Owls Holding Second Place In District

After losing to Valley, the Silverton Owls hosted the Lakeview team and came away with an impressive 49-24 win. "The game was a very much improved one over the first district game at Valley and showed that the Owls will not give up," said Coach Bob Loy.

The Owls were led in scoring by J. Ramirez, 16; R. Clardy, 12; N. Edwards, eight, and R. Smith, eight.

On Saturday, January 24, "after trying to make-up this game we finally got the opportunity to play the Hedley Owls," Coach Loy said. The red and white Owls brought home a solid 56-28 victory. "This was another team effort by all concerned," the coach added.

The scoring was led by R. Clardy, 19; J. Ramirez, 16; J. Frizzell, nine; and M. Clardy, eight.

The Owlettes dropped their first district game to Valley, 64-39. Suzann Settle scored 10 points while Kim Burson led the team with 12.

"They beat us on the boards in the second half, and that was the difference," said Coach Gary Childs.

Owlettes	7 21 32 39
Valley	14 29 45 64

The Owlettes dropped into third place in the district with a narrow 32-31 defeat at Lakeview. The team was paced by Tonnette Miller's 15 points and Kim Burson added six.

"We had several chances to take the lead in the last two minutes but we turned the ball over and blew our chances. It was a game of missed opportunities," Coach Childs said.

Owlettes	8 18 26 31
Lakeview	10 19 26 32

The girls regained their winning ways when they played Hedley Saturday, capturing a 42-36 victory. Gina Myers tossed in 14 points, Suzann Settle scored 11, and DeLyn Patton added nine.

"Our defense was outstanding," Coach Childs said, "plus we rebounded well on both ends. Probably it was one of our better games of the year."

Owlettes	8 17 28 42
Hedley	8 14 22 36

The teams played at Hedley Tuesday night, and are to host Valley Friday. The regular schedule will conclude at Lakeview next Tuesday night.

DEVELOPING

SELF-CONFIDENCE

"I am lovable and capable." I once attended a seminar on self-esteem where we all had to wear a sign that read "ialac"—or I am lovable and capable.

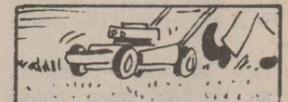

If I could choose one trait that is the most critical to our lives it would be self-confidence. How we feel about ourselves determines how we relate to others.

The feelings of self-esteem we build or fail to build in children will influence their relationships with their teachers, their friends, their future spouse, employers, and all others with whom they come in contact.

Researchers tell us that men who abuse their wives have a low self-esteem. Teenage pregnancies may be a result of poor self-esteem. Family problems and divorce may be the result of one or both persons' lack of positive feelings about himself.

Our feelings about ourselves were developed over many years and as a result of many experiences. We cannot change these experiences, but in adulthood we can re-evaluate the importance and the feelings we have about them.

Successful experiences built self-esteem. As adults, we are in control of many of our experiences and our feelings about the things that happen to us. With conscious effort and a positive attitude we can change negative feelings about ourselves into positive ones. We can also build self-confidence in our husband/wife and children if we acknowledge its importance in strengthening family relationships and better equipping each family member to be a happy, productive member of society.

On the green scene: more than 20 million acres of lawns exist in the U.S.—representing one to two percent of our nation's land area.

To get Brazil nuts out of their shells unbroken, freeze them until the shells crack.

"Politeness is a liberating constraint. It makes it possible to say everything that rudeness couldn't."

Donors Made Stock Show Possible

Many businesses and individuals made donations to the 1987 Briscoe County Livestock Show. These donations made it possible for 4-H and FFA youth to have prize money, belt buckles and trophies for exhibiting their livestock projects.

The board of directors of the show would like to acknowledge all who donated money to help make this year's show a success.

Students Study Child Development

Students in the semester course of Child Development have studied essential elements in the area of play and play equipment. They evaluated toys, equipment and materials in terms of their appropriateness and contribution to a child's learning and development.

Wooden puzzles were constructed after several sessions of study in the areas of safety, durability and motivation.

Four Valley Gridders Named to All-State Team

Four members of the Valley Patriot football team have been named to the Class 1A All-State team, with Matt Barrett, 5-6 145-pound senior named to both the offensive and defensive first teams.

Barrett caught 88 passes for 1,592 yards and 22 touchdowns. He set state marks for single-season yardage, and is second all-time on the list for receptions. He finished his career with 155 receptions for 2,705 yards and 39 touchdowns.

In addition to the record-breaking wide receiver-secondary player, Kirk Saul, 6-2 185-pound senior quarterback, was named to an offensive berth. Saul led Valley to a 12-1 record and the regional playoff round. He completed 235 of 374 passes for 3,599 yards and 54 touchdowns with just eight interceptions in 13 games.

Saul set the national record for single-season touchdown passes and state records for single-season yardage, completions and touchdowns. Saul had six games with more than 300 yards passing, including 590 yards against Chillicothe.

Saul tied the state record for touchdown passes in a game with eight against Chillicothe. He finished his career with 6,070 yards, a state-record 82 touchdowns and 27 interceptions. He was the District 5-1A North Co-Player of the Year, Globe-News Offensive Player of the Year, and South Plains Player of the Year.

Also named to the All-State offensive first team were Tight End Freddie Ruiz, 5-7 140-pound senior, and Guard Joe Silva, 5-9 179-pound junior.

Ruiz caught 33 passes for 580 yards and eight touchdowns.

