SOCIETY and Club

Mr. S. M. N. Marrs Coming To Haskell Soon.

Mrs. S. M. N. Marrs, wife of State Superintendent S. M. N. Marrs will be in Haskell all day Wednesday December 22nd, the guest of the North Ward Parent Teachers Association. Mrs. S. M. Marrs needs no introduction to Texas people, equally as famous as an educator as her state wide known husband. And too Mrs. Marrs taught in Haskell county years ago when she was Miss Ina Caddell and made her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Irby, the association must have left pleasant memories for Mrs. Marrs in accepting the invitation extended to her by the P. T. A. to come to Haskell stated that she would like to stay with Mrs. Irby while here, in return Mrs. Irby delighted to have Mrs. Marrs and arrangements have been made for her to be a house guest of Mrs. Irby while in the city of Haskell. Officially Mrs. Marrs will be in Haskell one day, this will be spent at the Haskell High School beginning at ten o'clock when Mr. Marrs will begin her information in all kinds of child welfare and questions pertaining to education. This will be a red letter day for the members of the North Ward P. T. A. and their friends, for a cordial invitation is extended every woman in the country who is interested in the above, and luncheon at the noon hour will be furnished free for all out of town guests. In case there be any one who does not know Mrs. Marrs and something of her work, she is an authority on school work of every kind, on P. T. A. organization and work and all manner of needs of child life. Make this your opportunity to glean from Mrs. Marrs information in regard to P. T. A. work that you want to know. Remember the date, Wednesday December 22, beginning at 10 o'clock and lasting all day. You are invited.

The Magazine Club.

On last Friday December the 3rd, The Magazine Club was entertained by two joint directors in a splendid and entertaining program, Mrs. J. B. Post and Mrs. Norman Kelly. The Magazine Club room was the first of the season to don the Christmas colors and the red flowers, paper emblems and candles did their part to radiate the Christmas cheer. The first number was the appropriate song, Joy to the World, by the club members; reading, Let Before Christmas, Frank Fuller Bryant; the bible story of the Birth of Christ, Mrs. G. R. Forrester; and next at the conclusion of the song, Luther's Cradle Hum, by Geraldine Connor, the curtain was drawn to reveal a Christmas tree, around which danced the Christmas Elf, Hugh Mac English and ten little Christmas fairies, Marvena Post, Helen Mabel Baldwin, Janice Rogers, Louise Pierson, Winona Frances Post, Katherine Wair Frances Shook, Mary Sue Murchison, Ruby Jerald Sutherland, and Merle Draper; these graceful little tots are children of club members and were trained by Mrs. Norman Kelly. In their dance about the tree they gracefully draped the president Mrs. Courtney Hunt in crepe paper and then in conclusion sang Little Jack Horner and soon discovered that popular member of the Mother Goose family, Virgil Meadows Jr. seated in his favorite corner holding out his pie, each little dancer stuck in a thumb and pulled out a miniature Santa Claus which were the favors. The president Mrs. Hunt then served refreshments to all present.

Harmony Club

The Harmony Club met in regular session Wednesday December 1st. After a short business meeting the meeting was turned over to the chorus director, Mrs. H. D. Neff. The practice was devoted to work on our annual Christmas Cantata. This year the club will present "The King of Christmas" by Fred B. Halton.

The New Texas Theatre.

This department makes it bow to the new Texas Theatre, a modern building equipped and managed in a manner that will be a credit to Haskell when she has doubled her present population. Society and club women look forward to many restful afternoons and evenings at this ultra comfortable place of entertainment. The moving picture industry has come to stay and it behooves us to shop for the best on the market and house the photoplays in the best buildings and with the most modern conveniences and appliances. This the management of the Texas Theatre has done and Haskell citizenry is his debtor.

Women, Why Suffer?

Fort Worth, Texas.—"A relative of mine received wonderful benefit by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Her health was very poor for a long time, she suffered almost constantly with aches and pains peculiar to women, and never found a remedy to help her until she learned of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Write Dr. Pierce, President Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice. Send 10c if you wish a trial pkg. of the Tablets."

She started taking it, gained about fifteen pounds in weight and got well. I took two bottles not long ago and it helped me wonderfully.—Mrs. Laura Key, 120 E. 12th St. All dealers.

