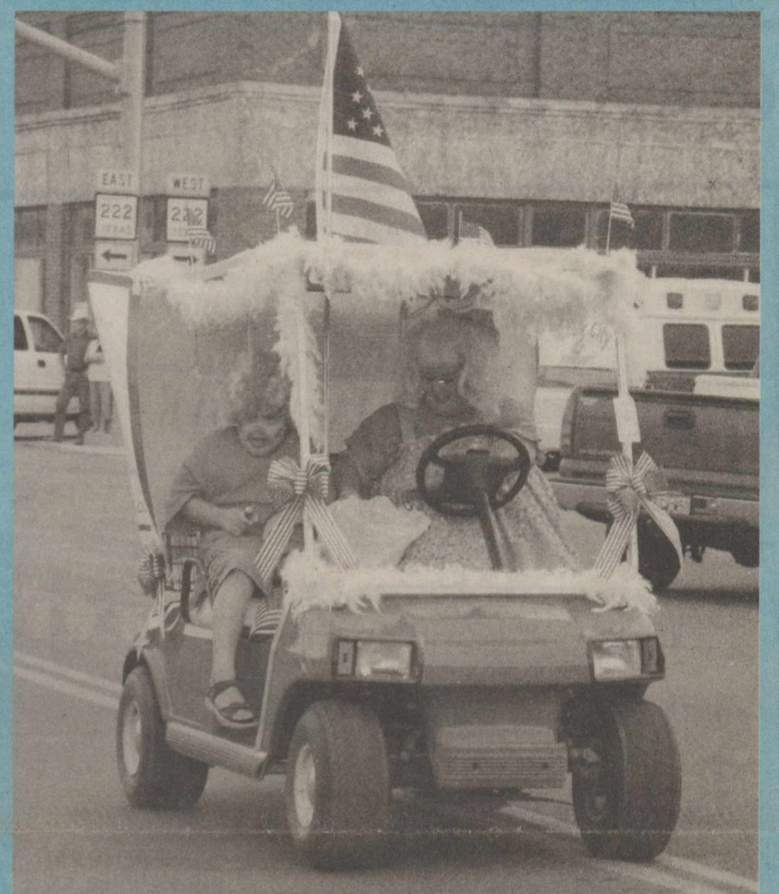

"It's gotten better and better every year and we hope to continue that," said Daveine Clark, executive director of the Chamber of Commerce.

To enter a float, contact the Chamber of Commerce. There must be some sort of watermelon visible on your float.

The parade will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will travel through the downtown area. Line up begins at 6 p.m. at the Knox City High School.

Trophies will be awarded in several different categories, including Best Decorated Float, Most Original, What Were You Thinking?, Best Business and Best Out of Town.

Floats must be registered with the chamber before July 25th.

Art Stall And Frame Shop Celebrates 32 Years

The Art Stall and Frame Shop is celebrating its 32nd anniversary this month.

Romain and her sister, Dessie Egenbacher, originally opened the Mini Mall, in which the Art Stall was located when first opened, in the early 1970s. This came about with help from their father, who gave them the building, and their brother, Bobby Day, who came up with the idea of the Mini Mall.

The Art Stall and Frame Shop was one of four businesses located inside the Mini Mall.

In the early 1980s the Art Stall and Frame shop moved out of the Mini Mall and down a few doors, where it is currently located.

The Art Stall and Frame Shop offers an array of quality merchandise in addition to ready-made and custom framing.

Romain is offering special sales throughout the month of July in honor of The Art Stall and Frame Shop's anniversary. Some of the sale items include the ever popular Beanie Babies, Day Spring greeting cards, infant clothing items, boys Tommy Hilfiger clothing, Dreamsicles, Claire Burke items, and in honor of the upcoming 19th Annual Donald Johnson Seedless Watermelon Festival, many watermelon related items.

The Art Stall and Frame Shop is located at 114 N. Central in Knox City. Hours are 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

The telephone number is 940-658-3092.

Locally Grown Melons Rolling In

Knox County got its first sweet taste of locally grown Johnson melons last week when their cantaloupes hit the market.

Watermelons were not far behind, having started harvest about a week later, and the crops are looking good.

"Since the weather has faired up, things look a lot better now. It's going good and it looks good," said Dwayne Johnson.

Since the harvest had a late start, Johnson expects the harvest to run until Labor Day.

Johnson Melon Corporation's watermelons are the heart of Knox City's annual Donald Johnson Memorial Seedless Watermelon Festival and Classic Car Show, which is held July 27-28th this year.

AUSTIN - Lady Bird Johnson, 94, died of natural causes July 11 at her home in West Lake Hills with her daughters Lynda Johnson Robb and Luci Baines Johnson and her grandchildren at her side.

On July 12, Gov. Rick Perry ordered flags to half-staff in Mrs. Johnson's honor.

Mrs. Johnson's body lay in repose July 13 to 14 at the LBJ Library and Museum on the campus of the University of Texas at Austin. More than 11,000 people filed past her casket in the library's great hall.

About 1,800 people attended a private memorial service at Riverbend Church on July 14.

