SAGERTON SCHOOL WINS PRIZE AT COUNTY FAIR

Sagerton school won second prize for a community school booth at the Haskell County Fair. The booth was purely and solely the work of the school under the direction of Prof. O. K. Davis, the efficient principal of the Sagerton School. The prize money of $50 will be used for playground and athletic equipment. The school children are enthusiastic over the results of their first venture in exhibition work and are already making plans to carry off first prize at the 1927 fair.

LYCEUM NUMBER MONDAY NIGHT

McDonald Birch, Magician and Entertainer, will be the next attraction of the local lyceum course which will appear here on the evening of Monday October 25, at the High School auditorium.

This is the largest one-man magic show on the Lyceum platform, as he carries elaborate stage-settings and paraphernalia for the accomplishment of his many illusions. During his performance, he keeps up a running fire of clean, wholesome chatter, and his audience is in a state of continuous laughter all through the entertainment.

The Free Press of Detroit carried the following article concerning Birch, after a recent appearance there. "McDonald Birch, the magician, entertained the large audience in a way that certainly pleased all by keeping them guessing every minute. Mr. Birch not only mystified the audience with his bewildering tricks but kept all in a continuous roar from start to finish with his clever chatter. He had a very novel opening producing several large bouquets apparently from space. The performance concluded with several tricks with white rats, causing them to disappear and re-appear at different places on the stage. We are wondering how one man packs and unpacks this huge amount of paraphernalia each night, besides giving the performance."

WORTHAM SHOWS HERE NEXT WEEK

The Wortham Shows, the largest carnival company in the South, will be in Haskell all next week under the auspices of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department. Mr. Burr W. Gordon, contracting agent for the company, was in Haskell Monday and Tuesday completing arrangements as to booking location and other matters.

The carnival will be located in Fair Park, two blocks southeast from the square, where adequate space and lighting facilities could be had. No admission to the Park will be charged.

This is the same company who furnished the attractions at the West Texas Fair at Abilene, and who are showing in Stamford this week. They advertise twelve shows and six big rides, together with a number of the usual novelty attractions.

Gather Cotton For Neighbor Who Is Confined By Illness

Last Sunday night it was decided at the Sweet Home church that a crowd of people would meet at Nolan Bristow's and pick cotton for him on Wednesday, due to the fact that he is confined to his bed with typhoid fever. Quite a number met with their cotton sacks ready to pick but they only picked a short while the rain soon stopped it. Regardless of this the people showed a remarkable spirit and agreed upon another day to go back.

Heavy Rain at Sayles and Center Point.

The Center Point and Sayles communities were visited with a big rain fall last week beginning on Tuesday night and lasting till Friday. This rain did lots of damage to the fields of open cotton, but has helped to put a good season in the ground for another year.

Mr. C. E. Bland of Sayles lost his Collier dog last week. He had been ill several days with sore mouth and C. E. did everything he could to save his life, but to no good.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Patterson are the proud parents of a fine boy born October 12.

These eventualities will depend on the actual return of the cotton and thus stimulate price increases. The price of cotton that is held off from the working of these factors

Heavy Rain Damages Cotton Crop In The Sweet Home Section

Quite a great deal of cotton has been lost in the Sweet Home Community due to the recent heavy rains. Much of the cotton in the river cotton fields is still under water as a result of the heavy rise that came down the river Friday night.

NEW CITY HALL AND FIRE STATION AS IT WILL LOOK WHEN COMPLETED

Cotton Pickers Are Badly Needed In Midway Section

Cotton pickers are still needed in the Midway community. Some of the farmers have been able to get pickers but others have not. A good deal of the cotton is still in the fields waiting for more pickers, but we hope to get enough pickers to gather it before it wastes in the fields.

SHIPMENT OF GILTS TO BE DELAYED

The carload of thorough-bred gilts for Haskell County farmers, as arranged for by Chairman R. C. Couch of the Rural Activities Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, will not be ordered out from Sioux City, Iowa, for the present, according to information from Col. C. C. French, of the Fort Worth Stock Yards Co., because of cholera showing up in sections of Iowa at this time. When the condition warrants ordering out the gilts ordered due notice will be given so that everybody interested can be on hands and complete arrangements to handle their orders. Chairman Couch states it is not necessary that the cholera infested district should cause alarm in all the hog raising and shipping points in Iowa, of course but it was thought best to wait and be sure rather than risk importing infected hogs into the county or the state. When the carload is ordered out every precaution will be taken by the Federal Government and State Agencies to assure healthy immunized and inspected stock being sent out. Those undecided and those who have not yet completed arrangements for their stock should see Mr. Couch or Mr. Patterson as soon as convenient so as to avoid any further delay in having the shipment move out when considered proper.