RED GRANGE AT THE NEW TEXAS THEATRE OPENING DAY

What is hailed as the best college screen play yet, with romance, college rivalry, sustained suspense, with the world's star foot ball player, "Red Grange," starring as Red Wade, and doing his famous galloping ghost stunt in the last minute in the "Sam Wood" production, "One Minute To Play" will be the right royal offering of the new "Texas Theatre" on opening night, which is Monday December the 13th, at 7 o'clock p. m. See college life as it has never been shown before on the screen, authentic, thrilling, with the greatest player the world has ever seen, "Red Grange," a brown flash streaking down the gridiron, twisting, starting eluding, right through the grim line of opponents, with a discomfited wake of sprawling tackles behind him. After Red Grange has made the coach "white with rage" and is thrown out of the game, well, just secure your ticket in time to get a seat at the New Texas Theatre on opening night, Monday Dec. the 13th, at 7 o'clock p. m. and see him win the girl, Mary MacAllister, win his Dad, win the game, and yes, win the coach, he's a winner, is Red Grange. Is that all? Well who wouldn't think that enough? Opening night in a big new, modernly equipped theatre with Red Grange in the prize college picture of the hour, a recent release? But listen, The New Texas Theatre will give on this big opening night, a brim-full and running over measure of entertainment, the excess will be, a High Class Musical Road Show, "The Golden Gate Revue Girls," one of the classiest shows on the road, and Oh, yes, You'll get to hear the new DeLux Seeberg pipe organ.

Nervous hot flashes

"SOME time ago when in a very nervous, run-down condition," says Mrs. Martha F. Marlow, of Broken Bow, Okla., "I tried numerous remedies to try at least to keep going, but I could not. I was weak and tired—just no good at all. My back ached and I had hot flashes until I was so very nervous I smothered."

"I couldn't sleep and I was never hungry, and I kept getting weaker. I couldn't stand on my feet. This was an unusual condition for me as I had been pretty strong all along. I knew that I would have to do something, and that pretty soon."

"Some friend suggested that I take Cardui, and it certainly was a good suggestion, for after taking one bottle I could tell I was stronger and better. I didn't quit. I kept it up all through the change and did fine. I felt like a different person after I began taking Cardui."

Cardui has helped thousands of suffering women.

Cotton Not Best Wealth Producer A. & M. Study Shows

"Cotton deceives more Oklahoma farmers and business men in the matter of its true relation to their financial well-being than any other farm enterprise in the State," J. T. Sanders, head of the department of agricultural economics at the Oklahoma A. & M. College, says.

"A recent survey of the crop acreage of about 600 cotton farmers in Oklahoma shows that owners, who are free to plant what they wish, had only 53 per cent of their crop land in cotton, while tenants had 64 per cent of theirs in cotton. Tenants usually believe that too much cotton does not pay them best. Mr. Sanders thinks, "while the landlords believe that the more cotton they can get their tenants to plant the better off they (the landlords) will be. Facts seem to show that both are right, although a more careful study by owners probably would show that they are wrong."

In 1923 it cost tenants in Oklahoma 63 per cent more to grow an acre of cotton than it did to grow wheat, corn and oats the following year. The value of cotton per acre averaged about 66 per cent more than did the value of grain per acre. This shows that, counting the cost and total returns from cotton, it does not pay enough more than does other crops to make the tenant want to plant nothing but cotton. If risk and other indirect costs could be included, the case for cotton would be very much against the tenant.

In contrast to this cotton situation for tenants, cotton costs owners of rented land less than does grain, but at the same time owners get a rent from cotton that averages two-thirds more than their rent on grain. With two-thirds larger income and less cost for cotton than they have for other crops, it is only natural for them to insist that tenants grow the largest possible cotton acreage.

Striking proof that depending too much on cotton does not pay farmers is shown by a recent survey by the department of agricultural economics of 600 farmers in Bryan and Pottawatomie counties, Oklahoma. It shows that farmers who received 40 per cent or less of all farm receipts from cotton had saved an average of $284 each year since they began farming; also, it was found that those farmers who depending live stock, gardens and fruits for 10 per cent or less of all their receipts were unable to save at the rate of $85

A Message from—SUNSET POULTRY FARM

The prosperity of many farmers in Texas and the southwest does not rise and fall with cotton prices. These farmers do not rely upon one crop for their cash income. They are the ones that in 1926 produced nearly $150,000,000 worth of poultry and poultry products. The farmer who raises poultry as a part of his regular farm program has a year-round income, regardless of the price of other farm commodities. Pure-bred poultry again in 1926 proved a timely and certain source of cash to those who produced it. A flock of pure-bred poultry on your place next year will greatly add to your profits.

Baby Chicks from Single Comb White Leghorns

We will have the best hens and pullets to breed from this year that we have ever had, and of course will have a higher grade of baby chicks to sell from them. We have over 200 hens with trap-nest records. In the summer we had 700 pullets that we have selected the best 300 for our use and sold off the balance. These pullets are all early and full grown and will make fine breeders. Every cock or cockerel that we will use will be pedigreed from a 250 egg dam or better.

Prices on baby chicks will be $15.00, $20.00, $25.00 per 100, according to breeding.