Silva, the only one of the All-State honorees returning next year, was one of the hard-working linemen that helped give Saul time enough to work his magic through the airways.

Financial Aid Available For College Students

No longer should a person deprive himself of a college education because of financial hardship. Students who desire to learn a skill in vocational or technical school, as well as those planning to attend a college or university, are eligible for financial aid.

On February 3, at 12:52, a workshop on financing post-secondary education will be held in Room 4 (English room) at Silverton High School. The workshop will be conducted by Martin Kennedy, jr., school counselor from the Education Service Center, Region XVI in Amarillo. Topics to be discussed include the following: types of financial aid, sources of financial aid, and the financial aid application process. Financial aid application forms will be distributed to those who are interested in making application. The workshop is open to students of senior classification and their parents.

Four basic types of financial aid are available: grants, scholarships, loans, and work-study programs. Grants and scholarships are popular because money received does not have to be repaid. Loans are available at a low interest rate and with an extended period for repayment. Many colleges offer work-study programs in which students are given part-time jobs to help meet educational costs.

Sources of financial aid for students are numerous. These sources include federal, state and local institutions, agencies and programs. Many private foundations and religious groups also offer scholarships and loans as do numerous industries. Students who perform well in literary events on the high school level may be eligible for University Interscholastic League scholarships.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Younger and children have moved from Lubbock to Silverton to make their home. They are living in the house between Susie Autry and his parents, the Roy Youngers.

Next CRP Sign-Up Is February 9-27

Farmers interested in putting cropland in the government's Conservation Reserve Program will get another opportunity to do so during the February 9-27 sign-up period.

Three sign-up periods were held during 1986, and almost nine million acres of highly erodible cropland across the nation were committed to the program, points out Dr. Bill Harris, soils specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Last year Texas farmers put more than a million acres in the program, which is aimed at curbing soil erosion while at the same time improving water quality and wildlife habitats," Harris explains.

Land accepted into the CRP must be kept out of production for ten years and prescribed conservation practices must be followed, he points out. This includes planting the land to grass or trees to prevent wind and water erosion, with costs shared by the government.

Landowners must submit a bid on eligible land to their local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office during the sign-up period. Land eligibility is determined by the Soil Conservation Service. If the bid is accepted, landowners will be paid that price annually over the 10-year period provided they follow the prescribed conservation plan. The average acceptable bid in Texas was just under $30 an acre during the last sign-up period.

"Essentially, program provisions are the same as last year although there has been a slight revision in land eligibility classifications," says Harris. "That may allow additional land to qualify for the program, so landowners need to check with their local SCS office."

Also, a maximum of 25 percent of any cropland in a county can be put in the CRP unless a special exemption is obtained, notes the specialist.

Because several new phases of the CRP are being enacted this year, including sodbuster, swampbuster and conservation compliance, interest in the CRP should increase, contends Harris. Details on the total program are available at any local ASCS office.

The CRP is part of the 1985 farm bill and was initiated last spring as a five-year effort to take some 45 million acres of erodible cropland out of production across the United States.

Cow-Calf Production Meeting Announced

A cow-calf production meeting has been planned for Thursday, January 29, in Matador at the Matador Senior Citizens Building, says Dirk Aaron, Briscoe County Extension Agent.

The program is being sponsored by the Motley County Extension Office and The Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Nelson Adams, beef cattle specialist at Vernon, will be on the program to discuss Sire Evaluation, Sire and Dam Selection, Individual Cow Recordkeeping, Controlled Breeding Season, and Cow-Calf Nutrition.

Gary Knutt, with the Texas Beef Council, will explain the new beef checkoff and its advertising campaign.

Both Dr. Adams and Mr. Knutt will be available for questions.

Program will begin at 7:00 p.m. today at the Matador Senior Citizens Building.

With all the problems the state has, it appears we should be having night sessions; however, we are off to the slowest start I have witnessed since 1979.

The projected $5.8 billion deficit is high on the priority list. Prison reform and all the billions it will cost is probably next in priority. And last is the proposed Tort Reform (insurance crisis). After Governor Clements proposes his budget, I look for around-the-clock activity.

I was pleased with my committee appointments. The committees are Chairman, Budget and Oversight for the County Affairs Committee, member of the Appropriations Committee, and a member of the House Administrations Committee. All these were committees I requested.

The House Administrations Committee is a new committee to me. The committee controls the budgets of the members of the House and the employees. The plum in the appointments is the Appropriations Committee.

I have several local bills being drafted. One involves a Water District in Collingsworth County. Another will affect the method of electing a five-member District Hospital Board for Hall County. There are others on the drawing board.

I will soon file a statewide bill that will prohibit any legislation on the subject of income or corporation tax unless it is approved by the voters in a statewide referendum. This will give the citizens of the state the last say on this important topic. There is no chance that any bill will make it out of the Legislature on the subject of enacting an income or corporation tax today, but my bill will give protection against the Legislature passing anything on this subject in the future without the voters' approval. The polls show 93% of Texans are opposed to an income tax.

LONGING

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

To every child there comes a time when they begin to wonder . . . Where did I come from? Who made the trees? Who made the mountains?

EVERYONE has a desire to know their creator.

"O GOD, thou art my God;

early will I seek thee: my soul

thirsteth for thee . . ."

This longing for knowledge of God should be satisfied at an early age.

"Train up a child in the way

he should go: and when he is old,

he will not depart from it."

Plan NOW to attend church with your family.