Passengers and baggage are being transferred by truck across the wagon bridge paralleling the railway bridge on State Highway No. 107. The wagon bridge on State Highway No. 107, eight miles down the river and three miles west of Rule is also out of commission.

Rail service over the Orient Railway also is hampered by the washing out of its bridge on the Brazos north of Knox City due to the recent grading, just prior to the recent heavy rains.

REAL MERCHANTS

All the real merchants in the country are not located in the big cities. A recent survey of big stores in small towns discloses some surprising facts, a few of which are quoted:

Garver Brothers' store in Strasburg, Ohio, 1,000 population, does an annual business of a million dollars. The Outlaw concern at Winner, S. D., 3,000 population, sells $850,000 worth of goods a year. A department store at Lynden, Washington, with 1,200 people, does $750,000 yearly. The B. & O. store at Temple, Oklahoma, with barely 1,000 people, does $735,000 annually. Fred Mann's store at Devil's Lake, N. D., 1,300 population sells $500,000 worth of merchandise a year.

How do they do it? They do it through the same business policies and methods that have won success for retailers in the largest cities of America. They keep good stocks, give their customers real service, and THEY ADVERTISE CONSISTENTLY AND ADEQUATELY IN THEIR LOCAL NEWSPAPERS.

WHOSE ADVERTISING BILLS DO YOU PAY?

The merchant who does not advertise pays the advertising bill for the one who does.

Every merchant in business pays for advertising whether he uses it or not. If a competitor's advertising takes any business away from him, the profit he would have made on the lost sale is what his competitor's advertising cost him.

You have perhaps wondered how some stores can afford to spend such enormous sums for advertising. That is easy to fathom. Their competitors, who do not advertise, and whose business they take, pay for their advertising.

Say the Jones family is a customer of yours. They have sixty dollars they intend to spend with you. They read the advertising of your competitor and are induced to spend their sixty dollars with him instead of spending it with you. The store makes twenty per cent, or twelve dollars, on the sale. They deduct we will say, the one dollar advertising cost and have eleven dollars profit left. The advertising has cost them nothing. They got back its cost and had eleven dollars profit they would not have had only for their advertising.

Who paid for this advertising? Did the advertiser pay? No. He got the cost back and profit besides.

Did the purchaser pay? No. He paid only the regular price.

Then who did pay? The merchant who did not advertise paid for his competitor's advertising. He not only paid for the other fellow's advertising but he paid out of his cash drawer the profit his competitor made on the sale. The merchant who does not advertise pays the advertising bill for the one who does. He pays in loss of sale and loss of profits.

The merchant who loses business through not advertising has such high overhead and unit sale cost that he cannot possibly sell goods as cheaply as the store that increases its sales and reduces its cost with advertising.

OIL CALLS THE KILOWATT

The estimated monthly production of oil in the field embracing the counties of Shackelford and Callahan and the northern portion of Coleman and Brown counties, is 800,000 barrels.

Thirty-five per cent of this production or approximately 280,000 barrels, is pumped by electricity furnished over the lines of this company. There are 750 wells in this field equipped with electricity driven pumps. And in addition electricity is driving numerous pipe line pumping stations, machinery in gasoline plants, carbon black plants, and gas compressor stations, is driving two drilling rigs at this time and is furnishing light throughout the field.

Here is a striking example of the diverse usage of electricity in industry—and that too, in an industry where fuel (one of the major items of expense in power production) is extremely cheap. In fields where unlimited quantities of natural gas are available at virtually no expense electricity produced at generating stations many miles away comes in to compete on an equal footing and holds its own.

No source of power known to industry is so convenient, so flexible, so safe, so sure, so economical as electricity. The preeminence of American industry is predicted on this modern miracle. Electrical power is essential to its continued growth and prosperity.

That is why this company knows that it must, without fail, always be ready to furnish unlimited quantities and at reasonable rates. It must do this if it is to fulfill its duty in furthering the growth of the industries of West Texas.