Among the many dignitaries in attendance at the memorial service were

First Lady Laura Bush, President Bill Clinton and Sen. Hillary Clinton, President and Mrs. George H.W. Bush, Nancy Reagan, President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter, Gov. and Mrs. Perry, Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison, Susan Ford Bales, Caroline Kennedy Schlossberg and Maria Shriver.

On July 15, crowds of people lined Congress Avenue between the Capitol and Town Lake to pay last respects as the funeral motorcade proceeded south, then west, enroute to Johnson City.

In the early afternoon of the 15th, Mrs. Johnson was buried alongside her husband in the Johnson family cemetery in Stonewall, about 70 miles west of Austin. The cemetery is part of the LBJ National Historical Park.

Born Claudia Alta Taylor in Karnack, a small town in East Texas in 1912, Mrs. Johnson is remembered as the trusted adviser and devoted wife of the 36th president of the United States, Lyndon Baines Johnson.

President Johnson died at age 64 on Jan. 22, 1973, four years after leaving office. Mrs. Johnson outlived her husband by more than 34 years.

During her more than five years as first lady, Mrs. Johnson became recognized as the prime mover behind the Highway Beautification Act of 1965 and conservation measures. But her zeal to improve America also bore fruit in the creation of Head Start and other federal programs benefiting Americans to this day.

Her work to bring attention to poverty and unmet health and education needs in rural and urban America helped President Johnson forward his agenda in the "War on Poverty."

After President Johnson's term of office ended in January 1969, the Johnsons returned to Texas, and Mrs. Johnson set to work on beautifying state highways with wildflowers and other native plants.

Mrs. Johnson and her friend, actress Helen Hayes, worked together to found the National Wildflower Research Center in 1982.

Mrs. Johnson downplayed her own efforts, but the complex and sprawling grounds in South Austin were renamed the Lady Bird Johnson Wildflower Center because others wanted to honor her work in promoting, building, maintaining and improving the institution over many years.

Mrs. Johnson's work to build and improve Austin's Town Lake Hike and Bike Trail also is noteworthy.

Mrs. Johnson suffered a stroke in 2002, compromising her vision and ability to speak, but she remained active until relatively recently.

Former chief justice Hill dies

Another native of East Texas, Kilgore-born John L. Hill Jr., died July 9. He was 83.

Gov. Perry ordered flags to half staff in Hill's honor.

Hill was the only Texan to have served in all of these state offices: as secretary of state, attorney general and chief justice of the supreme court.

After graduating from the University of Texas law school in 1947, Hill became a masterful lawyer, winning high-profile cases. He worked in Harris County on John Connally's 1964 gubernatorial campaign.

Hill served as secretary of state from 1966-68 under Gov. Connally.

He was elected attorney general in 1972 and served in that role until 1979.

Hill ran unsuccessfully for governor in 1978, losing to Bill Clements.

Hill was elected chief justice of the Texas Supreme Court in 1984 and resigned in 1988.

In 1997, then-Gov. George W. Bush appointed Hill to a post on the Texas Lottery Commission.

BAXTER BLACK

ON THE EDGE OF COMMON SENSE

I'M RIDIN'

By Baxter Black, DVM

My Papa told a story from his childhood dust bowl days
 He was out a'ridin' fences tryin' to find 'em, anyways
 When he saw a cowboy buried in the sand up to his waist
 Papa trotted up behind him till he saw the feller's face.
 "How ya doin'?" asked my Papa, careful not to be blindsidin'.
 The cowboy tipped his hat, looked up and said, "I'm fine, I'm ridin'."
 As time went by my Papa grew and finally found a girl
 But the big war put him on a ship and clear around the world.
 Their letters few and far between were sweet in many ways
 She would write him love and kisses and inquire about his days
 'Bout his health, and meals and mental state and how he was abidin'.
 "Don't worry, Darlin' I'll be home" he said, "I'm fine, I'm ridin'."
 Back home they bought a little place and started raisin' cattle
 And corn and kids and country, never saw life as a battle
 But a chance, an opportunity, took the bitter with the sweet.
 So busy with their daily chores just makin' loose ends meet
 Sometimes they'd pass each other like two ships at sea a gli-din'.
 He'd peck her cheek, she'd squeeze his hand, "We're fine," they'd say, "we're ridin'."
 Their life went by and they got old and then she had a stroke.
 He held her till the medics came but ne'er a word she spoke.
 He prayed like he had never prayed to heal the one he loved
 And when the wheel chair brought her home he thanked the Lord above.
 "I've been so worried," he said in tears, her smile began to widen.
 He touched her face and read her lips, "I'm fine," she said, "I'm ridin'."
 Some will see their life half empty, some will see their cup half full
 Some will only open one eye and find living miserable
 But if yer fine and ridin', you can see and you can plan
 'Cause life's got a lot to offer, if yer head's not in the sand.

BENJAMIN NEWS

By Gladene Green

Last week was a pretty good week, weather-wise. Did have showers off and on, and on Friday had about 1.1 inches of rain, but for the most part it was pretty pleasant.

Sincere sympathy to the family of Jimmie Pierce, Jr. today. Jimmie passed away on Thursday in Wichita Falls after being hospitalized and in the ICU for about three weeks.