Baby Chicks from Other Breeds

Last year we had so many calls for baby chicks from some of the heavier breeds of poultry that we have decided to secure eggs from some of the standard-bred flocks that are in the county. R. I. Reds, Barred Rocks, White Wyandottes, Light Brahmans, priced from 16c to 20c each as many as you want.

Custom Hatching

We have installed another mammoth incubator, which will give us a hatching capacity of 25,000 eggs every three weeks. We will start our machines the first Monday in January. Will set 72 trays each week. Trays hold 120 eggs for the light breeds and 112 for the heavy breeds. Price per tray $3.50. Phone or write us to reserve you as many trays as you wish to set, giving date you prefer.

Remember that the early hatched chick will be the one that will lay Fifty Cent Eggs next fall. C. O. DAVIS SUNSET POULTRY FARM RULE, TEXAS. Member International and Texas Baby Chick Association

What U. S. Farm Folks Eat; Some Interesting Figures

Various interesting conclusions have been drawn from a recent study of food consumption by farm families, made by the Bureau of Home Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. This study was part of a standard of living study for which figures were collected from 1,331 families in four States—Kansas, Ohio, Missouri and Kentucky.

Kentucky and Missouri led in the consumption of pork, bacon, lard, molasses and cornmeal—foods which usually play an important part in the Southern diet. Beef, potatoes, dried fruits, beans and peas were used in large quantities on the farms in Kansas and Ohio. Milk, cream, eggs and poultry were consumed in large quantities in Missouri and Kansas. Ohio and Missouri led in the consumption of purchased bread, but when bread is expressed as equivalent flour, the wheat consumed in the four states was similar. Fresh vegetables and fruits were consumed in larger quantities in Missouri and Ohio than in Kansas and Kentucky. On the whole, the diet of the farm families studied was nourishing and abundant. The chief lack was in the proportion of fruits and vegetables to other important foods.

CURTAINS DEFEAT BEARCATS AFTER LONG HARD BATTLE

Fighting hard to keep up their record the Bearcats lost the annual clash between the Bearcats and Curtains, at the Fair Park gridiron Friday, by a score of 6 to 0. This is the first time the Curtains have won the title for three years and they were much elated over the victory. The defeat came in the first part of the fourth quarter when R. Henshaw went through the right side of the line for a touchdown. Both teams fought hard but due to the lack of experienced men the Bearcats could not hold the Curtains on sight. However much credit is given to the Bearcats on their splendid playing. Rivalry was keen between the two societies at school but it reached its climax during the game Friday.

The stars for the Bearcats during the game were: Chapman, Banks and Whitman, while those of the Curtains were: G. Henshaw, R. Henshaw, Sherman and Kimbrough. Chapman and Whitman played wonderful defensive football and the whole Bearcat line is due credit for its solidness.

About $20.00 was taken in and the societies agreed to donate the money to the football boys. Coach Ramsey appreciates this but he still needs more money. Help the football boys and watch our H. School go!

FORMER HASKELL LADY SUCCEEDS ON FARM

Mrs. T. E. Wright one of the best known women promoters of Haskell county was called on at her home in the Vontress community by a Free Press Reporter last Friday. She has just completed a new eight room residence on her farm where she is making her home at present, which she says is the best home she has ever built in the county. That is saying a great deal for in the past few years she has erected more than a dozen of Haskell's best residences which she has sold to others and they are now occupying them. She was for many years proprietor of the Wright Hotel of this city and became known over west Texas as one of the best hotel women in the section. She has now decided that with her son Byron who is an experienced farmer they will live on the farm and enjoy the quietude that farm life brings to those who love its charms. Byron looks after the farm, the hogs and the cattle of which they just have enough not to over burden their resources for care taking and feed. He has a very large acreage in cultivation it is really around the three hundred acre mark, but he only had 90 acres planted to cotton this year and will doubtless make a cut in the acreage of cotton next year from this small amount. He grows lots of grain and feed, has a nice young orchard of peaches and other fruit trees which he has tried out and knows will grow and thrive in this section.

Mrs. Wright has just begun planting flowers to beautify her home and she states this year that she had a large variety which grew and thrived in their new setting and were very beautiful during the summer and fall. She is an expert florist and with the assistance of her son Byron who is also experienced in growing flowers they are making preparations to greatly increase the number of these beautiful flowers in their front yard the coming year.

They have plenty of feed on the farm to do them two years in normal times and they expect to increase their number of live stock, chickens and turkeys next year. Mrs. Wright and her son are happy with the conditions as they are and with future plans along the same successful lines, which is strictly based on diversification they are going forward with buoyant hearts not blaming conditions.

Mrs. Wright and her son gave the Free Press representative a good lunch at the noon hour the short stay with this family was enjoyed very much.