And it is doing that.

GOOD STORIES TOLD BY BRITISH JURIST

Lord Coleridge Relates In Interesting Happenings.

Lord Coleridge, a veteran British jurist, tells quaint tales of his experiences. A well-known counsel was cross-examined by a witness who was giving evidence of having received from the blow on the head which made him sick.

"Were you really sick?" asked counsel. "No, I did not only feel sick," the witness said. "Oh, no," said the barrister, pointing to the counsel for the other side. "My learned friend is sick with me—very sick; but I do not apprehend that he will throw up his brief."

The story is told by Lord Coleridge in "The Remembrance," his entertaining book of reminiscences. Coleridge, of course, was for some years a judge of the high court and his father and grandfather were judges. It is only to be expected, therefore, that many of his stories would concern the law. Here is another example:

Most people have a rooted objection to serving on juries, and any excuse to escape the duty is welcomed. One man, a victim to gout, was forbidden by his doctor to touch port. "How would it affect me?" asked the man. "It would bring on an attack of gout," said the medical man. "Here tonight, then," said the man, eagerly, "and we'll open a bottle and make a night of it. I'm summoned on a jury tomorrow, and you give me a certificate for leave of absence."

A barrister, while playing golf, lost his ball. He was upset about it because, he said, his wife had given it to him. A search party of caddies was organized. "I wouldn't have lost anything," the barrister said to himself, then, after a pause, "It's the red egg I've had made."

Lord Selfridge quotes an amusing story which was written to an Irish friend some years ago, when the English was experiencing a good deal of trouble over evictions. "Honourable," ran the letter, "I appeal to the justice. I am the gurl which took a policeman's head with a mallet. A subscription was got up for me. But they gave the money to Bidney Maloney, who only threw hot water on a balliff!"

The author also tells an amusing anecdote of Lord Sterndale, a former master of the rolls, who went for a holiday on the Riviera. Some time after he received a letter, which had previously been sent to Lord Devonport by mistake. It appeared that the bank authorities had sent the letter to Lord Devonport because he had been food controller during part of the war.

Unseen Sources of Long Life

The basic sources of automobile value are not always apparent to the eye.
A motor car, like a house, may LOOK a great deal more substantial than it really is.
Because of this difficulty, more and more thousands are turning to Dodge Brothers product for insurance against disappointment.
The years have proved, and each year proves anew, that Dodge Brothers are as deeply concerned with the UNSEEN goodness of their motor car as with the seen.
The mileage it will deliver, the safety it will provide, the expense and trouble it will save the owner over a period of years, are quite as important to Dodge Brothers as the more obvious details of equipment and style.

Indigestion bad spells relieved

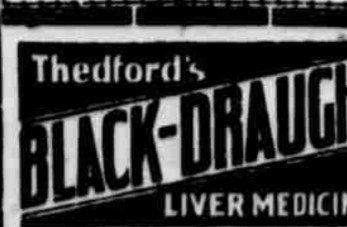

"NOTHING can take the place of Theford's Black-Draught with us because we have never found anything at once so mild and so effective," says Mrs. Hugh Nichols, R. F. D. 4, Princeton, Ky.

"When the children have spells of indigestion and upset stomachs, I always straighten them out with a dose or two of Black-Draught."

"Several times I have suffered with bad spells of indigestion myself and found I would soon get relief if I took a course of Black-Draught. I was troubled with a bad accumulation of gas and severe pains across my stomach and lower bowels. Now when I feel a spell of this kind coming on, I head it off by taking Black-Draught—a dose every night for a few nights will prevent the trouble and save me much pain and suffering."

"My whole family uses Black-Draught for biliousness and constipation."

"It is a splendid medicine." Sold everywhere, 25 cents.

CONCERNING THE PRICE OF THE AMERICAN COTTON CROP

The following article is reproduced from the "Texas Ginner" at the request of one of our Haskell county's best cotton farmers. While the American cotton crop was in the making last year a severe drought...

custom and practices of handling the cotton farmer are all wrong and out of date. What he needs is not sympathy but real help.

What does Europe or even the Yankees care about the cost of producing cotton? They are only concerned in what cotton costs them.

Knock off all the interest he pays the bank, let the merchant sell him supplies at cost, run the oil mills for him at actual cost and make the ginner gin his cotton free...