Jimmie lived here in Benjamin with his family until he finished school. He has lived various places the past few years, but always thought of Benjamin as home. His funeral will be tomorrow (Tuesday) at 2 p.m. at the Ex-Student Building.

Here 'N There

The Jackson family held their annual family reunion this past weekend here in Benjamin. The attendance was down, still a nice crowd was on hand to enjoy lots of good food and visiting on Saturday night and also for the noon meal Sunday. They were joined on Sunday for lunch by locals, Don Hertel, LaMoyné Patterson, Bobby Hudson and Tibb Burnett.

Several locals as well as folks from all over the area attended the reception honoring (and welcoming) Dr. Zeke Duke back home and to work!

Dr. Duke had his first day last Wednesday and today begins his first full week. We are all excited that he's home and are so very, very proud of his accomplishments. The reception was nice and those responsible for getting it together deserve a "thumbs-up".

Bonnie Howell and her family returned to their home in Missouri Sunday after several days visit here. Her husband, Craig, came after her and they all attended the Jackson reunion. Bonnie had been visiting her parents Roger and Betty Bohannon.

Jack (Corky) Barker of Tuscon, Arizona was here for a weekend visit with his mom, Jonnie Williams and sister, Mary Bohannon and also to attend the Jackson gathering.

Patsy Bateman called on Saturday and said they were back in Houston for Jim to see his doctors at M.D. Anderson. Said he was having some problems and doctors are deciding what treatment will be the best for him, but that he is not critical as we had heard earlier in the week. She asked us to continue to remember them in prayer.

Talked to Don Hertel one day last week. He says he feels pretty well. Just gets weak when he's up and about too much. In addition to his recent lung problems, chemo and recuperating from that, he also had to have a heart stint not too long ago. So I guess he's doing pretty well considering the problems he's had.

Leroy and Gloria West are in Abilene today for him to see his doctor for the hip and back pain he's had for so long. He's hoping that after today, he will have some noticeable relief.

Jerry and Kay Hayes of Abilene visited with me on Saturday night. It's always good to spend time with friends.

Charles and Linda Griffith attended a reunion of his family on Saturday at Buffalo Gap. They said a good crowd was in attendance.

I just received word of the death of Billy Jack Nichols, a former Vera resident who attended high school here in the early 70s.

Billy Jack was living away from this area and died in the night (last night) of an apparent heart attack. He was 55 and the son of the late A.C. and Ola Mae Nichols of Vera. Sympathy to that family. His services are pending at this time.

Bud Conner, Charles Jones and Charles Griffith attended the Men's Breakfast Saturday morning at the Cornerstone Baptist Church in Haskell. Bud brought the program, which included singing a number of songs.

Penny Eaton and her daughter, Kendra Hunter, and grand daughters, Kayla and Ella, of Knox City, attended a wedding near Texarkana last weekend. The bride was Penny's other daughter, Heddy's, good friend. Heddy lives in Austin now and met them there. She was in the wedding and was glad to have her beautician sister there to "do her hair" for the occasion.

God's Promises

By Jim Reid, Pastor
O'Brien Baptist Church

When we see the Lord truly change a person's life for the better we have witnessed a miracle.

A miracle isn't something that is done naturally, by man's account of his own power and strength, but by a supernatural power. Supernatural power is beyond the knowledge, power and strength of mankind. The love of God is the only supernatural power that can change a person forever.

Many of you may be thinking, "I've seen people get religion, and then lose it or give it up." You may think because of the one's you have known or have seen experience religion that it must not be real, much less miraculous. I want you to ask yourself a question, "How many people did you hear them tell of this miracle?" How many people did you hear talking about this miracle? I don't mean hearing them say, "They're going to church now." How many times did you hear them using the name, "Jesus?"

Jesus healed so many people of their sins during His ministry on this earth and continues to heal the sin in anybody's life who calls upon Him to forgive their sins. The New Testament shares a verse of scripture from the book of Mark, chapter 5, verse 19, "And He did not let him, but He said to him, 'Go home to your people and report to them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He had mercy on you.'" When Jesus healed this man, he immediately came to understand the love of Christ and therefore, wanted to stay with Jesus, but Jesus would not let him stay. Jesus gave him the instruction to go tell the people he truly cared about that they might experience the same love of Christ. Look at the scripture again, Jesus said, "Go home to your people". This instruction truly requires a supernatural power and when we follow His instruction then we know we have truly experienced a supernatural change by the power of Holy God.

I pray that you truly understand His supernatural life changing power. If not, ask Him right now to change your life forever. Attend the church of your choice this Sunday and experience the love of Holy God.

The investment of a lifetime

For most of us the purchase of a home is the investment of a lifetime. A home mortgage is a long term proposition. Over the 20 or 30 year term of the loan all manner of things happen in a person's life. People get promotions at work. People get laid off. Companies make fortunes. Companies go bankrupt. The economy goes up. The economy goes down. With an investment as important as the roof over your head you want to know who you're dealing with. We specialize in long term relationships. We're an equal housing lender. For most of us the purchase of a home is the investment of a lifetime. A home mortgage is a long term proposition.