Ginners would be doing their customers a great favor if they would use their influence toward discouraging them from gathering the dog tails.

Mr. C. L. Harper of Marylene has been assigned the agents place at Sager-ton to succeed Mr. C. O. Thomas...

Mr. Thomas has proven a very efficient and courteous agent during his several years stay at Sager-ton and the people of that place regret to lose him...

Mr. Harper the incoming agent is a Haskell Co. boy having been reared near O'Brien and secured his early railroad training in the station there.

Bro. V. W. Tatnm from Weinert will preach at Rose Chapel the first Sunday in November, on Sunday morning at eleven and Sunday night.

And the sad part of it all is, he knows it as well as any one; yet will persist in doing a thing that is ruining him and every other business and enterprise in the Southland.

Really, the Government, banker, merchant, oil miller and ginner are indirectly to blame for the cotton farmer's plight. It would be the making of the cotton farmer if the Government would make a law taxing heavily every acre of cotton more than the planter can cultivate himself.

The oil miller to serve his own interest as well as those of the farmer and the South in general, should penalize low grade cotton seed and place a premium on prime seed until it becomes unprofitable to the farmer for him to sell any but prime seed.

Instead of charging a fee in sympathy with the price of dirty low-grade cotton and bales, certainly should charge a fee sufficient to take care of the extra cost of the additional necessary machinery and extra wear and tear.

And it prevents dilution of crankcase oil.

ISN'T IT TIME TO STOP BURNING UP OUR DOLLARS

Isn't it time to stop burning up our dollars, and our people?" asks J. J. Timmins, Secretary to the State Insurance Commission, and he adds.

The national fire loss now exceeds half a billion dollars-half of this country's pre-war debt and 15,000 lives annually.

Fifteen thousand men, women and children burn to death every year. Nearly half the number of our men killed in action during the World War.

No one would send his children to a battlefield, yet hundreds of thousands of parents let children spend their days in unsafe schools. Today there will be five school house fires tomorrow, five more.

Some where a hotel catches on fire every two hours. Every three minutes throughout the year someone's home bursts into flames. Your chances of being burned to death are twice those of being killed by a train.

The largest factor in reducing the cost of fire insurance is the reduction in fire waste.

Upon the shoulders of every person rests a tremendous responsibility, that of guarding against the possibility of fire every single moment.

Let everybody, begin today, and watch the fire hazards about the home the office and place of business and save dollars and save lives.

Haskell can reduce the Fire Insurance key rate by being careful, thoughtful and generally watchful, stated manager Clifford of the Board of City Development, and it is up to each citizen to lend a hand in this prevention and protection. There are so many causes for fires no specific program or method of prevention can be applied.

The man, and the use of matches by children, all lends a hand in fire hazard, as does the many other causes for losses by fire, he stated. Everybody be on guard and prevent fires, that's the solution, he said.

At Gadsden Alabama, a one-armed mayor fined a one-legged man for striking a one-eyed police chief. The trial was a one-sided affair.

Anson 7 Haskell 0

Anson received the surprise of their lives when Haskell held them to a lonely touchdown. The touch down came in the last four minutes of play when Banks pass was intercepted by Baker who raced 50 yards for a touchdown. The ball was kept in Haskell territory the 1st quarter but in every other quarter Haskell out played them in every department of the game. The rain before the game made it impossible for the ground gainers. We were outweighed 15 pounds to the man Anson had the ball on our 1 yard line and our 2 yard line twice but the ball went over on downs. Our Armistice day program will be to march right over to Stamford and get revenge for last years defeat. Our slogan will be "Beat Stamford" Then we have another chance at Anson. In the Kitchen with 6 Famous Cooks

NOVEL MEXICAN DISHES Pacific Coast Expert Tells How to Prepare Them

(Editor's Note: This is one of an unusual cooking series contributed to this paper by six famous cooks. Cut it out and paste in your cook book.)

Enchiladas, picadillo, Spanish rice, beans a la Ayre, and refritos!

Those words conjure up pictures of most palatable and spicy dishes to the Spaniard. And many an American has fallen for their tempting tooth-someness.

Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, home economics director, Los Angeles, and author of several cook books, was taught how to make these dishes by a Mexican lady.

Enchiladas
Mrs. Vaughn gives the following directions for making enchiladas. The gravy may be made the day before. Its ingredients are: 4 ounces chili peppers, 1 1/2 pounds tomatoes, 2 slices hard toast, 1/2 onion, 1 pinch each of clove, thyme, pepper, sugar, and salt.

Open peppers, and if it is not desired very hot, remove veins and seeds. Soak in boiling water about 10 minutes. Skin tomatoes by holding over flame. Put toast and onion through food chopper and then strain all the ingredients in order to make a smooth gravy. Melt two tablespoons shortening in frying pan, add gravy, and simmer slowly until smooth and thick.

Filling for Enchiladas (Picadillo)
1 pound pork
1 tablespoon shortening
1 teaspoon chopped onion
Clove of garlic (chopped)
1/2 cup chili sauce
1 tablespoon chopped green olives
1 tablespoon chopped, blanched almonds
1 tablespoon raisins (chopped)
2 teaspoon vinegar
1 pinch salt
1 pinch sugar
1 teaspoon olive oil
Boil pork until tender, then chop fine. Melt shortening and fry pork until brown. Add onion, garlic, and chili sauce, and fry for three minutes. Add olives, almonds, and raisins, and cook two or more minutes. Just before removing add vinegar, salt, sugar and olive oil.

Make Tortillas, Too
1 quart white flour
1 cup and 2 tablespoons salt
Enough water or milk to make dough sufficiently thick to roll out like biscuit.
Divide into balls size of turkey egg and pat between the hands until thin and round and cook on top of the stove without grease. After frying, dip in hot gravy, place on plate, and place 3/4 tablespoons of filling in center. Roll tortilla loosely and garnish with gravy, grated cheese sliced onion that has been soaked in salt water a few minutes, a green olive, blanched almond, radish, and a sprig of parsley.

Spanish Rice
1 cup rice
1 tablespoon shortening
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1/2 cup tomato sauce
1 quart boiling water
Pepper and salt to taste
Melt the shortening, add the onion, and partially cook, not allowing to brown. Add to rice and fry until brown. Add tomato sauce a little at a time, allowing each portion to almost cook dry before adding more. Add the boiling water. Do not stir, and allow to simmer slowly until done. If it is necessary to add more water, be sure it is boiling. Do not stir. Requires about 1 1/2 hours of cooking.

Delicious String Beans
Here's a new way to prepare string beans—a la Ayre. Use 1 1/2 pounds string beans of green beans, 2 eggs and 2 teaspoons cornstarch. Cook string beans until tender. Separate into bundles of eight or ten. Make batter by beating whites of eggs until stiff. Add slightly beaten yolks. Continue to beat until cornstarch is dissolved. Dip beans on a large teaspoon. Dip in batter, working batter around the beans with the spoon. Fry in hot fat until brown on all sides. Serve with the following sauce:
1 teaspoon shortening
1 teaspoon garlic
1 teaspoon chopped onion
1 small tomato
1 teaspoon cornstarch, salt, pepper, and sugar
Melt shortening in frying pan and cook for a few minutes. Add the tomato chopped fine, and cook until almost dry. Add cornstarch and enough water to make a smooth sauce. Add salt and pepper.

"Pink Beans," Too
"Pink beans" (kidney beans) are very filling. Their Mexican name is "refritos." Take one pound of them, 2 teaspoons salt, 4 tablespoons fat, 2 ounces of cheese, and 2 small Mexican sausages.
Wash beans well, and cook with enough water to cover well. Boil about 2 hours. When adding more water be sure to add cold. When beans begin to get soft add the salt. When nearly and tender, drain juice from them, setting juice to one side.
Melt fat in frying pan. Add cheese and skinned, chopped sausages. Fry one minute, then remove to dish temporarily. In the same frying pan pour beans and fry for three minutes. Mash, add the cheese and sausages, juice from beans and mix thoroughly.
"You will find these dishes very appetizing," Mrs. Vaughn says.

197 Dishes perfectly cooked

What does this mean to you?

Six national cooking experts cooked 197 dishes on the Perfection Stove to test its all-around cooking ability. Every dish was deliciously done, and the six famous cooks were delighted with the Perfection's performance. The test convinced them, they enthusiastically reported, that the Perfection is a convenient, safe, dependable, economical, and efficient stove.

What does this test mean to you? It means that when you use a Perfection—whether you cook one dish or 197—good cooking results are certain. This is the word of cooking experts who tested Perfections under all conditions.
